FATAL AUTO ACCIDENT

Took Place Near Cobourg—Pedestrian Struck by a Machine Driven by a Belleville Alderman

INJURIES PROVED FATAL

On Friday night last, Alderman Anderson, of Belleville, was motoring from Toronto to his home, and when near Cobourg, an accident occurred which unfortunately had had fatal results. It appears that Ald. Anderson was endeavoring to evade a vehicle which was stopped on the road, and in doing so struck a man who was walking along the highway at that point. The unfortunate man was Mr. Anderson, of Grafton, and he was not thought to be seriously injured. He was conveyed to the Cobourg hospital, where, despite the best of care, he passed away at 7 o'clock Sunday evening.

Ald. Anderson states that the man deliberately walked in front of the machine and that he (Alderman Anderson) ran it into the ditch and up against the fence. He feels confident that he was not to blame for the accident.

LAWN SOCIAL

Held By Ladies' Aid of Mill St. Church a Big Success

Last evening the Ladies' Aid of the Mill Street Presbyterian church, held a very successful lawn social at the home of Mr. Wm. Carruthers, Sullivan street. The grounds were prettily decorated with bunting and Chinese lanterns, making a very pretty picture beneath the green of the overhanging trees.

Although the weather looked threatening early in the evening, it remained fine and quite a number of the congregation and their friends joined in the social hour. A short program was rendered. The Messrs. Elliott gave a number of cornet selections and the Thomas Quartette sang twice and were obliged to answer to encores. Miss Laurenceson and little Miss Fortner delighted the audience with their solos.

After the program, although the candles of the Chinese lanterns were beginning to fail, everyone enjoyed the coffee and cake, and ice cream and candy.

The ladies are to be congratulated on the success of their lawn social.

LATE T. DIXON CRAIG

Conservative Representative for Many Years Favored Reciprocity

In a discussion in the House of Commons in 1894, the late T. Dixon Craig, the Conservative representative for many years, said:—"I am a firm protectionist, but at the same time agree with much that was said by the Opposition with regard to Reciprocity with the United States. I would like to see trade both with the United States and Britain promoted."

LOW WATER IN STONEY LAKE.

Stoney Lake, Aug. 21.—The water in Stoney Lake has never been lower for many years than it is at the present time, even last year's record for low water having been surpassed and the end is not yet.

During the past two weeks the water has gone down very rapidly and within the last few days the shrinkage has been very noticeable. Rocks are popping above the water that are usually submerged, and others deeper down, over which the steamers used to pass without any trouble, are within striking distance and as a result steamers bump somewhere on every trip.

SOFT BALL LEAGUE.

The Y. M. C. A. and Baptists came together last evening for the second time. As the night was dark only three innings could be played. The game, however, was close, except for the last innings when the ball could not be seen.

The Baptists won the flip and took the field. The Y. M. C. A. scored 2 runs. Then the Baptists came to bat and scored 4 runs. In the second innings the Y. M. C. A. scored 3 runs and the Baptists 1, tying the score.

In the last innings the Y. M. C. A. scored 2 and the Baptists 12, making the score 17-7 in favor of the Baptists. The game had to be called off on account of darkness and will have to be played over again.

The Methodists and Baptists come together Friday evening to play the protested game.

for a time, trying in vain to recall who came nearest in succession. At last a happy inspiration came to him and he answered: "The undertaker."

BRITAIN'S OLDEST SOLDIER.—The oldest soldier in the British army has retired with the remarkable record of over half a century with the colors. He is Drummer Richard Hogan, a gray-haired veteran of the York and Lancaster Regiment, who has served his country fifty-two years. All this time he has worn the "Tiger and Rose," the regimental crest of the York and Lancasters. Hogan enlisted at Crinkle, King's county Ireland, in July 1858, and saw in the following years a good deal of service abroad. He spent a long time in India and took part in the Soudan campaign, in 1884, for which he received the medal and clasp and the Khelive's bronze star.

