THE OUTLOOK IN DURHAM

Liberals May Nominate Mr. T. A. Kelly, of Cavan.

CONVENTION AUGUST 21.

Millbrook, July 28th .- The anto be plunged into a Dominion general election has caused a wakening up of political activity through-out the County of Durham, and the Liberals of the riding are determined to make the fight of their lives to carry the banner of reciprocity to victory when the opportunity is afforded.

Durham County has been generally looked upon as a pretty safe Conservative seat. Up until eight years ago the County had two mem-bers. The East Riding consisted of the Townships of Manvers, Cavan and Hope, the Town of Port Hope and the Village of Millbrook, and has been very strongly Conservative since Confederation.

In the year 1874 the late Lewis Ross, of Port Hope, was elected by the Liberal party. From that time and down until the two Durhams were thrown into one constituency, the east riding was very strongly

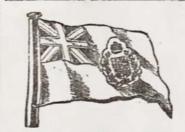

The West Riding previous to the combining of the two ridings was made up of the Townships of Cartwright, Darlington and Clarke, the Town of Bowmanville and the Village of Newcastle. It was somewhat consistently Liberal, Hon. Senator Beith being able to hold the constituency for the Liberal party for several terms.

In the general election following the combining of the two ridings into one, Sir Alan Aylesworth, who was an outsider and a complete stranger in the riding, was defeated Mr. H.A. Ward, barrister, of Port Hope, by about 200 votes.

the election of three years ago, Mr. D. B. Simpson, barrister, Bowmanville, running as the Liberal candidate against C. J. Thornton, of the Township of Darlington, was defeated by over 600. The Liberals of the County do not believe that the 600 Conservative majority represents the normal standing of the two parties, and they believe that with the very strong feeling in favor of reciprocity

Mr. T. A. Kelly, of Cavan, to enter the field a red hot contest is assured. Mr. Kelly is by far the strongest man in the Liberal party in Durnouncement that the country is soon ham County, outside of Senator Beith. He is personally very popular, and his great strength in the Conservative Townships of Cavan and Manvers would tend to break up the Conservative majorities that have been a feature of all former political contest in the riding.

Mr. T. A. Kelly is a young man with a good, clean record in municipal life. For a number of years he has given valuable service to his native township in municipal council. To-day he is Reeve of Cavan Township, President of the Millbrook Agricultural Society, and Warden of the United Counties of Durham and Northumberland. He is well known throughout the entire County. He is young, active and possesses good business ability. "Sandy" Kelly is a successful farmer, who appreciates the value of reciprocity to the farmers of this district, and would make an ideal representative. A strong effort is being made to have him consent to allow his name to go before the party convention which is to be held on August 21st at Newcastle. If Mr. Kelly enters the fight he will surprise the front Townships in the strength he is bound to show in Cavan, Manvers and the Village of Millbrok.

Ottawa Vindicator

A man, whose name in the interests of justice cannot be divulged at the time of writing, laden with three Bewdley park is situated at the big parcels of oil-soaked waste, sneaked around Mr. Sydney Porter's house in Cedardale on Monday night and laid them at the back door of the pump house within the woodshed.

Then, thinking that he was unobserved, he struck a match and ignited the combustible mass.

Mrs. Wild, who lives with her son in a near-by house, observed the blaze when it was comparatively small, but as she looked it grew in volume and fierceness. roused her son, who was dozing by the fireside, and he ran over and drew the burning waste and stamped the fire out as he thought. But the wind which was blowing a 60 mile gait that night, fanned the embers into life again, and just before she went to bed at about 12 o'clock she went to close a rattling window and noticed the blaze again. Again Mr. Wild went over to his neighbor's but this time he roused Mr. Porter and it took water in addition this time to quench the fire.

Inside the house were Mr. Por-ter's wife and two children and a lady visitor from Toronto with her child, and they slept through it all and did not know what a narrow escape they had until morning.

