TELEGRAM SUNDAY

The Brotherhood of the Methodist Church Hold A Unique Service.

The regular session of the Young Men's Brotherhood at the Methodist church last Sunday afternoon was one of unusual interest. Since its organization some five years ago, upwards of forty young men have left the prettiest town in Canada to seek their fortune in other towns and cities, and some in other countries.

Some time since the idea was conceived of having an Old Boys' Telegram Sunday. Some thirty-five letters were sent out (some addresses could not be obtained in time) and a large number of these responded to the invitation and from the Atlantic on the east, to where the mighty Pacific ocean washes the sunny banks of British Columbia, messages were received all glad to send their words of greeting and good wishes, some in simple language, others in bursts of eloquence, some few with just a touch of that homesick feeling which so many of us have experienced.

The program provided by the musical committee was of a high order. The orchestra of nine pieces gave some pleasing numbers and particularly effecting was their medley of "Auld Lang Syne" and "Home Sweet Home," and showed careful preparation.

The duet "Face to Face," by Mr. Ben Olver and A. J. Chesser was well rendered, their tenor voices blending beautifully. Mr. Alf. Fulford's bass solo was a treat indeed, and enjoyed by all.

Letters and telegrams were received from Rev. G. W. Henderson, Peterboro, Ont., A. A. Von Kleek, Calgary, Alta., Will T. McGibbon, Victoria, B. C., Harry Mitchell, Riverton, N. J., J. P. Reed, Sault Ste Marie, Ont., Charles Might, Belleville, Ont., A. O. Galley, Peterboro, Ont., E. Jewell and W. Jewell, Hamilton., Roy Wickett, Lynden, Ont., Malcolm and Melville Rae, Kingston, Ont., M. D. Staples, Toronto, A. O. White, Toronto., H. S. White, St. Thomas., Walter McGuire, Sherbrooke, N. S., M. L. Laidlaw, Toronto, Ont.

The meeting was closed by all singing heartily "Shall we Gather at the River," led by the orchestra.

SECURING OUR ASSETS

On Friday evening of last week the annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society was held in the School Room of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church, when the Rev. C. S. Pedley, of Woodstock gave an illustrated address on the work of the Society.

Our Dominion abounds in great natural wealth of forest, lake and mine. These resources should be conserved, so as to secure a proper share for generations to come if the glory and greatness of this dear Canada of ours is to be perpetuated. Great are these assets of material wealth, but our greatest asset is strong, robust children. These, if well-trained, properly clothed and reared to be men and women of good, moral character, vigorous and healthy, assures our future greatness.

Mr. Pedley told of the embarrassment he felt in addressing a Port Hope audience. Many years ago he had worked on a farm some ten miles east and north of Port Hope and the first time he visited the town he drove some fat cattle up to a butcher by the name of Carveth. A few years after this he came as a teacher to attend a teacher's convention in the Town Hall. The third time he came to hear that great temperance orator, John B. Gough. And on this the fourth visit he came in the interests of the Children's Aid Society.

Previous to the year 1893 it was generally held that parents had full and complete control over the training and up-bringing of their children. They could bring their children up in any way, educated or not as they wished. But all this was changed when the Ontario Legislature passed the Children's Protection Act in that year.

Briefly the object of the Act is:— 1 To secure a just recognition of the right of every child to a happy and well-trained youth.

To be well-trained—intellectually, morally and physically—and at the same time be happy, is every child's right. Happiness and education are not incompatible by any means. It does not mean that there shall be no chastisement. Chastisement is quite necessary for a child's training and happiness. But chastisement in the best regulated families is almost forgotten. It is administered with mother-love, and so constantly, and in such microscopic doses that it is almost entirely overlooked.

2 To punish cruelty or neglect of children and to encourage a deep sense of parental responsibility.

When a child is found who is

TO-NIGHT

Frederick H. Wilson, the celebrated impersonator, will present the beautiful mono-drama of "Damon and Pythias", to a Port Hope audience for the first time tonight (Monday). Mr. Wilson is an actor of note, having played for some years on the American stage chiefly in Shakespearean roles; in fact he has a high reputation in the Shakespearean world, and his appearance before a Port Hope audience to-night will be a genuine treat. His worship Mayor Mulholland has consented to introduce Mr. Wilson, and in order to give everyone an opportunity to attend, the popular admission price of 25c. has been arranged for any seat in the Opera House. Come early and avoid the rush.