WANT SHAKING UP.—Judging from the poor showing of the pupils of our Collegiate Institute at the recent examinations, it would appear advisable for the Board to take some interest in the institution. An opinion exists in the mind of many parents who are spending money for the education of boys and girls, that they are getting poor returns for their outlay. Now we are not attaching the blame for this condition of affairs to any teacher on the staff, but if there is a weakness in any department it is up to the Board to get after that particular weakness and weed it out. No favoritism should be shown to churches or societies when it comes to selecting the staff, for the best is none too good for Cobourg. The Board should get busy at once and see that our Institute makes a better record this coming year.—Cobourg Post.

PORT HOPE, AUG. 23 1911

A TROUBLESOME MISGIVING

The one consolation was that he alone suffered. His mother was no doubt occasionally troubled by solicitude on his account but she could not divine his inward miseries and an assurance that he had no material cares sufficed to set her mind at ease.

You are very like your father, Godwin, she said with a sigh. He couldn't rest, however well he seemed to be getting on. There was always something he wanted, and yet he didn't know what it was.

'Yes I must be like him,' Godwin replied smiling.

He stayed five days then returned to Bristol. A week after that his mother forwarded to him a letter which had come to Twybridge. He at once recognised the writing and broke the envelope with curiosity.

'If you should be in London, the note began, I beg you to let me see you. There is something I have to say. To speak to you for a few minutes I would come any distance. Don't accuse me of having treacherously, it was not my fault. I know you would rather avoid me but do consent to hear what I have to say. If you have no intention of coming to London, will you write and let me know where you are living? M. M.'

What could Marcella have to say to him? Nothing surely that he at all cared to hear. No doubt she imagined that he might be in ignorance of the circumstances which had led to Buckland Warricombe's discovery; she wished to defend herself against the suspicion of 'treachery. He laughed carelessly and threw her note aside.

Two months passed and his efforts to find employment were still vain though he had received conditional promises. The solitude of his life grew burdensome. Several times he began a letter to Sidwell but his difficulty in writing was so great that he destroyed the attempt. In truth he knew not how to address her. The words he penned were timid, meaningless. He could not send professions of love, for his heart seemed to be suffering a paralysis and the laborious artificiality of his style must have been evident. The only excuse for breaking silence would be to let her know that he had resumed honest work; he must wait till the opportunity offered. It did not distress him to be without news of her. It she wished to write and was only withheld by ignorance of his whereabouts, it was well; if she had no thought of sending him a word, it did not matter. He loved her, and consciously nourished hope, but for the present there was nothing intolerable in separation. His state of mind resulted partly from nervous reaction and in part from a sense that only by silent suffering could his dignity in Sidwell's eyes be ultimately restored. Between the evil past and the hopeful future must be a complete break.

His thoughts kept turning to London, though not because Sidwell might still be there. He felt urgent need of speaking with a friend. Moxey was perhaps no longer to be considered one; but Earwaker would be tolerant of human weaknesses. To have a long talk with Earwaker would help him to recover his mental balance to understand himself and his position better. So one morning in March, on the spur of the moment, he took train and was once more in the metropolis. On his way he had determined to send a note to Earwaker before calling at Staple Inn. He wrote it at a small hotel in Paddington where he took a room for the night and then spent the evening at a theatre, as the best way of killing time.

By the first post next morning came a card, whereon Earwaker had written—'Be here, if you can, at two o'clock. Shall be glad to see you.'

'So you have been new-furnishing! Godwin remarked as he was admitted to the chambers. 'You look much more comfortable. I'm glad you think so. It is the general opinion.'

They had shaken hands as though this were one of the ordinary meetings of old time and their voices scarcely belied the appearance. Peak moved about the study glancing at pictures and books, Earwaker eyeing him the while with not unfriendly expression. They were sincerely glad to see each other and when Peak seated himself it was with an audible sigh of contentment.

'And what are you doing?' he inquired.

The journalist gave a brief account of his affairs, and Peak brightened with pleasure.

This is good news. I knew you would shake the ragamuffins before long. Give me some of your back numbers, will you? I shall be curious to examine your new style.'

'And you?—Come to live in London?'

'No; I am at Bristol but only waiting. There's a chance of an analyst's place in Lancashire; but I may give the preference to an opening I have heard of in Belgium. Better to go abroad, I think.'

These were, on motion, tabled for consideration.

Mr. Edwards reported that recently, while in Toronto, he had interviewed the officials of the Canadian Northern in regard to a station near Canton, and they told him it was probable an operation station would be established with express facilities, together with two stock yards, coal sheds, etc.

