As to "OLVER" Prices

There is but one price always, and it is fair to both of us. It may or may not seem unfair to charge you a certain price while your neighbor can get the advantage of a little lower price for the same article, but we would rather not do business that way, and therefore we intend to continue our business on the same plan adopted just nine years ago—one fair price to everybody, rich or poor; and cash with every sale.

Is it not reasonable to see that having no debts, or losses through non-payments, we are able to give the best values? Remember our special departments,

NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Brown & Colwill give the Skating Rink—The Band give their services—you give only 15c for a ticket, but it helps.

SPORTING SKITS

HOCKEY.
The hockey match last night did not prove very exciting. Port Hope had for their opponents a team composed of Picton and Belleville players, and the game went along with six men aside. Port Hope won by a score of 14 to 7, and they might easily have made it 24.

The Belleville team left this morning for Peterboro, and will play their remaining games there.

The High School team defeated the Bowmanville High School seven this morning by a score of 8 to 1. The local boys played a very speedy game, and used their combination to advantage.

THE CHURCHES.

Methodist.
In the morning the pastor, Rev. W. G. Clarke, will preach. In the evening the Rev. Dr. Shorey will conduct the services. In the afternoon Decision Day will be held in the Sunday School.

At 11 a.m., subject of sermon, "The God that answers by fire."
At 3 p.m., Sunday School and Young Men's Brotherhood. Decision Day—"Choose ye this whom ye will serve."

7 p.m., the Rev. Dr. Shorey will preach on "The Great Commission of the Church."

The public are cordially invited to any or all of these services.

Baptist.
"Past, Present, Prospect," will be the morning sermon subject tomorrow. The evening theme will be, "Summoned to Supreme Court." The pastor, Rev. J. S. LaFlair, will conduct the services.

The special services will be continued next week, with Rev. J. R. Webb, of Peterboro, assisting the pastor.

DEPLORABLE CASE

Family of Six Living in Three Rooms in a Filthy Condition

Two Children Taken Over By Children's Aid Society

The old saying "that one half of the world does not know how the other half lives" is very true and was clearly demonstrated here yesterday. We had in our midst, yes, in the very centre of our town, one of the most deplorable cases that has come before our notice for years. It was through the work of our Children's Aid Society and Mr. W. A. Gunton of the Department of Neglected Children, Toronto, that this state of affairs was brought to light, and steps have already been taken to remedy it.

It was with an English family, husband, wife and four children, where the trouble existed. This family was housed in three rooms and according to Mr. Gunton's report the place was in a filthy condition. The children ranging in ages from 1 1/2 to 8 years had not sufficient clothing to permit them leaving the house and water was practically unknown to them. Their hair stood straight out, being a mass of grease and filth. There was only one bed in the place and the only bed clothing found was one quilt, a blanket and one pillow.

Ashes were strewn all about the floor and when asked if they were not afraid of setting fire to the place, the mother replied that she sprinkled water on the ashes before distributing them.

Mr. Gunton had the four children removed and the mother and father were brought before Magistrate White. They admitted the state of affairs as revealed by Mr.

Gunton, but promised to do better.

The father stated that he worked at the Standard Ideal and earned $11 per week of which amount he gave his wife $6.50 and he paid the rent. He was a moderate drinker and his wife indulged also. He pleaded hard to have his children returned and promised to have things fixed up properly.

Mr. Chesher told that on one occasion when he visited the house he found the four children alone and the two youngest were having an exciting duel with a butcher knife and paring knife.

The magistrate decided to commit the two girls to the shelter in Toronto and the boys were returned to their parents. Two ladies looked after the boys yesterday and gave them a much needed bath and fitted them out with new clothing. A close watch will be kept upon the parents and if a decided improvement is not made, the boys will be sent to the shelter also.

POLICE COURT

Milton Thompson Stole Jewelry and Gave It To His Friend in Peterboro

Sent Down For Two Months

Milton Thompson was in the Police Court this morning charged with stealing three rings, one bracelet and a chain with a locket attached, the property of Miss Ella Boyd. Thompson pleaded guilty.

Thompson and Miss Boyd were employed at the Royal Hotel and one day last week he visited Miss Boyd's room and stole the jewellery mentioned above. He at once left town and Miss Boyd reported the matter to Chief Bond. The Chief learned that he had gone north and sent a letter to the Peterboro Police giving a description of Thompson and asking them to be on the look out for him. The Peterboro Police located him at 525 Cedar street, living at the home of Miss Lumb, who by the way had spent several months in Port Hope. Chief Bond went to Peterboro yesterday morning and found Thompson at the National Hotel, where he was engaged as porter. He only had one ring of the missing jewellery and he told the Chief that he had given the others to his fiancée, Miss Evelyn Jarrell. Evelyn was located at the White House and was relieved of her diamonds and bracelet.

Thompson was brought in on the 10.10 train last night and the only explanation he could offer to the Court this morning was that he intended to return the jewellery and had given them to Evelyn merely for safe keeping.

The Magistrate stated that there was no excuse whatever for Thompson's actions. He visited this young lady's room, deliberately stole her jewellery and then went to Peterboro and gave it away. He would commit him to the Counties' jail for two months at hard labor.

When the Peterboro Police visited the Lumb residence they found Wesley Thompson a brother of the defendant, in bed and placed him under arrest. Upon his explanation of the affair, he was released. Mr. W. F. Kerr, Crown Attorney, conducted the prosecution.

