COBOURG BOYS' ENTERPRISE

Building a Steel Plant in Winnipeg.

According to a Winnipeg paper Messrs. Lyle Crossen and Percy Clarke, of Cobourg, have recently organized and received a charter for a company to be known as "The Winnipeg Steel Granary and Culvert Company, Limited," capitalized at $100,000, with headquarters and plant in Winnipeg, and a branch factory at Regina, Sask.

We understand it is the intention of the Company to manufacture corrugated steel products of all kinds, chiefly for the use of railroads and municipalities.

Mr. Lyle Crossen is at present in Winnipeg looking after the building operations and installing machinery.

SUDDEN DEATH.—A very sudden death occurred on Wednesday morning (Feb. 15), when Mr. David Baptist, of Yorkton, Sask., passed away at the residence of Mr. John Ingram in Haldimand Township. Mr. and Mrs. Baptist have been visiting friends in Hamilton and Haldimand Townships for about two months. They slept at Mr. Ingram's and in the morning Mr. Baptist, not feeling well, did not go down to breakfast, and shortly afterwards his wife on returning found him dead. The family went to Yorkton from Hamilton Township eight years ago. The remains were taken to the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. George Hogg, Baltimore, and interred in the Presbyterian Cemetery there on Friday.

WANTED.

BIG TREAT TO-NIGHT

"The Old Homestead" at the Grand—Peterboro Offered Local Manager $50 to Cancel Engagement.

"The Old Homestead" Company arrived from Peterboro on the 12:40 train to-day and will appear at the Grand this evening. They were greeted with a bumper house in Lindsay, and the press states that it was by far the best performance of the season. Mr. Steen received a wire from Mr. J. J. Turner, manager of the Peterboro Opera House, offering him fifty dollars to cancel the engagement, so that the Company might play in Peterboro this evening. From this it will be seen that the Company must be far above the average. Mr. Steen refused Mr. Turner's offer, and the people of Port Hope should show their appreciation of Mr. Steen's action by giving him a crowded house. There are eighteen members in the Company, and one of them has been in the same part for nineteen years, and another for twelve years. It will positively be the success of the season, and you will enjoy every minute of it.

IMPORTANT MEETING.

The Town Council will meet this evening at 7 o'clock sharp. The change in the time has been made to allow several of the members who have other engagements to get away early. The question of increasing the salaries of Chief Bond and Mr. John Tozer will come before the meeting.

SUB-STATION FOR SEYMOUR POWER CO.

Will Be Built on Cavan Street—Mr. Thomas Garnett Has the Contract

Mr. Thomas Garnett has accepted the contract to build the sub-station for the Seymour Electric Light and Power Co. The building will be 41x33, constructed of concrete, brick and steel and will be situated on Cavan street on the lot just south of Mr. James Sinnott's residence. The Company's engineer is expected in town to-day and work on the new building will commence at once. It is to be completed by May 15th.

Death of S. Stanley Howell

Veteran Insurance Man Has Gone to His Reward.

On Tuesday last one of the old and substantial residents of Cobourg died, his spirit crossed the bar and entered into rest. Samuel Stanley Howell, son of the late John Howell, of Demorestville, Prince Edward County, was born there 77 years and 12 months ago. For many years he lived upon his farm just east of Cobourg, and was at that time a large hop grower. The late Mr. Howell was married to Miss Electa Wells, daughter of the late John Well, over fifty years ago. Of their family but one daughter survives him, Mrs. W. J. Crossen, of Cobourg; one son and one daughter having died some time ago. He was again married several years ago to Mrs. Masters, who survives him.

3 RAILWAYS FOR HERE

The C. P. R. Plans Have Been Approved Of By The Railway Committee

The Toronto Telegram says:—Work will be commenced at an early date on a new C. P. R. line from Toronto to the east, through Whitby, Oshawa, Bowmanville, Port Hope, Cobourg to Belleville, and in a short time these towns, which have for fifty years been served only by the Grand Trunk, will be able to travel by either of two steam roads or by the electric road which the promoters of the C. N. R. are proposing to send through the same territory. The Railway committee at Ottawa on Tuesday approved the plans of the C. P. R., and work can now be commenced at any time. Mr. David McNicoll, general manager of the road, is said to have stated that the money for the new road is already available, and that work would be started as soon as the route was approved.