Mr. Caldwell reported that Hope Council committee had interviewed the Clarke Council in regard to Mr. McMillan's road grievance, and they had promised to send their report to

Makes Hair Grow

Davison, the Druggist, has an invigorator that will grow hair or money back.

The time to take care of your hair is when you have hair to take care of.

If your hair is getting thin, gradually falling out, it cannot be long before the spot appears.

The greatest remedy to stop the hair from falling is SALVIA, the Great American Hair Grower, first discovered in England. SALVIA furnishes nourishment to the hair roots and acts so quickly that people are amazed.

And remember, it destroys the dandruff germ, the little pest that saps the life that should go to the hair from the roots.

SALVIA is sold by Davison the Druggist under a positive guarantee to cure dandruff, stop falling hair and itching scalp in ten days, or money back. A large bottle costs 50c. The word "SALVIA" (Latin for Sage) is on every bottle.

MARKET REPORTS.

Liverpool Wheat Futures Close Higher, Chicago Lower—Live Stock—Latest Quotations.

CHICAGO, Aug. 22.—Yesterday's bulge in wheat, occasioned in part by predictions of weather inimical to the crop, was more than lost to-day when the properties failed of fulfilment. The close in oats was 1/4c to 1/2c down yesterday, and the decline in provisions ranged from 5c in January lard to 7c in September pork.

Liverpool closed 1/4d to 1/2d higher than yesterday on wheat and unchanged on corn. Paris wheat closed 1/2c higher, and Berlin 1/2c higher.

ROASTS BOURASSA

Sir Wilfrid Calls Him Falsifier and Deceiver.

RALLY AT ST. EUSTACHE

Premier Holds One of His Best Meetings in Quebec When 3,000 Persons Gather to Hear Him Answer the Charges of the Nationalists—Handles Their Leaders Without Gloves in Strong Speech.

St. Eustache, Que., Aug. 23.—In the shadow of a church, bullet-scarred by the English in the rebellion of 1837, Sir Wilfrid Laurier held one of the best meetings of his Quebec campaign yesterday afternoon in the village of St. Eustache.

Reciprocity was but lightly touched upon, but Sir Wilfrid took occasion to dissect the naval law, obviously to offset the vigorous campaign waged by Mr. Bourassa in this district against this plank of the Liberal platform.

There were about 3,000 at the meeting. Preparations were elaborate, the town being decorated, and Sir Wilfrid was met by twenty-five mounted youths and a band.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier remarked that it was his second appearance before the electorate of St. Eustache, the first occasion having been in 1896. He pointed out that when the Liberal Government had replaced the Conservative Administration ruin had not overwhelmed the manufacturers, as the prophets of the day had promised.

With stinging phrases Sir Wilfrid characterized Bourassa as a falsifier and deceiver. Mr. Bourassa had tried to persuade the people that conscription would follow the navy. In this he lied and knew that he lied.

The Premier also referred to Clifford Sifton, saying that he differed with that gentleman only on the reciprocity question. He said he was amply avenged for Sifton's turning against him by seeing him forced to occupy the same bed as Bourassa and watching the pains which both took to lie as far apart as possible.

To Abandon Delhi Durbar. New York, Aug. 23.—A London cable to The American says:—

In Parliamentary circles it is now considered probable that the Delhi Durbar will not be postponed, but will be altogether abandoned. The proposed coronation of the King in India was from the first intensely unpopular with the Indian Government, which dreaded the enormous expense involved, and also felt uneasy concerning the safety of the monarch.

But the King himself has now suggested the abandonment of the affair in view of the drought famine and terrible ravages of the plague. Moreover, with the working classes of Great Britain seething with discontent, the King feels that the pomp and expense of a Durbar would be altogether out of place.

"Vagrant" Had $7,000.

Chicago, Aug. 23.—A man, apparently eighty years old, decrepit and ragged, who has been wandering around the streets for several days, was taken to the Chicago avenue police station, where $7,000 was found on his person.

While walking past the prisoner's cell, a deputy noticed the old man shuffling a roll of bills, which he could not reach around with both hands. After a while he began throwing the bills through the bars, as though dealing a pack of cards.

A search of his clothing brought forth more than $3,000 in bills, and bank books showing deposits of $3,800.