COUNTY L. O. L. MET ON TUESDAY

The annual meeting of the County L. O. L. of East Durham was held in the Lodge room of L. O. L. No. 79, Millbrook on Tuesday, and was fairly well attended considering the storm on the previous day which no doubt stopped many from a distance from being present.

The reports received from the different districts were very encouraging and showing the primary lodges to be in a very prosperous condition.

It was decided by the County to accept the invitation from Cobourg to celebrate the coming 12th of July in that town where a monster demonstration will be held. After the business had been transacted the election of officers was then proceeded with, which resulted in nearly all the old officers being re-elected. The following are the officers:—

C. M.—Bro. J. McMillan, Port Hope
C. D. M.—Bro. J. H. Wilson, Port Hope.
Chap.—Bro. J. Carl, Canton.
F. S.—Bro. A. Henderson, Millbrook.
R. S.—Bro. G. Fowler, Millbrook.
Treas.—Bro. T. B. Collins, Millbrook.
D. of C.—Bro. Dickinson, Bewdley 1st Lect.—Bro. A. Reynolds, Springfield.
2nd Lect.—Bro. C. Morrison Port Hope

The officers were installed by Bro. Jas. Paul, P. C. M. Short speeches were delivered from the brethren elect and others. The singing of the National Anthem brought to a close a very successful meeting.

The steam shovel has arrived and is at work on Ontario street to-day.

AT THE GRAND

"THE FINAL SETTLEMENT" is hardly a suitable title for the play of that name, which will be presented at the Grand on Wednesday, Feb. 15th, for the reason that the piece is far above what the name would indicate. It isn't a story of border warfare, wild west gunplay, or even New York's shady life, but a good story of a condition of affairs known in all walks of life, the elevation of a man's millions over his honor, love and respect and the old, old story of an infatuation for the millions without the real feeling of devotion, just such a story as recently startled the country in New York high life, the story of a man elevated to his lofty position by an honest, plain and sincere woman whose place in his heart is taken by the flash of frills and feathers of an actress whose charms ensnare him in their meshes until "The Final Settlement" when as a wreck, without fortune or the position that was his he learns how empty is such glimmer after all. The play is as pretty a piece as has been dramatized for quite a while. One of the very best features of it is the thorough manner in which it is staged, all of the small details being carefully attended to, and it is a play which will attract bigger audiences every time it is produced, for while it holds to perhaps the harsher facts of real life, it nevertheless polishes them to a suitable degree and holds the attention of an audience completely absorbed until the end. The details are all arranged in a satisfactory way and the story doesn't go ahead of itself, the tale unfolding in an easy, natural way to make it better in each act until the close, when its real moral becomes apparent. It is a truly good story and it will be truly well told by the company.

A TROUBLESOME MISGIVING

The result was disillusion. Not even in these class rooms could he hear the word for which he waited, the bold announcement of newly discovered law, the science which had completely broken with tradition. He came away unsatisfied, and brooded upon the possibilities which would open for him when he was no longer dependent.

His evening work at home was subject to a disturbance which would have led him to seek other lodgings, could he have hoped to find any so cheap as these. The landlady's son, a lank youth of the clerk species, was wont to amuse himself from eight to ten with practice on a piano. By dint of perseverance he had learned to strum two or three hymnal melodies popularized by American evangelists; occasionally he even added the charm of his voice, which had a pietistic nasality not easily endured by an ear of any refinement. Not only was Godwin harassed by the recurrence of these performances, the tunes worked themselves into his brain, and sometimes throughout a whole day their burden clanged and squaled incessantly on his mental hearing. He longed to entreat forbearance from the musician, but an excess of delicacy — which always ruled his behaviour — kept him silent. Certain passages in the classics, and many an elaborate mathematical formula, long retained for him an association with the cadences of revivalist hymnody.

Like all proud natures condemned to solitude, he tried to convince himself that he had no need of society, that he despised its attractions, and could be self-sufficing. So far was this from the truth that he often regarded with bitter envy those of his fellow-students who had the social air, who conversed freely among their equals, and showed that the pursuits of the College were only a part of their existence. These young men were either preparing for the University, or would pass from Whitelaw to business, profession, official training; in any case, a track was marked out for them by the zealous care of relatives and friends, and their efforts would always be aided, applauded by a kindly circle. Some of them Godwin could not but admire, so healthful were they, so bright of intellect, and courteous of manner,—a type distinct from any he had formerly observed. Others were antipathetic to him. Their aggressive gentility conflicted with the wariness of his self-esteem; such a one, for instance as Bruno Chilvers, the sound of whose mincing voice, as he read in the class, so irritated him that at times he had to cover his ears. Yet did it chance that one of these offensive youths addressed a civil word to him, on the instant his prejudice was disarmed, and his emotions flowed forth in a response to which he gladly would have given free expression. When he was invited to meet the relatives of Buckland Warricombe, shyness prepossessed him against them: but the frank kindness of his reception moved him, and on going away he was ashamed to have replied so boorishly to attentions so amiably meant. The same note of character sounded in what personal intercourse he had with the Professors. Though his spirit of criticism was at times busy with these gentlemen, he had for most of them a profound regard; and to be elected by one or other for a word of commendation, a little private assistance, a well-phrased inquiry as to his progress, always made his heart beat high with gratitude. They were his first exemplars of finished courtesy, of delicate culture; and he could never sufficiently regret that no one of them was aware how thankfully he recognized his debt.

