Port Hope Consumes Large Quantity of Water

Daily Average for Last Four Days was 208,875 Gallons.

A request has been issued by the Waterworks department for consumers not to use the water on the streets or lawns. This was made necessary by the scarcity of water. The consumption of water the past few days has been very large, far in excess of any other year. For the past four days the amount pumped, according to Engineer McMillan's statement, is:

	Gallons
Saturday	237,500
Sunday	185,000
Monday	170,000
Tuesday	243,000
Total	835,500

Or an average of 208,875 gallons daily. The usual daily average is 150,000, so it will readily be seen that every care must be exercised by the consumers.

LIFE'S LESSONS.

I learn as the years roll onward
And I leave the past behind,
That much I had counted sorrow
But proves that God is kind;
That many a flower I'd longed for
Had hidden a thorn of pain,
And many a rugged by-path
Led to fields of ripened grain.

The clouds that cover the sunshine,
They cannot banish the sun,
And the earth shines out the brighter
When the weary rain is done.
We must stand in the deepest shadow
To see the clearest light;
And often through wrong's own darkness
Comes the living strength of light.

The sweetest rest is at even
After a wearisome day,
When the heavy burden of labor
Has been borne from our hearts away;
And those who have never known sorrow
Cannot know the infinite peace
That falls on the troubled spirit
When it sees at last release.

We must live through the dreary winter
If we would value the spring;
And the woods must be cold and silent
Before the robins sing.

The flowers must be buried in darkness
Before they can bud and bloom,
And the sweetest, warmest sunshine
Comes after the storm and the gloom.

VERY HOT

And Weather Man Does Not Promise Any Relief

Yes, it is still hot and according to reports we will not receive much relief before the end of the week. It was slightly cooler last evening and the mercury at noon to-day was two degrees lower than yesterday, registering at 85.

The weather man in Toronto is inclined to be pessimistic, and he will not commit himself to promise any material change for several days. The intelligence that the hot blast is passing over the border is some consolation anyway for Canadians, along with the fact that the wind—so what was said to be the wind—shifted from southwest to east, bringing a promise of thunderstorms for to-day. These, however, may not reach here until to-morrow. Storms were general in Quebec and the eastern Provinces.

TEACHERS' CONVENTION

Joint Meeting of Both Institutes Will Be Held Here Oct.

19th and 20th

The dates for teachers institutes are not fixed by the Department of Education and a member of the staff is sent from one of the Normal Schools to furnish part of the program.

It is intended in future to have three institute meetings in Northumberland and Durham, one for each inspectorate but for this year, in view of the fact that the regular meeting of the western institute had been arranged for Port Hope, it has been decided to hold a joint meeting of two institutes on the date appointed for Mr. Odell's inspectorate. On Oct. 19th and 20th therefore the teachers within the inspectoral districts of Mr. Odell and Dr. Tilley will meet in Port Hope.

Mr. W. J. Chisholm, M. A., of Peterboro, who will be the normal school representative is a new man in this district, but his reputation in Western Ontario as principal of Walkerton Model School and subsequently as school inspector for West Bruce and Kincardine, together with his experience as science master in the Normal School, will be sufficient guarantee of his ability to interest and profit the teachers.

What We Expected.

This is no surprise; it is what we expected. It is natural that the greatest living Canadian and the greatest living Irishman, respectively, statesman and warrior, should be a center of attraction among the notables of the greatest Empire of history, gathered by an occasion of its kind the most historically important, significant and expressive in history.