He mumbled in Norwegian that he had come from Canada, and said his name was Torsten Isaacson Agard.

Going West.

Toronto, Aug. 23.—Officials at the Union Station had a busy time yesterday in handling an unexpected rush of homeseekers for the north-west. They had prepared to handle about 400, but by two o'clock 700 had gathered seeking reservation in the cars.

The party was made up of men, women and children from Western and Northern Ontario districts. It required two special C.P.R. trains to accommodate the party. To-day it is expected that about 4,000 harvesters will leave the Union Station for the west.

Death of Popular Teacher.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 23.—Word was received here yesterday of the death at her parents' home in Thornhill of Miss Marie Harrison, teacher of the junior fourth class in Simcoe street school here. Heart failure caused her death while on her vacation at her old home.

Arrested at the Bridge.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 23.—John Thompson, wanted in Windsor for robbing a Chinese restaurant of $90, was sent back for trial by the provincial police last night, having been arrested at the bridge.

ANOTHER MOTOR DEATH.

Toronto Workman Is Killed by Car Passing Through Subway.

Toronto, Aug. 23.—While returning from his work at the Swansea Pumping Station, Samuel Horton was struck by the lamp of a motor car, owned by Frank Burrows, 68 Roncesvalles avenue, at Ellis avenue subway, on the Lake Shore road, at 11.30 Monday evening, and so seriously injured that he died at the Western Hospital, where he was taken in the car which struck him, a few hours later.

Horton was an engineer at the pumping station. He had been riding his bicycle, but was walking through the subway, and just as the car was within a few feet of him, he stepped to the middle of the road to pick something up, and had not time to reach the side of the road again before the motor struck him.

Beside the owner of the car, who was driving, two men named Watson and Stewart, were in the motor. Immediately after the accident, the three men did their utmost to save Horton's life by hurrying him to the nearest hospital and placing a special physician in charge of him. It is said that the car had no light at the time.

In the Police Court yesterday Burrows was charged with manslaughter and remanded, without bail.

Queer Freak of Lightning.

Mansfield Centre, Conn., Aug. 23.—A bolt of lightning threw itself into the hip pocket of Joseph Barrow, a farmer, as he was sitting in the kitchen of his home here Monday night. The bolt came into the house via the stovepipe, and was attracted to Barrow's hip pocket by the presence there of an iron monkey wrench and a big jack-knife. It passed down his leg, burning him severely, and then cascaded over the floor, upsetting a tub of water and splitting a huge chopping block.

In Barrow's pocket, the end of the wrench and the blade of the knife were fused into a solid piece of steel.

Their Dreams Shattered.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 23.—Armed with cap pistols, a plentiful supply of nickel novels and $11 in cash, Albert Van Tassel and Albert Stinchcombe, both fourteen, had their dreams of being real bandits shattered when Chief Kimmins sent them back to their homes in London, Ont., yesterday. They were arrested when attempting to enter the States.

Body Found in Niagara River.

Niagara Falls, Ont., Aug. 23.—With his clothes neatly piled on the shore, the nude body of James Murray, painter, was found in the lower Niagara River late yesterday. The body had been in the water only a few hours. The authorities will investigate the cause of his death.

OPENS HIS SERIES

Hon. Mr. Sifton Delivers First Speech at Ingersoll.

QUOTES PRESIDENT TAFT

Canadian Government Was Coerced Into Making the Reciprocity Agreement, Says the Ex-Minister—He Declares U. S. Is Angling to Get Hold of Canada's Pulpwood and Other Natural Resources.

Ingersoll, Aug. 23.—Hon. Clifford Sifton, opening his series of meetings in the rink here last night, devoted his attention largely to the farmers' side of the reciprocity question. His address was followed closely by an audience, many of whom were clearly critical of the arguments presented.

"The United States treated Canada for forty years with a sort of indifferent contempt," he declared. "And," he added, "in view of the progress of the negotiations, that Canada discriminated against the United States, was absurd. At the time of the Albany conference, Mr. Sifton asserted there was a string to the outcome and that was an understanding that the Canadian Government should be willing to take up the reciprocity question at an early date.

