Dr. Sproule Gets Angry Over the Six Tories Who Went Astray - Mr. Northrup Asks For a Commission to Investigate the Printing Department, But Is Told That the Work Has Been Done.

Ottawa, April 26 .- After another post-mortem into the voting of the six Conservatives for the Sealey amendment in which Dr. Sproule objected to The Glabe reported defend-ing himself, W. B. Northrup moved for an inquiry into the printing bu-

"incompetency, lack of frankness, lack of co-operation, drunkenness, moneylending, insubordination, forgery, deception and perjury" in it. Mr. Northrup's speech was practically made up of quotations from the Min-

Hon. Mr. Murphy in his reply char-acterized Mr. Northrup as a disap-pointed man who was disgruntled because he had failed to secure the leadership of his party. The vote showed a Government ma-

At the outset Mr. Northrup demand-ed to know if the Government was still determined, that under no cir-rumstances would they allow an inthe statistic replied that the Govern-ment had appointed a royal commission a few years ago to enquire into the civil service. An investigation would be granted if sufficient evidence was produced. Mr. Northrup asked if it would be sufficient if the following were proved: Incompetency, lack of frankness by officials, lack of the spirit of loyalty, that branches of the house of Shylock were operated in the bureau, laziness and insubordination, excessive drunk-enness, contracts let without competienness, contracts let without competi-lion or any record in writing, defec-live bookkeeping, dishonesty, decep-lion, forgery, perjury. Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied that if all these things were proved there would be no need of further evidence. Mr. Northrup then quoted exten-tively on the report of the Secretary of State to prove his contention that of State to prove his contention that all these things had been proved.

Hon. Charles Murphy in reply said there was no need for a further in-quiry into the affairs of the print-ing bureau. ASQUITH MERCILESS.

Amendments. London, April 26.—Monday's ses-sion of the House of Commons was again continued into the :mall hours of the morning. It was noticeable by reason of the Prime Minister-invoking the so-called "Kangaroo" closure, whereby whole pages of amendments to the Parliament bill for the cur-tailment of the powers of the House of Lords were skipped at the chair-man's discretion. man's discretion.

An important amendment proposing a joint session of the two Houses in cases of disagreement was opposed by Mr. Asquith, on the ground that such a plan would always give the House of Lords the last word in legislation, and in his opinion it would be impossible to devise a scheme which would not place the representa-tive body at the mercy of the second chamber.

This amendment and another pro-posing instead of a joint session, a conference of ten members from each House, were both rejected by large majorities.

After this, a number of amend-ments, selected by the chairman for the most part, proposing various modi-fications on the delaying powers of the House of Lords, were all rejected, af-ter the application of closure.

FREE FARM IMPLEMENTS

First Measure In the Democratic Scheme of Reform Receives Hard Treatment In the House of Representatives-Farmers' Needs Are Made Free But Opponents Pick Flaws In the Schedule.

Washington, April 26.-The Demo-cratic free list bill, characterized by the Republicans on the ways and means committee as a political sooth-ing syrup, was roughly handled in the House of Representatives yesterday afternoon by its political enemies on the Republican side. Mr. Underwood, Democratic chairman of the ways and means commit-tee, introduced it to the House in an hour's speech shortly after the session convened at noon. Then it was left to the mercies of Representative Mann of Illinois, leader of the Republican

Mr. Mann declared that the free list bill introduced by the Democrats as the first of their tariff measures was drawn inaccurately, indefinitely and with such general language that it might be stretched to include almost half of the imports on which the U.S. now collects tariff revenues.

