regarding the water overflowing in water tower. Two of Miss Greenshield's poplar trees had been broken by the frozen water. Mr. Daynard asked that an overflow pipe be attached to the tower similar to that in Cobourg.

The Chairman had explained that this overflowing had occurred on several occasions during the winter and the engineer must be more careful. However the Secretary said instructions had been given Mr. Trew not to fill tank to within 18 in. of the top until further orders.

It was further reported that the water tower needed paint badly, that the little filterer had been cleaned, but that the two cement wells from the filterer needed cleaning. This was ordered to be done. It was further reported that Lake Ontario had risen a foot, that we had now plenty of water and no trouble in starting our pumps.

A general conversation ensued on getting money over and above the ordinary revenue to make needful improvements and extensions and it was thought this was a favourable time to approach the Town Council on this matter, as well as agreeing on a certain figure at which the Commissioners might take over the system and so be able to show our net earnings from year to year.

Meeting adjourned on motion of Mr. Pipher.

THE HOME BEAUTIFUL

Its possession dear to the heart of every housewife in the land, but in matters decorative, it is well to secure the services of a guide of experience. Such service we offer you without cost, through the medium of our decorative department. We will be pleased to see you at our store, and although our premises are small, you will find something there in wall paper and paint that you never saw before. Carruthers, the paint man.

WESLEYVILLE.

If we cannot begin our spring's work, we can write a few thoughts from our enterprising burgh for the Guide.

The Maple Syrup and apple pie social in the church was a success. One important feature of the program was the presentation of Mrs. Thos. Nicholls with a Life Membership Certificate of the Woman's Missionary Society, accompanied by an address which showed the high esteem in which she and her family are held in the neighborhood. Mrs. Nicholls was completely taken by surprise, but thanked the ladies in a few well chosen words for their token of appreciation.

The many friends of Miss Eva Nichols, will be pleased to welcome her home again, after a six month's visit at her uncle'e, Mr. Jabez Miller in Winnipeg. The stork has been visiting our neighborhood again, leaving a baby girl at the home of Mr. Bert Nichols and another at Mr. Cecil Carscadden's. We wonder when the next wedding is to be, -- looks as if there might be several.

'Nothing at all. I couldn't help wondering what it meant. You seemed perfectly in earnest, yet suck talk had the oddest sound on your lips-to me, I mean. Of course I thought of you as I used to know you.

'Naturally.' Peak was now in an attitude of repose, his legs crossed, thumb and forefinger stroking his chin. 'I couldn't very well turn aside to comment on my own mental history.'

Here again was the note of something like genial condescension. Buckland seemed sensible of it, and slightly raised his eyebrows.

'I am to understand that you have become strictly orthodox in matters of religious faith ?'

'The proot is,' replied Godwin, 'that I hope before long to take Orders.

Again there was silence, and again the sea-breath made its whispering in the pines. Warricombe, with a sudden gesture, pointed towards the sky.

'A shooting star — one of the brightest I ever saw!'

'I missed it,' said Peak just glancing in that direction.

The interruption enabled Buckland to move his chair ; in this new position he was somewhat further from Peak, and had a better view of his face.

4 should never have imagined you a clergyman,' he said, thoughtfully, 'but I can see that your mind has been developing powers in that direction .- Well, so be it! I can only hope you have found your true work in life.'

'But you doubt it ?'

'I can't say that I doubt it, as I can't understand you. To be sure, we have been parted for many years. In some respects I must seem much changed'-'Greatly changed,' Godwin put in

30 YEARS OF SUCCESS H. W. Mitchell, Phm. B., Offers a Remedy for Catarrh. The Medicine Costs Nothing if it Fails

When a medicine effects a successful treatment in a very large majority of cases, and when I offer offer that medicine on my own personal guarantes that it will cost the user nothing if it does not completely relieve catarrh, it is only reasonable that people should believe me, or at least put my claim to a practical test when I take all the risk. These are facts which I want the people to substantiate. I want them to try Rexall Mucu-Tone, a medicine prepared from a prescription of a physician with whom catarrh was a specialty, and who has a record of thirty years of enviable success to his credit.