The C. P. R. authorities propose to carry their line directly through the towns mentioned to Belleville and to turn north from that point to Bathurst, about ten miles west of Smiths Falls, where the main line will be reached. From Bathurst to Smiths Falls the line will be double tracked to join the double tracking already in existence from Smiths Falls east. The Toronto end of the new line will be at North Toronto station, and the line will branch off from the present main line between Leaside and Agincourt.

ELECTRIC LINE ALSO.

The stations on the G. T. R. line to the east are some distance from the towns mentioned, and the new line being built by the C. N. R. will also be at some distance from all of them except Cobourg and Port Hope. To overcome this the latter road proposes to build an electric line through those towns to Toronto entering Toronto over the rails of the C. N. R. line to the east from the neighborhood of the York and Ontario county line.

It is said that the electric line will also have its termini at North Toronto, and that the section of the C. N. R. Toronto-Ottawa line near Toronto, will be electrified in order to allow its use by the electric cars.

A TROUBLESOME MISGIVING

So that Godwin had no ties which bound him strongly to any district. He could not call himself a Londoner...

cleave a wider way than could be hoped in England? There was allurement in the suggestion; travel had always tempted his fancy.

Musing in this way, he had come within sight of the familiar chemical works. It was near the hour at which Mr. Moxey was about to go home for his afternoon dinner...

'Nothing to boast of Mr. Moxey.' 'Why, what would satisfy you? A nephew of mine was there last Friday, and tells me you carried off half a hundredweight of prizes.

There drew near a young man of about four-and-twenty, well-dressed sauntering with a cane in his hand.

'Much pleasure in meeting you, Mr. Peak,' he said, with a winning smile, 'I was at Whitelaw the other day, when you distinguished yourself, and if I had known then that you were an acquaintance of my uncle's, I should have been tempted to offer a word of congratulation.

Godwin, grateful as always for the show of kindness and flattered by such a reception, at once felt a liking for Christian Moxey. Most people would have admitted the young man's attractiveness. He had a thin and sallow face, and seemed to be of weak constitution.

'Come along, and have something to eat with us,' said Mr. Moxey, in a tone of genial invitation. 'I daresay you had dinner long enough ago to have picked up an appetite.'

his friend, heartily. 'Tell us something about your chemistry paper. Any posers this time? My nephew won't be out of it; he belongs to the firm of Bates Brothers—the Rotherhithe people, you know.'

This information was a surprise to Godwin. He had imagined Christian Moxey either a gentleman at large, or at all events connected with some liberable profession.

FIRST SETTLER RECALLED

Mitchell Advocate

The Advocate had a call this week from Mr. Robert Junk, of Port Hope. He is a grandson of the late Hugh Kennedy Junk, who was the first settler in Fullarton having arrived here Sept. 5th, 1832, and settled on the Ety farm, which abuts the corporation of Mitchell, East. The house in which the subject of this memoir first saw light was exactly on the county line between Derry and Tyrone in Ireland.

The deceased was born in 1786, and after reaching manhood, went into stock raising, and came to Canada with considerable means. He took up 400 acres of land in the 1st con. Fullarton, and besides being the first settler in the above township, he built the first mill erected between Stratford and Edmondville; was the first district councillor ever sent to the old Huron District Council by the township of Fullarton, and during a period extending over a generation of time was one of the most active, influential and prominent men of his section of country.

BOUGHT RICE LAKE PROPERTY.—This week Mr. W. Field purchased the property known as Curtis Point on Rice Lake, comprising fourteen acres, where he will erect a cottage and spend the most of the summer fishing and shooting and entertaining his numerous friends in the hunting season.

PEOPLE'S PULPIT.

Old Fashioned Revival Wanted in Wall Street Wall Street Journal's Appeal Viewed by Pastor Russell.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 19.—Pastor Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle gave two interesting discourses here to-day to large and appreciative audiences. We report one of these from the text: "Righteousness Exalteth a Nation; But Sin is a Reproach to any People" (Proverbs xiv, 34). The speaker said: "Many besides myself surely were astonished to read the following extract from the Wall Street Journal, under the caption, 'What America Needs':

"What America needs more than railway extension and western irrigation, and a bigger wheat crop, and a merchant marine, and a new navy, is a revival of piety, the kind father and mother used to have—piety that counted it good business to stop for daily family prayers before breakfast, right in the middle of harvest; that quit field work a half hour earlier Thursday night, so as to get the chores done and go to prayer-meeting. That's what we need now to clean the country of filth, of graft, and of greed, of petty and big, of worship of fine houses and big lands, and high office, and grand social functions."

