EDWARD BLAKE'S OLD RIDING.

Durham, last election, C. J. Thornton, (Con.) majority 922. Liberal candidate is not yet placed in the field. Durham was formerly two ridings, the east being pretty strongly Conservative, and the west pretty consistently Liberal, though often by small majorities. It was Edward Blake's riding. In 1904 when the present riding was formed, it went Conservative by 149, which was considered to be somewhat under normal. In the 1891 reciprocity election East Durham remained Conservative by only 61. while Robert Beith (Liberal) had 198 majority in the west. These facts would indicate that a strong; Liberal candidate would have a fighting chance in the present contest, though Mr. Thornton's lead looks formidable.

PORT HOPE, JULY 28, 1911

A TROUBLESOME MISGIVING

A tap at the door caused her to rise, trembling. She remembered that by this time her mother must be aware of the extraordinary disclosure, and that a new scene of wretched agitation had to be gone 'Sidwell!'

It was Mrs. Warricombe's voice, and the door opened.

'Sidweli!-What does all this mean? I don't understand half that Buckland has been telling me.' The speaker's face was mottled, and she stood panting, a hand pressed against her side. *How very, very imprudent we have been! How wrong of father not to have made inquiries! To think that such a man should have sat at our table!"

'Sit down, mother; don't be so distressed,' said Sidwell, calmly. 'It will all very soon be settled.'

Of course not a word must be said to anyone. How very fortunate that we shall be in London till the summer! Of course he must leave Exeter.

'I have no doubt he will. Let us talk as little of it as possible, mother. We shall go back tomorrow'-

'This afternoon! We will go back with Buckland. That is decided. I couldn't sleep here another night.'

'We must remain till to-morrow, Sidwell replied, with quiet deter-

'Why? What reason can there be?

Mrs. Warricombe's voice was suspended by a horrible surmise. 'Of course we shall go to-day, Sidwell,' she continued in nervous haste. 'To think of that man having the impudence to call and sit talking with you! If I could 'Mother,' said Sidwell, gravely, I am obliged to see Mr. Peak, either this evening, or to-morrow morning.

'To-to see him--? Sidwell! What can you mean?'

'I have a reason for wishing to hear from his own lips the whole

*But we know the whole truth. What can you be thinking ot, dear? Who is this Mr. Peak that you should ask him to come and see you, under any circumstances?"

It would never have occurred to Sidwell to debate with her mother on subtle questions of character and motive, but the agitation of her nerves made it difficult for her to keep silence under these vapid outcries. She desired to be alone; commonplace discussion of the misery that had come upon her was impossible. A little more strain, and she would be on the point of tears, a weakness she was resolute to avoid.

'Let me think quietly for an hour or two,' she said moving away. 'It's quite certain that I must stay here till to-morrow. When Buckland has gone, we can talk again.'

'But, Sidwell'-'If you insist, I must leave the house, and find a refuge somewhere else. Mrs. Warricombe tossed her head. 'Oh, if I am not permitted to speak to you! I only hope you won't have occasion to remember my warning! Such extraordinary behaviour was surely never known! I should have thought'-

Sidwell was by this time out of the room. Safe in privacy she sat down as if to pen a letter. From an hour's agitated thought, the following lines resulted: 'My brother has told me of a conversation he held with you this morning. He says you admit the authorship of an article which seems quite inconsistent with what you have protes ed in our talks. How am to understand this contradiction? I beg that you will write to me at once. I shall anxiously await your reply.' This, with her signature, was all. Having enclosed the note in an envelope, she left it on her table and went down to the library, where Buckland was sitting alone in gloomy reverie. Mrs. Warricombe had told him of Sidwell's incredible purpose. Recognising his sister's independence, and feeling sure that it she saw Peak it could only be to take final leave of force return this afternoon, but he done his duty satisfactorily, and more of what they have to sell and just in time. It was plain that things had gone far between Peak and Sidwell; the latter's behaviour the fabrics and others articles with avowed it. 'There's a train at 1.53,' Buckland remarked, rising, 'and I shall cotch it if I start now. I can't stay for the discomfort of luncheon. You remain here till to-morrow. I understand?'

'Yes.'

'It's a pity you are angry with me. It seems to me I have done you a kindness.'

'I am not angry with you, Buckland,' she replied, gently. 'You tie consumption in Canada for 1910. ! have done what you were plainly obliged to do.'