I receive more good reports about Rexall Mucu-Tone than I do of all other catarrh remedies sold in my store, and if more people only knew what a thoroughly dependable remedy Rexall Mucu-Tone is, it would be the only catarrh remedy I would have any demand for.

Rexall Mucu-Tone is quickly absorbed and by its therapeutic effect tends to disinfect and cleanse the entire mucous membraneous tract, to destroy and remove the parasites which injure the membraneous tissues, to soothe the irritation and heal the soreness, stop the mucous discharge, build up strong, healthy tissue and relieve the blood and system of diseased matter. The bills are a poor imitation of the genuine article and would be easily detected by the quality of the paper upon which they have been photographed. It can readily be detected as counterfeit , even by sight and to feel the paper gives the game away at once. The bills passed had not been folded and from the appearance of the paper would not stand very rough usage.

ADDRESS AND PRESENTATION

A very pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Adamson, Bethel Grove, on Monday evening, March 27th, when the people of that place presented them with two handsome chairs. The presentation was made by Mr. Arthur Howard and Mr. Herbert Coates and the following address was read by Mr. Will Lightle :--Mr. and Mrs. Adamson,

DEAR FRIENDS,-Having learned of your intended departure from our neighborhood, we feel that we cannot allow you to leave us without in some way giving expression to our esteem for you. During your short stay with us you have won the friendship and good-will of all and, as members of our church and community you will be greatly missed, but our loss will be the gain of others. As a slight token we ask you to accept these chairs and pray that you may long be spared to use them. That God's choicest blessings may ever rest upon you and yours is the sincere wish of your many friends at Bethel Grove.

ARTHUR HOWARD, HERBERT COATES, WILL LIGHTLE. Mr. Adamson made a suitable reply thanking their many friends who had so kindly remembered them. After the presentation refreshments were served. The evening passed quickly in games, music,

He Admits a Misstatement in His Budget Speech.

ON RECIPROCITY DEBATE

Col. McLean Says He is a Free-Trader, But That That Policy Is Not Feasible at the Present Time-Hon. Mr. Foster Cannot See How Mistake In Budget Figures Occurred In Speech.

Ottawa, April 12 .- The reciprocity debate vesterday was highly enter-taining, if not instructive. M. Y. Mc-Lean provided some of the amuse-ment. Col Hughes provided some more. Mr. McLean proclaimed him-self an out-and-out free trader, and the colonel took him to task, describing his free trade harangue as a "lugubrious socialistic utterance." Before the reciprocity debate was resumed there were some interesting points raised.

Hon. George E. Foster acknowledged that there had been an error re-garding the figures he had used in his criticism of Mr. Fielding's budget speech. The customs figures for 1896 had been placed under the year 1910. He said the mistake was incompre-burgible to him and he had corrected hensible to him, and he had corrected the figures in the revised Hansard. In reply to Mr. Herron of Alberta, the Minister of Labor said Governmental action regarding the strike of miners there had been delayed un-til the meeting of the miners Thursday evening. He was hopeful that the operators and the miners would accept the appointment of a board of conciliation and investigation under the Industrial Disputes Act. Gerald T. White (North Renfrew), discussing the question of the issue of the coronation postage stamps, argued that the Government should encourage home talent, and that Cana-dian artists should be given a chance to compete for the design of the Cana-dian stamps. He suggested that the Postmaster-General should offer prizes for competition for a design. Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux replied that he had been made aware of the de-sire of the Imperial Government that Canada should adopt, as far as pos-sible, the imperial design. The de-sign had been received, but the Department had not yet passed upon it. It was not intended to issue a series of stamps, such as was done in the case of the Quebec tercentenary. The postal union was opposed to frequent changes in the design. However, the chief object of the new stamps was to represent as accurately as possible the features of the new King, and the American Bank Note Co. of Ottawa was quite able to cope with the situation. It was not necessary to of-fer prizes for a design. M. Y. McLean (South Huron), con-tinued the debate on the reciprocity tinued the debate on the reciprocity agreement. He said that the large majority of his constituents were in favor of the agreement. He declared himself a free trader, and said that free trade would be the best fiscal policy for Canada. He would raise revenue by the best system of direct taxation that could be devised. He was free to admit, however, that at the present time such a policy was the present time such a policy was not probable. As free trade was imnot probable. As free trade was im-possible at the present time, he advo-cated making a fiscal arrangement with any country that would do the same with Canada.