"The Canadian Government was coerced into making this reciprocity agreement," he affirmed. The Liberal members had the alternative to accept reciprocity as the tariff policy of the party or dissolve their allegiance to that party.

Mr. Sifton quoted from an article by President Taft in Leslie's Weekly on the subject of "Luliewood," which pointed out that the Canadian provinces controlled their own lands and to promote the pulp industry had placed an export duty on pulpwood. The article went on to say that the duty on crown lands pulp had been retained, in order to induce the Canadian provinces over which the Dominion can exercise no control to lift the reduction on the exportation of their pulpwood.

"What do you think of that?" asked Mr. Sifton vehemently. "What do you think of the Government of Canada entering into a combination with the Government of the United States to make a contract for the purpose of forcing the hands of the provinces of Ontario and Quebec and compelling them to let the United States have our forests whether they will or not. That is the position."

"There is not an intelligent man in Canada who does not know that the Province of Ontario is right. There is no justification, there can be no justification for the agreement and I trust when the facts are known there will be many men in Canada who will have the loyalty and determination to cast their party allegiance and destroy this iniquitous act."

Endanger British Food?

London, Aug. 23.—The Evening Globe, referring to Reciprocity, says: The Imperial Government has deliberately assisted in a conspiracy to give the United States something like a corner in transatlantic wheat. When the Americans have firmly established themselves in Canada, and are passing Canadian wheat through Minneapolis mills, the English market will be at their mercy. Our workers are grumbling at the rise of food prices. Even now when the independence of the Canadian source of supply is operative in keeping prices down, but if the great American trusts succeed in making this source subordinate to their own interests the British food supply will be seriously threatened.

Perjury in Camorra Trial.

Viterbo, Italy, Aug. 23.—After much contradictory testimony had been given at the Camorra trial yesterday, the King's prosecutor announced that all witnesses suspected of perjury and of bearing false witness would be prosecuted when the murder trial was concluded.

Judge Faraone yesterday testified that he was satisfied from private information, that Lucia Anastasi, one of the states witnesses, was confident of the carabinieri. Capt. Fabroni denied that this was true.

Fatal Auto Wreck.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 23.—In a triple collision of automobiles in Park Heights avenue last Monday night, F. Holmes Hack, jr., well known in Baltimore society, was killed. Six other persons were slightly injured. Hack's car was running at a high rate of speed, when it collided with another auto, turning upside down. Hack was instantly killed. Thirty minutes later a third automobile ran into the second car, and also turned turtle.

Threw Himself Under Train.

Chicago, Aug. 23.—George Richey of Pittsburg, Pa., said to be a member of a wealthy family there, threw himself in front of a Nickel Plate flyer at Hammond, Ind., and was cut to pieces Monday night. Richey tried three times within the space of a few hours to be run over by a fast train. Twice engineers saw him lying across the rails and avoided killing him by stopping. He let a number of freight trains go by him.

Woman Killed by Auto.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Aug. 23.—Miss Gertrude Davis died yesterday from injuries received by being run down by an automobile at a street crossing at Plymouth Monday night. Andrew Raub, a wealthy mine owner, was also struck, and is in a critical condition. The auto driver is under arrest.

Cost of Strike.

London, Aug. 23.—The railway officials say a conservative estimate of the cost to the community of the recent strikes reaches ten million pounds, exclusive of decreased profits of the companies, amounting to many thousands of pounds.

BORDEN AT OWEN SOUND.

Conservative Leader Gets a Civic Reception.

Owen Sound, Aug. 23.—Owen Sound set a new fashion for the tour of the Conservative leader. For the first time since the campaign began, a special civic reception was held. At Berlin an address of welcome was made by the mayor at the evening meeting, but here the civic reception was distinct and was tendered on Mr. Borden's arrival.

Mr. Borden was met at the station by the mayor and by the Conservatives of the town. A procession was at once formed and proceeded to the market square. Here Mayor Lemon read the address of welcome, which was entirely non-partisan, though very cordial. Mr. Borden in reply expressed his sincere appreciation of the welcome.

The meeting in the evening was held in the capacious roller rink, where three thousand people gave Mr. Borden a warm reception as he walked up the aisle and took his seat.

