Stormy and Changeable Weather for April

BY HICKS.

A reactionary storm period is in progress as we pass from March into April. Storms of rain, wind and thunder will culminate on an touching Sunday the 2nd, winding up with possible snow in the northern extremes. Rising barometer, fair weather and frosty nights will visit most parts of the country between the 2nd and 4th. A seismic period which is central on March 30th, will reach three or four days later in April.

A regular storm period covers the 4th to the 8th, having its centre on the 6th. Falling barometer, change to much warmer, with growing cloudiness and storms will begin in the west by the 4th and 5th. During the 6th to the 8th storms of rain, wind and thunder will make their transit from west to east, touching most parts of the country. These storms will be in the form of heavy April showers breaking into severe thunder squalls and hail storms in many localities. Fair weather and cool nights with possible frosts northward, will follow these storms.

A reactionary storm period marks the closing days of earth's vernal equinoctial, central on the 11th, 12th and 13th. Low barometer and very high temperature on and touching the 11th and 12th will bring severe thunder, rain and hail to many sections. Hot, muggy conditions, with very low barometer and angry, electrical clouds should be admonitions of tornadoes at this period. This also is a period in which seismic disturbances will be heard from, say within three days of Thursday the 13th. A regular storm period extends from the 16th to the 21st. We will designate the 18th, 19th and 20th as the crisis of this period. On and touching these dates, expect many active April storms and squalls, attended by hail and followed by a change to much cooler.

A reactionary storm period has its centre on the 24th and 25th. This period will, most likely, not react into high barometer and general antistorm conditions, but run into a series of daily April showers. A regular storm period is central on the 29th, extending from the 26th to May 3rd. On the 28th, new moon or moon's conjunction with earth and sun is at total solar eclipse. From the date of this eclipse of the sun, the 28th, to the end of April, there is a combination of astronomical causes which is certain to excite phenomenal disturbances in the atmosphere and in the terrestrial globe. From the 25th of April to the 4th of May is one of the most positive seismic periods of the year.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ENTRANCE EXAMS.

This year the entrance examinations will be held on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, June 26th, 27th and 28th, commencing at 1.15 p.m. This is a change from previous years and allows the High School to complete the week which formerly was broken by the examination. The examination of entrance to model schools will be held on the same dates, as instructions have been issued to that effect.

In order to prevent overcrowding of High Schools by the admission of ill-prepared pupils, the Chairman of Entrance Boards are instructed to follow exactly the ruling of the Department, 40 per cent on each subject and a 60 per cent total for examination.

The Education Department has issued a circular to the Chairmen of the High School Entrance Boards, calling for a more rigid marking of the answer papers, and complaining that in the past both Public and High Schools have been demoralized by the passing of students quite unfit for advanced work. The report of the next examination is not to be published until the Department revises the finding of the examiners, and no students below the required standard are to be passed on trial except with the approval of the Department.

A TROUBLESOME MISGIVING

'If we don't come across anyone, said Warricombe, 'we'll go straight up to my room.' But the way was not clear. With in the beautiful old porch sat Sidwell Warricombe and her friend of the striking countenance, whom Godwin now knew as Miss Moorhouse. Buckland addressed his sister in a tone of lively pleasure. 'Whom do you think I have met and brought home with me? Here is my old friend, Godwin Peak.'

They thoroughly tone up the whole system to healthy activity.

RAISING SALARY OF MINISTERS.

Providing the Augmentation Committee can raise $63,000 for the work the minimum standard of stipend for ministers of the Presbyterian church fixed by the General Assembly will be paid this year. Last year $46,000 was paid out to supplement stipend. For the raising of this money the appointment this visit were the most natural thing in the world.

'Do you already know the country about Exeter?' 'I have seen very little of it yet.' 'Oh, then, we must show you our points of view. Our own garden offers a glimpse of the river-mouth and a good prospect of Haldon—the ridge beyond the Exe; but there are many much better points within easy reach. You are in no hurry, I hope?'

Louis Warricombe and Miss Moorhouse's brother were away on a long walk; they did not return for lunch. Godwin was glad of this for time had wrought the change in him that he felt more at ease in female society than under the eyes of young men whose social position inclined them to criticism. The meal proved as delightful as luncheon is wont to be in a luxurious country-house, when brilliant sunshine gleams on the foliage visible from windows, and the warmth of the season sanctions clear colours in costume. The talk was wholly of country pleasures. It afforded the visitor no little satisfaction to be able to make known his acquaintance with parts of England to which the Warricombes had not penetrated. Godwin learnt that the family were insular in their tastes; a mention by Miss Moorhouse of continental scenes led the host to avow a strong preference for his own country, under whatever aspect, and Sidwell murmured her sympathy.

No less introspective than in the old days, though he could better command his muscles, Peak, after each of his short remarks, made comparison of his tone and phraseology with those of the other speakers. Had he still any marks of the ignoble world from which he sprang? Any defect of pronunciation, any native awkwardness of utterance? Impossible to judge himself infallibly, but he was conscious of no vulgar mannerism. Though it was so long since he left Whitelaw, the accent of certain of the Professors still remained with him as an example; when endeavouring to be graceful, he was wont to hear the voice of Dr. Nares, or of Professor Barber who lectured on English Literature. More recently he had been observant of Christian Moxey's speech, which had a languid elegance worth imitating in certain particulars. Buckland Warricombe was rather a careless talker, but it was the carelessness of a man who had never needed to reflect on such a matter, the refinement of whose enunciation was assured to him from the nursery. That now was a thing to be aimed at. Precision must be avoided, for in a young man it seemed to argue conscious effort: a loose sentence now and then, a colloquialism substituted for the more grammatical phrase.

of a Field Secretary by the General Assembly will be recommended.