You can get a $10.00 suit for $5.95 this week at Gould's.

Great bargains at J. L. Thompson & Son's Midwinter Sale. Don't miss this opportunity.

PULPIT.

Sermon by CHARLES T. RUSSELL Pastor Brooklyn Tabernacle

Why Jesus Refused to Pray.

Pastor Russell on God's Times and Seasons.

Fall River, Mass., Feb. 26.—Pastor Russell preached twice here to-day. He had fine audiences and excellent attention.

When years ago, I believed that an eternity torture awaited all who do not accept God's "call" of the present time.

Trained in the Doctrine of Election and Predestination I, like hosts of others, felt somehow that Brother Wesley's teaching of Free Grace was more noble, more God-like, than Brother Calvin's teaching respecting Election and Predestination.

Nevertheless, when I reasoned on the subject I said, Can I think of the omniscient God preparing a great place of sufficient size to hold the entire human family and outfitted with every devilish appliance for their torture, and yet being ignorant of the conditions under which they would be born?

Brother Wesley's theory of God's Love and good intentions—of his endeavor to save everybody—seems inconsistent when contrasted with his teaching that only a saintly few reach eternal bliss and that the thousands of millions must spend eternity in torture.

So long as we have such confusion in our minds faith and hope and love and trust shake upon the foundations of our reason. We recognize that we know nothing of the future of ourselves; that we are wholly dependent upon Divine Revelation.

Hearken to the Word of the Lord: Their fear toward me is not of me, but is taught by the precepts of men!

Hearken again: "As the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my methods higher than your methods and my plans higher than your plans"

Now as the six thousand years have passed and we have entered upon the Sabbath Seventh Thousand we are beginning to realize that it marks a New Dispensation—that the night is passed; that the dawn is upon us.

The Sun of Righteousness will arise with healing in his beams, blessing mankind, healing their diseases, mental, moral and physical, and causing the knowledge of the Lord to fill the whole earth.

know Him, from the least to the greatest. And only the wilfully wicked and disobedient will be cut off from life in the Second Death—not tortured; but, as St. Paul declares, "They shall be punished with everlasting destruction."

We see, then, that our Lord's reason for not praying for the world was that He knew the Father's Plan that the world was not to be dealt with during this Age, but during the next, the Kingdom Age.

Seeing, then, that there is a difference between God's provision for the world, to be dispensed in the next Age, and his provision for the Church to be given now, we ask, What is the difference between these? The answer is that the world's salvation is to be human nature and an earthly Paradise world-wide; while the elect class is a special one called God, chosen in Christ and faithful in adversity and, by the Lord's grace, is to have a heavenly nature, like unto that of the angels, but superior. This is a "heavenly calling," a "high calling." They are to be like their Lord and Redeemer and Head and Bridegroom, Jesus, in His glorified state, "far above angels and principalities and powers, and every name that is named."

Is this an arbitrary election? Does God arbitrarily draw and call one above another? Yes, He thus selected the Jewish nation to be His peculiar nation—not, however, by the detriment or injury of other nations. He thus called Isaac instead of Ishmael, and Jacob instead of Esau to be the progenitors of His chosen nation Israel, whom He foreknew as a people and predestinated to a certain service. But this selection worked to injury to either Ishmael or Esau.

Similarly during this Gospel Age God chooses from the world a certain class and grants them the hearing ear and the seeing eye, and He passes by others and gives them not this special favor. This, however, is not to be to the disadvantage of the others—non-elect, unchosen, uncalled. St. Paul speaks of the Church as "called according to His purpose." He even tells us what the purpose is, namely, that in Ages to come He might show forth the exceeding riches of His grace in His loving kindness toward us in Christ Jesus (Ephesians ii, 7). Toward this special class God will to all eternity manifest special favor. But we are not to suppose that there is no reason for this selection and favor. There is a reason. It is because of certain intrinsic qualities or characteristics possessed by this class which God is now selecting. They will all be "saints." They will all love the Lord more than they love houses or lands, parents or children, self or any creature. They will all possess the fruits and graces of the Holy Spirit.