A CRANK AND LUNATIC

George Benard Shaw declares that the late Count Tolstoi was not only a crank, but a lunatic. He says:

No English old maid living in a cathedral town on £300 a year could have made more absurd attempts to start an ideal social system by private misconduct than he. He tried to ignore money as Don Quixote did. He left his own skilled work to build houses that could hardly be induced to stand, and to make boots than an army contractor would have been ashamed of. He let his property drift to the verge of insolvency and ruin like the laziest Irish squire because he disapproved of property as an institution. And he was neither honest nor respectable in his follies. He connived all sorts of evasions. He would not take money on a journey; but he would take a companion who would buy railway tickets and pay hotel bills behind his back. He would not own property or copyright; but he would make them over to his wife and children and live in their country house in Yasnaya and their town house in Moscow very comfortably, only occasionally easing his conscience by making things as difficult and unpleasant as possible for them. In the ordinary affairs of life he shirked every uncongenial responsibility while availing himself of every luxury he really cared for. And he railed at his wife and family for enabling him to do it, treating his wife as ethically inferior because she insisted on saving the family from ruin, until at last she gave him up as impossible and managed for him without saying anything harsher than her Russian formula, "Nothing matters so long as the baby is not crying."

PORT HOPE, JULY 5, 1911

A TROUBLESOME MISGIVING

'I have hurried up from Wrotham,' pursued the apologist. 'Did I tell you, Moxey, that I had taken rooms down there, to be able to spend a day or two near my friends the Jacoxes occasionally? On the way here, I looked in at Staple Inn, but Earwaker is away somewhere. What an odd thing that people will go off without letting one know! It's such common ill-luck of mine to find people gone away—I'm really astonished to find you at home, Miss Moxey.'

Marcella looked at Warricombe and laughed. 'You must understand that subjectively,' she said with nervous gaiety which again excited her brother's surprise. 'Please don't be discouraged by it from coming to see us again; I am very rarely out in the afternoon.'

'But persisted Malkin, it's precisely my ill fortune to hit on those rare moments when people are out!—Now, I never meet acquaintances in the streets of London; but, if I happen to be abroad, as likely as not I encounter the last person I should expect to find. Why, you remember, I rush over to America for scarcely a week's stay, and there I come across a man who has disappeared astonishingly from the ken of all his friends!'

Christian looked at Marcella. She was leaning forward, her lips slightly parted, her eyes wide as if in gaze at something that fascinated her. He saw that she spoke, but her voice was hardly to be recognised.

'Are you quite sure of that instance, Mr. Malkin? 'Yes, I feel quite sure, Miss Moxey. Undoubtedly it was Peak!'

Buckland Warricombe, who had been waiting for a chance of escape suddenly wore a look of interest. He rapidly surveyed the trio. Christian, somewhat out of countenance tried to answer Malkin in a tone of light banter.

'It happens, my dear fellow, that Peak has not left England since we lost sight of him. 'What? He has been heard of? Where is he then?'

'Mr. Warricombe can assure you that he has been living for a year at Exeter.'

Buckland, perceiving that he had at length come upon something important to his purposes, smiled genially. 'Yes, I have had the pleasure of seeing Peak down in Devon from time to time.'

'Then it was really an illusion!' cried Malkin. 'I was too hasty. Yet that isn't a charge that can be often brought against me, I think. Does Earwaker know of this?'

'He has lately heard,' replied Christian, who in vain sought for a means of checking Malkin's loquacity. 'I thought he might have told you.'

'Certainly not. The thing is quite new to me. And what is Peak doing down there, pray? Why did he conceal himself?'

'A paper called "The New Sophistry," a tremendous bit of satire. Marcella's eyes closed as if a light had flashed before them; she drew a short sigh, and at once seemed to become quite at ease, the smile with which she regarded Warricombe expressing a calm interest. 'That article was Peak's?' Buckland asked, in a very quiet voice. Christian at last found his opportunity. 'He never mentioned it to you? Perhaps he thought he had gone rather too far in his Broad Churchism, and might be misunderstood.'

FOR CONSTIPATION

A Medicine That Does Not Cost Anything Unless It Cures

The active medicinal ingredients of Rexall Orderlies, which is odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients, it forms a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy and are notable for their agreeableness to the palate and gentleness of action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience.

Unlike other preparations for a like purpose, they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the cause of habit acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics and harsh physic, and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.

I will refund your money without argument if they do not do as I say they will. Two sizes, 25c and 50c. Sold only at my store—The Rexall Store. H. W. Mitchell.