Last year the supplemented stipend were: Ontario and Quebec, $850 and manse; $950 and manse in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta; $975 and manse in British Columbia. Nearly all congregations which had been self-sustaining but had paid less than $850 with manse, were advanced to $850 or $900. Some twenty-four congregations were added to the list and twelve became self-sustaining.

The new schedule aimed at by the committee for the coming year is:—Ontario and Quebec, $900 and manse; Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, $1,000 and manse; British Columbia, $1,100.

CRISIS HAS PASSED

Canalejas Will Be Allowed to Reorganize Cabinet.

VATICAN IS NOT PLEASED

Rome Resents the Fact That the Liberal Government Is Given a New Lease of Life—Ferrer Case Is at the Bottom of the Trouble, But Storm Now Seems to Be Safely Weathered—Clerics Routed

Madrid, April 3.—The Ministerial crisis, which appeared fraught with the greatest possibilities, seemed to have ended as abruptly as it began. It has resolved itself, seemingly to the general relief, into a second reconstruction of the Canalejas Ministry.

King Alfonso on his arrival from Seville yesterday afternoon, immediately received Senor Canalejas and requested him to continue in power. The Premier agreed, on condition that he be permitted to make such changes in the Cabinet as he deemed necessary. To this the King readily assented.

The Premier hopes the work of reconstruction may be completed to-day and that the Ministry will appear in the Cortes without delay. The retiring Ministers probably will be Gen. Asnar, Minister of War, who was mainly responsible for the crisis by his attitude in demanding that the Ferrer debate be suspended immediately by a vote of the majority, and Senor Cobian, Minister of Finance, who appears never to have been wholly in agreement with the religious policy of the Premier.

It is understood that one of the first steps of the Premier will be to relieve the captain-general of Madrid of his command. The continuation of Senor Canalejas in power is universally regarded as the only possible solution of a crisis of exceptional gravity. Canalejas is supported both by public opinion in Madrid and the provinces, and all sections of the Liberals, as well as by many Conservatives. It is generally believed that he alone is capable of preventing the Ferrer case from developing into a Spanish Dreyfus affair, thus adding a serious element to the present difficulties.

The Socialist feeling seems to be passing, and the army, which has been so bitter in the Ferrer case, now seems to have changed its attitude. It is understood Canalejas, with a view a complete reconciliation, intends to make a vigorous speech when the chamber resumes, eulogizing the army and defending it from recent attacks.

Vatican Talks of Difficulties.

Rome, April 3.—The report that Senor Canalejas has been summoned to form a new Cabinet is not welcomed by the Vatican, but at the same time the opinion is held that his new lease of power will not be for long. The Vatican officials base their belief on the fact that there are three questions of grave import which will confront the new Cabinet. These are: First, the Moroccan situation; second, the associations bill, which, it is said here, is opposed even by those outside the religious congregations.

Native Outbreak in French Guinea.

Konakry, French Guinea, Africa, April 3.—Two officers and twelve privates were killed and two non-commissioned officers and fourteen privates were wounded during an engagement Thursday between two companies of a French expedition and natives led by the Sultan of Goumbra.

The French forces were entering the village capital of the Sultan to arrest him, as he has been active in instigating hostilities against the French authorities, because of their endeavors to suppress slavery, when they were ambushed and fired upon. The natives were armed with repeating rifles.

After a brisk skirmish, the French occupied the village. The Sultan was wounded, but escaped. A price has been placed on his head. Lieutenant-Governor Guy of the French colony accompanied the expedition.

Jumped Overboard.

Halifax, April 3.—The White Star Dominion steamer Southwark arrived Saturday from Liverpool with 671 passengers, the great bulk of whom went by special trains. They are from the British Isles. About 30 are coal miners, who leave for Cape Breton to-day. The Southwark proceeded to Portland, here she will discharge a large cargo.

On the second day out from Liverpool, a man on the Southwark, who was in the third-class, but who was said to have had no ticket jumped overboard, and, though the steamer hove to for five hours, he was never seen again. A card was found on which he had written these words: "I am no good either to God, man or my wife." His identity was revealed by a valise. He has a family in England.

Enterprise For Ontario Town. Highgate, Ont., April 3.—Oxford Building & Supply Co., is to build a $10,000 department store here. The business will be capitalized at $40,000 many women of the place taking shares.

PEOPLE'S PULPIT.

Sermon by CHARLES T. RUSSELL, Pastor Brooklyn Tabernacle.

CHRISTIAN CREEDS

Which Is the True Gospel and What Must Our Creeds Sacrifice for Christian Union?