Mr. McLean and Col. Sam Hughes had a round over T. W. Crother's assertion that the preference was first offered to the whole world and not specially to the Mother Country. Mr. McLean quoted Mr. Fielding that the offer referred especially to Great Britain, and Col. Hughes quoted the same Minister in reply to Sir Charles Rockland Road (North End), St. John, N.B. She wrote on Oct. 16, 1909: "I wish to express my gratitude that I am living to-day, saved from the grave by Father Morriscy's No. 10 (Lung Tonic). This time last year I had pleuro-pneumo-nia and bronchitis, and had been given up to die, and had my lungs tapped in the City Hospital, and never expected to walk again; I was continually getting worse every day. I came home from the hospital, and everyone was watching fo me to die. I tried everything but there me to die. I tried everything but there seemed to be no cure for me.

"I began taking Father Morriscy's No. 10, and the second day I could eat without 10, and the second day I could eat without pain. I used 22 bottles of No. 10, as I was run down right into consumption, and for six months was just a shadow until I began to use it, and now I am in good health, and surprised most of my neighbors by gaining so quickly. I feel it my duty to publish it everywhere I can, as with all I can say I cannot recommend it too highly—it was a life saver to me, and I am very thankful to recommend it, as it is worth all it is said." This is pay day with the Crow's Nest Pass Co., the earnings for March being handed out to the men at both camps. Nearly $200,000 will be paid to the employes here and at Michel. Henry L Matthews Is on Trial For His Life.

True Bill Is Brought In and Trial Is Immediately Begun Before Justice Clute-Prisoner Looks Well After His Incarceration-Jury Is Sworn In and Evidence Is Being Taken For the Crown.

Cobourg, April 12 .- "Not guilty" was the answer made by Henry I. Matthews, jr., at the spring assizes hcro yesterday, when arraigned, charged with the murder of Josephine Brimacombe.

At 11.15 yesterday morning court resumed, Mr. Justice Clute presiding. At 11:30 the grand jury brought in a true bill in the Matthews' murder gase, and at 11:40 the prisoner, outwardly composed and seemingly confident, entered the box. Excepting that he is slightly pale, his' confine-ment since December has not told up-on him. His father, Capt. William Matthews, was present in the court. The room was crowded, great interest centering in the case, which is one of the most notable ever tried here. The Matthews' family is highly esteemed in East Northumberland and well known throughout the district. Matthews is a married man with a family. His mother died during his incarceration. The murdered girl seemingly bore a good name. The crime with which the prisoner, who is familiarly known among his associates as "Son" Matthews, is charged, occurred at the Bristol Hotel, Colborne, in December last. The murdered girl, a deaf mute, employed as a servant, was found dead in a room by the proprietor, George Tisdale, with marks on her throat, which led to the belief that she had been strangled.

The selection of a jury occupied a considerable length of time, a large number being objected to. In the final choice it was found that the majority are from Durham County. Grown Prosecutor Peter White of Pembroke stated the case for the Pembroke stated the case for the grown. Associated with him in the prosecution is W. F. Kerr, county crown attorney. The prisoner is de-fended by E. Gus Porter, K.C., M.P., Belleville; W. L. Payne, K.C., Col-borne, and F. M. Field, K.C., Co-bourg. It was decided to exclude all witnesses avanting the medical ar witnesses excepting the medical ex-perts and Constables Smith and Jar-

Witnesses called at the afternoon session were W. H. Smith, constable, Colborne; George Teasdale, proprie-tor of the Hotel Bristol, where the alleged murder took place; Irving T. Bradley, a merchant and a boarder at the hotel; and Don. Haynes, who hal been employed about the hotel for some time. Their evidence, large-ly corroborated that given at the pre-liminary investigation. A plan of the hotel was submitted by Mr. Smith the fort minner A blue print Smith, the first witness. A blue print of the premises was also brought in-to use. The pillowslip with a stain upon it, said to be vomit, and the clothing worn by Josephine Brima-combe at the time that she was found dead, were brought into court as exhibits.