'That's a sensible way of putting Let us say good-bye with friendliness then."

RECIPROCITY MEANS

A Good Deal To The Farmers (recommended.) Of Canada.

Toronto Globe

Reciprocity has now passed at mended). . Washington. Whether it becomes | law or not rests with the Canadian parliament and people. It is worth recalling the terms of the agreement and pointing out in a general way its meaning to the two countries affected. The bill is a tariff amendment, divided into three schedules, embodying a large free list on natural products and certain manu-

For farmers there will be distinct advantages in free access to the United States market for the following, among other articles, upon which duty is now levied:

Cattle, Horses and Mules, Swine, Sheep and Lambs, Poultry, Wheat, Rye, Oats, Barley, Beans, Potatoes, Corn. Onions, Apples, Pears, Peaches, Grapes, Butter, Cheese, Fresh Milk, Fresh Cream, Eggs, Hav. Straw.

Canadian fishermen will beawarded by free access to the United States market for the following products of the rich waters of the dominion:

Mackerel, Herrings, Halibut, Salmon, Cod, Oysters, Lobsters.

Canadian lumbermen will gain, by the admission to the United he says he does not know of any-States of the following standard one who spends more in indulging products:

Timber, hewn, sided or squared, Paving posts, railroad ties and poles, wooden staves, pickets and in Canada, and a sprig of the soil, palings

The mining man will find better sale for his goods by tree access to

United States markets for: Feldspar, Mica, Tale, Salt, Asbestos.

Consumers on both sides will thank the negotiators of this agreement for reduced duties on many articles now bearing varying taxes and among them:

Meats, tresh and refrigerated, bacon and hams, beef and pork, salted, canned meats and poultry, lard, tomatoes and other vege etables, wheat flour and oatmeal, prepared cereal food, bran, middlings and offals of grain. macaroni and vermicelli, biscuits, wafers and cakes, banned truifs, agricultural implements, cutlery, rading stones, clocks and watches, canoes, motor vehicles.

The Forestry Branch of the Department of the Interior has collect- to learn and recite at high school comed statistics with regard to the cross purchased in 1910 by the steam and electric roads of Canada at a cost of $3,535,228. This is a decrease of 35 per cent from the num-Sidwell gave her hand and tried ber purchased in 1909. The average to smile. With a look of pained cost of these ties at the point of ber purchased in 1909. The average purchase was 38 cents per tie. Three kinds of wood, cedar, jack pine and hemlock furnished 77 per cent of all the ties purchased. Cedar itself supplied 40 per cent of the total consumption and its use is increasing yearly in proportion to other species. Oak, which makes an expensive tie, costing 74 cents each, was used principally by a United . States company having mileage in Canada. Of the total number of ties purchased, 70 per cent were hewn ties. The only important species which has a majority of sawn ties, was oak. Sawn ties cost on the average 36 cents per tie anything be more fair for cent of all the ties and these ties is there any reason why cost them on the average 38 cents. The electric railways used 302,540 ties-an increase of 183 per cent over 1909. They paid for their ties 41 cents each Although on an average they use smaller ties, this excess of 3 cents in the cost is due not only to the disadvantages incident to contracts for smaller quantities of materials but also to the fact that the electric roads are more likely to purchase ties at points where the price includes transportation charges.

The new firm got an awful soaking. Mr. Parsons demurred when paid for his service with 2,500 shares, but he says the trust was kinder to him than he had any idea of.

The 2,500 shares represented a capital of $2,500,000, and it yielded him $17,500 a year. His income he uses in gentleman farming, and his passion to so little advantage.

Mr. Parsons must have been the Study of young Max Aitken when, he launched the scheme that ended in the cement merger. He made enough out of it to retire to England, and there indulge his passion, waich was the cultivation of votes. He cannot say that his business is e tirely unprofitable since so far he has raised a title, is now Sir Max Aitken, and has in view other distinctions as he continues his energies in the Lancashire district. He may have designs on the House of Lords, and will succeed in breaking into it if nerve and audacity remain. Some day, like Lord Halsbury, he may be denouncing the plebian masses who would dare, through the Commons, to degrade the Upper House through the introduction into it of impure blood.-KingstonWhig.

TRADITIONS.

