Hospital Meeting

Continued from Page 1. Mr. Bush remarked that an isolation Hospital would be required and the "young lady" who asked that question need not fear that there would be too much money subscribed. He recalled the last public meeting in which cold water had been thrown on the enterprise by a pessimistic citizen and then referred to the encouragement given to all by the quotation from Shakespeare given by Rev. Father O'Sullivan (which appears in the heading of this report.)

Father O'Sullivan repeated the quotation and expressed his gratification that its influence had been so good. He hoped that the Hospital would be built right, convenient and appropriate to all its uses.

Moved by Thos Long, seconded by E J W Burton,—That this meeting desires to express its appreciation of the splendid response made to the appeal of the Committee by the Port Hope Old Boys and Girls, who look back upon Port Hope as their home. They have given a noble answer to this appeal and it is in a large measure due to them that the Committee has been able to make so favorable a report and to accomplish its aim of raising $20,000.00

Rev Canon Daniel added his appreciation of the splendid work the storm-cloud swooped so low done by all, so that the point aimed at had not only been reached but passed. He had watched the raggedness steady rise of the thermometer with a great deal of satisfaction.

Col. Ward had met Mr. Todd, of Galt, who was a resident for some time since, who stated that Galt began their hospital enterprise with only $8,000; have raised $65,000 since and $25,000 is soon to be spent in improvements. No trouble is experienced in obtaining the money required.

Mr Garnett spoke of the objection of fencing part of the Park for Hospital purposes and was assured that it was not the intention to erect fences.

ANOTHER PLAN FOR CITY GOVERNMENT.

Lockport, New York, has a plan for city government, which, it claims, is an improvement on the commission of treating a city as a corporation system. It is based on tue principle system. The stockholders (the people) elect a board of five directors (City Council.) These directors, who are not expected to give their whole time to the city, get no pay. They are vested with complete legislative power, but have nothing to do with administration except that they elect the general manager-the city manager, as he is called. The manager need not be a citizen of the town. He may hail from anywhere in the country. He is to receive a large salary; he appoints every city officer; he has full power and resonsibility, but he may be removed by the council at any old time.

Lockport, as an exchange puts it, believes this is the way to get an absolutely competent service in running its affairs. It goes on the theory-plenty of evidence to support it, they say-that the comparatively small salaries paid under commission government will not attract trained ability, but that the best citizens will serve for the honor of the thing, when entirely relieved of administrative detail and asked only to meet occasionally for legisla-

PREMIER TO STAY

The Opposition Commences Its Work of Obstruction.

MR. BORDEN'S PROPOSALS

He Makes Three Propositions, But Sir Wilfrid Refuses to Be Dictated to and In View of Mr. Northrup's Remarks Thinks He Had Better Remain Where Fight Is Going on-Responsibility Fixed.

Ottawa, April 29.—The decks were cleared in the Commons yesterday afternoon for the impending endurance test between the majority and minority in Parliament. The terms of warfare were laid down, and the issue was clear-out as to where would lie the responsibility for preventing the attendance of the Prime Minister at the Imperial Conference and the coronation, and the holding up of the re-ciprocity agreement and the general business of the country, failing ac-ceptance of the Opposition's dictation as 'to what course the Government should pursue.

The Premier intimated that he would stay at home this summer. There are three courses which would permit the Prime Minister to attend the Imperial Conference if the present session of Parliament should not have come to a conclusion at the tage when it will be necessary for him to leave. He could proceed to the conference, leaving his col-leagues in charge of the business of

"In the second place he can bring the session to an end, leaving some of these very important matters un-finished and letting them stand over to another session. It has already been intimated to us that the Bank Act will not be pressed at the pres-ent session. If that is to stand over to another session there must be no particular research. particular reason why the proposals for closer trade relations with the S. should not also stand over until another session

"Then in the third place he can adjourn this session of Parliament for two or three months, or whatever length of time may be necessary. After the coronation and after the conference the session can be resumed.
"I desire to say now that for the purpose of facilitating public business we would be prepared to give an in-terim supply to such an extent as the public interest would demand in case the Prime Minister should see fit to follow that course.

"So far as reciprocity is concerned, I have already stated that we do not see eye to eye across the floor of the House. Our own attitude in regard to that is one of uncompromis-ing opposition."

Borden asked the Prime Min-

Mr. Borden asked the Frime Athister what his intentions were.
"I may say," replied the Premier,
"that I deem it my duty to attend the conference, not only because I have been invited, but because in the last conference in 1907 the permanency of imperial conferences was assured. It was decided that it should meet every four years, and be attended by the Prime Minister of Great Britain, the Colonial Secretary, the Prime Ministers of the self-governing Dominions, and such members of the Cabinets as should be selected. now over six weeks since I took my passage on the Virginian to sail on the 12th of May, and it is my inten-tion to sail on that vessel, unless prevented by public business. My first duty is to Canada, but I still hope that nothing will prevent my sailing on the 12th of May."

Mr. Borden said he concurred in the hope that the Premier might be able to attend the Imperial Conference. It was perfectly obvious that the pres ence of the Prime Minister of Canada was entirely necessary at the confer-

Sir Wilfrid Laurier replied that if it was not possible for him to attend the conference the fault would not be his. Mr. Borden had been kind enough, he said, "to make several suggestions which would allow me to go to the conference. He offered me three alternatives. The one thing that separates us, apparently, is the trade agreement with the United States. I may tell him that on this side we offer uncompromising support of the tariff agreement. What I have in mind which have in mind which may force me not to go on with my present plan of attending the conference is that I attending the conference is that I stated more than six weeks ago, when I obtained my passafie, it never occurred to me at the time that there would be any possibility of my not going; but, sir, since that time rumors have come to us which have been under about the corriders of this affeat about the cerridors of this House that the Opposition will not allow this measure to go through.