In longing for the intimacy of refined people, he began to modify his sentiments with regard to the female sex. His first-prize day at Whitelaw was the first occasion on which he sat in an assembly where ladies (as he understood the title) could be seen and heard. The impression he received was deep and lasting. On the seat behind him were two girls whose intermittent talk held him with irresistible charm throughout the whole ceremony. He had not imagined that girls could display such intelligence, and the sweet clearness of their intonation, the purity of their accent, the grace of their habitual phrases, were things altogether beyond his experience. This was not the English he had been wont to hear on female lips. His mother and his aunt spoke with propriety; their associates were soft-tongued; but here was something quite different from inoffensiveness of tone and diction. Godwin appreciating the differentiating cause. These young ladies behind him had been trained from the cradle to speak for the delight of fastidious ears; that they should be grammatical was not enough—they must excel in the art of conversational music. Of course there existed a world where only such speech was interchanged, and how inestimably happy those men to whom the sphere was native!

When the proceedings were over, he drew aside and watched the two girls as they mingled with acquaintances; he kept them in view until they left the College. An emotion such as this he had never known; for the first time in his life he was humiliated without imbecility.

OBITUARY.

LATE MRS. GREENAN.

Mrs. Mary Greenan died last night at 106 West Main street, in the 65th year of her age. Heart trouble, with which she had suffered for nine weeks, was the cause of death. Mrs. Greenan was born in Ireland, and lived for some years in Canada before coming to this city eight years ago. She had since lived here, and during that time she had gained many acquaintances and friends. She was a friendly and sociable woman and was a devout member of St. Francis church.

Mrs. Greenan leaves three sons and two daughters—Thomas, of Utica, N.Y.; William, of North Woburn; Joseph Greenan and Mrs. Leo Harcourt, of this city, and Miss Greenan, who lives at home.

Arrangements for the funeral are not completed, but it will probably be held at St. Francis church Thursday morning. The body will be placed in the vault and will be taken to Port Hope for burial in the spring.—North Adams Transcript.

[Deceased lady lived in Port Hope for many years, residing at the west end of the valley. Her husband, the late Thomas Greenan, died a few years ago. The many friends of the late Mrs. Greenan will regret to learn this sad news, and extend sympathy to the family.]

DIDN'T LIKE HALIBURTON.—Mr. Joseph Thorndyke, whom we reported gone to Haliburton last week to superintend at a Wood alcohol manufacturing plant, returned after a look over the ground. The factory and plant were satisfactory, but the general outlook for lodgings bad. There were no scratching posts like the Duke of Argyle had on his estate for the tenantry, the trees no doubt taking their place. That Christian grace which is said to be next to godliness was sadly lacking, however, in and around the boarding house, and as Mr. Thorndyke prefers such comforts as has always enjoyed, he shook the dust (or snow, rather) from his feet and returned to Millbrook. His former situation at Fasset, Quebec, being still open he left for there again this week.—Millbrook Reporter.

ANOTHER ARRESTED

James Vance of Tavistock Gives Himself Up.

CHARGED WITH BRIBERY

Contractor Is Accused of Having Given a County Councillor Fifty Dollars to Secure a Bridge Contract —Could Not Be Located at First But Surrendered to Constable —Bail Placed at $5,000.

Woodstock, Feb. 11.—A further arrest in the Oxford graft enquiry took place yesterday afternoon, when Jas. Vance, bridge contractor from near Tavistock, went into that village and gave himself up to Constable Frick.

A warrant was issued for his arrest at the same time as the others, and given to Constable Hobson to execute. The constable could not locate him on Thursday but hearing he was wanted, Vance went to Tavistock and gave himself into custody.

The village constable and his man came to Woodstock yesterday afternoon, and before Magistrate Ball bail was given to $2,500 cash and $2,500 security. It is charged that Vance gave a county councillor $50 to get a bridge contract.

The charge upon which M. T. Buchanan was arrested on Thursday was perjury in the recent investigation before Judge Snider, the information against the others being for various grafts.

Byron McCarty is accused of accepting a bribe-off, while councillor, from a firm in London in Oxford County purchases.

These three, with Youngs, will have preliminary hearings on Feb. 17 before Magistrate Ball.

May Be Man's Body.

Eric, Pa., Feb. 11.—While the police and detectives were working desperately to discover a clue to the identity of the ghouls that robbed the Scott mausoleum in the Erie Cemetery, new mystery was thrown about the case by a report that the body taken was not that of Mrs. Anna M. McCollum, as at first reported, but that of the late Congressman Wm. L. Scott.

The main hunt for the ghouls is now being directed in Black Hand channels as a result of a conference between detectives and Charles H. Strong, brother-in-law of the late Mr. Scott. Men who attempted to blackmail the Strong family two years ago by means of Black Hand letters are now in the Washington penitentiary, and it is believed that their friends or companions may have been responsible for the grave robbery.

Mr. Scott, who was a wealthy railroad man, was a close personal friend of the late Grover Cleveland, during the latter's first term.