This reached the eyes of Bishop Candler, whose comment is so appropriate that I cannot do better than quote it here:—"This editor is right in calling us back to more earnest forms of life than all these things involved. He wants religion in the home; he calls for lives of prayer; he insists that we need the most earnest type of religion to save the country from moral wreck. And he is right. But can we get that sort of religion under the spur of the motive to which he appeals? Hardly."

"We cannot get a revival of religion by seeking a revival of religion. Nowhere in God's Word are men admonished to seek religion or to seek a revival of religion. They are always urged to seek God. All the revivals of religion which have blessed the world in the history of the past have come when men have undertaken to seek God. None have ever come otherwise. We cannot desire even a revival of religion. God must be the supreme object of our love and desire."

"Herein is our trouble—we have lost God. Men called preachers have explained away the Word of God, making it no longer a sure word of prophecy, but an antique for the critics to analyze and discuss. The moral law has been lowered. The ten commandments have been reckoned as a piece of Mosaic plagiarism applicable to the moral needs of ancient nomads in the wilderness, but have no more than a qualified bearing on the life of to-day. The Sermon on the Mount has been treated as 'An irrelevant dream.' The Lordship of Jesus Christ has been denied, while treacherous compliments have been poured out upon his name, as that of a great teacher and a noble martyr. His teachings have been defied or set aside wherever they have stood in the way of a rampant worldliness or an insurgent nationalism. The outcome of it all is that multiplied thousands have lost all knowledge of God in their souls. To all intents and purposes God is dead to them. They take no account of His will in any of their plans and doings, but live as if there were no God. They are atheists without talking the trouble to declare formally the atheism which they have inwardly accepted."

"The people must now be called to seek God. He is a real, living Person, and He will be found of those who sincerely seek Him. But He must be sought as the supreme need of the lives of men. He must be sought for His own sake. He will not be found of men who seek Him simply to remedy a bad commercial situation, or to cure social and political ills. He will not consent to be used as a sort of celestial and omniscient chief-of-police to help us suppress grafting and stealing and licentiousness."

"It is quite true that if all the people turned to God they would be turned away from every evil thing. But they will never turn to God until they feel that the worst disaster in life is that one should fail to know our Heavenly Father. They must be made to feel the sorrowfulness of the orphanage of the soul until, like the prodigal of the parable, they begin to say each within himself, 'I will arise and go to my Father.'"

"We have had already too great a disposition to try to use God for all sorts of social ameliorations, moral reforms, and political renovations. It is time now we sought Him for Himself alone. It is time we began to cry with the Psalmist, 'Whom have I in heaven but Thee, and there is none upon earth that I desire beside Thee.' Then indeed we shall find Him, when our hearts pant for Him, as the hart panteth after the water-brooks."

The words of the Wall Street Journal respecting the need of the old-time religion are along proper lines. The Bishop sees clearly what I also have so frequently pointed out, namely, that the so-called New Theology, Higher Criticism and Evolution theory have so undermined faith that it would be folly to look for a return of the pious earnestness of the past, which was built upon a living faith, even though it was not the pure faith "once delivered unto the saints" (Jude 3).

We do not admit that none-to-day are pious; that none are what St. Paul styled "sanctified in Christ Jesus" (I. Corinthians i, 2). We claim that there are as honest, as upright, as loyal children of God to-day as ever lived in the world. But they are few. The vast majority, under the false teaching mentioned by the Bishop, have utterly lost the faith once delivered to the saints. The great majority of professed Christians are drifting. Long ago they gave up the vealed. The secret of the Lord is with them. He is showing them His Covenant and making them to understand many of the deep things of His Word, which the natural eye has not seen nor the natural ear heard, neither have these things entered into the heart of the natural man—things which he hath in reservation for them that love Him.

These are now seeing that the Kingdom for which He taught us to pray is not a myth; these are seeing that it did not come at Pentecost, nor when Papacy was established, nor when the establishment of any of the sects of Christendom. Consequently they are now praying from the heart, "Thy Kingdom come," and waiting for the glorious Messiah, promised to begin His great work of blessing natural Israel and through Israel all the families of the earth (Acts xv, 14-17; Acts iii, 19-23).

These see that the Kingdom of God's dear Son is to be one of "power and great glory"; that before it, in a time of trouble, every other religion and influence will crumble to dust; that Satan shall be bound, and for a thousand years the most blessed influence favorable to righteousness will be brought to bear upon mankind.