James McLaughlin, Mr. Borden's host while here, was in the chair and on the platform were Dr. Sproule, ex-M.P. for East Grey; W. S. Middlebro, ex-M.P. for North Grey; George M. Boyd, ex-M.P.P. for North Grey, and Mayor Lemon. The civic welcome was not the only unusual feature of the reception here. Another unusual element was the presence on the platform of a considerable number of ladies.

W. S. Middlebro, the candidate, began by expressing his pleasure at being on the platform with "our next Premier." He closed with a warning as to President Taft's object in seeking the agreement in order that Canada might be drawn into the United States.

The chairman, as president of the Conservative Association of North Grey, read an address of welcome to the Conservative leader, and then Mr. Borden opened his address.

Mr. Borden in the course of his address told the audience that he had come to warn the people of North Grey of the national danger involved in the reciprocity agreement. "You cannot," he said, "build up a nation on material prosperity alone, you must be touched and quickened by a sense of responsibility in this country and in this Empire. For the last forty years we have been trying to build up a great nation within this British Empire. President Taft says we are at the parting of the ways. We know the path of Canadian unity and British connection. President Taft says there is another path. I ask you that on Sept. 21 you send a message to President Taft and to Sir Wilfrid Laurier that you intend to continue in the old path of Canadian unity and British connection."

BRIEFS FROM THE WIRES.

Franco-German negotiations on the Moroccan dispute are giving rise to war rumors.

Leonardo da Vinci's masterpiece, "The Giocondo," has disappeared from the Louvre, Paris.

Mrs. Allen Karn died at London from injuries received in jumping off a moving street car.

Burney Goddard of Beamville has been arrested on a charge of sending threatening letters to Miss Annie Black.

John D. Rockefeller has given another $1,000,000 to the Rockefeller Institute of Medical Research, according to an unconfirmed report.

It may now be said that Pope Pius is entirely convalescent. Doctors Marchiafava and Petacci have ceased their visits to the pontiff.

Bids for the construction of the new navy are still being considered at Ottawa, and it is not likely that the contract will be awarded for some time.

There are persistent rumors that Archbishop Bruchesi is to receive a cardinalate at the next consistory or earlier if necessitated by the pontiff's illness.

J. E. Baudet has been forced to retire as Conservative candidate owing to severe illness, and L. H. Huard, a prominent local merchant, has been chosen to contest Megantic County.

New Terminal Assured.

Montreal, Aug. 23.—C.P.R. officials yesterday confirmed the report of the building of a new terminal near Western Junction, ten miles out of this city. The official report reads: "The Canadian Pacific Railway has started work on another huge undertaking in connection with their Montreal transportation facilities. Out near Western Junction the company is building a new terminal headquarters, which consists of a large twenty-four stall engine house, a machine shop, a turntable, a coaling plant, a stores building, a rooming and lodging house capable of accommodating one hundred men, and a car shunting and storage yard of two thousand cars capacity. Eventually the new terminal will have a capacity of four thousand cars."

Canada's Possibilities.

New York, Aug. 23.—Frank Coffey, one of the wealthiest men in Sydney, Australia, arrived in New York Monday, and among the first places he visited was Park Row, where, thirty years ago, he was a compositor, "sticking type." Since going to Australia, Coffey has made a fortune of more than a million dollars in publishing enterprises.

Coffee, who is making a business trip around the world, said yesterday: "New York is a wonder beyond description, and my adopted country, Australia, is another marvel, but Canada, which I have just visited, has possibilities undreamed of. Vast fortunes will be made there every year."

Collided With Ferry Boat.

Brockville, Aug. 23.—At the C.P.R. dock yesterday the new passenger steamer Geronia collided with the ferry boat Bigelow, doing a couple of hundred dollars' damage or more to the latter. The master of the Geronia misjudged the distance of the landing and the sterns of the boats came together with a crash.

PERILOUS TACTICS

Lloyd-George Rebukes Mr. Keir Hardie For Speech.

ACCUSATIONS ARE FALSE

Socialist Leader Charges Chancellor of the Exchequer With Not Bringing Some Pressure to Bear on the Capitalists as on the Workers—Inflammatory Proceedings, Says Mr. Lloyd-George.

