amount was on the 30th of March when Mr. Bouskil, an employee of the Electric Light Co., presented the bill. On Saturday Mr. Livingstone and his wife went to Oshawa to spend the week end. Mr. Livingstone returned on the four o'clock train, Monday afternoon, and at once Dr. Corbett a check for the $5.00, but in the meantime Dr. Corbett had issued a writ for $7.50 and at the same time swore out an attachment against Mr. Livingstone's goods. A scraper in Mr. Sculthorp's possession undergoing repairs was seized, and Dr. Corbett refused to release it. A week afterwards, however, the defendant, upon the advice of his solicitor, gave the scraper up.

Mr. Livingstone in his evidence stated that he sent Dr. Corbett a check for $5.00 on Monday, April 3rd, immediately upon his return from Oshawa. About seven o'clock that same night, the bailiff called upon him and presented a bill for $7.50 and costs amounting to $10.50. At the same time the bailiff seized his scraper and locked it up. Ten or fifteen days later the scraper was released. Mr. Livingstone explained that in his work as a railway contractor, it was very necessary to do a large credit business. At the time that this seizure occurred, he owed in Port Hope about $700, and the statement that Dr. Corbett had seized his plant became so common on the street that he was obliged to go to Toronto for money to settle the uneasiness. The Bank with which he was doing business also demanded better security. It had been a great inconvenience and source of annoyance to him, and $60 would not begin to pay him.

To Mr. Chisholm the plaintiff stated that he got a bill from Dr. Corbett about the end of January for $5 for breaking an electric light pole. He told the Dr. he thought the bill was a little high and the Dr. promised to look into it. He heard no more about it until the 30th of March when Mr. Bouskil presented the account with the electric light bill. He paid the account for light when presented and told Bouskil he would see the Dr. about the other. Two days later, Saturday, April 1st, he went to Oshawa and returned on Monday at 4 o'clock. He went direct to the camp and sent a check by a messenger to Dr. Corbett for the amount. Asked why he was so anxious to pay the account on Monday afternoon, Mr. Livingstone replied that he heard Dr. Corbett was a hard man to deal with and he had paid it to avoid any trouble. He had not heard anything about the attachment being issued at that time.

Bailiff Garbutt told of serving Mr. Livingstone and also of seizing the scraper. When he heard that Mr. Livingstone had paid $5.00 he asked Dr. Corbett if he would release the scraper but the Dr. refused until the full amount was paid.

Dr. Corbett stated that the account was sent to Livingstone on two occasions, one in January and another in March. Mr. Bouskil told him on Saturday that Livingstone had gone to Oshawa and this was his reason for issuing the attachment. The plaintiff had promised to come down on the 30th of March and pay the account but did not put in an appearance. Mr. Trenouth had also told him that Livingstone had gone to Oshawa. In the affidavit necessary for the issuing of the attachment Dr. Corbett swore that Livingstone was "about to leave" town. This affidavit was made on Monday, April 5th and Mr. White pointed out that in the Dr.'s own evidence he swore that Bouskil had told him on April 3rd that Livingstone had left.

Mr. Bouskil stated that Mrs. Livingstone told him on Thursday March 30th that they were going to Oshawa, and asked him to take the meter and they would pay the bill. He did so and the electric light bill was paid. He also presented an account for $5 for damage to an electric light pole and Mr. Livingstone promised to see the Dr. about it. On Saturday the Dr. asked him something about Livingstone and he told him he had gone to Oshawa. He had no reason to suspect that Livingstone would not return.

Mr. Trenouth said that Dr. Corbett asked him where Livingstone's camp was, and told him that Livingstone owed her something and he wanted to get after him.

Mr. Chisholm in his address to the jury stated that the plaintiff, Livingstone, admitted owing Dr. Corbett $5.00 but did not pay it until after suit was entered. Had he paid it before, all this trouble would have been avoided. However he left town without paying the account and Dr. Corbett or any of his creditors had a right to issue an attachment.