Indeed, this is God's particular predestination. St. Paul tells us that He foreknew that He would provide His only-begotten Son to be the Saviour of mankind and the Head over the Church, and He foreknew that He would have a Church, a Royal Priesthood under the great High Priest, as members of His Body. God foreknew also the kind of a Message He would send forth and that it would be attractive only to a certain class possessed of a love for righteousness. These only would hear His call. These only would have the eyes of their understanding specially opened, because these alone would accept of His assurances and make a full consecration to His service. Such He would beget of His Holy Spirit, and such, in due time, would be born of the Spirit in the resurrection and enter into the fellowship and companionship and kingly joys of their Master.

It is of this special class that the Apostle declares, "Whom God did foreknow, these He also did predestinate to be conformed to the likeness (image) of His Son" (Romans viii, 29). That is to say, God's predestination was not only that He would have a Church, but, additionally, that the terms or conditions of fellowship in that Church should be that each one would become Christ-like. Surely this is a good predestination, with which no one could find fault. Whether we shall gain a place with the "elect" on the heavenly plane, or a place with the non-elect world in restitution to earthly nature, we cannot do otherwise than recognize the justice of God in so deciding, that none but the saintly copies of their Lord, could be members of the elect Church and joint-heirs with Him in His Kingdom.

"True and righteous are Thy Ways, Lord God Almighty." "Who shall not come and worship before Thee, when Thy righteous acts are made manifest?" Truly it is written of this great King of glory, Head and Members, Bridegroom and Bride, "Unto Him every knee shall bow and every tongue confess to the glory of God."

and, while gathering the "elect" from every nation, people, kindred, and tongue, the Scriptures declare that He is seated at the Father's right hand of glory, expecting or waiting for the time to come when the Kingdom under the whole heavens shall be delivered to Him by the Father. This will be done at the end of this Gospel Age, when the saintly Body of Christ shall have been completed. Then "He shall take unto himself His great power and reign."

A great time of trouble will follow. The plowshare of sorrow will made ready the hearts of mankind for the great blessings which Messiah will then be ready to bestow, because that will be the due time. St. Paul tells us that Messiah's reign will be a victorious one: "He must reign until He shall have put all enemies under His feet (in full subjection); the last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. Then, after a thousand years, after having accomplished the purpose of the Father in the uplifting of all the willing and obedient of mankind to priestly perfection, the great Prophet, Priest, Mediator and King of Glory will, at the end of the thousand years' reign deliver up the Kingdom even to God the Father, that God may be all in all (I. Corinthians xv, 28).

While Satan will be bound at the beginning of Messiah's reign and every form of unrighteousness will be rooted out, nevertheless the raising of mankind out of sin and degradation to perfection will be a gradual work. As the regenerating influences operate in mankind, they will become more and more alive, less and less dead—until at the end of the Messianic reign Adamic death will be no more; it shall have been fully destroyed by the raising of mankind completely out of it; the last enemy that shall be destroyed is death—Adamic death.

The Second Death will never be destroyed, but will be everlasting. It is not an enemy to God and His righteousness, but a valuable servant to destroy everything willfully and intelligently out of accord with the Divine Government—righteousness.

All who are seeking to walk in the footsteps of Jesus; all who have taken up their cross to follow Him, may well rejoice in that feature of His prayer which says, I pray for those whom Thou hast given Me, that they may all be one, as Thou, Father, and I are one; that the world may believe that Thou hast sent Me (John xvii, 20, 21). The oneness of God's people is not represented in the various sects and parties of the present time. It is represented in the fact that all the consecrated followers of the Redeemer are individually united to Him as the Head and united to each other as members of His Body. "The Lord knoweth them that are His." By and by, by the power of the First Resurrection, all these shall be perfected in the spirit plane and constitute the Kingdom for which we pray. "Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." As a result of that Kingdom's coming the world will all be brought to the point of believing in Jesus and will all have the opportunity of obtaining through Him the gift of God, eternal life.