The free list bill puts agricultural implements "of any kind and de-scription" on the free list. Mr. Mann expressed the belief that this could be stretched to include the free entry of saws. axes, forks, garden hose, hayor saws, axes, forks, garden hose, hay-knives and almost everything else that a tiller of the soil ever uses. He said the bill was so drawn that it would admit free the leather from which the farmers' shoes were made, but would exclude that from which his mich shoes more made. his wife's shoes were made. It put a premium on foreign labor, he said, by permitting these special kinds of lea-ther to come in free when they were ther to come in tree when they were partly made up. Mr. Gardner of Massachusetts at-tacked the measure and the Demo-cratic policy of promising to "reduce the cost of living without reducing wages paid in the United States." He essented that in putting attickes on asserted that in putting articles on the free list the Democrats had discriminated against the farmers and manufacturers from the northern states, while leaving protective duties on tobacco, sugar, rice, oranges and other articles produced in the south-

Messrs. Adair of Indiana, Russell of Missouri and Adamson of Georgia spoke in favor of the measure.

To Build New Railway.

Montreal, April 23.-A cable from N. Greenshields, K.C., states that a syndicate has been formed in Lon-don for the construction of a railway from the Saguenay River to Cape Charles Bay, on the east coast of Labrador, a point 650 miles from Quebec. Montreal people, including Rodolphe Forget, are interested in the enterprise, which will connect with the Quebec and Saguenay line, which M. J. O'Brien will build during the next 18 months to Murraw Bay, 90 miles from the ancient capital. Jim Hill had his eye on this route several years, but it remains for English and Canadian capitalists for English and Canadian capitalists to test the prac-ticability of the scheme. The pro-moters say that Cape Charles Bay is open all the year round, and from that port fast steamers will make Liverpool in 52 hours, or land mails in Chicago thirty hours before they could reach New York by any of the Indianapolis, April 26.-Detective Wm. J. Burns last night was served with a warrant, charging him with complicity of kidnapping of J. J. Mc-Namara, secretary and treasurer of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, said to be implicated in the Los An-geles Times' explosion. Three law-yers were arraigned yest: day on the same charge, and they spent two hours in jail because of delay in ob-taining bonds for them. They are Walter Drew and J. A. G. Badorf, of New York, counsel and assistant counsel for the National Erectors' As-sociation, and W. Joseph Ford, assist-ant district attorney of Los Angeles. Burns was arrested in a street as he was going to the Court of Justice of the Peace Manning to surrender himself. Constables had searched for him all day. He was released under $10,000 bond, to appear before the grand jury. said to be implicated in the Los An-

the best-known labor leaders in the the best-known labor leaders in the country, joined with Samuel Gompers here yesterday in denouncing the ar-rest of the McNamara brothers and McGonigal, as a plot against labor by capital. During the recent car strike at Philadelphia, he said, he ha' frustrated a plot to "plant" dyna-mite in his hotel room, and then blow up one of the transit companies' pow-er houses.

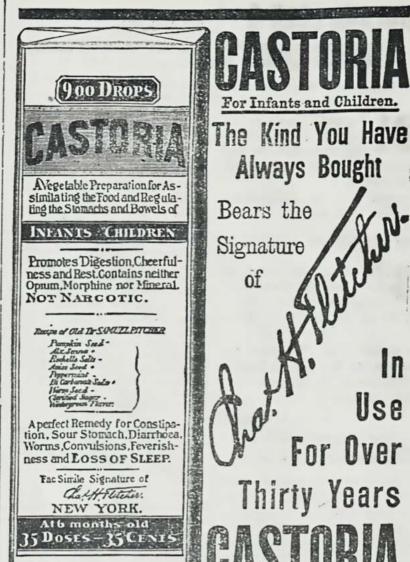

houses. "Knowing what they were willing to stoop to in my own case, is it not reasonable for me to believe," he said, that the men under arrest are the victims of a similar and more suc-cessful conspiracy. Capital will stoop to anything to retain its grip on the threats of the workers of this country. "I know Jim McNamara personally. I know him to be an honest, law-abiding citizen, and incapable of the outrage attributed to him by the enemies of labor. "It is not difficudt for capital to find thurs who will commit trimes that are later fastened on the shoul-ders of honest men. I till you these dynamitings that have been occurring all over the country during the past years are only a part of a plot that capital has framed, in a last desper-ate effort to crush labor unions. "But if money will buy tools it will all the plot that a set of the set of also hire able lawyers, and labor will see that the McNamaras and any others who may be arrested with them have the best talent in the coun-try to defend them."