Mr. White stated that the plaintiff had been a resident of town for nearly a year and was engaged in a large contract on the C. N. R. He had purchased a lot of goods and paid out much money and this was the first time that proceedings had been taken against him in Port Hope or any other place. Mrs. Livingstone told Bouskill to come and collect the electric light account and was that not sufficient proof of their honesty. Dr. Corbett learned on Saturday that Livingstone had left town and on Monday he makes an affidavit that Livingstone is "about to leave." He told Treouth that he wanted to get after him. Is that not malicious enmity. Is that a treatment that a man should tender to a customer and an honorable citizen.

His honor in addressing the jury pointed out that the plaintiff admitted owing $5.00. The issuing of an attachment however, was a very serious matter and it was for the jury to decide if Dr. Corbett had sufficient reason for so doing.

There were three cases where an attachment could be taken out:

1st—If the defended has absconded from Ontario.

2nd—When a man moves his plant from one county to another with intent to defeat his creditors.

3rd—If a man keeps concealed to evade service of process.

Under the first it cannot be supposed for a moment that the plaintiff absconded from Ontario and if Dr. Corbett was satisfied that Livingstone had gone to Oshawa it was not sufficient reason for the issuing of the attachment.

The second clause that moving the plant to another county the jury can decide if there is anything to justify the issuing of an attachment under this.

According to the evidence Livingstone on Thursday promised to pay the $5.00 and he was surely entitled to a reasonable time to make the settlement. On Monday the attachment was issued and it was for the jury to say if the time allowed was reasonable.

The jury was out about twenty minutes when they returned a verdict in favor of Mr. Livingstone for the full amount of his claim $60 and costs.

F. H. Brown sued Joseph Lee for $3.52 and Wm. Smith for $0.23 with garnishees at the Standard Ideal. Judgment was given Mr. Brown in both cases.

Miss Eliza Moore vs. Wm. Tink $24.50, Standard Ideal Co. garnishee. Adjourned to the next court. Mr. White coustented that the garnishee money should be released.

Dr. R. A. Corbett vs James Livingstone for $7.50 for damage to an electric light pole. Mr. Chisholm, solicitor for Dr. Corbett, stated that in view of the other case his client would abandon the $2.50, and make this claim $5.00, which amount had already been paid by Mr. Livingstone.

BITTEN BY DYING DAUGHTER

New York, April 19th.—While writhing in the agony of hydrophobia Wednesday night, seven year old Susie Mandoline, of North Bergen, N. J., broke from her mother's grasp and sank her teeth into Mrs. Mandoline's cheek and eyebrow. The mother screamed in pain and the child fell back dead.

Mrs. Mandoline will be brought to the Pasteur Institute here for treatment. The child was one of ten bitten by a mad dog on January 3. She received the Pasteur treatment and until a week ago was apparently in good health.

YOU NEEDN'T DESPAIR

Here's an Offer That Should Interest Sufferers of Skin Irritation.

First of all I want to explain that the remedy I am about to tell you of carries my promise of money back for the mere asking to anyone not thoroughly pleased with its use. That should unquestionably establish the sincere faith I have in it.

Parasites or germs cause eczema, and eczema is probably the most prevalent cause of all skin ailments. To overcome them, the remedy must of necessity destroy or remove the parasite or germ before relief can be obtained.

Possessing remarkable antiseptic, germicidal, cleansing, soothing and healing power, the curative value of Rexall Eczema Ointment is very pronounced in the treatment of eczema and allied skin diseases, whether of the dry scaly sort, the weeping type, where there is a flow of ill-smelling excretion, or the intermediary kind, such as pimples, blotches, discoloration, ringworm or acne. It is very useful for treating bites, insect bites and wounds. It is ideal for the skin ailments peculiar to children.

Rexall Eczema Ointment is grayish white in color, has a pleasant odor, and is very cleanly for use. If you are a sufferer of skin irritations or eruptions in any form whatever, I urge you to try a box at my risk. At the mere hint of dissatisfaction, you may have your money back. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Remember, it is only sold at my store—The Rexall Store. H. W. Mitchell, Phm. B.