Our Lord's attitude was not merely for the Apostles and earliest members of the Church whom the Father gave Him in the special sense, as His personal companions and helpers in the founding of the Church; He prayed on behalf of all those who shall believe on Me through their Word, the Master's words outlined to us in the Divine Program. And Jesus himself began to declare the Gospel and brought life and immortality to light. He commissioned His twelve Apostles, St. Paul taking the place of Judas, to speak in His Name and as His special mouthpieces. Whatever they would declare to be binding on earth would be binding in the sight of God in Heaven. Whatever they would loose and declare to be non-essential on earth, we may know would be so by Divine decree (Matthew xvi, 19).

In a word, Jesus, the Apostles and the Prophets alone are to be considered the special guides and standard-bearers for the Church. We are to believe on Him through their word and not through the word of councils, synods or presbyteries. Each individual of the Church has his personal responsibility. This is in harmony with our Lord's declaration, "My sheep know My Voice and they follow Me; a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from a stranger." It behooves us to-day to hearken back to the words of Jesus as He personally uttered them and as He personally sent them to us through His chosen twelve.

Soon the Master's prayer for His disciples will have fulfillment. They will be one with Him beyond the veil, members of His glory and Kingdom. Then will come the time when the world will believe. The knowledge of the Lord will fill the earth and all be binding and stumbling influences of the present will be at an end. The labour will not need to pray for the world then, but instead will exercise His power on their behalf, overthrowing evil and upholding every good principle and all who love righteousness and destroying those who would corrupt the earth.

Luxurious Barracks. The barracks which have been recently erected at Windsor, England, at a cost of $1,000,000 are on a luxurious scale. In addition to a separate sleeping cubicle for each man, there are dining halls, billiard rooms, recreation rooms, libraries and studies, as well as a theatre. In the lavatories hot and cold water is provided for washing, and there are separate rooms adjoining for shaving purposes. There are also baths, as well as shower and foot baths.

Reward of Art. "Those people talked all the time you were playing. They couldn't hear a word of your music." "That's all right," replied the eminent performer. "My music prevented me from hearing their conversation."

Elected by Lot. Three candidates tied with 236 votes each for two seats on the Limerick Town Council recently and drew lots under the provisions of the Local Government Act to settle the election.

APRIL 4 THE DATE

Extra Session Will Probably Be Called For That Day.

NOTHING DOING THIS SITTING.

It Is Now Too Late For There to Be Any Hope That the Reciprocity Treaty Will Go Through Before the End of the Week—Even the Coming of Senator Aldrich Would Do Little Good.

Washington, Feb. 27.—So probable is it that an extra session of Congress will be necessary in order to get action on the Canadian reciprocity agreement that President Taft has fixed April 4 as the date on which such a session may be called.

The April date was selected after consultation with Champ Clark, who will be Speaker of the next House, and Representative Underwood of Alabama, who will be chairman of the ways and means committee, which will have charge of and report the reciprocity bill in the House.

The President had intended to convene the extra session at an earlier date, but Representatives Clark and Underwood told him that they would like to have a month's time after the present Congress adjourns in which to map out the Democratic plans for the next session.

There was no change in the situation in the Senate Saturday regarding the Canadian reciprocity agreement, and the leaders see no hope of bringing to a vote at this session the McCall bill to carry the agreement into effect. Many rumors were circulated of moves to remedy the situation, but apparently they were all without foundation. The most persistent of all was one that Senator Aldrich, famed for winning legislative battles, which his colleagues thought lost, was speeding to Washington at the urgent solicitation of President Taft to take charge of the situation in the Senate.

The Aldrich rumor, apparently, was a distortion of a telegram which the Senator sent from Jekyll Island, Ga., asking that a pair be arranged for him in favor of the McCall bill if it comes to a vote this session.