London, April 2.—Pastor Russell addressed the huge Convention at Royal Albert Hall to-night. Few preachers are so well known in Great Britain as he. Many of the leading newspapers, both here and in America, publish his weekly discourses. He took for his text, "I am not ashamed of the Gospel of Christ" (Romans 1, 16). He said:—

Let us approach our subject reverently! With reverence, because many of our creeds are white with centuries. They were the creeds of our fathers and mothers. They must not be handled ruthlessly, unkindly. But we must approach the subject with courage because it is a Christian duty. For long centuries God's people have been divided into sects and parties, separated by creedal fences. At one time they gloried in their differences and destroyed one another in their zeal for what they believed to be the Truth.

Now we see more clearly that none of our creeds are without flaw. Now we are willing—yes, glad, to take the Truth wherever we find it and to acknowledge the error, though it be our own. The oneness of the Church requires that we should have the same courage. The interests of the Church demand it. We have come here realizing that the time for covering errors, of which we are ashamed, is past; that the time for reverencing God and His Word has come. Whoever thus approaches the subject cannot fail of a blessing from God, in harmony with the Master's prayer, "Sanctify them through Thy Truth; Thy Word is Truth" (John xvii, 17).

Our topic must be. What is the Gospel of which St. Paul was not ashamed—"the faith once delivered to the saints"—"one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism" (Ephesians iv, 5).

The speaker showed that the Roman Catholic Church, in order to unite with others, would need to cut out of her creed everything not found in the Bible—prayers to saints, homage to pictures and images, the sacrifice of the mass, holy candles, holy water, Purgatory, the infallibility of the Pope and the general theory that the clergy alone are the Church and brethren of Christ, and the laity are merely the children of the Church. He acknowledged that so great a concession could scarcely be expected at once; that the study of the Bible must prepare Catholics to accept it as the only standard of the "faith once delivered to the saints."

The Protestant Episcopal creed next had attention. Little that was objectionable was found. One point alone could cause any hesitancy, he was sure—Apostolic Succession. He urged that no Scripture could be found sustaining this theory in clear terms. On the contrary, he gave numerous citations in proof that the twelve Apostles only possessed plenary inspiration and were directly under Divine control—St. Paul taking the place of Jesus. These are the twelve foundation stones of the New Jerusalem, and the foundations of the holy temple mentioned by St. Peter—the twelve authorized by the Master to bind or loose from doctrines and practices (Matt. xviii, 18).

The Westminster Confession, the foundation of the majority of Protestant creeds, distinctly emphasizes the teaching of Brother John Calvin. We can all agree that the words elect and election, predestinated and fore-ordained are Scriptural terms and that a truth must underlie and pervade them. But it will give none of us any pain to repudiate entirely the peculiar definitions attached to these words by Brother Calvin. Surely we are all prepared to deny that a God of Justice, Wisdom, Love and Power fore-ordained and predestinated from before the foundation of the world that everybody but the "elect" should go to eternal torment! If we cannot all agree as to what these terms mean, we can unite in denying the atrocious doctrines of the past which have so greatly dishonored our Creator and ourselves and which have driven so many honest minds away from God and from His Book.

Baptists and Disciples, Pastor Russell declared, have something further to surrender. Surely they may keep water immersion. Surely they may claim that, more fully than sprinkling, it represents the underlying thought expressed in the symbol. The unreasonable and unscriptural thing which they must renounce in favor of union is that water immersion is a test of membership in the Church of Christ. They must admit that Cornelius, at least, was accepted of the Lord and begotten of the Spirit before his baptism in water (Acts x, 47).

The Pastor could not think that the Baptist and Disciple brethren would have much difficulty in rejecting water immersion, as a test of Christian fellowship, if once they saw these matters in its true light, thus: The Disciples, in holding that immersion in water is for the remission of sins, are claiming, in fact, that all not thus immersed are lost—doomed to eternal torment, according to their theory. Baptists should see the absurdity of claiming that only the water immersed are members of the Church of Christ, for thus, according to their theory, they doom to eternal torture, as unsaved, all of their Christian brethren who have not been immersed. Surely Baptists and Disciples, therefore, may be expected to promptly and heartily repudiate these test features of their theories.

The Methodist Creed was next examined. It was commended for the prominence it gives to the Love of God and His forbearance with the misrepresentations of those who honestly seek to be His children. The speaker asked the Methodist brethren to forego the worshipping of their Church and to give the more homage to the Lord. He admitted the masterfulness of their organization, but reminded them that their Episcopacy is not modeled after anything shown in the New Testament. It does not even pretend to be an authority along the lines of Apostolic Succession. They must admit that the establishment of its Bishopric was, at least, semi-fraudulent—a supposed emergency, born of the error that an Episcopal ordination was necessary to an authority to preach.

Unitedly we must all acknowledge that we grossly misunderstood the teaching of our Bible when we believed and taught that our Almighty Creator prepared a great hell, manned with fire-proof demons, with the foreknowledge that all of our race would go thither except as a certain few would be specially rescued by the Saviour, after His coming, when He was not sent for over four thousand years after the fall. Looking back to the "Dark Ages," we behold with horror the terrible effects of this blasphemous doctrine upon good men of that time, who thought they were copying the Divine spirit and methods when they burned one another at the stake.