A TROUBLESOME MISGIVING

'This is astonishing! Peak, you are a terrible fellow! Heaven forbid that I should ever be at your mercy! Yes, you are quite right,' he continued despondently. 'But that was no real unfaithfulness. I don't quite know how to explain it. I did make love to poor Janet, and with the result that I have never since seen any of the family. My uncle, when he found I had drawn back, was very savage—naturally enough. Marcella and I never again went to Twybridge. I liked Janet; she was a good, kind girl. I believed just then that my love for Constance was hopeless; my mood impelled me to the conviction that the best thing I could do was to marry Janet and settle down to a peaceful domestic life. Then came that letter—it was from Constance herself. It meant nothing, yet it was enough to revive all my hopes. I rushed off—! How brutally I had behaved! Poor little Janet!'

He let his face fall upon his hands. 'Allow me an indiscreet question, said Peak, after a silence. 'Have you any founded hope of marrying Constance if she becomes a widow?' Christian started and looked up with wide eyes.

'Hope? Every hope! I have the absolute assurance of her love. 'I see.'

'But I mustn't mislead you,' pursued the other, hurriedly. 'Our relations are absolutely pure. I have only allowed myself to see her at very long intervals. Why should I not tell you? It was less than a year after her marriage; I found her alone in a room in a friend's house; her eyes were red with weeping. I couldn't help holding my hand to her. She took it, and held it for a moment, and looked at me steadily, and whispered my name—that was all. I knew then that she repented of her marriage—who can say what led her into it? I was poor, you know; perhaps—but in spite of all, she did love me. There has never since been anything like a scene of emotion between us—that her conscience couldn't allow. She is a noble-minded woman, and has done her duty. But if she is free—'

He quivered with passionate feeling. 'And you are content,' said Godwin drily, 'to have wasted ten years of your life for such a possibility?'

'Wasted!' Christian exclaimed. 'Come, come, Peak; why will you affect this wretched cynicism? Is it waste of years to have lived with the highest and purest ideal perpetually before one's mind? What can a man do better than, having found an admirable woman, to worship her henceforth, and defy every temptation that could lead him astray? I don't like to seem boastful, but I have lived purely and devotedly. And if the test endured to the end of my life, I could sustain it. Is the consciousness of my love nothing to Constance? has it not helped her?'

Such profound sincerity was astonishing to Peak. He did not admire it, for it seemed to him, in this case at all events, the fatal weakness of a character it was impossible not to love. Though he could not declare his doubts, he thought it more than probable that this Laura of the voiceless Petrarch was unworthy of such constancy, and that she had no intention whatever of rewarding it, even if the opportunity arrived. But this was the mere speculation of a pessimist; he might be altogether wrong, for he had never denied the existence of high virtue, in man or woman.

'There goes midnight!' he remarked, turning from the subject. 'You can't sleep, neither can I. Why shouldn't we walk into town?'

'By all means; on condition that you will come home with me, and spend to-morrow there.'

'Very well.'

They set forth, and with varied talk, often broken by long silences, made their way through sleeping suburbs to the dark valley of Thames.

There passed another month, during which Peak was neither seen nor heard of by his friends. One evening in October, as he sat studying at the British Museum, a friendly voice claimed his attention. He rose nervously and met the searching eye of Buckland Warricombe.

'I had it in mind to write to you,' said the latter. 'Since we parted down yonder I have been running about a good deal, with few days in town. Do you often read here?'

'Generally on Saturday afternoon.' Buckland glanced at the open volume, and caught a heading, 'Apologetic Theology.'

'Still at the works?'

'Yes; I shall be there till Christmas—no longer.'

'Are you by chance disengaged to-morrow? Could you dine with me? I shall be alone; perhaps you don't mind that? We could exchange views on "fate, freewill, foreknowledge absolute."'

"THE MAN ON THE BOX."

It is an old but true saying that all the world loves a lover, and a dramatic offering with a strong romantic love story is always a source of splendid entertainment to those who visit the theater. Such a play is "The Man on the Box," the comedy in which Mr. John Meehan is starring, and which will be presented at the Grand on Thursday evening, April 27.