During the "dark ages" the fact that the Church is a specially called, chosen, faithful class (and only "a little flock"), was seen and preached to some extent. But this lofty Church standard was difficult of application to the world, and the world's hope, under a different standard, was not seen. It clarifies our minds greatly when we recognize that the elect few are intended by God to be the world's instructors and helpers by and by, when the world will be granted an opportunity of rescue from sin and death—not to heavenly conditions, but to earthly Restitution of all that was lost by Adam's transgressions and Redeemed by the Great Sacrifice of Calvary (John iii, 16; Isaiah xxxv).

After learning that the hell to which the world goes in death is the grave, and that it is an unconscious condition, a "sleep," the next lesson is the resurrection of the dead—"Many that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to shame and lasting contempt" (Daniel xii, 2). Mankind fall asleep with experiences only, with unrighteousness and very indistinct glimpses of holiness and sainthood. When awakened they will recognize the glory, honor and immortality of the saintly Bride of Christ and be recipients of her loving care and blessing, in proportion as they respond to the blessed privileges of that time. As the Restitution work will progress, and they obediently rise from their degradation, their shame and contempt will gradually disappear, and eventually perfection of human nature may be attained in an earth also attaining perfection, as the Garden of the Lord.

Intelligent people no longer believe the God-dishonoring doctrine of eternal torture, nor even the doctrine of purgatorial suffering. Having lost these, they are doubting every religious teaching. What they need to see is the Bible's presentations. They should see the "high calling" now extended to the faithful, saintly few and should sit down and count the cost before undertaking so great a contract as to become members of that Royal Priesthood.

If they do not accept this, the only call now extended, they should have in mind that there is a general Law of Restitution operating expressed in the text: "Whoever a man loveth, that shall he also love." They should understand clearly that every thought and word and act of theirs will have to do with their future conduct and affect them more or less favorably in the resurrection, when Messiah's Kingdom will provide to every man a full, gracious opportunity of Restitution to human perfection in a world-wide Eden.

To the Kingdom of Messiah belongs the promise, "Righteousness exalteth a nation." His will be a reign of righteousness and, by Divine direction, will have control of the whole world for the uplifting of all mankind. Redeemed by the precious blood of Calvary. At present, in every kingdom under heaven we see exemplified the latter part of our text, "Sin is a disgrace to any people"—to the whole world. Let us accept the direction of God's Word and set our faces toward righteousness with greater zeal than ever to attain Divine favor, either by the "high calling" of this present time or by the blessed Restitution soon to be ushered in (Acts iii, 19-23).

Childless Dramatists.

Hereditarily, however powerful in the field of athletics, is powerless in the theatre. Have you noticed the childlessness of the dramatist? It comes that the successful dramatist is at the end of a series and never leaves a successor. Look down the list of them from Gilbert to Shaw, and you will find never a child. Further search brings up Thomas Hardy, Barrie, Maeterlinck, Pinero, Cecil Raleigh, Mansfield, Leche, Granville Barker, Fred. Penn, Louis Napoleon Parker, and only Henry Arthur Jones and Hall Caine are dramatists with children.—London Chronicle.

Planning the House.

"Well," said Gifford Berrington cheerfully, "I've got the plans for my new house on the lake shore all finished." "Finished to suit you?" "No. But the architect is satisfied, and that's the best I can expect." "Ha, ha! How about Mrs. Berrington?" "It's all right with her too. In fact, she got that fixed before we started. You see, she laid out the cupboards and wardrobes, and all the architect had to do was to build a house around them."

Beginning of the Year.

January 1 was not made New Year's day in England until 1751. The proper beginning of the year is in March, which is the beginning of spring, when all nature is new. Before January 1 was adopted by the English Parliament as the legal beginning of the year March 25 was the date. In the Roman calendar also March was the first month.

But Travers Promptly Brought Back Again.

MORE EVIDENCE NEEDED

Detective Duncan Finds Prisoner Spirited Away to Kingston Before Finishing His Testimony, But He Brings Him Back Again In Short Order - Sheriff Mowat Takes Responsibility For Move.