Their Absence Was a Serious Handleap to Agam and Eve The great drawback to the garden of Eden was the lack of traditions. There was no history to serve as a guide to legal, moral or social rectitude. There was peither Baedeker por Ridpath, pelther Macaulay nor Gibbon, neither Homer nor Vergil. Adam and Eve could not go to the library. baul down a book and see how somebody once did something or other. There were no daughters of anything to set the standards of social eminence. There were no old families. There were no descendants of anybody to talk big, look wise and draw pensions. There were no forefathers who had laid down inviolable laws, contracted debts, given away franchises and established constitutions Cross Ties Purchased 1910 chises and established constitutions for posterity, aye, even unto the third and fourth generation. There were no historic statesmen who had handed down orations for Adam and Eve mencements and church socials. There were no dates for them to learn and There were 9,213,962 cross ties remember. There was absolutely no past for them to revere; nothing that had stood the test of time.

If they wanted history or tradition they had to go ahead and make it themselves .- Ellis O. Jones in Judge's Library.

TABLE KNIVES.

Incident That Changed Them From Pointed to Rounded Ends.

Table knives are invariably made with rounded ends. Did it ever occur to you to wonder why they are of this shape instead of pointed, like any other knife blade?

Perhaps you may imagine that the ends were rounded as a protection to life and limb in those turbulent days when men drew their swords or any other available lethal weapon at the very slightest provocation.

But this is not the case. The story goes-and it is fairly well substantiated-that the great Cardinal Richelieu had a guest to dinner whose manners at the table were very far from being all that could be desired.

The climax was reached when fellow, after finishing the meat course, began to pick his teeth with his table knife, at that date made with a sharp point. The guest being a man of birth and importance, the cardinal could not openly remonstrate, but next day he gave orders that the point of every knife in the establishment should be rounded off.

Before the end of the century his example was universally followed, and the pointed knife at table had disappeared.-London Answers.

Swimming Ghosts.

Lecturing before the Camera club, Dr. Francis Ward said that in an attempt to photograph fish in their natural surroundings he had constructed a pond with an observation chamber let in at the side below the surfaof the water. Through the window " this chamber unseen by the fish be could watch and photograph their movements. He discovered by this means that the protection of fish when in their natural state is much more thorough than is generally supposed. All silvery fish were in reality merely mirrors in the water, reflecting the tone and color of their surroundings so as to appear to their fellow fish gray, unsubstantial, swimming ghosts, hardly to be distinguished at all. It was only when the dace, for example, rose to the surface, causing its body to reflect light, that the pike at the bottom of the pond could see and go for its little victim.-London Graphics.

England's Cream Ponies. The famous cream ponies which are used to draw the king's carriage on state occasions are the sole survivors of a breed of horses which has otherwise passed out of existence. They are the direct and only pure bred descendants of the famous horses of Hanover, which George L brought with him to his new English kingdom two centuries ago. The once famous white horses and black horses of Hanover have died out, and now the creams alone survive, and only in England, for when Queen Victoria sent to Hanover about 1890 to procure fresh stock for the royal stud not one was to be found.-London Answers.

MOROCCAN CRISIS

Britain Will Stand No Interference, Says Asquith.

SITUATION IS VERY GRAVE

In Declaration In House of Commons Prime Minister Has Support of the Opposition In Saying That Britain Will Defend Her Rights-Labor Men Are Hard at Work to Head Off Hostilities.

London, July 28 .- The most pessimistic views regarding the acuteness of the Moroccan crisis were largely confirmed by the Prime Minister in the House of Commons yesterday, when with a manner as impressive as his words, he read from a manuscript, which had been carefully prepared, a warning to Germany that Great Britain proposed to stand for what she considered her rights, and to maintain the balance of power in Europe.
Further testimony as to the gravity of the situation is given by the fact that the Prime Minister obviously had taken the leader of the Opposition in taken the leader of the Opposition into the Government's confidence, and

Mr. Balfour's declaration was no less firm than Mr. Asquith's. The Prime Minister's statement was couched in diplomatic, though not reassuring, language. At the very opening he said:

It is obvious that this Moroccan question has reached a point at which it will become increasingly difficult to end, embarrassing and anxious, un-less a solution is found."

Later in the statement the Prime Minister said: "We thought it right from the beginning to make clear that, failing of a seftlement such as I have indicated, we must become an active party in the discussion of the situation. That would be our right as a signatory to the treaty of Algerias as it might be our obligation under the terms of our agreement of 1904 with France. It might be our duty in defence of British interests directly after, by further developments.