As we have learned that Purgatory is not taught in the Bible, so also we have learned that this hell of our forefathers is unscriptural—that the Bible hell is the grave, the tomb, the state of death. This just penalty for sin is what the Bible everywhere teaches. We now know that the Hebrew word sheol of the Old Testament, and the Greek word hades of the New Testament refer to the grave, the state of death, the tomb; and that they are so translated more times than they are rendered hell. We now know that in old English literature the word hell was so used as signifying a pit, a covered place, a grave. The Pastor announced that free pamphlets, discussing the word hell and the parable of The Rich Man and Lazarus, etc., would be distributed by the ushers.

With our hearts and heads agreed to discard those features of our creeds not found in the Bible, and as far as possible, to harmonize what we do find therein, what is the result? Is it the Gospel of which St. Paul was not ashamed? The speaker submitted that it is, and believes that all Christians could heartily unite and fellowship upon its broad basis.

John Calvin and our forefathers were right in declaring that the Scriptures teach the "election" of a "little flock"; but they were wrong in claiming that the great mass of humanity, the non-elect, are "passed by," routed for eternal torture. On the contrary they all go to the Bible hell, the grave. They are all unconscious there. The Divine promise guarantees the resurrection of the dead, both the just and the unjust, by One Who gave His life for their redemption—"Who died, the Just for the unjust" (I. Peter iii, 18).

In a word, merely the "called of God" are being dealt with in the present time, although the remainder of mankind are having a "witness" and are learning lessons which will be valuable to them when their trial time shall come. We have not in the past sufficiently noted the difference between the Church and the world. The Church is invited to walk the "narrow way" in the footsteps of the Redeemer, bearing the cross with him. The faithful are promised a share with Him in His heavenly glory, honor and immortality.

But nothing is said about tormenting the world. The entire race of Adam has been under condemnation for six thousand years. The coming of Jesus and His death were not intended to increase man's condemnation, but, by providing for their redemption, to set them free from Adam's condemnation—to give to each and to all a full, fair opportunity to demonstrate their love of sin or love of righteousness, when the latter shall be fully as easy as the former—during Messiah's glorious reign of righteousness—the thousand years. The reward for well-doing will then be human perfection in a sinless Paradise restored.

Brother John Wesley lived in a time when practically all Christians had accepted Brother Calvin's theory that God had fore-ordained the great mass of humanity to eternal misery. Brother Wesley's heart was tender and sympathetic. He could not believe that his gracious Creator and loving Redeemer could possibly have been guilty of originating such a diabolical Plan. Wesley's heart and tongue rebelled. Let others preach fore-ordination to torment for non-elect infants, as well as the gray-haired, in a fiery hell. He could not do so. He must preach a God of Love who would not condemn his creatures to torture—at least not without some opportunity. But handicapped by the error respecting hell poor Brother Wesley was in a sad dilemma. He knew not how any could get to the awful place without Divine foreknowledge. And he knew not how to harmonize such Divine foreknowledge with Divine Love. Why should such creatures as Divine grace could not save from eternal torture be created at all?

Noble Christian Brother, he preached to the best of his light. Now with the clearer light upon God's Word, we can see that Brother Wesley and Brother Calvin both contended for Bible truths which they knew not how to harmonize. Now we see that this Gospel Age is the time in which God is calling and drawing and sealing with His Spirit and with the Truth His "very elect," the Bride of Christ, the members of the Body of Christ, the Royal Priesthood. Now we can see also that the Free Grace, which Brother Wesley realized must be a part of the Divine Program, belongs to the coming Age. Then all the blind eyes shall be opened. Then all the deaf ears shall be unstopped. Then the knowledge of the Lord shall fill the whole earth as the waters cover the great deep. Then "whoever will may come and take of the water of life freely" (Rev. xxii, 17).

Pastor Russell declares that the signs of the times in conjunction with the prophecies of the Scriptures, clearly indicate to him that we are living in the "harvest time" of this Age, which is drawing to a close—in the dawning time of the New Dispensation, which will soon be ushered in. He wished his hearers to clearly distinguish between this teaching and the common teaching represented in all of our creeds. Our hymn books, like our creeds, tell of the End of this Age as the end of hope—"the wreck of matter and the crash of worlds," in a huge bonfire. The Bible, on the contrary, shows that the most blessed days of the world's experiences are about to be ushered in. The election of the Church completed, the saints, glorified with the Redeemer on the spirit plane, invisible to men, will take control of earth's affairs. God's Kingdom under the whole heavens will be established. Satan, the present spirit Prince, will be dethroned and deceive the nations no more for a thousand years.

The reign of Messiah in the glory of Divine power will constitute the Sun of Righteousness, Light and Truth, and blessing to refresh the poor, death-stricken world. Healing will be in the beams of this Sun of Righteousness—Restitution, uplifting from sin, degradation and death. As the reign of Sin and Death terminates, the reign of Righteousness unto life everlasting will begin. The wonderful inventions and blessings of our day are but the forerunners of still greater blessings. Verily "the night is far spent and the day is at hand"—the great Day of which Jesus and the Apostles and the Prophets continually spoke. It will be doomsday only for all the systems of iniquity and unrighteousness.

