AN OLD PORT HOPER

Died in Long Island—Had Been Ill Since July.

The old friends of Henry C. Russell will learn with regret of his death. Early in July he suffered from heat prostration and was taken to the Long Island College Hospital. He appeared to rally and then an operation was decided upon, which was successfully performed, but he was too weak to rally. After the operation he seemed to be getting better, but the return of great heat affected him so much that he could not recover and he died on Sunday, 13th inst. He was buried in Greenwood Cemetery, New York, on Wednesday, August 16th, 1911.

His widow and daughter, Olive, have the sympathy of all Port Hope friends in their loss. Many of our readers will remember that Mr. Russell erected and owned the building next east of The Guide office, now the property of the Midland Loan and Savings Company, and conducted a furniture business in the second and third stories, the ground floor being occupied by J. Little & Co., dry goods, and later by others.

THE CITY OF GOOD HOPE

Let's be starting on the way For the City of Good Hope; There's a highway that is fair, Leading up and onward where Beauty brightens every slope; Where the scent of new-mown hay From the meadows sweetly blows, Where the springs are cool and clear And there are no ills to fear And no evils to expose.

Let's be starting with a song, Full of courage and of glee; Let us leave our woes behind, Bravely caring but to find Where the beautiful may be. Let us cease to think that wrong Has its stronghold everywhere; Let us learn to worry less And search out the loveliness That we have the right to share.

Fair, the City of Good Hope Stands upon a distant hill; There are guards at all the gates, And no evil penetrates— We may enter if we will! They are weak who sadly grope, Daring not to leave the gloom For the joy that Hope begets Where the golden minarets Of the splendid city loom.

CLARK IN DREAMLAND

Col. Clark, a former conservative member of the legislative—and perhaps a member yet, since, until he is elected, which is not probable, he can retain his seat for Burnes—accompanied Mr. Borden in his quick run into the west some weeks ago. The colonel has been writing his reminiscences or impressions in the Canadian Courier and been very peremptorily challenged to recant some things by the Winnipeg conservative reciprocity paper.

The colonel said the premier gave his chief, politically, the chance of his life to see the North-West under new conditions, and to talk with the people. As a result the colonel said that the farmers were being won back to the conservative party. They had asked for several things, but not for reciprocity. The Winnipeg Tribune cannot imagine what Col. Clark can see in such open and flagrant misrepresentation. Our contemporary quotes from the petition presented to the government from the grain growers all through the west, and adds:

"Surely Mr. Clark has been 'dead to the world' or is one of the boldest of the many falsifiers found in the ranks of our politicians. Mr. Clark is just a type of the ordinary wind-jammer in the political world. But he not only talks without knowledge but, unfortunately, he has access to the press."

This is serious indictment. By the way, Col. Clark went with the Borden party as its entertainer. He may have been so much engaged in telling and hearing stories as to have lost track of things political. He should be candid and admit that he is now reciting his dreams.

AWAKES FROM 70 DAYS SLEEP.—On being told the other day just after she had awakened of her own accord that she had been asleep 70 days, Miss Hazel Schmidt, of Vandalia, Ill., rubbed her eyes as if she had awakened from a night's slumber and remarked laughingly, "That's a long time for one sleep, isn't it? I suppose it is true, but I can't realize it." Miss Schmidt is gradually coming out of the trance, according to the attending doctors. She partook of some food, and said it tasted good.

Sin of the Century

Kingston Whig

The Whig read in one of the Oswego papers that New York state had legislation under which no city or town could longer pollute the waters from which supplies were drawn for domestic purposes. It sees now that it was not drawing its inspiration from a reliable source and that Rochester, a great and wealthy city, is committing the really unpardonable sin of pouring twenty million gallons of poison into Lake Ontario every day.