In promising the support of the Opposition to the Government Mr. Balfour said:

"If there are any who supposed that we would be wiped off the map of Europe because we have our difficulties at home, it may be worth while saying that they bitterly mistake the temper of the British people and the patriotism of the Opposition."

Such plain speaking on a question fraught with possibilities of a great European war has not been heard in the British Parliament in many years. The outcome of the situation appears to rest almost wholly on Germany's shoulders. If, as some Ger-man papers say, Germany has reached the stake of a national development, where the necessitles of her population demand that she branch out into foreign fields, and considers this a vital topic, she imposes conditions on France which Great Britain thinks threaten British vital interests, and the only result, so far as those best informed see it, will be oft-repeated and long-averted European convul-

German newspapers profess to think that Chancellor Lloyd-George's recent speech of warning was not addressed to Germany, but a sort of general amount of principles. Mr. Asquith's statement leaves no doubt, and was intended plainly to leave none, on the point. While the country has no knowledge of the extent of Germany's first conditions, the Prime Minister made it plain that they were such that Great Britain would not accept

Mr. Balfour strongly hinted at what thought she could take advantage of the crisis in Great Britain's democra-tic politics, in the belief that it was so absorbing to the country that the country would not pay attention to foreign affairs. The English newspapers are entirely united in supporting the Government. They are studiously polite in language but strongly urge that Germany shall not be permitted to make any African excursion which would seriously damage Britain's national interests. All the politicians and the public earnestly hope that Germany's program is not impossible. Reservists Called Home. Sherbrooke, July 23.—Two German workmen at Thetford mines have been ordered to return to Germany to join the first reserve.

Laborite Opposes War.

London, July 28.-James R. Mac-Donald, leader of the Laborites, who spoke after Mr. Balfour in the Commons yesterday, remarked that the gravity of the Premier's statement, in spite of its very careful phrasing; ould not elude any one. The Labor nembers were utterly opposed to war, but he hoped that no European nations would assume for a single mo-ment that party divisions weaken national spirit.

Nevertheless the Laborites of Germany, France and England, would cooperate to the very last moment, he said, to seek peace and prevent two professedly Christian countries from resorting to the arbitration of the sword over a difficulty that could easily be settled at The Hague.

ambassadors and ministers at London of Germany, France, Russia, Spain, Japan, Sweden and Belgium, were present to hear Mr. Asquith's statement, which made a profound impression.

Nothing Doing Yet.

Paris, July 28 .- The Temps says that although the conversations of M. Cam-bon, the French ambassador to Gernany, and Baron Von Kiderlen Wah eter, the German Foreign Secretary, have taken on a tone of greater corfinality, they have not resulted in ad-rancing the situation.

Lloyd's on War Risk.

London, July 28.—At Lloyd's yester-day war risks against hostilities between Great Britain and Germany within three months rose rapidly from thought he lost his life in the flames.

5 to 8 per cent. In some cases even 10 per cent. was paid. Against the risk of war between France and Germany, 12 per cent. was quoted.

HE'S LONESOME NOW.

Sailorman at Brooklyn Loses Both His

New York, July 28 .- Charles Hoffman, purser of a steamship, walked into Supreme Court Justice Crane's court in Brooklyn yesterday, accom-panied by two wives. Half an hour later he walked out without any wife at all. He explained that he did not mean to commit bigamy, and that when he married Miss Grace L. Gil-lette at Stafford, Conn., five weeks lette at Stafford, Conn., five weeks ago, he was under the impression that the girl he wed in Brooklyn thirteenvears before, had died in the Phillippines. Her brother had told him so, Hoffman said, but Mrs. Hoffman No. I denied the report in person.

Saskatoon Has Explosion.

Saskatoon, July 28.-Three men were injured, two seriously, and the city is in darkness indefinitely as the result of a boiler explosion at the city power plant early yesterday after-noon. The boiler had been leaking all morning and power shut of pending repairs, but the leak got worse, and the lires were ordered to be drawn. While being drawn a boiler tube exploded, clouds of scalding water and superheated steam immediately en-veloping the whole boiler room. I. Sullivan, a coal wheeler, received the first blast, being blown over a coal pile, but luckily escaping with bruises and a scratched hand.