Beefsteak Prices.

Twenty-five cents buys 2 lbs. of steak in St. Hyacinthe, Que. 11-4 lbs. in Toronto, and only 1 lb. in Vancouver, according to a table showing beef prices in May, compiled by the Labor Department at Ottawa. Generally speaking the further west you go, or the bigger the city, the higher the price of beefsteak. There are decided exceptions, however. For instance, in Glace Bay, N.S., beefsteak was 22c as against 15c at Westville, N.S. Halifax folks paid 24c for their steak as against 22c paid by the people of St. John, N.B. Unless there is some error in figures, or some clear difference in quality in different places, the anomalies shown by the table mean rank injustice which the people affected should inquire into. For instance, why should beefsteak be sold in Edmonton at 15c in Calgary at 20c, and in Regina at 25c? Or, why should Torontonians pay 20c to 22c, while Hamiltonians get off with 16c to 18c? Or, why should St. Thomas folks be charged 22c while Londoners, just next door, pay 18c? Perhaps the worst case of all is 18c per lb. in New Westminster, B.C., and in Vancouver, at the other end of the trolley line, 25c, which is within a fraction of 40 per cent more. The next lowest price to St. Hyacinthe is at Charlottetown, P.E.I., whose fortunate citizens breakfast on steak at 14c per lb. Fourteen places are reported as paying 20c for beefsteak in May. These places are mainly the larger cities, including Toronto and Montreal. Locality seems to make little difference, for, besides the central places named, this twenty-cent list includes such widely separated places as Moncton, N.B., and Victoria, B.C.

A Vice-Regal Press Agent.

Canada might do worse than engage Earl Grey as press agent at the close of his vice-regal term, supposing that he is not booked in advance for one of the more conspicuous consulships. Every Governor-General says nice things about Canada as a matter of course when he gets away, but Earl Grey's observations have a certain pith and forcefulness that distinguishes them from the commonplace testimonial as a Kipling sentence differs from an illuminated address.

How They Are Kept.

Miss De Style—He said I was a little flower; that he intended to keep me. Miss Gumbusta—I noticed him pressing you.—Smart Set.

The Author—"Would you advise me to get out a small edition?" The Publisher—"Yes; the smaller the better. The more scarce a book is at the end of four or five centuries the more money you realize from it."

English Golfer—"I say, count, you've played my ball!" M. le Count—"Mille pardons, M'sieur. 'Ave one of mine."

The Caller—"I hear that you've been to a party, Mabel. Did you dance much?" Mabel (aged eight)—"I should say I did! I danced two quadrillions!"

The Man at the Door—"Madam, I'm the piano-tuner." The Woman—"I didn't send for a piano-tuner." The man—"I know it, lady; the neighbors did."

Pemberton—"How about that poem you sent to Anybody's Magazine—has it appeared yet?" Penley (gloomily)—"Yes, it appeared in the male this morning!"

Refugees From Porcupine Fire Fled to Powder House.

FIRE IS STILL SPREADING

Thrilling Tales Are Received From Scenes of Forest Fires In Gold Country—Men on Dome Extension Sought Safety in Magazine and Sat on Explosives While Flames Swept Past the Shack

North Bay, July 5.—Porcupine gold camp still lies hot and quaking with smoldering flames everywhere, only awaiting for another gale like Sunday to continue the work of destruction so well begun on that eventful day. Large columns of smoke can be seen coming down distant townships, indicating that the fire area is ever widening. News reached Porcupine yesterday morning that the fire had swept through Bristol Township, where some very rich finds have recently been made. A host of prospectors are in Bristol, and grave anxiety is felt for their safety. All day Monday, and Tuesday weary and scorched prospectors have been straggling into northern settlements with sorry tales of camps which had to be abandoned to the hungry flames with all their equipment and supplies, while the occupants were forced to fly for safety, many having to take to the water for refuge from the intense heat and flying embers. Fortunately the north country is well supplied with lakes and rivers, which will prove the salvation of many prospectors.