The city officials, says the Rochester Express, "seem to think that if they take it from the river, where everybody can see it and smell it and send it to the lake through a tunnel where nobody can see it, they will accomplish a great reform and the people will be satisfied. The supposition is absurd. No matter how much the sewage may be hidden from sight every Rochesterian will know that it is still running into the lake and will feel in some degree ashamed of himself and of the city in which he lives, for he knows that by the expenditure of a small amount of money the twenty million gallons of poison can be converted into twenty millions gallons of harmless liquid that will not pollute the water which thousands of Rochester's neighbors are now using for drinking purposes, and which many Rochesterians themselves are using. Poison is poison, no matter whether conveyed to the lake by river or tunnel."

Our contemporary calls attention to what is being done by the mayor of Cleveland on the water question. He will call a meeting shortly of the health authorities of all the states bordering on Lake Erie, and of the local and federal authorities, for a general discussion of the sewage disposal problem. Some result will follow, of course, but nothing very practical until the legislatures of the states and provinces which are touched or bounded by the great lakes works in harmony and with one end in view namely of stopping the poisoning of the water which the people must drink. There should be a mighty movement against this, one of the greatest sins of the century.

From Sir Wilfrid's Speech at Simcoe. It would have been a crime against civilization not to have listened to those advances from our neighbors, not to have accepted the opportunity of wider reciprocal trade with them.

Reciprocity has become law in the United States, and we can have it to-morrow if the Canadian people will approve it. Will you have it or not? The Conservative party have turned their coats, and are now opposing what they advocated for forty years.

If the farmers are to be benefited all sections of the community will be benefited, because agriculture is the foundation of Canada's prosperity.

If I were privileged to address an American audience I would tell them: "We want to trade with you, but if the price we are to pay for it is the sacrifice of our manhood, keep your trade, we will have none of it."

This talk about annexation is simply beneath the contempt and beneath the attention of serious people.

We stand upon our manhood. We will trade with our neighbors and make a good thing out of it. And if they will not trade with us we can get along without them.

If the British people change their fiscal policy and give us a preference we are ready to meet them. I say more: that the present arrangement is no interference, is no obstacle against it, and we will bring it in.

The advantages of reciprocity are so obvious that they need no reiteration. But the more thoroughly they are discussed the clearer they appear.

This agreement constitutes a bond of peace and harmony and of friendship between the two nations.

Reciprocity will not only be a powerful factor in the material prosperity of our country, but it is an advance towards that higher civilization which recent events have shown to be within the range of practical politics.

MAN HANDCUFFED GOES TO HIS MOTHER'S FUNERAL.—An unusual incident is recorded from Belltown, Del., where, firmly handcuffed to Sheriff Buell, Isaac Short, who shot and killed Charles Wilson, of Denton, Md., in a quarrel at Lewes, attended the funeral of his mother the other day. Crowds flocked to the funeral out of morbid curiosity to see now Short would act, and because of a rumor that Short's friends would attempt a rescue.

PRESTON THE MAN

Editor of Expositor Will Lead Fight in Brantford.

IL CHOSEN UNANIMOUSLY

T. H. Preston Is the Only Name to Go Before the Convention Which Resumed Its Session on Saturday

Brantford, Aug. 21.—The Liberals in the riding of Brantford will from now on give their united support to Mr. T. H. Preston in securing his return as member of the Dominion House.

Mr. Preston, who has fought three successful contests for South Brant in Provincial campaigns, enters the larger arena with the prospect of considerable disturbance of his business interests— he is proprietor and editor of the Brantford Expositor—but he has been prevailed upon to make personal sacrifice to public duty.

The result of his action will be that, in spite of the fact that he has as his opponent Mr. W. E. Cockshutt, a local business man, the seat will without much difficulty be retained for the Government.

No man is more popular or better informed on public questions in town or county, and where his opponents previously saw hope in the anti-reciprocity views of Mr. Lloyd-Harris, the ex-member, they now realize that they have very little chance of winning the seat.

The convention at which Mr. Harris had declined the renomination, and Messrs. J. J. Hurley and L. F. Heyd were tendered the candidature, was adjourned from the previous week. In the meantime Mr. Preston was approached by representative men of the party. Saturday's adjourned gathering could have filled comfortably the largest public hall in the town. The Reform Clubroom and the hall outside were crowded when President J. A. Messer called the meeting to order, and said the convention was open again for nominations.