Immediately after came a discharge with the combined force of the three boilers, which were connected, the centre being the source of the trouble, the whole force, aggregating 450 horsepower. Andrew G. Sangster, superintendent of power; Harry Johnson, chief engineer, and Jack were the three men involved, the first and second named being badly scalded all over the body. Johnson had the flesh scalded almost off both arms and hands, and Sangswer was also terribly scalded.

G.T.P. Linked With Hill Lines.

Winnipeg, July 28.—At local head-quarters of the Grand Trunk Pacific, it is said that terminals for the big corporation are to be secured in Min-neapolis or St. Paul.

Several branches of the G.T.P. have been surveyed down to the United States border, notably in Manitoba, Saskatoon and Alberta, each branch running from Winnipeg, Regina and Calgary south, each connecting at the border with a Hill line. It is said that later it is proposed to build south to the Twin Cities and connect three branches in a big system which will be run through to Chi-cago, there connecting with the Grand Trunk line through to Portland, Thousands of men are working on G.T.P. construction now.

Daring Daylight Burglary. Toronto, July 28.—The police of No. 6 division, Parkdale, are looking for a young man, of medium height and dark complexion, who burglarized No. 3 Westminster avenue, and attempted to assault a young woman who called at the house while he was in posses-

A neighbor's child had let drop the information that the occupants of the house were away, and the stranger got an entrance by removing a screen trom a back window.

A lady calling, rang the bell, and was admitted by the man, who said the lady of the house was upstairs. When the caller entered he endeavored to assault her, but she escaped after a hard struggle.

Wants More Militarism. Montreal, July 28 .- "There is not enough military spirit in the young men of to-day," said Major Alexander Bertrand of Hamilton, who two years ago commanded the Bisley team, and who is at the Windsor Hotel here. "The young man of to-day is too keen to make money, to take the in-terest he should in military matters. I think the Canadians do as well as could be expected. There is not enough money spent on the militia, and I think that Roberts and French were right in what they said.

Didn't Get Trip to Europe.

Montreal, July 28.—Miss Irene Joly, principal of the Institute Stenographique de France, has taken an action against the newspaper La Presse. for the amount of $475, with interest and costs.

The newspaper La Presse organized in January last a contest in which a trip to Europe was granted to the winner of each district. Miss Joly claims to have a majority of 1,919,200 votes, and alleges that another young lady had been illegally elected the winner of her district.

Papa Has Relented.

Montreal, July 23.—Love drew back the bolts of the doors of the Asylum Benoit St. Joseph yesterday and Justin B. McDougald stepped out in the arms of his loved one, Alma Vecera Hayne, granddaughter morgantically the Emperor of Austria, while the father of the young man stood smiling on the couple.

Then he drove them in a motor up town for lunch and later to dinner at his own home. The marriage will take place when she gets her divorce.

Lost Life In Flames.

Cayuga, July 28.—About twelve o'clock Wednesday night fire destroyed the Crown Plaster Co.'s gypsum mill at Lythmore on the M.C.R., about four miles from Cayuga, entailing a loss of some $75,000. One man, a foreigner, is reported missing, and it is

DISSOLUTION CONFERENCES

Sir Wilfrid Has Been Closeted With Earl Grey Regarding the Moment of Calling an Election-J. B. Taylor Brings In a Vote of Censure on Hon, William Templement and Inland Revenue Department.

Ottawa, July 28.-Parliament is having a long death rattle, but yesterday's fur ther twelve-hour rattle, provided as usual by the obstructionists. brought the final dissolution perceptibly nearer. Both patient and patience are nearly exhausted, and the last throes are now almost hourly expect-There was a persistent rumor last night that dissolution might come before the week is out. Sir Wilfrid is, however, keeping his own counsel as to the psychological moment to ask Earl Grey for the inevitable dissolu-tion, and perhaps only the two of them know the probable hour when the agony shall be ended.

All day the air has been full of dissolution rumors. A special issue of The Gazette was shortly to appear with the Governor-General's proclama-tion, said one report. Sir Wilfrid was in conference with His Excellency and the duration of Parliament was only a matter of hours, said another. The latest rumor last night is that Earl Grev told Sir Wierid Laurier that before he could listen to any advice regarding a dissolution, Parliament had better devote itself to the task of passing supply to enable the business of the country to go on uninterrupted.

Certain it seems that supply will have to be sought by the Government before His Excellency will incline to further advice. In this connection a nice question has arisen whether dissolution could be brought about with one branch of Parliament sitting and the other adjourned.