The scenes of the play are located in Washington. The hero is a young lieutenant lately resigned from the United States Army, a dare devil kind of a fellow and a practical joker. In a spirit of fun he assumes the position of a coachman, hence the title of the play, "The Man on the Box."

The occupant of the vehicle is in truth the young man's sweetheart, but she is unaware of the identity of the coachman. Then he assists her from the carriage and kisses her several times, which (of course is very rude in a coachman, but that's the starting point of the fun. This provides the ground work of the humorous romance, and judging from what has been said of the comedy it is one of the most entertaining as well as amusing plays that has been offered to the public for several years. Probably more than 8,000,000 people have read Mr. McGrath's novel and should be familiar with the text of the play, as the dramatist is said to have adhered closely to the original plot. Seats on sale at G V Strong's.

Boy Scouts Give Big Exhibition in Toronto.

YOUNG HERO IS REWARDED

George Jackson of Dunnville, Who Saved a Boy From Drowning Gets a Medal at the Hands of the Lieutenant-Governor's Daughter—Remarkable Show of Results of Training is Given by Lads.

Toronto, April 22.—The boy scout movement has taken hold of the city of Toronto, or rather Toronto has taken hold of the boy scouts' movement. Last night about 2,000 enthusiastic citizens sat in Massey Hall while the many city troops gave a display of scout work. The subsidiary program made a most attractive shifting background to the display.

The carping military critic need no longer decry the lack of military training for the young.

In the boy scouts' movement is an organization that gives the best training that can be desired. The value of the thorough training in all military work demanded by the scout movement cannot be overrated. While a full display of the camp work, including signalling, single stick, single-lock, pontoon and double trestle bridge-building, semaphore drill, first aid, shadow training, tent pitching, rope bridge building, and look-out towers was taking place in the front of the stage, a subsidiary program consisting of reveille, parade, flag-raising, breakfast, hut-making, wireless telegraphy, dinner, bugling, friction fire, mat-making, telegraphy and evening meal was put on in the camp scene at the back.

Presentations were made to three boy scouts for bravery by Miss Gibson, daughter of Lieut.-Governor Gibson. George Jackson of Dunnville was presented with a bronze medal for rescuing one boy from drowning, and attempting the rescue of a second, almost losing his own life. A silver medal was given C. Richardson of Peterboro, who also saved a lad from drowning. Thomas Hobbs of Toronto, who assisted in saving a man from drowning in the Don, was given a scroll of honor.

Another Chinese Loan?

St. Petersburg, April 22.—The Novoe Vremya devotes its leading editorial article yesterday to the international loan of $50,000,000 to China. The article deals particularly with the attachment of Manchurian revenues and the appointment of a fraction of the loan to Manchurian enterprises. In connection with the declarations abroad that the loan will serve to guarantee the territorial integrity of China, the Novoe Vremya says that China at present has a deficit of 85,000,000 roubles (about $40,000,000) and that undoubtedly the loan will be swallowed up by pressing immediate needs and that a further loan will be inevitable.

It says that the French and British participants in the loan stipulate that no part of it shall be employed in military expenditures in Manchuria, and that as long as this stipulation is observed Russia has no particular objection to the loan.

Galt's Y.M.C.A. Campaign.

FIRST STEP PASSED

Reciprocity Bill Goes Through U. S. Lower House.

WANT FREER TRADE STILL

Coupled With a Request to President Taft to Take Further Steps in the Matter of Reciprocal Tariff the Democrats in the House of Representatives Send Measure On - All Had a Chance.

Washington, April 22.—President Taft's Canadian reciprocity agreement, supported by all but a handful of Democrats, and opposed by a majority of the Republicans, passed the House of Representatives early last evening by 265 to 89. With nearly 200 Democrats in control and their action endorsed by a large body of the Republicans, the bill to put the agreement in force was adopted with no amendments and in almost identical form in which it passed the House in the last session of the preceding Congress.