The only name, proposed by Mr. John Muir, a prominent manufacturer, and Mr. C. W. Gurney, a well-known farmer, was that of Mr. Preston, and the unanimous invitation was given to him amid loud cheering.

Mr. Preston, in thanking the delegates, said he would have liked Mr. Harris to accept the nomination. He was so thoroughly in sympathy with the Laurier Government, except on the one question of reciprocity, that it would have amounted to Mr. Harris sinking his own views after the voice of the people had been made plain. The Liberal party was broad and strong enough to contain men of independent opinion like the ex-member.

By four or five o'clock, said Earwaker you can have broken up the camp. You've often done it at shorter notice. Go to an hotel for the night.

I must write to the poor woman. Do as you like about that.

Who is to help her if she gets into difficulties—as she's always doing? Who is to advise her about Bella's education? Who is to pay —I mean who will see to— Oh, confound it!

The listeners glanced at each other.

Are her affairs in order? asked Earwaker. Has she a sufficient income?

For ordinary needs quite sufficient. But—

Then you needn't be in the least uneasy. Let her know where you are when the equator is between you. Watch over her interests from a distance if you like. I can as good as promise you that Bella all were heartily applauded. The chairman of the meeting was Anson Spotton, mayor of Harrison, and a prominent figure in the business community.

Mr. Borden's voice was somewhat stronger than in Woodstock, but it was still necessary for him to guard it carefully, and Hon. I. B. Lucas came up from Toronto by the evening train to join forces with the Conservative leader.

Mr. Borden opened his speech by recalling the strange circumstances under which Parliament was dissolved. He pointed out how a pledge had been given that Parliament would be in session for another meeting of the Oliver committee, that pledge being given in the presence of Mr. Oliver himself, and then dissolution was brought on suddenly before that meeting of the committee could be held.

"The decent standards of the public life of this country," declared Mr. Borden, "are not consistent with such conduct."

To Retain Dr. Rutherford. Ottawa, Aug. 21.—As a result of a conference between Hon. Sydney Fisher, Minister of Agriculture, and Dr. Rutherford, Veterinary-General and Live Stock Commissioner. Dr. Rutherford will remain in his present position until the first of October.

Dr. Rutherford handed the Government his resignation some time ago to take effect on the last day of August. It is rumored that arrangements are being made whereby Dr. Rutherford will be retained permanently by the Government.

An English Chemist Has Discovered How to Grow Hair

In England the ladies have entirely abandoned wearing rats, which is due entirely to this new discovery.

It has been proven that Henna leaves contain the ingredients that will positively grow hair. That they contain this long-looked-for article is proven every day.

The Americans are now placing on the market a preparation containing the extract from Henna leaves, which is having a phenomenal sale.

This preparation is called SALVIA and is being sold with a guarantee to cure dandruff and to grow hair in abundance. Being daintily perfumed, SALVIA makes a most pleasant hair dressing. Davison, your druggist, is the first to import this preparation into Port Hope and a large generous bottle can be purchased for 50 cents.

PEOPLE'S PULPIT.

Sermon by CHARLES I. RUSSELL Pastor Brooklyn Tabernacle.

St. John, N.B., August 20.—Pastor Russell of Brooklyn delivered two addresses here to-day under the auspices of the International Bible Students Association. One of these was more particularly for the public, the other, which we report, was more for Bible Students. The Pastor took for his text God's message to Adam, after the latter had become transgressor in Eden, when he hid from his Maker: "Where art thou, Adam?" (Genesis iii, 9). The speaker said in part:

"Be sure your sin will find you out." Adam learned this lesson early in his career. Highly favored by his Maker, crowned with the glory and honor of human perfection and the lordship of earth, Adam had the offer of everlasting life, under Edenic conditions. But while condemning his disobedience we cannot help sympathizing with him when we realize that the act of disloyalty which brought the Divine sentence upon Adam, and, by heredity, upon all of his race, was caused by love for his wife.