London, Aug. 23.—There was a lively passage between James Kier Hardie, the Socialist leader, and David Lloyd-George, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, during yesterday's session of the House of Commons. Mr. Hardie accused the Government of taking the side of the railway directors in the strike and said if the Government had brought the same pressure to bear on the directors as it had on the men there would have been no strike. He declared vehemently that the men who had been shot down by troops during the strike "were murdered in the interest of the capitalistic system." As a protest against the conduct of the Government he moved an amendment to the motion for adjournment that the House of Commons adjourn to August 29 instead of October 24.

Mr. Lloyd-George replied that the great conflagration had been put out but that there were still smouldering fires here and there about the country, which at any moment might burst into flame. He declared he knew nothing which was more likely to bring about such a disaster and perhaps cause the men to fling away what their leaders had claimed was a triumph for them than "such grossly inaccurate statements" as had been made by Mr. Hardie.

The Chancellor said there was "not a syllable of truth" in the allegations of Mr. Hardie that the Government had sided with the railway directors. He asserted that it was due to pressure brought to bear by the Government on the directors that induced them to meet the representatives of the men face to face. The Government, he added, had used its whole power to see that justice was done both parties to the dispute.

Nearing the End.

Fort Plain, N.Y., Aug. 23.—Another remarkable spin through the air on his aeroplane flight from St. Louis to New York brought Harry N. Atwood, the aviator, from Belle Isle, five miles west of Syracuse, to Fort Plain, late yesterday afternoon, and landed him 95 miles nearer his destination. He is now 1,035 miles from his starting place and exactly 200 miles from his proposed alighting point in New York.

His actual flying time yesterday was two hours and ten minutes, and was made without a stop.

"The air was as dead calm as a pool," said Atwood. "Most of the time I kept my hands in my pockets or read a timetable."

Atwood believes he possibly may make New York to-day, but more probably to-morrow, because, on account of the rough and wooded country from Albany down the Hudson River he may be compelled to descend in difficult places or effect landings in the water.

Message Round World.

New York, Aug. 23.—In order to ascertain the speed at which a commercial message could be sent around the world by cable, The New York Times filed a despatch, reading: "This message sent around world," in the telegraph room, on the seventeenth floor of The Times Building, exactly at 7, and the reply was received by the same operator at 7.16.30 p.m. The time occupied in the journey of 23,613 land miles, including sixteen relays, gave an average speed of twenty-nine miles a second.

When the Pacific cable was opened eleven years ago a special message was flashed around the world in 9 1/2 minutes. The Times' message, however, was handled without previous preparation.

White Frost in West.

Winnipeg, Aug. 23.—While the Dominion Government's meteorological readings for the past 24 hours show no traces of actual frost, special despatches from western points show that a white frost has fallen at four or five points. It was in no case very heavy, and most of the cutting was already finished in the districts visited. Official reports have been issued from the office of agriculture for Saskatchewan stating that the damage done Sunday and Monday night will not seriously affect the general yield. Five thousand harvesters arrived last night and this morning. Harvesting will be general in Southern Manitoba by the end of the week.

Excursion Steamer Burned.

Hammond, Ind., Aug. 23.—More than 250 women and children excursionists were imperilled when the Tourist, a new passenger boat on the Calumet River, was burned to the water's edge while running from Hammond to Riverdale, Ind. The boat was beached to save the passengers. Fire broke out in the hold of the boat, near the engine rooms, while the craft was in midstream. Flames bursting out of the portholes precipitated a panic among the passengers, who fled to the upper deck. Many jumped overboard into shallow water and waded ashore.

Young Woman Takes Poison.

Hamilton, Aug. 23.—Mildred Hanrahan, a young woman who resides at 110 Market street, was found dying in Dundurn Park by one of the keepers early yesterday, with an empty carbolic acid bottle beside her. A note addressed to her mother was found pinned on her clothing. An ambulance rushed the girl to the hospital but the doctors have little hopes of saving her life.

PRACTICAL DEMONSTRATION.—The farmers along the border in Ontario and Quebec have had a practical demonstration of the value of the United States market in respect to one of the products of their farms. When the United States duty on cream was 5 cents a pound, no Canadian cream entered the United States, but when, by a mistake in the drafting of the schedule, it was in 1909 reduced to 3 cents a gallon, in the eleven months ending with May last, $1,693,000 worth of Canadian cream was sold there. Here is a fact which outweighs much theory.