Fifteen Miners Meet Death.
Trinidad, Col., Feb. 11.—The bodies of four shot-fires had been removed from the Cokedale Mine wrecked by an explosion on Thursday night, five more bodies had been discovered and six were still unaccounted for last night. A. E. Sutton, assistant superintendent, in charge of the rescue work, was overcome with gas and was carried to the surface. He probably will die.

Supt. Bailles declared yesterday he believed the explosion was due to the accidental discharge of blasting powder. Little hope is entertained of finding the remaining six men alive. All the dead and missing are foreigners.

Could Smuggle Diamonds.

Portland, Me., Feb. 11.—An indictment charging Theodore F. Abildgaard of Washburn, a U. S. customs inspector, with scheming to defraud the U. S. Government by a plan to smuggle diamonds from Canada, was reported by the grand jury of the U. S. District Court, which arose yesterday. It is alleged Abildgaard wrote a Chicago mail order jewelry firm suggesting that he could get diamonds across the Canadian border into the United States free of duty. He pleaded not guilty to the indictment, and the case was continued until April.

Ancient Coach Prey to Flames.

London, Feb. 11.—The ancient royal glass coach, used for two centuries in the coronation ceremonies, was destroyed by fire yesterday, together with the queen's barouche, another vehicle used on state occasions, when fire swept the plant of a carriage builder in the west end, where both were being renovated.

The historic old carriages were being furnished up for the coronation of King George in June. The glass coach was 200 years old.

Attempted Murder Is Charged.

Sherbrooke, Feb. 11.—Guillemette of Lake Woron was brought to Sherbrooke jail yesterday charged with an attempt at murder. He was trying, it is alleged, to force an entry into a store, and when disturbed by Mr. Brier, the proprietor, shot at the latter with a Snyder rifle. The bullet just grazed his head. The burglar then entered the store and carried away a quantity of flour.

In No Danger.

Washington, Feb. 11.—The crew and cargo of the British bark Caithness-shire, which is stranded off San Salvador, are in no danger, according to a wireless telegram received by the Navy Department yesterday from the scout cruiser Birmingham, which went to the assistance of the vessel. It will be impossible to save the hull of the ship, however, the despatch added.

"Condor Charlie" Retires.

London, Feb. 11.—Admiral Lord Charles William de la Poer Beresford was sixty-five years old yesterday, and by virtue of the age limit clause, is retired from the active list of the British navy. He has held no appointment since his surrender, on March 24, 1909, of the command of the Channel fleet.

What the Officer Saw.

A certain regiment was on the march from Dover to Aidershot. It was the rule to march by companies, with a few minutes' interval between each, and to keep each other in sight, the band and drums leading.

Starting off at a good pace and not taking notice of the regulation halt, the band soon got a long way ahead of the others. On reaching a bend in one of the hills they halted for a few minutes to have a rest. Presently up galloped a mounted officer in hot haste and shouted for the band sergeant.

"What do you mean," he said, "by getting out of sight of the leading company?"

"We were not out of sight, sir," answered the sergeant.

"What do you mean by telling me that?" exclaimed the officer, in a rage. "You were out of sight. I saw you myself!"

GONE TO OTTAWA.

Warden Kelly left for Ottawa on Monday to appear before the railroad Board regarding their proposed new route through Cavan. So far as present plans go it makes a sad cut up of the part they propose to go through. They cut off the Bethany route at Kelly's and parallel the C. P. R. down to about Lewers', then switch up through Walter Hetherington's farm east of Millbrook, then down through Larmer's, Geo. Fair's and Geo. Thorne's and join the line south of there somewhere. Crooked as a dog's hind leg and cutting up some of the farms angling.—Millbrook Reporter.

DIFFERENT IDEAS OF MORALITY

The Bracebridge Gazette says:—As a rule a man who will steal by getting goods on credit and not paying for them will steal in any other manner. There can only be one title for the man who does not pay his debts. He is a thief. It is just as bad, morally, to go to a tailor and order a suit of clothes and then when made, tell him you can't pay him just now and wind up by not paying at all—this is just as bad as stealing those clothes off a clothesline. In fact it is worse, because such a thief cannot be sent to prison for it. The dead-beat is about the meanest, rottenest kind of thief. Once a man came in through the back window of my store and got away with an alarm clock. He was caught and got three years at Kingston. The clock was worth $1.25 and the broken window 50 cents. Another man came through the front door, talked nicely, lied smoothly, and got away with many times as much. He cannot be sent to penitentiary because the laws do not permit it. He is a thief though, such men are low down thieves.

Found In the Nick of Time

Peterboro Review.

Matt Doody, a mail clerk on the Toronto to Montreal G. T. R. passenger train, had an experience in the early hours of Sunday morning that he will remember for a long time. He is now in St. Joseph's hospital under the care of Dr. McNulty, with parts of his body badly frozen.

Doody, who resides in Cobourg, came down from Toronto on the C. P. R. midnight train Saturday night to visit his uncle, a Mr. Christie, living between Indian River and Norwood.

His intention was to leave the train at Indian River, as it was only a couple of miles from that station to the home of his relative. Through some reason or other he went on through to Norwood and proceeded to walk back on the track, a distance of five or six miles.

The cold was intense and a strong wind was blowing at the time. He was not any too well clad for such a long trip under such conditions. At different points he would rest and protect himself from the sharp wind behind trees and piles of railroad ties but finally he sat down and went to sleep.