Capt. Anchor of Dome Extension Mine was nearly blinded by smoke and cinders, and tells a graphic story of the fierce fight to save the plant and lives of employes. When it was seen that the fight was almost hopeless, Capt. Anchor told the men they could go or stay as suited them, but most of the employes stuck to him and fought stubbornly as long as a drop of water remained for the buck-ets.

At last, almost dead with exhaustion, suffocated with smoke and blistered with heat, the command was given for each man to take a pail of water and keep his clothing from taking fire. Only one building was left standing and that the powder house, and here Capt. Archer and his men made their last stand for shelter from the flying cinders and blistering heat, and, seated on boxes of dynamite and powder, with the door closed to keep out sparks from the blazing inferno outside, the men sat and rested amid the roar of flames and crashing of falling timber, as the monarch of the forest burned through and fell to the ground.

A twist of the wind took the flames in another direction and red death passed by.

Cleveland Scouts on Tramp.

Chatham, Ont., July 5.—Under the leadership of Scoutmasters W. L. Chandler, W. S. Crackle and Kist Senty, five boy scouts, representing Cleveland Y.M.C.A., passed through Chatham yesterday morning. The scouts left Cleveland Saturday, July 1. They were landed at Erie Beach, and from there traveled to The Eau Saturday night. They stopped at the Eau over Sunday, and marched on to Chatham yesterday morning. They left here for London, St. Thomas and Port Stanley, and from the latter place they will embark for their home city. The scouts travel ten or fifteen miles a day, doing all their marching in the morning. Last year, so Scoutmaster Chandler says, they marched to the Ohio River, covering 225 miles in two weeks. This year they will not travel so far on account of the intense heat.

Million-Dollar Gift.

Montreal, July 5.—At a meeting of the governors of McGill University yesterday, it was announced that Sir William Macdonald had completed the purchase of the Molson and Law estates on the slope of the Mountain, adjoining Mount Royal Park, and that it was the intention of Sir William to present the property to McGill University to be used by it for extension purposes, the leading feature of which will be a new campus and residential buildings. The purchase price of the properties is given as over a million dollars. Including the cost of Macdonald College and its endowment, this brings the total of Sir William Macdonald's gifts to McGill to within a few thousand dollars of $10,000,000.

Sweetheart as Child.

Toronto, July 5.—As the culmination of a childhood romance, Reebab Tandy, a well-known soloist, married Miss Annie Wiley of Kingston a few days ago. Mr. Tandy is well known in musical circles, and it will come as a surprise to many of his musical friends to hear of his second marriage. Mr. Tandy and his bride attended the same school near Kingston. Miss Wiley, who is 70 years of age, became heir to a fortune of about $60,000 a few months ago.

Crap Shooters Caught.

Chatham, July 5.—D. Johnston, Frank Hurst, Oliver Henson, Lewis Arnold, John Lewis, Harry Barnes, Jacob Harris and Daniel Harris, all colored, are scheduled to come up in the Police Court on Friday, charged with gambling with dice on Sunday morning. The young men were caught shooting crap in a discarded railway coach on the Pere Marquette siding in the east end by Officer Tom Groves.

Boy Dies of Lockjaw.

St. Catharines, July 5.—Aaron, the 13-year-old son of Mrs. Joseph Thomas of Centre street, passed away yesterday after two days' illness with tetanus. A week ago Sunday, the little fellow ran a sliver in his foot, but no trouble was experienced until Saturday, when the dread disease struck him. All the efforts of the doctor to save his life were in vain.

Wholesale Grocers Hold Convention in Toronto.

CONDEMN PRICE CUTTING

Hugh Blain In Speech Before Guild Characterizes Selling Below Standard Figure as Dishonorable and Calls on the Wholesalers to Stand Together to Prevent It—Has Had a Successful Year.