Have we not all felt more or less ashamed of the unsatisfactory presentations of our various creeds? said Pastor Russell. Is it not time that, from self-respect, as well as from respect for the Almighty, we repudiate them? Have I not presented to you this evening the Bible message which the angels proclaimed at the birth of Jesus—"Behold, we bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be unto all people?" (Luke ii, 10). No Gospel message reached anybody before Jesus "brought life and immortality to light through His Gospel." This great salvation began to be spoken by our Lord, as the Apostle declares (Hebrews ii, 3). None heard it during the first four thousand years, and not more than one-fourth of humanity have heard it during the last two thousand years. And the message which has been proclaimed for centuries past is certainly not "good tidings" as a whole, though it contains precious truths.

What I have expressed this evening is "good tidings of great joy" to the saintly few of the elect class now. And the lesser blessing of restitution will shortly be "good tidings" to all people. It will fulfill the Divine promise to our first parents that "the Seed of the woman" shall crush evil, "shall bruise the Serpent's head." It will also fulfil the promise to Abraham, bound by God's oath—"In thee and in thy Seed shall all the families of the earth be blessed." It accounts for every text appertaining to Election, as well as to every text teaching Free Grace. It shows the Justice of God in permitting the death penalty. It shows the Love of God in providing the redemption for all, by a "Ransom for all." It shows the Wisdom of God in the ordering of all the various steps of the Divine Program. It will show the Power of God in bringing back the dead to life and in uplifting all the willing and obedient of earth to human perfection and an earthly Paradise. And surely the exceeding riches of God's grace, of His Wisdom, Love and Power are all demonstrated in His wonderful favor toward the saintly few now being developed as the Bride, the Lamb's Wife! (Ephesians ii, 7).

Let us, beloved brethren, lay aside every weight and hindrance. Let us come quickly into the "narrow way" and walk in the footsteps of the Redeemer and make our "calling and election sure" to a place with Him in His Throne, and in His great work of blessing and uplifting humanity.

Luck.

Birrell Sees Good Points in Bethmann-Holweg's Reply.

PEACE MEETINGS ARE HELD

Nine Hundred Gatherings in England and Scotland Mark the Public Interest in Sir Edward Grey's Proposals — Municipalities Will Also Take a Hand in the General Movement for Amity

London, April 3.—The attitude of the Imperial German Chancellor, Dr. von Bethmann-Holweg, has not damped British zeal for arbitration. The projected demonstration to be held in Albert Hall has been abandoned in favor of a wider national movement. It took the form of 900 meetings on Saturday and Sunday in all the cities of the kingdom.

Councils representing 10,000 evangelical free churches adopted a resolution in support of the proposed treaty and welcoming the idea of American churches observing April 2 as Arbitration Sunday. Copies of this resolution were forwarded to President Taft and Sir Edward Grey, the British foreign Secretary.

News that the negotiations had actually been begun was received at these meetings with great enthusiasm. Arbitration was the theme of most of the churches, and a great peace demonstration was held at the Whitefields Tabernacle, where Lord Coleridge presided. Augustin Birrell, Chief Secretary for Ireland, was the principal speaker. After quoting:

"There is a tide in the affairs of men," he said:

"To-day there is a great tide and peace wave rolling across the Atlantic. It ought to be taken at the flood."

Referring at length to Dr. von Bethmann-Holweg's speech, he said that, though, in his opinion, it was below the grandeur of the theme, yet it contained passages of hope.

Municipal Bodies Co-operating.

London, April 3.—(New York Tribune Cable.)—There is much activity outside of religious bodies in the direction of Anglo-American arbitration. London and the great municipal bodies of England and Scotland are co-operating heartily in the organization of the national movement, and a Parliamentary committee recruited from both sides of the House of Commons has been formed for promoting an agreement between the two countries in favor of absolute arbitration. High Church Tories like Lord Hugh Cecil, are committed to it as strongly as the Scotch Presbyterians or the Welsh Nonconformists, and a series of non-partisan public meetings already has been opened in many English towns.

The advocates of this movement for arbitration with the United States are not discouraged by the German Chancellor's lack of faith in universal arbitration and the limitation of armaments. They perceive that the German Emperor wants to break up the Anglo-American concord. They admit that England and Germany must continue their wasteful competition in battleships and guns without being affected by the logic of the situation.

The chancellor's willingness to come to an agreement with England respecting an exchange of naval information is only a meagre gain which will not alter materially the existing condition of rivalry. The arbitration advocates reject the idea that Berlin can veto the concordat between London and Washington.

Victim of an Accident.

Buckingham, Que., April 3.—The body of James Belter, aged 15 years, a farmer's son, was found on the St. Malachi road, nine miles from here, with a bullet hole in the breast on Saturday. He left home on Tuesday in company with another lad named Edward Kelly and had a shotgun. They were going into the bush to cut wood.

The deceased did not return at night, and it was thought he had gone to the Kelly farm, but on Thursday night young Kelly visited Belter's and said they had separated to go to their respective homes on Tuesday. Search parties started out then and located the body. The lad was shot from close quarters, and the gun was found in the snow near him. The Hull coroner and sheriff consulted yesterday, and decided the affair as accidental.

Seized Twenty-Three Deer.