DECORATION DAY

The beautiful and impressive ceremony of decorating the graves of the departed brethren will be observed by Durham Lodge No. 78 I.O. O. F. tomorrow afternoon. Says Annexation Cry Is Joke In England

Montreal Herald.

That the annexation cry raised in The thing which is wanted is to some quarters has never been taken maintain the old-established thing seriously in England was the state-ment made to The Herald this possible. To try to water the ment made to The Herald this morning by Mr. Raleigh Phillpotts, a well known London (Eng.) lawyer who is at the Windsor Hotel. 'For my part," he continued, "I think that is all nonsense. People in London did talk, and talk a great deal, about reciprocity, especially Lords on the Budget Debate.

Of course, the Tariff Reformers and those in favour of Imperial Preference raised a cry about lost opportunities, and said. and I think there will be some mea-"If this act goes through it will sure of Home Rule. only as an ordinarity, intelligen man on the street; and this is the opinion of the average man on the street, that Balfour is the man to hold the Unionist party together. He is quite right in showing caution over the question of Tariff Reform. He has proved a good leader, and there is no one of weight to put in his place. I am sorry for the growing feeling of the more ardent Unionists, who want some one to get busier and hope that the saner councils of Balfour and Lansdowne will prevail. Disloyalty to Balfour is a mistake. Countries are ruled by sovereigns and statesmen, not by shouting politicians. We have got a very sensible and hard-working young King, and it will be very bad if English opinions are to be swayed by these shouting politicians. Such shoutings are in-consistent with English dignity and strength.'

With particular reference to the recent uproar in the House, Mr. Phillpotts said: "This excitement is only a passing phase. It is really very remarkable how little the man on the street has been apparently moved by this crisis. The idea that the Unionists can make the Radical party ludicrous by creating an enormous number of peers is absolutely unsound. House of Lords by swamping it

Hours went by; she still waited for an answer from Longbrook

At six o'clock she went upstairs and spoke to her mother.

Shall you come down to dinner?' 'No, Sidwell,' was the cold rebrought to her; it could only be from Godwin Peak. With eyes which endeavoured to take in all first distinguish nothing, she hurriedly written lines;

'I have tried to answer you in a long letter, but after all I can't of the sawn timber and was used send it. I fear you wouldn't under- above ground for buildings, stand. But now a mournful, regretful passion began to weigh upon her heart. She shed tears, and presently stole away to her room for a night of sorrow.

What must be her practical course? If she went back to London without addressing another word to him, he must understand her silence as a final farwell. In that case his departure from Exeter would, no doubt, speedily follow, and there was little likelihood that she would ever again see him. Were Godwin a vulgar schemer, he would not so readily relinquish the advantage he had gained; he would calculate upon the weakness of a loving woman, and make at least one effort to redeem his position. As it was, she could neither hope nor fear that he would try to see her again. Yet she wished to see him, desired it ardently.

And yet-tor each impulse of ardour was followed by a cold fit of reasoning-might inot his abandonment of the position bear a meaning such as Buckland would of course attribute to it? If he were hopeless of the goodwill of her parents, what profit would it be to him to retain her love? She was no heiress; supposing him actuated by base motive, her value in his eyes came merely of his regarding her as a means to an end. But this was to reopen the question of whether or not he truly loved her. No; he was forsaking ner because he thought it impossible for her to pardon the deceit he had undeniably practised-with whatever palliating circumstances. imagined her indignant, scornful. Why had she written such a short, cold note, the very thing to produce in his mind a conviction of her resentment?

Hereupon came another paroxysm of tearful misery. It was intensified by a thought she had half consciously been repressing ever since the conversation with her brother. Was it true that Miss Moxey had had it in her power to strip Godwin of a disguise? What, then, were the relations existing between him and that strangely impressive woman? How long had they known each other? It was now all but certain that a strong intellectual sympathy united their minds-and perhaps there had been something more.

She turned her face upon the pillow and moaned.

CHAPTER IV And from the Moxeys Buckland had derived his information. What, was it he said-something about 'an odd look' on Miss Moxey's face when that friend of theirs both persons concerned allowed her imagination free play. There was limit to the possibilities of self-

The desire to see Godwin took had already begun to think over the wording of another note to be sent to him the first thing in the morning.