The principal item of discussion yesterday was a motion of censure in connection with the Chinese immigra-tion frauds at Vancouver, brought on by J. B. Taylor (New Westminster). Mr. Taylor assailed Mr. Templeman vigorously for negligence and connivance.

The report of the Imperial Conference was laid on the table of the House yesterday morning by the Prime Minister. There was also some correspondence regarding the publi-cation of a report of the consultations between the Admiralty and the representatives of the Dominion on the subject of the status of dominion navies. The Prime Minister also tabled the text of the sealing convention.

When the House resumed after luncheon Martin Burrell (Yale-Cariboo) raised the question of holding deferred elections in parts of British Columbia

Mr. Burrell hoped the Government would see that no more deferred elec-tions were held in British Columbia, that it disturbed business conditions and imposed a hardship on the constituencies in which they were held. As far as his own constituency was concerned, Mr. Burrell was satisfied the election could be held there on the same day as in the remainder of

Mr. Fielding replied to the question of holding deferred elections and said that "simultaneous voting is one of the good features of the Canadian constitution." He would place Mr. Burrell's recommendation before his years old, of Toronto, was befriended by Municipal Judge Fry in the Hyde Park court yesterday afternoon. He was given his fare to Toronto, and sent home to his father. Kemp was arrested a week ago by the police of the Fiftieth street station after he had eaten a meal in the Paris restaurant, and could not pay for it. Kemp told the judge that he was hungry and sick. His story was verified and he was sent home.

Ten Years For Brutes.

Montreal, July 23.—Louis Desautels and his wife were yesterday each giv. en ten years in the penitentiary for their brutal treatment of Blanche Hamelin, nine years old, the woman's daughter by a former husband.

Evidence showed that the stepfather had held the girl up by the hair while the mother ad beaten her black and blue with a poker. Part of the child's scalp was torn off.

Stock Broker Murdered. New York, July 28.-Murdered, apparently by robbers, William H. Jackson, a well-known Wall street broker, 70 years of age, was found dead on the floor of his bedroom yesterday at the Hotel Iroquois. The body was covered with bruises. There was a deep wound over the right eye, and finger marks on the throat and arms,

Big Sawmill Burned. Ottawa, July 23.—The big Allan sawmill at Campbell's Bay, about 30 miles west of Ottawa, on the Ottawa

River, was destroyed by fire yesterday. At one time the whole town was in jeopardy, but timely aid was sent from Bryson and the fire was kept under control.

Expects Satisfactory Agreement. Washington, July 28.—Democratic Leader Underwood of the House said yesterday he did not believe the House would accept the La Follette compromise wool bill, but he expected that some satisfactory agreement would be reached without delaying adjournment

New Degree For Dr. Reeve.

Birmingham, Eng., July 28.-The University of Birmingham yesterday conferred the degree of doctor of laws upon Russell H. Chittenden, director of the Sheffield Scientific School at Yale, and Richard A. Reeve, professor of the city. of onthalmology at Toronto University.

FOUR HOURS IN AIR.

Record For Endurance Is Won by a Canadian Aviator.

Mineola, N.Y., July 28.-St. Croix Johnstone, the Canadian aviator, broke the American endurance record for monoplanes and biplanes yesterday when he remained in the air for 4 hours, 1 minute, 53 3-4 seconds, circling the aviation course of about five miles thirty-nine times. He was compelled to alight before his fifty gallons of gasoline were consumed because of engine trouble in his Moisant mono-

The previous American record, made at San Francisco on Jan. 20th last, was made by Parmelee, his record being 3 hours, 39 minutes, 49 1-2 seconds. Counting gasoline, oil and accessories, with his own weight, Johnstone carried about 500 pounds of weight in his flight, which was made at a rate close to sixty miles an hour and about 300 feet above the ground in a gentle Aviators In Hamilton. Hamilton, July 28.—Hamilton's first aviation meet opened last evening at the Tuckett farm, on the Beach road. About a thousand people witnessed the feats of the daring birdmen. The performers last evening were: J. A. D. McCurdy and Charles F. Willard, the American air navigator.