Toronto, Feb. 20.—Inspector of Detectives Duncan returned to the city Sunday morning with the much-moved Mr. Travers safely in tow, after the latter had been hurriedly taken to Kingston from Toronto Jail. Leaving Toronto Duncan had driven directly from the Kingston station to the penitentiary, where his man was turned over to him at 8.30 Saturday night. Travers is now again in the jail, where he was taken by Detective Armstrong, who met the train and relieved Inspector Duncan of his prisoner. Travers was given his breakfast before being taken to the Don Castle. Adding to the present knowledge of the apparent haste and secrecy of the removal of Travers from the jail, while he was still giving evidence in the police court probe into the Farmers' Bank affair, comes his statement that when Deputy Sheriffs Brown and Severs arrived at the jail to take him to Kingston he vigorously protested that there must be some mistake and urged them, and Deputy Governor Wilson, who was present, to communicate with Inspector Duncan, Crown Attorney Corley, or at least to notify the sheriff that he was still required here as a witness, but despite the fact that more than an hour remained before the time for the leaving of his train, this was not done. Immediately upon Inspector Duncan's arrival at the penitentiary Travers was turned over to him. He took him to the hotel and caught the train for Toronto at one o'clock yesterday morning. The train arrived in Toronto at 6.30 o'clock. Travers seemed cheerful and glad to be back. If, as is feared by many, his stay in the penitentiary, to which he has been sentenced for a term of six years, had broken his nerves, he did not show it on his arrival here, although he had spent a sleepless night sitting up in the train and looked weary. From remarks made by Travers and overheard in the train it is thought that he will now talk at least as freely as heretofore.

When Detective McKinney went to the jail shortly after eight o'clock on Saturday morning to take Travers to the City Hall to give evidence in the conspiracy charge against the provincial directors, J. R. Stratton, J. J. Warren and others, he was told that Travers had been taken away by Deputy Sheriffs John Brown and Severs, who came with an order of Sheriff Mowat to remove him to Kingston penitentiary to begin his term of six years in that institution. Detective McKinney immediately telephoned to Inspector Duncan, his principal. He was told to meet the train at the Don station and get the man, and Detective Guthrie was also rushed to that point. Meanwhile Detectives Armstrong and Newton were hurried from headquarters to the Union Station to intercept Travers and his escort at the train, which left at eight o'clock. They arrived there just as the train was pulling out. They boarded the train and tried to recover the witness, but the deputy sheriffs would not give him up. The city officers were forced to jump from the train at Cherry street, as it did not stop at any place this side of Oshawa. Therefore the other two city men got no chance to interfere.

Inspector of Detectives Duncan was angry. He immediately notified Crown Attorney Corley and Magistrate Denison, and Assistant County Crown Attorney Menahan was also on the job at the City Hall, and several councils of war were held on the spot. Inspector of Detectives Duncan issued a statement. He said that he had been informed of numerous efforts to close Travers' mouth. These efforts originated in sources which the inspector either did not know or did not care to divulge. He declared that Travers had told him that he had been approached by a jail guard and others who had told him that the best thing he could do for himself was to keep his mouth shut. He said that a guard had come to him while in the jail telling him that Inspector Duncan had been pulled off. Crown Attorney Corley had been pulled off, and that he was a fool to go on talking. Either this man or another had pointed out to him that he might easily antagonize those who could have it in their power to influence his release on parole, but that if he did not keep silent and went on giving information which might expose influential men, he not only would lose all chance of any parole, and be compelled to serve out his full term, but that he would be taken from the jail and further prosecuted and would get as much as twenty years in prison.

He was told, he said, that if this could not be done in the Police Court, owing to the fact that he had been given the protection of the court, it would be done by indictment before the grand jury. Added to this, there was the rumor at the time of Travers' arrest, that it was planned to have Travers plead guilty, all the blame shouldered on him and thus have any further prosecutions balked. At this same time a rumor was current in several places that it was proposed to have Travers declared a lunatic and incarcerated in an asylum to prevent him from furnishing any further statement to the police and to discredit any facts in any statement already made. "Travers declares to me that he never received a message while in the jail that he would be given twenty years' additional sentence if he would not keep silent about certain transactions of the Farmers' Bank. He ever even told of receiving one through a guard of the jail. If I learned of such a proceeding I would immediately report the guard for suspension." This was the statement of Rev. Dr. A. B. Chambers, governor of the jail, made last night.