The engineer of a freight noticed him about seven o'clock on Monday morning, and he was taken to Norwood and brought to this city on a snow plough early in the afternoon. Bellegem's private ambulance took him from the station to the hospital. His ears, feet and hands are in a critical condition, and his physician is unable to say at present just what the result will be. Doody is a young man, and ap-

EPIDEMIC OF GRIPPE.—When influenza, commonly known as "grippe" visited this continent in 1890 after an absence of many years, it was treated as a joke. The funny columns of the papers were filled with humorous references, and the people who took grippe were considered proper subjects for ridicule. La Grippe is not treated any longer as a joke, many broken family circles and many new made graves place influenza among the most terrible scourges to which the human race is subject. The present influenza epidemic appears to be the most serious for several years. Since the 20th of January Mr. Tickell, one of the undertakers here in Belleville, has had charge of fourteen funerals. The other undertakers are finding difficulty to answer the numerous calls. Among the aged and feeble the Reaper has been particularly busy, but even the young and robust have not all escaped.—Belleville Ontario.

TRIADE AGAINST PRIESTS

Doughty Colonel Returns to the Attack Against Rev. Dr. Milne, and After an Hour of Vituperation Aimed at the Clergy, Members Protest—Another Row in the House Between Members.

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—The chief incident of the Commons' sitting yesterday, was an attack by Col. Sam Hughes on an Ottawa clergyman, Rev. J. W. H. Milne, and the Ottawa Ministerial Association. A fortnight or so ago, Col. Hughes, in the House, accused Rev. Dr. Macdonald of the Globe of being in the pay of a peace society in Boston, whose propaganda was reciprocity, and the colonel declared that Dr. Macdonald had advocated that doctrine for the association. Col. Hughes objected to this as being inimical to the best interests of Canada. Mr. Milne was alleged to have preached in his church, in Ottawa, a sermon condemnatory of Col. Hughes, although he did not mention him by name. However, Col. Hughes stated that many members of Mr. Milne's congregation had assured him that the sermon was directed against him. Accordingly he retaliated.

He described Mr. Milne as a Liberal party-heeler, that after declaring in 1905 that the Ross Government of Ontario should be defeated, he appeared on the Ross platform in Ottawa; that just before the provincial elections he invited Rev. Dr. Macdonald to preach in his church, but the leading members of his congregation refused to allow him to occupy the pulpit; that Mr. Milne had supplied to the officials of the Liberal Association a list of his congregation with their political faith designated.

The Ministerial Association took the matter up and passed a resolution declaring that every statement made by Col. Hughes was false, and expressed implicit confidence in Mr. Milne.

This resolution was the cause of Col. Hughes' statement to the House yesterday. He re-affirmed all he had previously said, and offered to produce affidavits in support of his charges against Mr. Milne. He demanded that the Ministerial Association take the matter up again, and in order that there should be the fullest enquiry, he offered to sign the Hansard report of his speech, so that they could proceed against him.

Towards the end of his speech, which lasted for over an hour, Col. Hughes made a somewhat general attack on the clergy of various denominations, particularly the Roman Catholic Church. He said of course he excepted the many noble men in all branches of the Christian Church.

This provoked a warm rejoinder from the Conservative benches.

A. C. Macdonnell (South Toronto), who said he had no concern with the comment that had been made upon Mr. Milne's conduct, but he could not sit and hear the attack upon clergymen generally. Col. Hughes had gone out of his way to do so, and his references to Roman Catholic clergymen were unnecessary and gratuitous. He could permit him to state without challenge that humanity had been cursed by them, and he entirely disassociated himself from the remarks made by Col. Hughes.

David Henderson (Halton), Conservative, concurred in the sentiments expressed by Mr. Macdonnell, and declared that he was not in sympathy with discussions of this kind in the House of Commons.

On the Liberal side, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux and H. H. Miller of South Grey, also spoke in condemnation of the general attack on the clergy made by Col. Hughes. Mr. Miller talked sarcastically of Col. Hughes' work in South Africa, to which the colonel replied that it was the privilege of every coward to sneer at every man who went to South Africa. There the incident ended.

Shortly before adjournment a contretemps occurred between J. W. Maddin (S. Cape Breton) and D. D. MacKenzie (N. Cape Breton).

Mr. Maddin stated that Mr. MacKenzie had been responsible for the appointment of a large number of fisheries officers in his county, who received pay for the supervision of fisheries on streams that did not exist, at least during a part of the season.

Mr. MacKenzie, replying, said that the statement was false, and a lie.

In less time than it takes to relate the circumstance, the few members in the House were roaring at the top of their voices. When the Deputy Speaker called upon Mr. MacKenzie to retract, he said that he would not do so were he outside the House. Subsequently the Opposition members expressed their disapproval of Mr. MacKenzie's form of retraction, and various points of order was raised and debated with heat.

Finally Mr. MacKenzie satisfied the House that he had withdrawn the remark, and peace was restored.

Don't Want Foreign Funds.

Pekin, China, Feb. 11.—Indications are not wanting in these days of the growing hostility throughout the country, not only to the granting of foreign railway concessions, but even to obtaining money from abroad for the construction of those lines which the Government is anxious to build. The student body of the Province of Sinking has issued what amounts to a proclamation practically threatening the Government with war should further loans be arranged with foreigners.

Wants Treaty Cancelled.