The unvarnished narrative is that Mother Eve thirsted for knowledge, and was not content to await the Almighty's time for giving them knowledge. She hearkened to the Serpent's plea that the Almighty was seeking to keep himself and her husband in ignorance by forbidding them to partake of the fruit of the tree of knowledge. She had not come to know the benevolence of her Maker, and that no good thing would be withheld from His obedient creatures. She had not yet learned that the fruit of that tree was forbidden for a time only, and that the premature eating of it could bring no blessing, but Divine disfavor. The Apostle shows this when he declares that Mother Eve was deceived; but with equal positiveness he declares that Father Adam was not, himself, deceived; that he partook of the fruit knowingly, intentionally, wilfully, and with a full realization of the disobedient act which brought upon him death: "The wages of sin is death"; "Thou shalt surely die" (Romans vi, 23; Genesis iii, 17).

But while Adam's act was one of chivalry—was really suicide because of love for his wife, who had transgressed—nevertheless, it was an act of disobedience. He should have had loyalty to his Creator first, above his loyalty to his wife. Indeed, we have reason to believe that Mother Eve's transgression might have been cancelled in some manner, since it was committed under deception. Father Adam's course should have been to remain loyal to God at all hazards, and to have trusted to Divine love and wisdom in respect to the results. Everywhere the Scriptures lay stress upon Adam's disobedience, which was a wilful sin against light and knowledge.

The sinners hid themselves in the Garden. The inference is that, previously, they had enjoyed fellowship and communion with their Creator, but as soon as they sinned they realized their unworthiness of Divine fellowship—sin turned them away from God. Instead of the happiness of His fellowship, they had discontent and evil forebodings of estrangement. They had lost their God, and, by virtue of their very nature, they would, in consequence, be measurably unhappy—one of the principal elements of their nature, therefore, was hunger and thirst for God, which was not gratified. A barrier had come between the Creator and His creatures.

The estrangement which our first parents experienced, dating from the time of their sin, is one which all mankind has inherited from them. The Prophet David speaks of this, saying that the world is estranged from birth; and, speaking of himself, declares: "I was shapen in iniquity, in sin did my mother conceive me" (Psalms li, 5). God is not to be charged with the responsibility of this estrangement. It comes to all as the result or outworking of sin. All are sinners, and all feel themselves unworthy of the fellowship of their Creator, and realize themselves undeserving of His blessing. The fear which drove our first parents to hide has since then driven many still further from God as they have delved yet more deeply into sin, not only because of heredity, but also through taking a perverse course themselves. The fear has increased, and to-day one of the most terrible maladies on earth is fear—dread. It is not surprising that we find the heathen, thousands of millions, fearing, dreading, not with that fear which is the beginning of wisdom, and which leads back to God, but with that fear or terror which leads them to think of Him as a great Demon, who has provided for their eternal torture.

The same principle operates in the minds of people born in civilized lands. There is a fear, a dread respecting the future, a dread which takes hold also upon things of the present life. This fear toward God, the Scriptures declare, is wrong, saying: "Their fear toward Me is taught by the precepts of men" (Isa. 29:13). These precepts of men are represented in our various creeds, all of which claim to be the Word of the Lord, but all of which are the product of fearful, human minds.

God's Word does not uphold a single creed of Christendom, nor does a single creed of Christendom uphold God's Word. They all contain certain elements of truth, around which great masses of error have gathered. However, if only such as conscientiously believe every feature of their creeds should remain with them, and if all others were to step out, honestly and fearlessly, the creeds would be found to have very few worshippers. They are fashions of idol worship, surely displeasing to the Lord. Let every one oppose this tear which has done so much to discredit God and His Word and so much to turn the hearts and minds of the best people in the world away from God and the Bible.

PEOPLE'S PULPIT.

The Lesson of Adam's Disobedience—Mankind Pursued by God's Grace.

While our first parents hid from God, and all of our race have the same disposition because of fear, God, nevertheless, has not hidden from His creatures. As He called after Adam, saying: "Where art thou?" and brought Adam forth from his hiding place, so in due time all of Adam's children will be pursued by His grace and mercy until all shall come to know of the love of God which passeth all human understanding.