The bill seeks to put into effect the formal agreement reached between President Taft and the members of the Canadian Cabinet for a reduction of the tariff rates on many articles and free trade in many others across the Canadian border. Added to it by the Democratic leaders is a section which "authorizes and requests" President Taft to make further efforts to secure still freer trade relations with Canada, in the form of additional reciprocal relations.

The passage of the bill marked the close of a fight that had raged in the House for six days. During that time the safety of the measure was at no time threatened, but the Democratic and Republican leaders working for its passage conceded all the opportunity desired by its opponents for debate, and, following the same policy, amendments were admitted in the House yesterday for almost every section of the bill, and in each case they were rejected by an overwhelming vote given by the friends of the measure on both sides of the House, on the theory that any amendment would nullify it.

Ten Democrats voted against the bill on its passage, while 157 Democrats voted for it. As in the case when the bill passed at the preceding session of Congress, a majority of the Republicans were found against it, the party vote being 67 for and 73 opposed. Representative Berger of Wisconsin, the Socialist member, voted for it, and Representative Adkin of New York, who ranks as an Independent, voted against it.

Did All They Could.

Toronto, April 22.—Strips of sticking plaster upon the person of Raphael Gentile, an Italian, showed the correct map of the attack made upon it Saturday morning last, by Nicholo Ganzano and Teresa Maracotello, his woman, at their home, when he appeared in the Police Court yesterday morning to press charges of aggravated assault.

He said that the husband had struck him with a hammer, while the woman had beaten him with an axe, shot at him with a revolver, and sprinkled ashes upon him. The woman said that she had decorated him with ashes, but denied the rest. She said that clothed in three pairs of trousers, he was making ready to leave without paying his board. The husband said that he had come to the rescue of his wife. They will dwell together in the jail for 40 days.

Demand Their Cargo.

Kingston, April 22.—The schooner Ford cleared for the steamer John Sharples, wrecked off Gallou Islands, to demand her cargo of corn for Jas. Richardson & Sons, to whom it was consigned. On Wednesday the men on the wrecking job refused Capt. Daryeau permission to get the corn off until the vessel was released. Trouble is looked for if the second request is refused.

Accident to Survey Party?

Ottawa, April 22.—Census Commissioner Blue last night received the following wire from his son, Walter Blue, who is on a Government survey in the Temiskaming: "Saved everything and are all right." It is believed here that the wire refers to some accident in the north, but nothing is known of it in Ottawa.

Australia's Naval Plan.

London, April 22.—Sir Cyprian Bridge, interviewed re Australia's navy, says the scheme is ambitious and will give the Australian taxpayer the opportunity of realizing the financial burdens imposed on the Empire. The complement of men necessary is fifteen thousand, which for a country like Australia, with a small population, will mean considerable expense.

Farmer Burned Out.

Brockville, Ont., April 22.—Fire destroyed the residence of David Hodge, living a few miles out of Brockville, entailing a loss of over $300. He also lost his entire sugar-making plant. The barns were saved through the efforts of farmers in the neighborhood.

Monarch King Is Crowned.

London, April 22.—The Colonial Office requested the Earl Marshal to perform the office on coronation day at the minute of the crown being placed on the King's head, and that the King will be flanked to every part of the Empire.

Teach Moral Hygiene.

April 22.—Dr. Conboy, of the management committee of Education, presented a motion for the introduction of moral hygiene in the schools.

MARTIN TO THE FRONT.

Joseph Attacks Unionists In British House.

London, April 22.—In the Commons Thursday night Joe Martin, M.P., referring to reciprocity, said a savage attack was being made by members of the Opposition on Hon. James Bryce, and the Government because they would not bring pressure to bear on the United States and Canada not to enter into such a treaty. (Opposition cries of dissent, "withdraw").

Steel-Maitland asked for the ruling of the Speaker whether the member was justified in attributing to the members of the Opposition statements which had never been made by them which he challenged the member to prove. (Opposition cheers.) The Speaker said in any case this had nothing whatever to do with the motion.