Sherbrooke, Que., April 3.—The carcasses of twenty-three deer were seized here on Saturday morning by Customs Officer C. L. Deseve. Seven others were seized earlier in the week. It is stated that the deer are killed in Maine and smuggled into Beauce County, and from there shipped to Montreal. The animals seized Saturday morning were accompanied by a man named Sansan, from St. Prosper, who came along for the purpose of seeing what had happened to his previous shipment. Many of the deer seized were fawns.

SCOURGE FOR PARTIZANS.

Rosebery Bitterly Upbraids Party Politicians.

London, April 3.—The partisan jockeying which has been the chief characteristic of British domestic politics since the general election was carried last week to an extreme which lends further justification to the charge made by Hilaire Belloc, A. E. W. Mason, and others, who have retired from the political arena in disgust, that the interests of the nation nowadays are being made largely subservient to the interests of party.

Lord Rosebery, who made a dramatic appearance in the debate in the House of Lords on Thursday, spoke in accents of scorn of the tactics pursued by his noble colleagues. The introducing a reform bill which could never pass. It was only an air balloon floating through the upper House, and certain to come to the usual aeronautical calamity in the lower.

After this chastening of the Unionists, Lord Rosebery lashed the Liberals with whips and scorpions, and appealed for a national, not a partisan, settlement of the question, in which the interests of the whole nation were at stake.

"The general election, after all," he said, "is nothing but a confused clamor of voices."

"You," he cried to the Government leader, "cannot achieve a settlement on these lines. You can achieve a party triumph. You can take revenge upon this House for wrongs—real in many cases, and in some cases fancied—and having done that you will have attained by party what can be done by party. Will not the Unionists make it their first task to prove that which you have rashly planted in the rocks by the wayside?"

Lord Rosebery pointed a finger toward Lord Morley, saying:

"He bears an honored name, a famous name. Does he wish it to go down to posterity allied with a one-sided fanatical partisan settlement? I appeal to the head of the Government, who has to settle with history and posterity the great claims which his intellect gives him to be a conspicuous power in the history of this country. How will they stand when their names are at least produced before that dread tribunal from whose verdict there can be no appeal, if they conspire to law hands on this immemorial constitution rashly and recklessly, without having done anything to build, but only to destroy?"

Dismissed the Appeal.

Edmonton, Alta., April 2.—The Supreme Court sitting en banc Saturday delivered judgment dismissing the appeal in the case of the Provincial Government against the Royal Bank to recover six million dollars of Alberta and Great Waterways bonds held by them. Some weeks ago Justice Beck made an order joining Canada West Construction Co., and the Alberta & Great Waterways Co. with the defendant bank in the suit begun by the province. To this the Government took an appeal. The chief justice was in favor of allowing the appeal, but the other three judges sustained the order of Justice Beck. The two new parties joined as defendants were given six days to file their defence. The appeal will be carried to the higher courts.

A Limited Session!

Washington, April 3.—At the Democratic caucus held Saturday night, a legislative program was adopted, which is expected to confine the activities of the coming extra session to a popular election of Senators, Canadian reciprocity, tariff revision, investigation of Governmental Departments, Congressional reappointments, general deficiency appropriations, District of Columbia legislation, and publicity of campaign contributions.

The membership of the various committees and the appointment of officials will also be decided upon.

Sheldon Arraigned.

Pittsburg, April 3.—C. W. Ross, alias Charles D. Sheldon, who is wanted in Montreal on allegations that he knows where the $200,000 belonging to trusting clients has gone, was arraigned Saturday upon a complaint of his landlady here. It was charged that Ross, or Sheldon, had failed to account for the stock and money she had entrusted to him. About $1,185 is involved. The prisoner was held for court on this charge, and his case will be presented to the grand jury Monday morning. In default of bail, he was remanded to jail.

Honored a Comatriot.

New York, April 3.—Two hundred guests attended the banquet given on Saturday night at the Fifth Avenue restaurant by a Canadian-French Democratic club to celebrate the appointment of Henri S. Renaud, a young lawyer of French-Canadian parentage to the position of deputy attorney-general of the State of New York. J. C. Hogan, a former Montrealer, who was president of the club, which is composed largely of French-Canadians, presided, and the principal speaker of the evening was Lient. Governor Thomas F. Conway.

Ottawa's Epidemic.

Ottawa, April 2.—Up to noon Saturday, there were twelve cases of smallpox at Porter's Island, and another is under suspicion in the east end of the city.

So serious has the situation become, that it has been decided not to await the erection of a new wing to the smallpox hospital, and a large tent will be in readiness to-night to receive new cases.

The disease is fortunately not of a very serious type.

An Honorary Member.

Montreal, April 3.—Sir Lomer Gouin, Prime Minister of Quebec, Saturday accepted honorary membership in the Canadian division of the Institute of Jurists.

It is expected that a large number of Canadian delegates will attend the annual moveable conference of the institute, which will be held in Dundee, Scotland, this year.

COAL MINES IDLE

Six Thousand Men Strike Along Crow's Nest Pass.

GENERAL TIE-UP POSSIBLE

If Western Miners Are Prosecuted For Violation of the Lemieux Act, It is Said That a General Walk-out May Occur — Canadian Pacific Railway Is Blamed For Trouble — Montreal Is Not Surprised.