BRIEFS FROM THE WIRES. The Baptist church at St. George was destroyed by fire. The Long Sault mill has passed the Senate's committee of commerce. British Chambers of Commerce protest against tax on travelers in British Columbia. A $12,000,000 coal merger has been formed in Montreal, to take over western coal properties. A coat belonging to Christopher Anderson was found near the bay at Hamilton, and it is feared that he is drowned. Sixty charges of violating the local option law have been laid against Collingwood citizens and will be heard on Thursday. Fire yesterday morning did $75,000 damage to the wholesale grocery warehouse of D. C. Brosseau & Co., Notre Dame street, Montreal. The Russian steamer Litania, from Baltimore, before reported as being on fire at sea, has arrived at Windsor with cargo still burning. David A. Hutchinson of Chatham was asphyxiated by natural gas, and his wife and daughter are in a critical condition from its effects. In view of the plague in Northern China, it has been decided to advance the date of the proposed international sanitary conference in Paris to May next. Japan has renounced the Anglo-Japanese convention of 1906, regulating the commercial relations between Canada and Japan. The convention will thus expire in July. The midnight fast Intercolonial freight from Halifax, in charge of Conductor Wood, smashed into the rear-end of Conductor McGillivray's special near Campbell's siding, seven miles from Truro, Saturday night. The van of the special was broken up, but the rear end men were not injured.

Afloat on Ice. Toronto, Feb. 20.—The heroism of a quick-witted young man named Cleveland prevented a double tragedy about one o'clock yesterday afternoon at Balm Beach. Two young lads who had come up from Kew Beach were playing out on the ice off the Beach Club house, when a section broke off and floated into the lake, bearing the two boys steadily away from shore. Before Sherwood, the steward of the club house, could bring out a boat four young men started over the ice hummocks, bearing a canoe. Leaving the hummocks behind they got down on the dangerous pack ice and made their perilous way to the open water. At every step the ice was cracking beneath their feet, and at any moment they might have been precipitated into the icy water, but they heroically pushed on. By the time the open water was reached the floating floe, with its human freight, had drifted almost a half mile from the shore. Leaving his three companions, Bert Cleveland, a young lad living at the corner of Birch and Lake Front, set out in the canoe to thread the maze of floating ice floes to their rescue. It was perilous work. Nowhere was there an open channel, and the heavy chunks of ice were battering the frail canoe from every side, but he heroically held to his task and brought them back in safety. The names of the foolhardy boys were not ascertained.

Will Investigate Plague. London, Feb. 20.—Dr. Reginald Farrar, medical inspector of the local Government Board, who will start on Monday for Harbin to join the international plague commission, which is to advise China as to the best means of stemming the outbreak of the plague, thinks there is little danger of the disease spreading into western Europe. Dr. Farrar was selected as the British representative in this mission because of his wide experience with the plague in India. He points out that the period of incubation is so brief and deaths follow so quickly, the danger of the disease of being carried long distances over the Siberian railway is materially less. The possibility of the epidemic getting a foothold in Great Britain, the physician declares to be negligible. England has not declared a quarantine against Russia, but since the outbreak in Manchuria the usual precautions in the matter of examining the ships arriving from that quarter have been taken, resulting in the detection of two or three cases.

Cargo on Fire. Newport News, Va., Feb. 20.—The steamship Soterdijk of the Holland-American line reached this port yesterday from Rotterdam with the cargo in her forward hold on fire. Tug and fire engines were called and after streams had been played upon the burning cargo for hours, the flames were extinguished at 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The fire was discovered at one o'clock yesterday morning, though it might have been burning a long while before its discovery, as the hatches were tightly closed. The damage to the cargo has not been ascertained.

Blaze in C.P.R. Shops. North Bay, Feb. 20.—Fire broke out at midnight Saturday in the C.P.R. car repair shops here, doing damage to the extent of $1,000. The town and company's fire brigades, after hard work, succeeded in preventing the spread of the flames to other branches of the company's works. Aid. John McCallum, a member of the C.P.R. fire department, while working at the fire, fell and broke his leg. Thirteen Firemen Overcome. Chicago, Feb. 20.—Thirteen firemen were overcome by smoke in a fire in the Union Stock Yards on Saturday. While the fire itself was confined to the fourth floor of the building, fear that the blaze would be a repetition of the fire a month ago, in which 24 firemen met their death, caused the battalion chief to send in a general alarm and calls for special apparatus. The loss is $15,000.

IT IS INEVITABLE

Secretary Knox Says Reciprocity Must Come.

EXTRA SESSION PROBABLE

Appearances Now Are That Unless President Taft Can Bring Extra Pressure to Bear on the Senate That Body Will Not Be Able to Pass Tariff Treaty by March 4 - Will Be New Senators.