We are not informed that our first parents afterward repented of their disobedience. We merely know that they could not retrace their steps. The sentence of death upon them was enforced. They were driven out of Eden—away from the life-sustaining fruits. The Divine sentence against them was, "Dying, thou shalt die." Gradually the dying process operated against the perfect man until, after nine hundred and thirty years of struggling, he succumbed—he was dead. The Divine sentence against our first parents descended to their posterity. As God said to Mother Eve, "I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception," so has it been with all of her daughters.

And God said to Adam, "In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread until thou return unto the ground from whence thou was taken." So Adam's sons also have contended with the thorns and thistles, and in sweat of face, have labored for sustenance, gradually succumbing to the cares of human life—down to dust returning. But as God called after the sinner in Eden, so He has called after the sinner since, but remarkably few have had the hearing ear.

Amongst those mentioned in the Bible who heard the voice of God and obtained reconciliation, we remember Enoch, Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and all the prophets, the Apostles, etc. But the masses of mankind have not at any time been ready to hearken to God's voice. Fear has driven them further and further away from the Only Name. The question is a proper one here, How long will God call after the sinner? How long will the sinner continue to be fearful of His Creator, and continue to be fearful of Him? And is God calling as loudly as Divine Justice, Wisdom, Love and Power can call? If not, why not?

God's call was gladly increased in the days of our Saviour and since. Men have heard of God's love and mercy and His invitation to become reconciled to Him; but many still baffle in the teachings of the Dark Ages, regarding eternal torment, which tends to drive them to fear and away from God. The Apostle declares what we, as Bible students, more and more appreciate, namely, that it is the Love of God that constrains, that makes us happy, that brings "the peace of God which passeth all understanding." On the contrary, as St. Paul declares, the doctrines of devils bring fear, tormenting dread, and cause men to hide from God. Many, unquestionably, in the past have attended church services, not because of love for God, but because of a truly worshipful spirit, but from fear, and in hope that by thus rendering some outward homage to the Name Divine they might escape torture in the future.

We are not for a moment to think of such people as hearing the Divine Voice. They are serving as are the heathen, who have never heard of the true God, in any sense of the word.

We may be inclined to wonder that our Almighty Creator has apparently pursued the human family with His voice of love and mercy and invitation to reconciliation for so long, in so peculiar a manner—effecting such a small proportion of the thousands of millions of our race. Once this greatly perplexed us all; now, through our study of the Scriptures, we are learning, dear Bible students, why things are thus. We are learning that God is now calling merely a special class—"the elect"—those who love righteousness and hate iniquity—those who hunger and thirst after righteousness and fellowship Divine. To these God is now holding out a special invitation. His message is, "Gather together My saints unto Me—those who have made a covenant with Me by sacrifice."

Some may inquire, Why does not God do a greater work? Why does He allow clouds and darkness to obscure His Character, and Word, and Plan? Why does He allow darkness to cover the earth and gross darkness the heathen? Why does He permit sin to be so prevalent that whosoever will live godly shall suffer persecution, shall find the way of righteousness a narrow one, a difficult one? Why does God not restrain the powers of Satan, and spread the light of the knowledge of His glory throughout the whole earth? Why does He seem to leave the entire matter in our poor, bungling, imperfect hands?

Why does He seem thus indifferent to the heathen thousands of millions and to the masses of Christendom? Ah! there is a reason, which saintly ones are gradually coming to see, and which, more and more, is causing them to rejoice, through faith. We now see plainly stated in God's Word that the class now being selected is called for a purpose—a glorious purpose—in which Adam and all of his race shall eventually have a blessing. We see that Divine grace is now selecting the Church, and that while few have been called as compared with the masses of mankind, many more are called than will eventually be chosen. The "elect" class is to be made associates with Jesus in His Messianic Kingdom, "Heirs of God, joint-heirs with Jesus Christ."