Lethbridge, Alta., April 3.—The mines are all idle in District No. 18, U.M.W. of A., and 6,000 men along the Crow's Nest Pass line are out of work at the mines. It will not be long before a large number of railroad crews will be moved or laid off. The only mine in the Western Canada Coal Operators' Association working is the McGillivray Creek Coal & Coke Co. at Carbondale, near Coleman. The mine was idle all winter, and both the men and the company went to work under a special agreement by which all the output is contracted for in Spokane, so that it cannot supply the shortage for other companies. Should it do so, or should the Canadian Pacific Railway exercise the privilege of taking coal en route, the men will be called out immediately.

The miners blame the Canadian Pacific Railway and Lewis Stockert more than the mine managers for the whole trouble. The company has steam coal stored for five months' use, and therefore is not dependent on the operation of the mines. The other companies followed Stockert's dictation. The miners say that Jim Hill will not allow his mines to be used as a tool by the Canadian Pacific Railway to strike unionism. They expect the companies to sign up individually and thus break up the association.

Threaten General Strike.
Montreal, April 3.—The news of the great coal strike in the Canadian west has aroused intense interest among labor leaders in Montreal, but it did not come as a surprise.

It was authoritatively announced that the western miners are well supplied with funds, since they have at their back the United Mine Workers of America, whose coffers are declared to be heavy with coin.

Asked as to the likelihood of the strike spreading, a high labor authority declared that unless the demands of the men were granted, there was every chance of a long and bitter struggle, which would involve, not only every miner in the west, but also bring in every railway man and every worker in the mechanical and industrial lines.

If the officers of the Western Canada Mine Workers are arrested for having violated the Lemieux Trades and Disputes Act, a general strike may be declared all over the Dominion.

Armed Negroes Attack Crowd.

Lurel, Del., April 3.—About 10 o'clock Saturday night a mob of armed negroes swooped down upon a crowd of spectators in the main thoroughfare of the town and fired a volley of bullets and buckshot into the crowd. Orem Stockley, 18 years old, son of a farmer living near Laurel, fell to the ground, shot through the head. He was taken to a hospital in Salisbury, Md., where he died yesterday.

Geo. Hudson, 49 years old, a white man of Bethel, was shot in the leg necessitating amputation, and John Thompson, a white barber, was shot in both legs while shaving a patron. Other white men received minor injuries. It is known that several negroes were injured, but they cannot be located.

Officers were unable to come with the mob, and there was a fierce struggle between the two races until three o'clock yesterday morning. Windows were shattered and the exterior of buildings were greatly damaged.

Discredit Their Countrymen.

Chicago, April 3.—With the confession of one Black Hand agent, the announcement of another threat against a Government official, Jas. E. Stuart, postoffice inspector, and spurred on by the long list of recent Black Hand crimes, the Italian people themselves threaten to put a stop to the lawlessness.

A reflection of the view of many Chicago Italians is seen in an article which appeared yesterday in L'Italia, an Italian newspaper in Chicago.

The article says: "An epoch of blood, of cruel slaughtering, of ferocious vendettas is what the Chicago Italian colony is going through just now. Until a short time ago, crimes committed were almost in all cases those due to passion. It is necessary that the Italians themselves for their own self-respect, and for their own protection, organize themselves to liberate the colony here from the criminals staining its name."

Return to Work.

Springhill, N.S., April 3.—Six workmen among the ranks of the strikers returned to work in the mines Saturday. This makes a total of twelve for the week. Major Thompson, commissioner of the provincial police, arrived to-day with a force of thirty men who are fully equipped for efficient service. Two of the town police were arrested on Saturday on a charge of interfering with the company's police.

Moves to Windsor.

London, April 3.—Major Lamb, who is in charge of the Dominion Public Works Department here, announced yesterday that the Department is to be moved to Windsor.

The Department was opened here two years ago, and has charge of all the work between Windsor and Toronto.

Canadians Released.

El Paso, Texas, April 3.—B. W. and K. S. Langley of Winnipeg, who were arrested last night in Jauerez, were released yesterday. Both signed statements that they had set out to join the insurgents, but were turning

DIAZ WILL BE GOOD.

He Has Decided to Grant Some of the Needed Reforms.

Mexico City, April 3.—Committing himself to the advocacy of many of the reforms demanded by the revolutionists, although professedly bowing only to the influence of public opinion, Gen. Diaz answered his critics through his semi-annual message at the opening Saturday of the Congress. The principles of no re-election of the chief executive and incumbents of other elective offices and the reform of the electoral laws so that the privilege of the ballot may be enjoyed by those citizens "who are considered capable of voting" were advocated. The message refers specifically to the application of the no-election principle to the naming of governors, one of the chief contentions of the discontented element throughout the republic, the president stating if a bill providing for "the periodical renovation" of the officials in question should come before Congress it would have his earnest support.

Abuse of power by Jefes Politico, another of the evils complained of by residents in the rural districts, is to be abated, according to the plan outlined by the president.

The president proposes to improve the efficiency of the judiciary through a more careful selection of its personnel and lengthening of the tenure of office. Efficacious punishment of judicial functionaries for malfeasance is to be brought about through the enactment of more stringent measures.