Owing to the trouble which the other men had with their machines, the burden of the evening's entertainment fell of Willard, who made five ascensions in his Curtiss biplane.

is contradicted. Refined sugar was again advanced by ten cents in all markets yesterday. The C.P.R. steamer Empress of China is aground on the rocks off the Japanese coast. The Canadian Northern has taken out a permit for a new station at Belleville to cost $22,000.

Hon. Charles Murphy, speaking in Renfrew, denied that he was seeking an election anywhere but in Russell Mr. W. D. Scott, superintendent of immigration, hopes to supply the lab-or demands of the west with importations from Europe. The contract has been signed with the Canadian Vickers, Limited, for the construction of a three-million-dollar drydock at Montreal.

The recent wind storm did great damage to the tobacco crop in Kent County, and in some localities fully hal fthe crop was destroyed. The U. S. Department of Justice is planning immediate prosecution of all trusts or monopolies which do not dis-solve or take other steps to obey the Sherman law. There are persisten rumors of a dissolution of the Quebec Legislature, and most every personal friend of the Prime Minister believes that an appeal to the provincial electorate is near at hand. North Renfrew Liberals nominated Mr. James F. Munro for the Commons, and East Peterboro' Conservatvies renominated Mr. Sexsmith for the Commons and Mr. Thompson for the Legislature. The Dominion canners have struck gas and oil in a well they have put down at their Bow Park farm. They sent twelve barrels of the oil to the Aylmer branch, which is being used on the roads about the factory.

Fired In the Air.

Chatham, July 28.-John Duckett came up in the Police Court yesterday morning, charged with shooting with intent to kill. The charge was laid by Dan Harris. who boarded with Duckett. The latter claims that Harris and some friends got a keg of beer and was drinking it and making such a noise that he couldn't sleep. When they would not stop at his request, he got a revolver and fired it in the air. He says when the shot was fired they all ran like mad, though he didn't shoot with any intentions of hitting anyone. The case was re-manded until to-day.

Thought He Was Drunk.

Stratford, July 288.—Death came in sudden form to B. Plumb, home unknown, yesterday, when he fell dead in No. 3 train from Toronto, which arrives here at 12.13 o'clock. Little is known regarding the deceased, who was about 35 years of age, save that he boarded the train at the Union Station, Toronto, along with one A. Watkins.

Between Baden and Hamburg he rolled off the seat to the floor between two seats, but did not strike his head, sliding down easily. The conductor and brakeman thought he was intoxi-

NOT PANNING OUT

Portuguese Royalists Have Not Begun Operations.

SOMETHING MUST HAPPEN

Gove rnment Is Anxious Over Reports That Large Body of Supporters of the Monarchy In Portugal Is Hovering About the Frontier-

Expensive Defence Measures Are Being Taken by Troops.

Lisbon, July 28.-The monarchist invasion of Portugal from the north, to be followed by a peasant rising, which has been expected daily, has not materialized. The monarchist agents permit the information that first one day and then another has been fixed for the outbreak to fall into the hands of the Government. The provisional administration is thus kept in a state of uneasiness, and is obliged to maintain expensive measures for defence. Commercial and financial interests are kept worried, not knowing the hour when the projected coun-ter-revolution will begin.

Lub d'Almeida, chief of the secret

olitical secretary, known as the Carbonarios, one of the most powerful influences supporting the Government, has left Lisbon for the Galician frontier to assist in the defensive measures and to be on the field should sharp action be necessary. Numerous Carbonarios are with him, and it has been arranged that he shall have 2,000 members of the society at his call, whose daily maintenance is to be paid by the state, should events so require.

The Government actually had on the northern frontier 10,000 men. The conviction of the Cabinet appears to be that something must happen in no great while, but the Ministers are also convinced that they are wholly competent to deal with it. The Lisben newspapers have sent correspondents to the frontier, in anticipation of fighting.

The monarchists say that they have upward of 10,000 men ready to invade Portugal, but these figures are reduced by other and more reliable informa-tion to between 3,000 and 4.000 adherents, who are under pay and under arms. The privates are reported to receive a small sum per day for the purpose of boarding themselves at the farms in the villages throughout Galicia.

Met Death In Tank.

Woodstock, Ont., July 28.—Miss Marie Hockey, daughter of the Metho-dist minister at Waterloo and the delegate to the missionary conference at Woodstock College, met death in the swimming tank of the college yesterday afternoon. Miss Hockey. who is 18 years of age, had been playing tennis all afternoon, went in with a number of other girls for a swim. She fainted in the water and when the other girls went to her rescue and succeeded in hauling her out she was dead. A doctor, who was summoned, found no water in her lungs, and it is presumed that the cause of her death was heart failure.