So, as soon as the full number of "elect" shall have been found and snail have been tested and found worthy, the present method of Divine operation will change completely. No longer will God call after the sinner, "Where art thou?" No longer will preaching be the Divine method of pursuing sinners. On the contrary, everything pertaining to human interests will, for a thousand years, be turned over to Messiah's Kingdom. He shall reign from sea to sea, and from the river to the ends of the earth. His Kingdom will exercise force. "The Law shall go forth from Mt. Zion, and the Word of the Lord," respecting that Law, from Jerusalem; "and it shall come to pass that the soul who will not obey that great Prophet, Priest, King, Instructor, will be destroyed from amongst the people" (Acts iii, 19-23).

To what extent the various beliefs of the heathen and the creeds of Christendom are the work of demons, Satan and his hosts, no human being can tell. We may merely surmise, on the strength of the Apostle's words, that we wrestle not with flesh and blood merely, but with invisible "principalities and powers, wicked spirits in high places." We may judge this also from the intimation that Satan has been deceiving the whole world. We remember the Apostle's declaration respecting the "doctrines of demons" (Ephesians vi, 11, 12; R. V.; I. Timothy iv, 1).

When the True Light shall shine, when the Prince of Light, the King of glory, shall take to Himself, His great power and reign, and the Prince of darkness shall be bound, then the light of the knowledge of the glory of God shall fill the whole earth—then the many misrepresentations of the Divine character and Divine Plan will vanish; the blind eyes shall be opened, the deaf ears shall be unstopped, and the knowledge of God's will and of His gracious Plan of Salvation will be fully made known to every creature.

As we have already seen, these blessings will begin at the time when the Elect Church shall be completed. The blessings of the Messianic Kingdom, according to the Bible, will come first to the Jews. Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and all the Prophets will be the earthly Representatives of the invisible Messiah. These will be the Princes in all the earth (Psa. xiv, 16).

Soon the race will be started upon the Highway of Holiness, encouraged by rewards of health and strength and uplifting blessings, and stimulated by the stripes and punishments which will be visited upon evil doers in that time. Thus "the judgments of the Lord will be abroad in the earth," rewarding righteousness and promptly will be visited upon evil doers in that and thought. The result is clearly stated in the Scriptures—"The inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness" (Isaiah xxvi, 9).

Nevertheless, we are not to forget the explicit teaching of God's Word to the effect that at the conclusion of Messiah's reign, when sin and death shall have been fully lifted up, and when all shall have been lifted up to perfection—except the wilful sinners who will be destroyed in the Second Death—even then God will not permit the perfect ones of that time to enter upon eternal conditions until first they shall have been subjected to severe trial and testing. Satan shall be loosed from his prison-house "for a little season," for this very purpose of testing the perfected world. All men living, perfect in mind and body, should be loyal to God to the very core—should be able to stand any test of loyalty. Such as yield to sin and become disobedient to God will be counted unworthy of eternal life, and will be destroyed in the Second Death, from which there will be no recovery. St. Peter tells us of such that they will die like natural, brute beasts.

In conclusion, Pastor Russell urged upon his hearers that such of them as have become Christians indeed by entire consecration to God and endeavor to do His will—such as are seeking joint-heritship with Christ in His Kingdom of glory, honor and immortality—should "lay aside every weight and every besetting sin, and run with patience the race set before them" in the Gospel. Thus they will make their "calling and election sure" and gain an abundant entrance into the everlasting Kingdom which is to bless the world (2 Peter iii, 13).

A Story of Storey.

An English paper tells a little anecdote of the distinguished painter Storey in his capacity of teacher of perspective at the Royal Academy: On one occasion Mr. Storey accepted an invitation to dine with the wealthy—and Philistine—father of one of his pupils. Over the undeniable port the by no means doting parent inquired how his son was getting on, and, although the kindest of men, Mr. Storey would not bring himself to say much that was favorable. "Humph!" grunted the man of money. "Well, I hope he will turn out an artist, for I am quite sure he's not fit to be anything else."

The Resort Prospectus.

"Going to run daily excursions this year?" "Oh, yes." "I notice you don't advertise a gorge any more."

"No; I made it a ravine instead. Some people thought a gorge meant a lot to eat."