Martin said the member for Leicester had devoted his speech almost entirely to the question of Imperial federation.

The Speaker said that was not so, as the greater part of the speech was directed to the resolution, and had not dealt with the question of imperial federation.

BRIEFS FROM THE WIRES.

Ten hotel licenses were cut off at Hamilton.

The Toronto Board of Trade will send a petition to Ottawa asking for improved Dominion Government buildings in that city.

Dr. B. C. Borden, who for many years was principal of Mount Allison Ladies College, Sackville, N.B., has been appointed president of the Mount Allison University, in succession to Dr. David Allison, who resigned a year ago.

Are Not Afraid, Says Roy.

Montreal, April 22.—"We are not afraid of anything like that. Dissensions are sure to arise over the decree among people of different denominations outside of the Roman Catholic Church, but you will find that after a while they will quiet down," declared Canon Roy, secretary to Archbishop Bruchet, regarding the resolution condemning the "ne temere" decree recently prepared and adopted by the general conference committee of the Methodist Church which is holding its sessions at Toronto.

When shown a copy of the resolution, Canon Roy merely smiled as he read the opening paragraphs.

"In the case of a decree like the 'ne temere,'" he said, "everybody cannot be pleased. But, as I said before we are not afraid of anything like that. They will all quiet down after a little while."

Couldn't Agree on Chairman.

Fernie, B.C., April 22.—The two members of the conciliation board, now being formed to enquire into the industrial dispute in this district, after meeting twice Thursday came to the conclusion late in the afternoon that it was not probable that they would agree on a third person to act as chairman, and notified Mr. Macniven, the representative of the Labor Department. Mr. Macniven at once wired the result to his chief officer at Ottawa.

May Be Open Sunday.

Hull, Que., April 22.—Hull moving picture theatres will be allowed to give Sunday performances in future. The long-delayed judgment in the case of the Provincial Government against the Hull moving picture theatres, to compel them to close on the Sabbath, was delivered in the Police Court yesterday by Magistrate Goyette, who decided in favor of the theatres and dismissed the case.

A Peculiar Fatality.

Three Rivers, Que., April 22.—C. E. Houle, aged 14 years, while looking at other boys playing baseball at the Christian Brothers' school Wednesday afternoon, was struck on the head with the ball. At the same time, in trying to avoid the ball, he also knocked his head against the wall of the school, and as a result he was injured so badly that he died Thursday night.

TOO EXTRAVAGANT?

George Taylor Criticizes Personal Expense Account.

SHARPE GETS IN WRONG

Member for North Ontario Takes Part in the Debate But Gets Mixed Over First Item and Sits Down—Sir Alan Aylesworth Resents Attitude of the Critic—He Lived Very Plainly While Abroad.

Ottawa, April 22.—Traveling expenses such as cab hire, Pullman cars, hotel bills and gratuities to waiters on the part of Ministers, Deputy Ministers and Departmental officials formed the chief subject of discussion in the House of Commons yesterday afternoon. Geo. Taylor (Leeds) took up a return recently tabled and in lacrymose tones inveighed against wanton expenditures.

"By what right," he demanded, "did these officials put their hands into the public chest and give tips to waiters?"

Mr. Taylor objected to private cars for the commissioners of the national transcontinental railway. He criticized the expenses of the Board of Railway Commissioners, and hinted at sundry items which might be classified as "incidentals."

Taking up the bulky return Mr. Taylor began to read Militia Department "300 just even; not $299, and out of this tips to waiters $225.28."

"Are the names of the persons tipped given?" naively asked Mr. Foster.

"No, no," replied Mr. Taylor, somewhat disconcerted by the interruption. Continuing Mr. Taylor read over the expenses of the Governor-General's and Privy Council office, $5,365; Hon. Charles Murphy, $500 tips; Department of Finance, $53 tips; Trade and Commerce Department, $183.03; Labor Department, $35.20; Railway Commission, expenses of car Acadia, $7.19; tips, $607.50.