Washington, Feb. 11.—Claiming that the United States has violated the treaty of 1823 with the United States, by denying the citizens of this country the privilege of extending to other American territories, Representatives Herbert Parsons of New York introduced a resolution in the House yesterday calling for the cancellation of the treaty.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

School Trustees Are Hard to Get In Some Places.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—Rural municipal and school trustee election difficulties were discussed by the Ontario Legislature yesterday afternoon.

T. E. Bradburn, West Peterboro (Con.), moved the second reading of his bill to amend the School Act in the direction of stiffening the conditions of the nomination proceedings.

Hon. Dr. Pyne, Minister of Education, said that while the present regulations allowed some latitude, it would be unwise to change them as suggested owing to the difficulties in many rural school districts of securing ratepayers who were willing to take the position of school trustees.

Mr. Bradburn, in deference to Hon. Dr. Pyne's views, withdrew his bill. However, he felt better with his bill to amend the Municipal Act, which elicited a few words of commendation from Hon. W. J. Hanna. The Provincial Secretary said that Mr. Bradburn's motion contained about half a dozen suggestions which might be considered in the municipal committee. The clause which provided that some officer other than the mayor should be qualified to sign deputation coupons was worthy of consideration, as it certainly was a big task to sign innumerable deputation coupons several times a year.

A. B. Thomson, Centre Simcoe, moved the second reading of his bill to place township elections on the same basis as other municipalities.

Hon. A. G. MacKay, Opposition leader, objected to the bill as too drastic for present conditions in many parts of the province, especially in sparsely settled sections.

Sir James Whitney said that he agreed with his honored friend, the leader of the Opposition, with respect to the bill for what might be very nice for the city and town might be very inconvenient and uncomfortable out in the country.

Mr. Thomson said that he did not introduce the bill with any idea of forcing it upon the rural municipalities, but had brought it in at the request of several municipalities in his riding.

Sir James Whitney said that the great Judge Richards once said that "the hard cases make bad laws." Lawmakers were but human, and it was impossible to make a law which would work to perfection absolutely in all cases without exception, but in view of Mr. Thomson's explanation the bill might go to the municipal committee for a consideration of the difficulty complained of.

W. T. Nickle, Kingston (Con.), moved the second reading of his bill to amend the Public Health Act. The bill places the control of locations for the storage of rags and bones in the hands of the municipalities. An outbreak of smallpox appeared to be traceable in one instance to the improper storage of infected rags.

Sir James Whitney said that the bill might be reported upon to see whether or not the matter was already covered by the Public Health Act.

When Hon. J. S. Duff's bill respecting veterinary surgeons was read a second time, Hon. A. G. MacKay repeated the criticism that it raised the witness' fee of veterinary experts to one dollar in excess of other experts. The Minister of Agriculture said that this would all be adjusted as the other statutes were revised.

Several incorporation bills were on the motion of Hon. I. B. Lucas given their second reading, also Hon. Frank Cochrane's aid to drainage bill.

Sir James Whitney's Factories Act amendment bill was read a second time.

Carload of Liquor Seized.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—The biggest single seizure of liquor ever made in Northern Ontario was made by the provincial police near Cochrane, early yesterday morning. It consisted of a carload of the forbidden goods, 150 cases of whisky and the rest beer. The shipment was obviously intended for distribution among the blind-piggers in the district. The constables had a tip that a large shipment was coming and to get it they had to lie in the woods for two nights with the temperature at about forty below zero.

Word of the seizure was sent to the Provincial Secretary yesterday morning, and he immediately conferred with his deputy, S. A. Armstrong, Endo Saunders, chief license officer, and Joseph Rogers, superintendent of Provincial Police. The Department is putting up a strong fight against the importation of liquor into the prohibited districts and every possible device has been adopted to evade the police. Liquor has been shipped in as gasoline and every other commodity. The idea of sending in a whole carload, which would be sealed, is a new idea. Only the bare report of the seizure has been sent to headquarters and it is not known where the car was shipped from. Sealed cars like that cannot be examined by the T. & N. O. officials, and it is now the work of the license department to find out who the shippers were.

Given a Chance.

Kingston, Feb. 11.—The Bank of British North America will not take any action against Sgt. G. Harrison of the Army Service Corps, for forging a check for $30. Harrison is in the barracks, having returned to answer for his doings. The accounts are short, but it is understood friends will help him out, and that he will be given a chance to make good.

Power For Kingston.

Kingston, Feb. 11.—In a week's time, Hon. Adam Beck, chairman of the Hydro-Electric Commission, hopes to have a proposition ready for cheap power for Kingston. This is the encouraging report Ald. Toye, who was sent as a delegate to interview Hon. Mr. Beck in Toronto, brought back with him yesterday.

Changed Their Time.

Paris, Feb. 11.—The Senate yesterday passed a bill modifying the legal time in France and Algeria, which now is nine minutes 21 seconds slower than that in use in Western Europe. This action is to be taken so as to bring France within the same time section as England, Belgium, Holland and Spain.

Toronto Paper Says Liberals Will Meet in March.

THE LEADERS ARE BUSY

Platform of the Party Is to Be Arranged and Revised and 2,500 Delegates Are Expected to Be in Attendance at the Rally—Hon. G. P. Graham Active—Organizer Has Large Staff at Work.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—According to some of those who are discussing the matter, the arrangements are well under way for an Ontario Reform convention at Massey Hall, early in March, says a Toronto morning paper. The promoters expect an attendance of 2,500 accredited delegates.