INDICTMENT WAS ALTERED

Girl Who Killed Her Infant Pleads Guilty to Charge of Manslaughter and Sentence Is Passed - Her Counsel Thanks Judge For Leniency Shown-She Is Under Care of Salvation Army.

Barrie, April 12 .- In one hour and fifteen minutes from the time that Pearl Smith, trembling with emotion, entered the court-room, assisted by City Treasurer Price in connection with the sale of tax lots. Brantford City Council yesterday Mrs. Beeson of the Salvation Army and an officer of the law, charged with the murder of her infant, the case was closed and sentence passed. the appointment of a building in-spector and the imposition of a tax of $1 per $1,000 on all building per-She was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary. mits issued. Precisely at 4 p.m. Crown Prosecu-tor Frank Arnoldi addressed the jury, rehearsing the incidents connected with the case, from the time the girl left the Salvation Army Hospital in Toronto until the time of the inquest on Feb. 9. The first witness called by the crown was Mrs. Beeson, matron of the hos-pital, who stated the girl had come to the hospital, and, after staying three weeks, returned to Collingwood with her child. Witnesses also stated, in answer to a question by crown counsel, that the clothes shown her at the post mortem examination were the ones supplied by her when Pearl Smith was leaving the hospital. Ask-ed if there was any other way she could identify the child, she replied she could identify the child by marks on chin about the size of a pin. Gordon, a lad of 13, told of finding the body on Feb. 4 while going through the bush on his way to fish. The evidence of Dr. Alex. McFaul, the coroner at Collingwood, and Dr. McKay, who conducted the post-mortem examination, corroborated the evidence given at the inquest. Con-stable William Smith gave evidence as to the taking of the body to Trett's undertaking rooms. He stated he was directed to the spot by the boys Gordon and Shaw, and found the child lying under some trees in the woods, about ten feet from the path, covered with snow, with the right hand protruding from beneath.

At this point counsel for the pris-oner, with the consent of the crown prosecutor, asked that his lordship would change the indictment from that of murder to a charge of manslaughter, and in that event his client would change the plea of not guilty in the case of murder to guilty for the lesser charge. His lordship at once proceeded to change the indictment, as he considered the ends of justice would be as well served.

Would Search Private Citizens. Charlottetown, P.E.I., April 12.-A "temperance" delegation waited on "The crime of abandonment is not uncommon," said the judge. "This is the second case of this kind that has come up in this county during the past year. A girl that will live this kind of life must be punished, and it is necessary that you should be punfor medicinal, sacramental, or mech-anical purposes, also giving the auth-orities the right to search residences ished, not only for yourself, but as an example to the public. I must resuch liquors, proof of legal possession to fall on the possessor of the liquor, mind you that the court can sentence you to imprisonment for life on this charge, or for a shorter term," said the judge, "but I do not intend to give you a severe sentence in this out of the hands of druggists and vendors and placed in the hands of

CHARGE OF MANSLAUGHTER.

Owners of the Tiangle Waist Co. Are Indicted by the Grand Jury.

New York, April 12.—Isaac Harris and Max Blanck, owners of the Tri-angle Waist Co., were indicted yes-terday afternoon by the grand jury which is investigating the circum-stances of the Washington place fire of March 25, when 145 employes of the company lost their lives. The indictments, four in number, charge each man with manslaughter in the first and second degree. The maximum penalty for which is 20 and 10 years' imprisonment respectively. Harris and Blanck were arrested at their homes, were arraigned, and after entering pleas of not guilty, were re-leased under $25,000 bail. The indictments charge that the defendants are responsible for the deaths of Rosie Grasso and Margaret Schwartz, whose charred bodies were found on the ninth floor of the burned building. The Grasso girl was 16 years old, Margaret Schwartz was 22. The district attorney hopes to prove that the girls tried the door on the ninth floor in an effort to escape, but that it was locked. A charred piece of the door in question, with the bolt shot, was shown to the grand jury, as well as a part of the burned stairway. A few minutes afterwards the indictments were returned. Other indictments may follow.