A Richibucto School Teacher Once a Dyspegtic-Now Well,

Thanks to Father Morriscy's No. 11. Richibucto, N. B., Nov. 17th 1909.

Father Morriscy Med. Co., Ltd., I have been teaching school for upwards of thirty years, during the last twenty-five of which I have suffered seriously with stomach trouble, indi-gestion and dyspepsia.

I have tried many remedies, and while I would get temporary relief from some of them, yet the old trouble would return, and with it the sufferings only known to the chronic dyspeptic.

Last year I had made up my mind to abandon my profession, feeling that in my condition I could neither do justice my condition I could desire to justice to myself or to the many pupils under my charge. A friend suggested to me that I try Father Morriscy's No. 11 Stomach Tablets; I did so, and have continued to use them with the result that my stomach trouble is cured—my indirection and despensing one and I indigestion and dyspepsia gone and I feel as well as I ever did.

I have, thanks to the Tablets, been able to continue in my profession, and feel that I am once more enjoying my work and am able to give justice to the fifty-four pupils under my care.

Yours Gratefully,
(Signed) MARY CHRYSTAL.

Are you one of the many thousands who, like Miss Chrystal, are prevented from doing their best work, or really enjoying life, by stomach trouble? If you are you cannot do better than she did-take Father Morriscy's No. 11 Tablets.

Each No. 11 Tablet, when dissolved in the stomach, will digest 114 pounds of food-a good, hearty meal-so that no matter how weak your stomach may be No. II Tablets will enable you to get the nourishment out of your food and build up your strength, while the stomach, thus relieved, recovers its vigor. ARE STILL TALKING

Obstructionists Prolong Session of Parliament,

DISSOLUTION NEXT WEEK

Members at Ottawa Are Beginning to Leave, But End of Sitting Is Not Expected Until Wednesday or Thursday Next - Tom Wallace Rehashes Newmarket Canal and Moves Vote of Censure.

Ottawa, July 29 .- There was little change yesterday in the condition of the dying Parliament. The obstructionists made further progress in the process of talking it to death, but in-dications still are that Sir Wilfrid will not give the word for final dissolution before Wednesday or Thursday next. Members are packing their grips for home and a considerable number on both sides have already left, though the numerical balance between the two parties is still preserved by the whips, in anticipation of several more votes on Opposition amendments next week.

But while the fifty or sixty members who left Ottawa Thursday night to their own constituencies are not offically relieved of their Parliamen-tary duties, the balance of the session known to be so short that very few of them will return. The House late in the afternoon divided on the following motion, moved by Capt. Tom Wallace (Centre York), seconded by Major J. A. Currie (North Simcoe), that "while the growth and development of Canada demand an expenditure of public money, which shall at once be far-seeing, systematic and liberal every such expenditure ought to be designed and carried out in the public interest and not for partisan purposes or for the aggrandizement of party followers; this House regret that in many cases the Government have departed from this wholesome rule and principle and have used and supplied public monies for purposes that were not in the public interest."

Mr. Wallace reviewed the history of the Newmarket Canal project and read to the House the return recently tabled, in which Engineer E. J. Walsh scathingly condemned the waseful extension of the canal plans, though the canal involved a large expenditure of money in his own county, the work | city was so indefensible that he could only ed condemn it.

Sir Alan Aylesworth characterized the discussion as an ancient and venerable one. The canal was started before 1904 and has been justified at two general elections since. was as much agitation for it among Conservatives as Liberals of North York, and he dared Mr. Wallace to repeat in that constituency what he said in the House.

The building of the canal found a defender in the Minister of Finance. who quoted a newspaper account of a deputation which asked for the work in 1905. Many of the men on the deputation were, he said, Conservatives, one of them being T. H. Lennox, M.P.P. The Minister also thought Haughton Lennox had spoke in favor

Haughton Lennox at once denied that he had ever done anything but condemn the canal project. He thought that his name had been confused with that the T. H. Lennox. The scheme, he declared, was a ne-

Sir Wilfrid Laurier at the opening of the House laid on the table the report of the conference between the Colonial Premiers and the Admiralty as to the status of Dominion navies. Provision is made for dominion fleets to take part in fleet exercises with the British vessels.