"By the rules which prevail in this House it is in the power of the Opposition to block legislation almost indefinitely."

After noting that Mr. Northrup had stated in New York that the Op-position would not allow the agreement to go through, the Premier con-

"If such be the temper of the Op-position, I think it will probably make it necessary for me to revise my de-termination to go to England and to remain in Canada."

Mr. Borden in reply said:
"The Prime Minister has alluded to the fact that he took his passage some six weeks ago and he intimated some surprise that the conditions to-day are not what he expected at that time would be. At least that was the im-pression I took from his remarks, and I do not desire to misquote him. If, in making that statement, he alludes to the debate which has been proceeding for some time on the proposed trade agreement with the U. S., then I would like to inform him that gen-tlemen on the other side of the House have been taking their turn on the debate, and have had their fair share in it. I venture the statement that as much time has been taken by Gov-ernment supporters as by gentlemen

"It would seem to me that the question which must present itself to the Prime Minister is whether or not our trade and other relations with the United States are more important in his mind than our trade and other relations with this Empire of which we form a part. I have made an offer to him which is as reasonable an of-fer, I think, as could be made by any man standing in my place under the circumstances as they exist to-day, and I have made to him a proposal under which he can attend the Imperial Conference and go on with his determination, if he persists in it, to force these reciprocity proposals through this House. "Under these circumstances, Mr. Speaker, I trust the Prime Minister will reconsider the intimation which he gave in the concluding portion of his remarks, and that Canada, at the approaching Imperial Conference and at the coronation as well, will be represented as it should, by the Prime Minister."

DEFLECTING LINE?

Canadian Northern Causes Excitement Near Brockville.

Brockville, April 29.—It is reported that the C.N.R. will not be built by way of Chaffey's Locks, owing to several engineering difficulties, and that the surveyors are now at Verona endeavoring to secure a line via either Newboro or Westport. Several farm-ers in the vicinity of Crosby and Forfar have cleared the right of way through their farms, and one farmer cut down a very valuable sugar bush over half a mile in length. At the time the agreements were signed it was expected that the land would be purchased before May 1, and as there is no money in sight yet there is con-siderable excitement along the line from Opinicon to Portland. The location of this particular portion of the C.N.R. route has been the cause of several deputations waiting on the Minister of Railways and Canals at Ottawa, and it looks as if the end is

This resolution was passed:
"That this meeting of citizens of

Discussed Mixed Marriages.

Montreal, April 29—The semi-annual meeting of the Congregational Association of Quebec was brought to a close by a public ordination in the Zion Congregational Church. At one of the meetings the mixed marriage question was under discussion, and resolutions were passed by the association urging action on the part of the congregational union of Canada.

The association strongly recom-mended the union to have the laws thoroughly tested in the highest law courts in the event of the prevailing juris-prudence in the Province of Que bec being sustained, to adopt such measures as will modify the laws and abolish disabilities and guarantee the citizens the rights and liberties enjoyed under the British constitution.

Enemy of Reciprocity Raises the Annexation Cry.

DEBATE ON THE FREE LIST

Representative Prince of Illinois Rehabilitates Bogey of Absorption of Canada In His Fight Against Democratic Tariff Scheme-Californian Makes Merry Over the "Tax on Necessities."

Washington, April 29.—Another de-claration that annexation is the desired end of the Democrats in pushing reciprocity; an attack on the Postoffice Department as the "greatest Postoffice Department as the "greatest political organization of this or any other land," and a speech by a new member of the House revealing humors of a tariff fight in Congress, featured yesterday's debate on the free list bill now pending, before the House. Other subjects than the pending of the state of the stat ing bill were discussed under the latitude of debate.

Mr. Prince of Illinois, Republican, attacking the Canadian reciprocity bill, sounded the annexation note. President Taft's speech in New York Thursday furnished his text. He said that the pouring of Americans into the Canadian Northwest and the attitude of the controlling forces of the Democratic party, could mean noth-ing else than annexation, reciprocity and partial free trade with Canada being the first step toward that end. "I say to our neighbors on the north, be not deceived," said Mr. Prince. "When we go into a country and get control of it, we take it. It is our history, and it is right that we should take it if we want it. take it if we want it, and you might as well understand it. The Speaker has so said; the party back of him has so said, and it does not deny that that is its desire.

Mr. Prince declared that the reci-procity bill was the worst bargain ever driven by one nation with another and that the Democratic farmers' free list bill ought to be labelled the "fa mers' fake bill."

The real climax of the session came when Representative Kent of Cali-fornia, a new Republican member who forma, a new Republican member who succeeded Duncan McKinlay in the House, delivered a semi-humorous speech on the general tatiff question, arraigning a "revenue tariff upon necessities."

"I am a Republican, or what used to be a Republican," Mr. Kent observed, "because I believe in the protection of infant industries that stand

WORKMEN ESCAPE

Sugar Refinery Employes Have Close Call.

New York, April 29.—Two hundred men escaped by elevators from the big Arbuckle Sugar Refining Co.'s plant in Brooklyn last night, during a fire, which rapidly spread throughout the upper half of the main ten-storey building and caused a loss of from $200,000 to $300,000. The fire started on the ninth floor on the explosion of some boiling sugar. The night shift of coopers and baggers had barely got to their work on the upper floors of the build-ing when the alarm of fire sent them rushing for the elevators. There were no fire-escapes on the building, but lifts were big ones, and it took but a few trips to empty the build-

In Halifax all the breweries, about six in number, are amalgamated except one, and it is Mr. McCarty's plan to have this one, the Nova Scotia Brewery, join the syndicate, and then have the combined breweries merge with Ready's and Jones' breweries in the city and have the whole absorbed by the National Recoveries.