H. M. Mowat, K.C., president of the Ontario Reform Association, and F. S. Mearns, president of the Toronto Reform Association, are taking an active part in the arrangements, backed by Hon. George P. Graham, Minister of Railways, and Hon. A. G. MacKay, Opposition leader in the Ontario Legislature.

If the views of the progressive element among the young Liberals are crystallized into form and adopted, the planks of the new Ontario Reform platform will be:

- Grouped constituencies.
- Proportional representation.
- Local option by municipalities respecting the taxation of improvements.
- Abolition of the three-fifths clause.
- Extension of the present municipal woman's suffrage.

Great activity is being manifested at the new offices of the Ontario Reform Association, in the Forum Building. This has been accelerated by the likelihood of an early dissolution on the reciprocity issue.

A. E. Hacker, organizer for the Toronto district, has a clerical staff busily employed, and there is an evident determination on the part of the association to be ready to put up a stiff fight in the Toronto ridings.

New Hospital.

Berlin, Ont., Feb. 11.—The report of Dr. Bruce Smith, read at the meeting of the Berlin-Waterloo Hospital Board last night, recommended the erection of a new wing in order to provide proper accommodation for the increasing number of patients. Dr. Smith also stated that the operating room was one of the poorest in Ontario. Steps will be taken immediately to have a new wing erected.

Berlin Council will be asked to issue debentures to the amount of $10,000; Waterloo Town $3,000, and Waterloo County $3,000. There is at present $1,200 in the bank bequeathed by the late Dr. G. S. Bowly, to be used in the erection of a new operating room, and $3,300 raised during the last two years, to be used towards financing the new wing.

Mormon Leader Dead.

Independence, Mo., Feb. 11.—Richard Hill, leader of the "Church of Christ," commonly known as the "Hedrickite" branch of the Mormon Church, died at his home here yesterday. As leader of the sect Hill was guard-in-chief of the famous "Temple Lot" here, which was set apart more than 75 years ago by Joseph Smith, original prophet and founder of the Mormon Church, as the site of a future great temple of the Lord.

The "Temple Lot" passed into Gentile hands, from which it was again obtained by the sub-sect. Hill succeeded Hedrick. He was born in Gloucester, England, in 1827.

New School Board System.

Quebec, Feb. 11.—The Quebec royal commission on education has recommended the creation of a central commission of twelve members, instead of the parochial system obtaining, and a separate English Catholic board. The members also suggest that parents of each district be called into consultation with the central commission at stated intervals.

There are thirty different school commissions in the city of Montreal at present.

Conspiracy to Smuggle Jewels.

New York, Feb. 11.—Wm. Rind, first officer of the American liner St. Paul, and W. C. Warner, formerly a shoemaker, were arrested by special treasury agents late yesterday, charged with complicity in a conspiracy to smuggle jewelry into the United States. The specific charge is that Rind and Warner brought in a five stone diamond ring on Jan. 1 without payment of duty, and sold it here.

Charged With Admitting Burglars.

New York, Feb. 11.—James P. McKinney, jr., son of a well-to-do advertising man, is locked up in a police station here, charged with admitting two burglars to his father's home in Bensonhurst, and aiding them in looting the house. The two men also were captured, but not until one of them received a dangerous wound from a policeman.

Crippen's Will Is Filed.

London, Feb. 11.—The will of Dr. H. H. Crippen, hanged for the murder of his wife, Belle Elmore, was entered for probate yesterday. The property has a gross value of £308. C.N.R. officials are unable to deny or confirm the rumor that Ethel Clare Lenave sailed on the Royal Edward last Wednesday.

Accused of Infanticide.

Collingwood, Feb. 11.—Pearl Smith, 13 years of age, was arrested Thursday night by Chief Wilde, charged with taking the life of the infant found frozen to death in the west end of the town on Saturday last.

Twenty-Nine Drowned.

Cossack, West Australia, Feb. 11.—The Russian bark Glenbank was wrecked off here yesterday, and all except one of the crew of thirty were lost.

Child Badly Scalded.

Kingston, Feb. 11.—Roscoe Scott, aged 12, was badly scalded at the Louise school, when he attempted to take a pail of boiling water off the stove.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

They Demand That Clauses in Treaty Be Reconsidered.

Ottawa, Feb. 11.—Fully 1,500 fruit and vegetable growers flooded the House of Commons yesterday to present their memorial in opposition to the proposed lowering of the tariff barriers against American products. They represented widely separated parts of Ontario.

Although the largest contingent hailed from the Niagara peninsula, there were many representatives also from Halton, Essex and the vicinity of Toronto. The Quebec farmers were also represented.

The deputation was introduced by W. O. Sealey, M.P., and in addition to the Premier and Hon. W. S. Fielding, Mr. Borden and Hon. G. E. Foster with many other members of Parliament were present.

The memorial was read by Mr. Johnston, and after several "whereases," it said:

"We would, therefore, most earnestly and respectfully request that your Government may, after due consideration of the points we have ventured to bring to your notice, and after full enquiry into all the conditions, reconsider the clauses referring to the interchange of fresh fruits and vegetables, and that you may then be enabled to place our industry on a commensurate footing with its great importance to the development of this country."