Pittsburg, Feb. 20.—Secretary of State Knox, in an address at the Chamber of Commerce banquet here last night strongly advocated the passage of the Canadian reciprocity agreement, and deprecated the references that have been made to annexation. In part, Secretary Knox said: "It is probably more true to-day than ever before that the sentiment and opinion in both countries is crystallized, so that the desires will lead to the most satisfactory relations between the two countries. Indeed, Mr. Chairman, it seems to me that the talk of the tendency as such a thing as this leading to the absorption of the Dominion of Canada is either very silly or very malicious. In the sane atmosphere and broader aspects of the situation, it is perfectly certain that if there should be a great world movement involving this continent, Canada and the United States would act in most perfect accord. Why should we not make an arrangement such as this? It is the march of progress. It is the inevitable. It may not be done to-day, this week, this year, or in this decade, but it is just as certain as the onward march of the Anglo-Saxon race. May Need Extra Session. Washington, Feb. 20.—An extra session of Congress looms very large and probable, unless President Taft and the friends of the Canadian reciprocity agreement are able to bring more than ordinary pressure to bear upon the Senate and avert the expenditure of any time whatever by the opponents of the agreement, or friends either, for that matter—it is difficult to see how the Senate can reach a vote on the subject before adjournment in two weeks time. Ahead of the Canadian agreement for consideration by the Senate, in addition to ten general appropriation bills, are measures affecting the following subjects: Popular election of Senators; Senator Lorimer case; permanent tariff board; general age pensions; Congressional apportionment; ratification of Panama Canal. Not one of these measures can be sidetracked without a contest. Back of each is a group of determined Senators insisting that a vote shall be taken before adjournment. Some of the measures must be left unpassed or the Canadian agreement will die. There is not time enough left for all. So far as can be learned no Senator who has talked with President Taft has been commissioned to announce positively whether there will be an extra session in the event the Senate fails to vote on the Canadian agreement. The general opinion now seems to be that there will be an extra session, and the only Senators who are making preparations to go home after March 4 are those whose service expires on that date. The retirement of these Senators, a number of whom have played important roles during the consideration of many tariff measures, will make quite a change, also in the political complexion of the Senate. All the states which are now in legislative deadlock over Senators to fill the vacancies at the end of the present session, the Senate, if called together to consider the Canadian agreement, will be composed of 50 Republicans and 42 Democrats. The President believes that the Senate, as it will be constituted after March 4, would pass the bill. The Senate committee on finance met Saturday and decided to give hearings on the McCall bill on Monday and Tuesday. On Wednesday the bill will be considered in executive session, and the consensus of opinion is that it will be reported to the Senate not later than Thursday. There is no enthusiastic advocate for the McCall bill on the Republican side of the chamber. Some Democrat may come forward as its champion, but his efforts probably would prove ineffective. Senator Makes Amendment. Washington, Feb. 20.—Senator Jones of Washington Saturday presented an amendment to the Canadian reciprocity bill in the form of a substitute. The substitute would provide for the levying of such tariffs as are demanded by the necessary expenditures of the Government. While introduced "by request," Mr. Jones indicated that he was in favor of the proposition for the reason that the amendment would take the tariff out of politics. Under the plan suggested, the Secretary of the Treasury at the close of the present fiscal year shall make an estimate of the amount of revenue that should be raised from customs duties for the following fiscal year in order to meet the expenditures for that year and any deficiency of the previous year. The Secretary also is directed to estimate the probable value of imports of articles on the dutiable list and determine what percentage the estimated revenues to be raised bears to the estimated value of the dutiable imports. It is further provided that there shall be collected for such year customs duties on all dutiable imports equal to such percentage of the value of same. They Want Our Lumber. Boston, Feb. 20.—The Massachusetts Retail Lumber Dealers' Association placed itself on record Saturday in favor of a Canadian reciprocity agreement. Four hundred members passed resolutions which, in part, declare: "We heartily approve of anything and everything that will tend to increase friendly and commercial relations with Canada."