The agreement provides for a uniform system of discipline and train-ing, and for the recognition of seni-ority of colonial naval officers, where their length of service is greater than that of British officers, on vessels co-operating with British ships. When in foreign waters the commander of a dominion ship will report to the British authorities and take

The wording of the war clause is as bllows: "In time of war, when the follows: naval service of a dominion or any part thereof has been put at the dis-posal of the Imperial Government by the dominion authorities, the ships will form an integral part of the British fleet, and will remain under the control of the Admiralty during the continuance of the war.

Hon, Mackenzie King tabled a special report on comparative prices in Canada and the United States just prepared by the Department of Labor, dealing with the products in farm, forest and mine. "It is made up of actual market prices, week by week, for the past five years," the Minister said. It will be published as a report of the Department of Labor. The House went into committee on ways and means, and the reciprocity debate-was taken up by Major Beattie of London. Major Beattie vigorously opposed the Taft-Fielding agreement, and went on record as favoring a twenty per cent, increase in the tariff. He supported his argument for higher protection with copious citations from price records of the United States. He denied that higher tariffs meant necessarily higher prices to the

New City Hall for Montreal. Montreal, July 29.—The city archi-tects have a scheme for a new city hall of a size and importance worthy of Greater Montreal, and the approval of the Board of Control will enable them to set to work at once with the plans. The projected city hall will be one of the finest municipal edifices in America. Its cost is roughly estimated at $10,000,000, and it would take from ten to twenty years to complete.

It has been long felt that the present city hall was wholly inadequate for the city, and with the prospect of a city of a million people within ten years a new and imposing civic structure must be built.

The scheme which is under contemplation now is to have the new hall erected in the square bounded by Mount Royal avenue, Rachel avenue, St. Denis and St. Lawrence boulevards. This would be equally near the east and west ends, and would be within reach of the tremendous population, which is spreading behind the mountain, and along the Riviere des Prairies.

To Keep the Peace.

Madrid, July 29.—Premier Canalejas outlined last night the main features of the Franco-Spanish modus vivendi entered into in order to prevent clashes in the vicinity of Alcazar, Mo-rocco, between Moorish troops, commanded or uncommanded by French instructors, and Spanish troops.

The agreement defines a line around the city of their own sides of which the Spanish and Moorish troops must keep. It also stipulates that diplo-mats and officers passing through the Alcazar region on their way to Fez are entitled to carry arms and have a small escort, but that ordinary travelers shall require a special passport. In addition Spain agrees not to enlist deserters from the Moorish army for police duty.

Premier Canalejas announced that instructions in accordance with the modus vivendi have been forwarded to Spanish commanders in Morocco.

Will Get Chest of Silver.

Toronto, July 29.-The civic reception committee will likely have their testimony of appreciation to Private Clifford take the form of a cabinet of silver cutlery. It is not regarded as advisable to attempt to procure him a house and lot, as it is feared that after the enthusiasm of the reception has evaporated, it will be difficult to raise a big enough balance of money by public subscription.

Ald. Maguire, chairman of the reception committee is arranging for an automobile parade to accompany the winner of the King's prize from Leaside Junction, where he will likely de-train, by arrangement, down Yonga street to Queen and west to University avenue, and then to Queen's Park, where the presentation will be

William McLeod Washed Ashore on Hatch of Foundered John Irwin Tells of Wreck of Vessel-Member of Crew Was on Hatch With Him But Died Before Reaching Safety-Slept Under a Tree.