The member for Leeds was particularly severe on the commissioners of the national transcontinental railway "traveling expenses," he snorted, "of $7,764." "These men are the pets of my right hon. friend the Prime Minister."

"Bate & Co., for stocking private car, $2,082," said Mr. Taylor, "and $1,500 of it for liquor," referring to a particular item as "$220 simply for lush."

"I wonder if my right hon. friend the Prime Minister will justify that to the farmers of the west?"

The Minister of Marine was the next victim. L. P. Brodeur, $4,823.28; cabs, $218; hotel bills, $676; Pullman cars, $95; tips, $100. Mr. Taylor then went on to show that the Minister and officials of the Marine Department had paid out in tips during the year something like $800. Sir Alan Aylesworth, for personal expenses, spent $2,245, and Hon. Wm. Paterson was at the bottom of the list with but $40 against his name. "There was nothing paid out for tips," said Mr. Taylor, amid laughter.

"He beats his way," came from a back bencher.

Sir Alan Aylesworth resented Mr. Taylor's remarks. For fifteen years before he had come into the House, he had been traveling at the instance of other people, and generally charged for what he had actually spent. When in London two summers ago, the period covered by the return, he had been absent from Ottawa 150 days, and during that time his expenses had been within the usual allowance granted to Departmental officials. "I certainly lived no differently when abroad on Government business than I do when abroad on my own pleasure," he remarked with some feeling.

Sam Sharpe (N. Ontario) continued the discussion and got badly mixed up over an item in the Department of the Interior for $45 respecting whisky cases. This was a nice situation, he suggested with some show of sarcasm, but Hon. Wm. Pugsley, in the absence of Hon. Mr. Oliver, directed the attention of Mr. Sharpe to the fact that this was for legal expenses in connection with certain prosecutions of persons who sold liquor in the dry belt on both sides of the transcontinental railway during construction.

Several of the members of the Government spoke briefly in explanation of the figures quoted by Mr. Taylor, and all announced their readiness to have all matters gone into thoroughly.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, referring to the total expenses quoted for the Minister of Trade and Commerce, pointed out that they applied to the international and trans-oceanic peregrinations of trade commissioners and inspectors. The actual expenses of the Minister and staff were moderate and economical.

The reciprocity debate was resumed and Messrs. Beauparlant (St. Hyacinthe) and Wright (Muskoche) and Dr. Chisholm (E. Huron) spoke.

Massacre at Fez?

Madrid, April 22.—The Government has received a telegram stating that a native has arrived at Teuan, who declares that the Moroccan rebels have stormed Fez and massacred the garrison, and that the sultan has taken refuge in the French consulate.

There is, however, no confirmation of the report obtainable here.

ASK SUPERANNUATION.

Civil Servants Wait on Minister of Finance.

Ottawa, April 22.—A deputation of civil servants from every part of the Dominion waited on the Minister of Finance yesterday morning, and asked for the abolition of the existing retiring fund and the introduction of a system of superannuation similar to that adopted by Canadian banks and insurance companies.

The Finance Minister promised favorable consideration. Officers were elected at the concluding session of the delegates from the civil service of Canada yesterday.

The new officers are: Dr. J. A. Smith of the Windsor custom house, re-elected president; G. Carpenter of the Montreal postoffice, vice-president; R. H. Coats of the Labor Department, Ottawa, secretary-treasurer; Hon. J. F. Whear of the Charlottetown postoffice, Hon. A. T. Dunn of the St. John, N.B., customs, N. Dyer of the Halifax postoffice, J. Z. Corbell of the Montreal excise office, R. Patching of the Interior Department at Ottawa, M. Sparks of the Toronto postoffice, W. F. Miller of the excise office at Hamilton, A. Brown of the Vancouver customs, and R. Holmes of the customs, executive committee.

The work for the ensuing year was mapped out, among the subjects with which the association will deal being the education of the public in favor of superannuation and the extension of the act of 1908.

No Action in Church Union.

Zurich, Oct. 22.—No action regarding church union was taken at yesterday's session of the Evangelical Conference. The matter was brought up when Rev. T. A. Moore, secretary of the Methodist General Conference was introduced to the meeting and spoke on the resolution passed by the Methodist body.