It seemed, said Mr. Johnston, that, though the interests of the grain growers had been looked after, those of the fruit growers had somehow been overlooked. The agreement as it stood would mean the ruin of this industry.

In his reply to the deputation, Sir Wilfrid said it was impossible to frame a tariff that would please everybody in the country. The western provinces demanded free fruit, and their demand was a reasonable one. All classes and industries had to be prepared to make some sacrifices to the common good. He was afraid the fruit growers had come too late to have anything done.

BRIEFS FROM THE WIRES.

James Conmee, M.P., is reported as progressing favorably. President Taft opened his reciprocity campaign at Columbus, Ohio.

British Unionists cannot agree as to line of action in regard to veto. Starvation threatens two million Chinese unless immediately relieved.

Engineer Earish was arrested in connection with the train collision near Paris.

Mr. Richard Hazleton, M.P., has been unseated in North Louth on petition of Mr. T. M. Healy, K.C.

It is said the C.P.R. will establish a steamship line from St. John and Halifax to the West Indies, calling also at Boston.

Ford Tipples and John McCoy, two trappers near Charlton, have been missing for two weeks, and it is feared some disaster has overtaken them.

A complete inventory of the goods taken in the robbery of the home of Charles G. Roebeling, Trenton, N.J., on Wednesday, shows about $25,000 worth of jewelry missing.

The new 50,000-ton Cunard Line steamship which is being built at Clyde Bank, Scotland, will be named Aquania. It is estimated that the vessel will cost $10,000,000.

All the fishermen who had been adrift for several days on an ice floe outside Bjorko Sound, Finland, and for whose safety grave fears were felt, got ashore yesterday near Yamburg.

Dr. E. G. Janeway, credited with saving the life of Roydard Kipling in New York in 1909, died at his home near Summit, N.J., yesterday, in his 79th year. He also attended McKinley at the last.

The Minister of Militia states that outside the appointment of Lieut. Col. H. H. McLean, as commander, there had been absolutely no names definitely decided upon for positions on the convention contingent.

Four foreigners were arrested early yesterday in the Italian quarter of Philadelphia on the charge of counterfeiting. It is alleged the prisoners made and circulated spurious silver dollars. They were selling 100 bad dollars for $5.

Shot a Burglar.

Sydney, N.S., Feb. 11.—Louis Sodoisky, a Hebrew, put two bullets into Antonio Ariatook, a Poleander, yesterday. Sodoisky found a man entering his house through a window early yesterday morning, holding a glittering object like a revolver in his hand. Sodoisky secured his own revolver, and thinking to scare the intruder, fired twice. Both shots took effect, one entering the head and the other breaking one hand. Sodoisky was the first to acquaint the authorities of the affray. He was released on $1,000 bail.

Seek Power to Extradite Poachers.

Montreal, Feb. 11.—At yesterday's session of the North American Fish and Game Protective Association, Hon. W. C. Grimmer, surveyor-general of New Brunswick; Hon. G. B. Devlin, Minister of Colonization, Mines and Fisheries for Quebec, and Hon. Dr. J. O. Reaume, Minister of Public Works and Fisheries for Ontario, were yesterday morning appointed a committee to look into the matter of extraditing poachers from one province to another, and to arrange for legislation.

J. J. Warren Coming Back.

Toronto, Feb. 11.—J. J. Warren, manager of the Trusts & Guarantees Co., included in the conspiracy charge concerning the securing of a charter for the Farmers' Bank, will be in Toronto on Monday or Tuesday of next week at the latest.

Mr. Warren wired yesterday to the company that, although he was not quite through with his western business, he was on his way back to Toronto because of the fact that his name had been drawn into the bank's affairs.

Child Badly Scalded.

Kingston, Feb. 11.—Roscoe Scott, aged 12, was badly scalded at the Louise school, when he attempted to take a pail of boiling water off the stove.

I strongly recommend Rexall Eczema Ointment, which possesses remarkable cleansing, antiseptic, germicidal, soothing and healing qualities. It is a grayish-white emolient, with a pleasant odor, and very cleanly for use. The first application produces a refreshing sense of relief, and it quickly subsides and overcomes the inflammation, irritation and discharge when present.

It is intended to be applied with a piece of muslin or linen, or it may be applied and allowed to dry in. It affords very prompt relief for pimples, blotches, discolorations, ringworm, acne, tetter, barbers' itch, ulcers, insect bites, nettle rash, hives, sores and wounds.

Rexall Eczema Ointment relieves itching and irritation of the feet. It is ideal for the treatment of children who are tormented with itching, burning and disfiguring skin diseases. Try a box at my risk. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Remember, it is only sold at my store—The Rexall Store. H. W. Mitchell.

LOVELY PETERBORO.—The Kingston Standard of a recent date says: A regrettable incident occurred near the close of the second half. Al Davidson was skating along the ice near the bank when one of the "sorehead" spectators made a swing at "Scottie's" head. Not relishing this form of appreciation, the Frontenac's doughty captain reached for his would-be assailant with the stick and inflicting a neat gash before connecting with the latter's scalp, ere he could get out of the way. A sequel came a few minutes later, when another Peterboro hoodlum, aimed an empty whisky flask at Scottie's head. He missed the mark, but the game was stopped to remove the fragments of glass.