On the subject of the division of the great private estates, first broached by Minister Limantour in his Paris interview, the executive declared his determination to find efficient means for bringing about the innovation.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

John Landgraf of Port Colborne drowned himself in the canal. The suffrage demonstration in London against the census was not a success.

The funeral of the late Bishop DuMoulin at Hamilton was very largely attended.

The Provincial Treasurer received $50,000 from the estate of the late Goldwin Smith.

Mr. J. H. Grisdale has been appointed Superintendent of Experimental Farms to succeed Dr. William Saunders.

The Alberta Central Railway has begun to build bridges across the Medicine and Saskatchewan Rivers west of Red Deer.

Eight foreigners were arrested at Windsor for smuggling themselves into Canada. It is said a favorite route is through the Michigan Central tunnel.

The mayor of London, Ont., has made a demand that Mrs. Thornley either retract or prove her statements reflecting on the morals of the school children. Mrs. Thornley replies, adding details to her former statement.

New Dutch Tariff.

The Hague, April 3.—The new tariff law which was introduced by the Government in the first Chamber Saturday is a moderately protective one in character. Its sponsors claim that while it will bring in an additional 10,000,000 guildens of revenue annually, the new duties will not be so onerous as to keep out foreign imports. A gulden is the equivalent of 40 cents in Canadian money.

It is also asserted that the tariff will not be high enough to induce the formation of Dutch trusts to put up the price of raw materials. The general idea is that half manufactured goods shall be subject to an import duty to from three to six per cent., and valorem, and articles nearly finished, to 10 per cent. Wholly finished goods will be assessed 12 per cent. Wheat, coal, minerals, yarn, petroleum and meal for cattle would remain on the free list. Fine flour would pay a duty 40 cents per Dutch hundred kilograms; cigars, 125 guildens per hundred kilos and 20 per cent. ad valorem; cigarettes, 250 guildens per 100 kilos and 40 per cent. ad valorem.

The Government reserves the power to use retaliatory measures against other nations whenever it is thought necessary. It is estimated that 9,000,000 guildens desired from the new revenue will be used as a fund for the payment of old age pensions to working men.

Attacked Missionary.

Shanghai, April 3.—Rev. John Murray of the American Presbyterian Mission at Tainanfu, was attacked by Chinese on March 27, 17 miles north of that place. He was badly injured about the head and body and was brought back to the mission by a Government escort. He is now considered out of danger.

A report has been circulating among the Chinese that Mr. Murray was a child, and some of them set upon him while he was engaged in making his regular pastoral visit. His assailants are under arrest and the Chinese officials are displaying the utmost solicitude for his recovery.

LATE MRS. W. H. OGDEN.—On Monday, March 6th, Martha Henry, wife of Mr. W. H. Ogden, after an illness borne with fortitude and christian courage, passed peacefully away—so peacefully and quietly that those in attendance were unaware for some little time that her spirit had taken its flight. Deceased was born in the Township of Clarke and all her days were spent almost within sight of the place of her birth. She was a daughter of the late James Henry, 6th line. The golden anniversary of her marriage (50 years ago) to W. H. Ogden had passed and the large family of stalwart sons and one daughter whom she had nourished had left home, and are fighting the battles of life in distant parts. All the family, however, with the exception of two sons, were able to be present and accompany the remains of her they held so dear to their last resting place at Orono Cemetery, on Thursday, March 9th.—Orono News.

"THE ROSARY."—When Rowland & Clifford's new play, "The Rosary" by Edward E. Rose, comes to the Grand on Wednesday, April 12th, the discriminating public will be given an opportunity to see pictured before them the growing unrest and irreligion of our times. It is a faithful picture of the misery and unhappiness that surely comes upon a man who lacks faith in the supreme good and its triumphs in our world. Can one evil mind poison a whole household? Is the human brain capable of producing disastrous effects upon a household by adverse suggestive thoughts? Do we realize adequately how our mental attitudes influence our lives and the lives about us? And the answer? Well, the play is the answer. This play has proven the sensation of the season in Boston and New York; one company has just closed a three month's run in Chicago.

CARTWRIGHT YOUNG MAN SUICIDES.—A very sad affair happened at Mr. Robert McKee's farm Saturday, March 18, when a farm hand named Ernest Smith hanged himself in the barn. He was immediately cut down but had been dead some time. It seems that he had climbed a ladder in the barn and fastened the rope around the beam, dropped some five feet. Deceased was 22 years of age and lived in this district all his life. He was unmarried and had two half brothers living at Nettleton Station. The funeral took place Sunday from the home of Mr. George Malcolm, interment taking place in Nestleton cemetery.—Bowmanville News.

The Opportunity

You always get the best values obtainable, where goods are sold for Cash Only.

Came our way recently of making comparison of our Millinery Values with those found elsewhere. The comparison—styles and quality the same—was considerably in our favor. "There's a reason" for this and it'll pay you to investigate.

Fancy Curtain Scrim

Without a doubt we're showing the best collection of Curtain Materials ever found at this store at any one time. We were fortunate in getting a consignment of Fancy Colored Scrim and Silkolines direct from the makers. This fact of itself is sufficient evidence that values here are the best obtainable. Patterns and styles too, are exclusive and consequently just a little different from the ordinary run.

FLOOR COVERINGS of various kinds are moving out. Best values, good styles and low prices help along the movement.