Halifax, N.S., July 29 .- A despatch from Liscomb, Guysboro County, at the eastern end of Nova Scotia, contains news of the loss of the steamer John Irvin. William McLeed, a Hali-fax man, one of those on board, came ashore at Marie Joseph, on a hatch of ne steamer. The steamer John Irwin, owned by the Port Hood Coal Co., sailed for Halifax from Port Morien on Monday, coal laden, with a crew of eleven. Next morning at 5.15 she foundered, six miles off Beaver Light. At the time the sea was running mountain high, with a heavy sea off shore. In the gale the cargo shifted badly, the ship listed, the water sweeping over everything, tore away the hatches and in a moment it was evident the ship was doomed. The captain order ed the boats cleared, but before the covers could be cut, the steamer plunged under, head first, carrying all hands down with her. The second en-gineer, I believe, was still below, and it is not believed he reached deck.

A moment later one of the hatches and their part of a bulkhead appear-ed, out of which McLeod constructed a raft. He picked up the cook and shared his raft with him. He saw the chief engineer on another of the hatches and spoke to him, and also saw Alex. McIntosh, one of the firemen, on some wreckage, but they soon disappeared. The terrible battering of the storm soon told on the cook and he lost heart, and, despite Mr. McLeod's repeated rescues, he was unable to save the unfortunate cook; dying of exposure that evening. Mr. McLeod drifted ashore at Eastern Red Head at the entrance to Lis-comb Harbor between six and seven o'clock on Wednesday, in a state of utter exhaustion. He slept under a tree all night, and in the morning managed to make his way over the unbroken country to Abraham Francy's at Marie Joseph, where he was cared for, and on the arrival of the Dufferin, he came to Sherbrooke.

Twenty Families Homeless. Montreal, July 29.—Twenty families were driven from their homes yesterday morning when fire, which started in the sheds in the rear of Frontenac and Harbor streets, spread east and west to the houses situated on both sides.

So rapidly did the fire spread that many of the families were unable to save anything. How long they will have to remain without shelter is not known, and when asked, they could not say themselves, as few have any money and most of their belongings are destroyed.

As most of the families are Polish and ignorant of insurance, consequently they have nothing remaining in the world, save the few things they were able to snatch from the flames.

The total damage in property and household goods is estimated at about $20,000.

On the Water Wagon.

Chatham, Ont., July 29.—Chatham's water wagons are no longer safe refuges for would-be abstainers. Yesterday morning temperance people were horrified to note that one of the corporation sprinklers carried advertise-ments for a well-known brewing company. With the civic slogan above, the sides and ends of the cart now hold the following classy legend: "See Chatham first," and "Drink Carlings' Canadian Club lager." Temperance people want to know if the chairman of the Board of Works is receiving remuneration for the advertising space taken on the wagon by the brewing company.

A Peculiar Case,

Chatham, July 29.—Thomas Cox was fined $28 in all yesterday for supply. ing liquor to an Indian lister nan Joseph Houl. The case is a peculiar one. Cox claimed that he and a man named Fielder bought a bottle of beer, of which they each had a drink. They eft the remainder of the beer on bench, where Houl afterwards found it and without permission drank of it. The magistrate held that the negli-gence of Cox in leaving the liquor where the lister might find it con-stituted an offence. Mayor Brackin, solicitor for Cox, may appeal the Ambassador Dropped Dead. Paris, July 29.—Naoum Pasha, the Turkish ambassador to France, dropped dead last night at the Union Di-plomats Club. Naoum entered the club, and, as was his custom, took a place at the card table. He was in the act of taking up a hand when he fell backward. The Duke de Rohan, the Roumanian Minister, and others immediately rushed to Naoum's side, but he was beyond all aid.

Killed His Neighbor.

Quebec, July 29.—Louis Dion, aged 25 years, was murdered at St. Honore, Temiscouata County, Thursday afternoon in the course of an altercation with a neighbor named Plourde. Ploude shot him through the neck with a rifle, and was arrested shortly after noon and lodged in jail at Fraserville. He states that he fired in self-defence.