WILL BE GOOD THING. Son-in-Law of Earl Grey Sees Prosperity in Reciprocity. Ottawa, Feb. 20.—That Canada has secured a good bargain in the reciprocity agreement with the United States and that it will stimulate rather than check the investment of British capital in the Dominion is the opinion of A. M. Grenfell, son-in-law of Earl Grey, member of the banking firm of Chaplin, Milne, Grenfell & Co., and chairman of the Canadian agency of one of the leading Canadian bond issuing houses in London. In a cabled message which reached here yesterday, Mr. Grenfell is quoted as giving the following interview in regard to reciprocity: "From my recent trip to Canada, I am convinced that Canadians fully realize the progress and prosperity that have accrued to Canadian manufacturing and agricultural industries from cheap money sent out at a rate of over $150,000,000 per annum by English investors. I am confident that the first thing taken into consideration by the Canadian Ministers would be whether the reciprocity arrangement with the United States might affect securities against which these large investments have been made. "I believe it will prove of inestimable advantage to Canada. Great material benefits will be derived by the whole Dominion in both agricultural and manufacturing industries from the opening of American markets. The future prosperity of Canada must be largely based on the soundness of agriculture and the enhanced value of western farm lands that will result from reciprocity will mean greater security of English investors. The free and larger markets which reciprocity will open to the farmers of the west, will cause great demands for the products of the factories of the east. Canadian statesmen have taken advantage of the situation. "It appears to me they have secured splendid terms for Canada in exchange for giving Americans what Americans could have taken for themselves at any time by simply lowering their own tariff wall without asking permission from Canada. Investors in England will speedily realize many trade advantages derived by Canada through the reciprocity agreement and will be more anxious to participate in opportunities offered by sound Canadian enterprises by investing their money at high rates of interest, while assisting in the development of the British Empire.

Two Men Badly Burned. Toronto, Feb. 20.—George Cuff and Arthur Mitchell were very seriously burned by boiling tallow in the works of the Inter-urban Electric Co., 215 Mavelly street, seventh ward, at 3 p.m. Saturday. They were melting tallow in the cellar, and were lifting the pot out of the furnace with tongs, when it dropped, sending a shower of scalding grease over them. The superintendent sent a hurried call for aid to the "Junction" fire hall, and Firemen William Harsmith and Bert Sover responded and effectively dressed the blistered men's injuries with bandages and oils, in accordance with the system inaugurated by Dr. Sheard last year, whereby every hose section is supplied with "first aid" appliances. Dr. Gilmore later ordered the men removed to Englehart Hospital, where they were resting quietly, and will recover. He praised very highly the work of the firemen. A New Phase. Ottawa, Feb. 20.—The Long Sault dam proposition has assumed a new phase, which will be referred to in the Commons to-day by Mr. Borden. Lieut-Governor Dix of New York State, has written Hon. W. F. Frye, chairman of the United States committee on commerce, stating that in his opinion the pending bill fails to cover properly the interests of navigation, and suggesting that before final action is taken by Congress there should be a survey of the channel and approval obtained from the Secretary of War and the Dominion. Change in Directorate. Kingston, Feb. 20.—At the annual meeting of The British Whig Publishing Co., held Saturday afternoon, owing to the death of E. J. B. Pense, the late president, changes in the directorate were made. J. G. Elliott was elected president and L. A. Gould, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Elliott, who has been over thirty years in the Whig office, will continue as managing editor, and Mr. Gould, for twelve years associated with the company, will continue as business manager. Love's Young Dream. Windsor, Feb. 20.—Harry Pembetter, aged 13, and Esther Kaechal, aged 14, of Wharton, Ohio, presented a properly signed marriage license to Rev. S. J. Allen, a Methodist clergyman Saturday night, and were married. The pair appeared the proper age, and Mr. Allen had no hesitancy in marrying them. To the license issuer, Mrs. Davidson, they gave their ages as 17 and 19. Their parents arrived here Sunday, looking for them. Smallpox at Lachine. Montreal, Feb. 20.—Smallpox has broken out in the convent of St. Ann at Lachine, a suburb of Montreal. There are 275 pupils in the place, mostly from the United States and Western Canada. Rumor in the town placed the number of cases at seven or eight, but Dr. Valois, medical health officer of Lachine, states that there is only one case of smallpox and three of chickenpox. A strict quarantine has been placed on the convent. Out-and-Out Free Trade. Chatham, Feb. 20.—Dr. M. Clark, M.P., and Dr. Neely, M.P., addressed the Kent Liberals yesterday on reciprocity. Dr. Clark expressed himself an out-and-out free trader, and declared that the Opposition press was being paid for its editorials against reciprocity by the C. P. R. and the manufacturers. Under free trade, he said, wages would increase.

I am so positive that my remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that I offer to furnish the medicine at my expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results. It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous. Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to healthier activity. I want you to try Rexall Ordinaries on my recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness nor create any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cts. Sold in Port Hope only at my store -The Rexall Store. H. W. Mitchell, Phm. B.