Hay Crop Poor.

Niagara Falls, Ont., July 28.—Be-cause of dry weather, Canada's hay crop is far below the normal, according to reports presented yesterday af-termoon at the National Hay Association convention. In some sections of the continent the crop is only 20 per cent. of normal.

MISPLACED AFFECTION.

Tragic Story of a Snake Charmer and Her Pet Reptile.

Miss X., a snake charmer well known among show people, firmly believed that one of her snakes was really fond of her. She could do anything with it-fondle it, kiss and caress it.

She grew so fond of it that at last she even let it sleep on her bed, to the great disgust of the other performers in the show. She would eat her meals with this horrible thing coiled around her neck, and once, in very warm weather, she took it under her coat into the woods with her and let it amuse itself by crawling over the ground. She followed it about and kept a most careful watch over it (it was a valuable performer), but it showed no disposition to go off into the woods, as she feared it might, but came back to her and colled round her as usual.

She was warned several times that the reptile was very dangerous, but she grew more and more reckless, and the snake appeared to become more and more attached to her.

And then one day without any warning, directly after a performance when she was caressing it in her own room, the snake suddenly threw back its head, looked at her steadily and with lightning-like swiftness struck her between the eyes, leaving two tiny punctures. She hastily uncoiled it and thrust it into its box, but she died within half an hour .- McClure's Maga-

A HASTY MARRIAGE.

And the Bride Was Not the One the Wooer Sought.

Oliver Cromwell was so great a man that he dwarfed his surroundings, and it is singular how little the majority of people knew about the family and family life of this "the most typical Englishman of all time." He had three daughters, the youngest of whom was Frances. Her attractions must have been considerable. The young woman had several love affairs, but certainly the one that had a most amusing termination was her filrtation with her father's chaplain, Jerry White.

One day the protector surprised Jerry on his knees in the very act of kissing the lady's hand. Cromwell coldly demanded the meaning of the scene, and Jerry, with a pretty wit, exclaimed that he had long been courting "that young gentlewoman, my lady's woman," although without success. He was now thereby bumbly praying her ladyship to intercede for him.

Cromwell turned at once to the waiting woman and requested to be informed why she refused the honor his friend, Mr. White, would do her. The young woman, fully equal to the ocrasion, replied magnanimously that if Mr. White intended her that honor she would not be so churlish as to deny him. "Call Godwin," returned Cromwell, and the pair were married straightway.

Feminine Strategy. Her name is Amy, and she is one of the nicest young misses living on the upper west side. Her father concluded last week he would do something to encourage Amy in habits of industry. Therefore he offered to give her $5 if she would trim a hat for herself. She accepted the proposition and two days later appeared before her father wearing a hat of her own creation, and a very pretty hat it was too. Her father was delighted and handed over the $5 with real pleasure. The next day Amy, wearing another and still handsomer hat, met her father on the street. "And did you trim that one, too?" he asked, with manifest pride. "No," was the reply. "I bought this hat with the $5 you gave me and presented the other one to the janitor's little girl"-New York Press.

Setting an Example. "Whether the hotel proprietor I funched with the other day is a hero publicly maintaining his sincere convictions as an encouragement to others or a slave in his own domain I cannot determine," said the gray headed man. "I met him in the street not far from his hotel, and at his suggestion we lunched together. We ate in his own dining room. He tipped the waiter. We had checked our hats, and he tipped the boy in attendance.

"'Do you tip in your own botel?' I gasped. "'Always,' said he. 'It is as much trouble to wait on me as anybody else,"-New York Sun.

Our Country. Let our object be our country, our whole country and nothing but our country. And by the blessing of God may that country itself become a vast and splendid monument, not of oppression and terror, but of wisdom, of peace and of liberty upon which the world may gaze with admiration forever .- Daniel Webster.

Punctuation. Pupil-Which is the proper punctuation to use after the word "cash" when entered up in the ledger? Teacher-Well, it's immaterial, but some people usually make a dash after cash .- New York Times. Jealousy. Nell-He swore I was the only girl he had ever loved. Belle-For my part, I don't care for amateurs .- Philadelphia Record.

Fear is far more painful to cowardice than death to true courage,-Sid-