The following is expected to be the course of events in connection with the veto bill: The House of Commons Wednesday, will reject the House of Lords' amendments to the bill, and meantime, the intimation will be conveyed to Premier Asquith that Viscount St. Aldwyn will take sufficient Unionist peers into the Government lobby, if the Halsburyites challenge a division, to outvote them. It is be-lieved, however, that even this course will not be necessary, as it is very doubtful whether Lord Halsbury's following is equal in number to the Lib-eral peers in the House of Lords.

Suffrage a Success.

New York, July 29.-J. S. T. Mc-Gowan, Premier of New South Wales, who arrived on the Mauretania, with Mrs. McGowan, said yesterday that the system of equal suffrage in his Australian province had operated most satisfactorily during the ten years it has been effective.

"A higher morality has resulted," he said, "and the home life, on which the vitality of any nation depends. has been strengthened. More women vote now than do men, and, contrary to much argument, the franchise does not unsex them. It makes our women more womanlike, and the result has been that there is a great decline in the infraction of laws, although the population has wonderfully increased."

Mrs. McCowan added that the we men of New South Wales, although exercising their right to vote on all questions, were now more domestic than they were before they received

C.P.R. Land Sales.

London, July 29.—(C.A.P. Cable.)— In the action of the C.P.R. v. C.P. Land Co., in the Chancery Division, Hodge, on behalf of the plaintiffs ask-ed leave to serve short notice of motion on the defendants, restraining them from offering land for sale. He said they only knew of it on Tuesday from an advertisement. The plaintiffs complained that the advertisement induced the belief that it emanated from them. The plaintiffs had millions of acres of land for s.ge, and 500 agents in the United Kingdom alone. His lordship said he would give leave, but there was very little chance of its being disposed of this term.

Boy Misses Floor in a Chicago Bank Building and Goes Down the Shaft to Death.

Chicago, July 26.-An unidentified boy attempted to leave a moving elevator in the First National Bank building yesterday afternoon, lost his balance and fell backward into the shaft, falling from the fourth floor. He died a few minutes after the fall.

The elevator was in charge of Herman Meyer. It had just start-ed from the fourth floor when the boy, who was about 14 year of age, forced his way through the crowd of people in the elevator, threw open the doors and jumped toward the fourth floor landing.

As he jumped his head struck the signal light at the top of the door. This threw him backwards into the shalt. As he fell he cried out, "Mother.

The boy's cry and the accident so unnerved Meyer according to his story as told to the police, that the elevator ascended five floors before he could stop the car and reverse its journey to the second floor. When the car arrived at the second floor Meyer left the elevator and ran downstairs to the lobby, where he picked up the boy's body. It was lying at the bottom of the shaft. The skull was fractured and both arms were broken. He died before a doctor could be summoned.

What a strange and startling sense of justice prevails in Italy. The scenes which have attended the trial of the Cammorists, at Viterbo, are without a paralle! in any country in the world. In the first place the existence of a secret society with murderous aims and plansand duplicated to a certain degree by the Black Hand of America, of Italian origin also-indicates a peculiar view of society, of order and decorum. Peace and tranquility can only be secured by a very general observance of the law, and both the Cammorists and Black Hands have no regard for law and authority.

The first consideration is, of course, a suppression of the illegal bands whose mission is one of death in every community, and the men who entered upon this task have invited the enmity of the Cammorists and the vengence of their friends. . DOCTOR SAYS HE CAN WEIGH SOULS

Detroit, Mich., July 27 .- Dr. Duncan McDougall, of Haverhill, Mass., who has long been a student of psychical phenomena, declared his belieff, in an interview here yesterday, that the human soul weighs from one half ounce to nearly an ounce and a quarter, and further, that the soul substance is blended with the protoplasm of the brain and spinal cord of life.

Dr. McDougall says it has been his experience in a dozen instances to watch a dying man or woman stretched on a bed that was part of a delicately adjusted scale, and so hear, as the patient's last breath dropping out of the weight.

Again, sitting in a darkened room, he has watched a strong ray of pure white light rest along the body of a dying man, covering him like a silver bar from feet to head, and over the face. Dr. McDougali believes this ray of light is the soul substance.