As a matter of fact, no one believes that the coming of Senator Aldrich would alter the situation in respect to the McCall bill. The measure is opposed by Senators Cummings, Brewster, Clark and many other insurgent Republicans. The arrival of Mr. Aldrich and any attempt by him to force the consideration of the bill upon the Senate would be like shaking a red flag in the face of a bull. It would serve, according to the consensus of opinion in the Senate, only to intensify the insurgents' fight against the measure. Not only that, but his friendship for the bill unquestionably would alienate some of his best friends, like Senators Hoie, McCumber, Smoot, and others who aided him in framing the Payne-Aldrich tariff law, but who are opposed to the Canadian agreement.

Senator McCumber spoke against the bill Saturday, basing his argument upon the disastrous effect which he said its enactment would have upon the farming industry.

Robbed of $120,000 in Jewels.

New York, Feb. 27.—Mrs. Baldwin Drummond, formerly Mrs. Marshall Field, jr., of Chicago, was robbed of a fortune in jewels Saturday night on board a transatlantic liner. Diamonds, pearls and other gems to the value of approximately $120,000 disappeared mysteriously from her stateroom on the Hamburg-American line some time between 9.30 o'clock Saturday evening and 5.30 yesterday morning.

To the police Mrs. Drummond described the missing jewels as follows: Two strings of pearls of 273 pearls each; one string of 250 pearls; one large black pearl ring set with diamonds; one large white pearl ring set with diamonds; one pair large pearl earrings set with diamonds; one black pearl brooch set with diamonds, with a black pearl; pea-shaped pendant.

A wireless message sent from the America as she neared port summoned detectives down the bay in a tug. They learned from Mrs. Drummond details of the theft and began a combing of the ship and a search of the crew. But not a trace of the jewel was found.

Former Secretary for India Dead.

London, Feb. 27.—Viscount Wolverhampton, formerly secretary of state for India, and from 1908 until 1910 lord president of the council, died here Saturday.

Henry Hartley Fowler, the first Viscount Wolverhampton, was born May 15, 1859, and was the youngest son of the late Rev. Joseph Fowler. He was created a viscount in 1908.

Viscount Wolverhampton was financial secretary to the treasury in 1886, president of the local Government board, with a seat in the Cabinet, from 1892 until 1894, and during the following year had the portfolio of secretary of state for India. He was appointed chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster in December, 1895, and was lord president of the council from 1908 to 1910.

Forger Gets Six Months.

Woodstock, Feb. 27.—H. N. McDonald, who was arrested a week ago, charged with forgery in raising a couple of notes he had taken in payment for stoves which he sold for the Ottawa Manufacturing Co., and who was sent back to jail on remand, was before the magistrate Saturday morning and sentenced to six months at hard labor in the county jail.

Memorial to Perry.

Washington, Feb. 27.—A memorial of Perry's victory on Lake Erie is contemplated in a bill passed by the Senate yesterday. The measure appropriates $250,000 towards a monument on Put-In-Bay Island, Lake Erie, near Sandusky, in conjunction with the centennial celebration to be held there in 1913. The bill has not passed the House.

A HOUSE WARMING

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. John Box gathered at their home last week and presented them with the following address and a beautiful couch and chair:
To Mr. and Mrs. J. Box.
DEAR MR. AND MRS. BOX:—A few of your friends and neighbors have gathered to wish you many years of happiness and prosperity in your new home.
In the years we have known you, we have always found you a true and faithful friend and a good neighbor; always willing to lend a helping hand, and now may your lives be ruled by the Giver of all good gifts, who has so abundantly blessed you in the past; and our sincere wishes are that God's choicest blessings may rest upon you and yours through all the coming years of your life.
We now ask you to accept this couch and chair, assuring you that they are accompanied by our earnest prayers and best wishes for your future prosperity.
Signed on behalf of your many friends and neighbors.
MRS. FRED THOMAS,
MRS. E. B. NEAL,
MRS. H. MEEKING.
Mr. and Mrs. Box were taken completely by surprise but returned thanks and assured their visitors that they would always cherish pleasant memories of that night. The evening was spent in playing progressive euchre and other games and a sumptuous repast served at the close.