The conference decided to hold its next annual session at Campden, Ont., the third Thursday in April. Rev. A. Y. Haist resigned as president on account of illness. Rev. S. R. Knechtel was elected on the second ballot. The presiding elders were stationed as follows: Northwest district, Rev. L. H. Wagner; north district, Rev. J. C. Little; east district, Rev. S. R. Knechtel.

No Strap-Hangers.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 22.—Judge C. A. Willard of the Federal District Court yesterday denied the injunction applied for by the local street car company to restrain the City of Minneapolis from enforcing its recently-passed "strap-hanger" ordinance. The ordinance provides that street cars shall not take on passengers after all the seats are filled and others are standing equal to 25 per cent. of the seating capacity of the car.

The court refused the company's contention that the rule deprived the company of property without due process of law. He said the ordinance was not drastic enough, as it permitted crowding of cars when more than 300 feet apart.

Seeking Jail Farm Site.

Toronto, April 22.—Prospects are that Toronto will soon have a jail farm. There has been some delay in getting the scheme into operation because, until the recent legislation was secured, the city had no power to go outside of the city to appropriate land for the purpose. Now that this power has been granted, a site will be secured as soon as possible.

It is understood that there are several sites available. Ald. O'Neill, chairman of the property committee, and Property Commissioner Harris have looked over several, and are expected to make a recommendation to the property committee in the near future.

Railway for Hayti.

Cape Haytien, April 22.—The S. S. Sarnia arrived here yesterday with a party of civil engineers and construction equipment and transport mules, which will be used in building the railroad, a concession for which was recently given to an American syndicate, headed by James P. Macdonald of New York. According to the terms of the contract the syndicate secures large areas of public lands and the right to run a line of steamships between Cape Haytien and foreign ports. The Government gives the syndicate an interest in the fruit concessions of the island.

Tried to Burn Church.

Wyoming, Ont., April 22.—An attempt to burn the Methodist Church here was discovered at 12.30 yesterday morning. The wooden steps in front of the church were destroyed and the flames had spread to the building proper before they were extinguished. There is no clue as to who the guilty one is. A pile of oil-soaked waste was found near the wooden steps.

Missionaries for the West.

London, April 22.—A party of young English missionaries sent out by the Colonial Continental Church Society, sailed from Liverpool yesterday for Canada. The majority will find spheres of missionary labor among settlers in Saskatchewan and Manitoba. The party is the first of several to be sent out this spring and summer.

Over eight months for $1.00. The Christian Guardian will be sent to any address in Canada to a new subscriber to January 1st, 1912, for $1.00. It was never so good as now. Every Methodist in the Dominion should read it weekly. Address William Briggs, Wesley Buildings, Toronto, Ont. Subscriptions received at the GUIDE Office at the above rate.

GRAND TRUNK CLAIM.—Last week the Grand Trunk authorities were preparing for the erection of a station near the Ferry dock. They were ordered to stop work, as they were on town property. Work was stopped, but on Thursday the town authorities were served with a plan, claiming the rights of the railroad to the land, and they also applied for a permit to erect the building. We cannot say at present what action the town will take, but we cannot see any course other than to resist the encroachments of the G.T.R. upon the property of the town.

A most enjoyable time was spent in games of all descriptions and a sumptuous supper served. Leo was the recipient of many very handsome presents as a remembrance of his sixth anniversary.

WILL WAS TOO SIMPLE.—Miss Selma Gillard, of Cobourg, who died on November 19, 1910, left an estate of $24,493.97 to be divided among twenty-five legatees, fifteen of which were charities. A dispute has arisen as to the meaning of the will, and on Tuesday morning an application was made before Chief Justice Meredith for an order appointing parties to represent the different classes of litigants under the will to appear in Court on a motion for construing the will. "Will make no order for representation in a simple case of that kind," remarked the Chief Justice, and dismissed the application. The will, he thought, presented no difficulties which the Court need be asked to solve.