Toronto, July 5.—"We strongly urge that there be a permanent commissioner appointed by the Government of the Dominion, and vested with authority to examine and approve, or disapprove, of such fixed prices as might be imposed on proprietary articles by the manufacturer, so that proper protection would be rendered all parties concerned—manufacturer, wholesaler and retailer.

"Notwithstanding a special act in the criminal code to prevent rebating by giving secret commissions, which was recently passed by the Dominion Government the practice still goes on and is the very worst form of commercial corruption in the commercial world to-day."

The foregoing statement was made by Hugh Blain at the opening meeting of the Ontario Wholesale Grocers' Guild convention at the King Edward Hotel yesterday. It was during the discussion which followed the address of President F. T. Smylie, in which the principle that it was a good thing for the trade and the general public to maintain a uniform standard of prices was strongly upheld.

The meeting appeared to endorse the view that price-cutting and rebating were twin evils to be repressed in no small measure.

In opening his address the president urged that a permanent secretary be appointed for the organization, so that the entire time of one man at least could be given over to the work of the guild. He showed how much progress was being made along every line of the guild's work, making such an appointment practically a necessity.

"We have called this Ontario Wholesale Grocers' Guild together to confer on trade matters and to transact business and create reforms," said Mr. Smylie, "and this not only for our personal advantage, but for the common good of the grocery trade of the country."

"With reference to houses which are still conducting their business along dishonorable lines—there are not many, but there are some well-known," he said. "It is to be hoped that this convention will formulate some plan before dispersing that will completely eliminate dishonorable methods from the wholesale grocery business, and I feel that we can do this if we keep together. The laws on the statute book protect us, and a plan will be submitted subject to that approbation of the trade which will put a stop to this rebating and to other dishonorable methods."

"We have frequent complaints from the retailer that some jobbers are trespassing on their rights, selling to consumers such as boarding houses, small restaurants, etc., and it is in the interests of legitimate trade, as on the other side we think it grossly unfair for the manufacturer to sell to the retailer. Let us consider this vital point—the retailer must be protected or the whole structure will be destroyed and we will be driven into the troubles experienced in England and the United States of chain stores, buying exchanges, etc.

In the program of the convention, it is shown that out of 57 wholesale grocers in Ontario, 52 belong to the guild. The number of traveling salesmen is about 490, and the number of clerks, salesmen and warehousemen in the employ of the guild is 2,000.

Restored His Hearing. Kingston, July 5.—As the result of being struck by a train, Louis Renaud of Alymer, Que., who was deaf for many years, has recovered his hearing. Renaud was walking along the Grand Trunk tracks near Bath, when he was hit by the train and thrown through a barbed wire fence. He had several ribs broken and also suffered a severe scalp wound but is doing nicely at the general hospital. His hearing is now good, and Renaud says that the bumps he got from the train were better than anything an ear specialist could do.

Hand-Car Hit Him. Chatham, July 5.—William Hosen, an employe of the M.C.R., fell off the hand-car Monday evening near Charing Cross. He fell diagonally across the rail in front of the car, which did not run over him, but bruised his side and left thigh, breaking the skin considerably. It was a very painful accident, the victim receiving the whole impact of the car, as well as the lacerations sustained. He was taken to his home in North Buxton.

Crops Good In Kent. Chatham, Ont., July 5.—Many farmers throughout Kent are well on their way with wheat-cutting. Some beautiful crops of fall wheat and promising fields of oats were noticed through Dover yesterday, though in some other parts of the country it is said that the crops are not faring so well. The intense heat of the past few days has ripened the wheat very rapidly.

Fell Through Barn Trap Door. Chatham, July 5.—Robert Coltart, a farmer, residing in Harwich, up the creek, met with a serious accident Monday. He fell through the trap door in a barn, fracturing two ribs and dislocating his wrist. He was taken to the city, where he received surgical treatment. He is in a serious condition. He is a well-known man in this country.

Keywest Aground. Kingston, July 5.—The steamer Key-west, coal laden, on headway to Montreal, ran aground above Cardinal, in the canal. The steamer Donnelly was summoned from Kingston.

BIG RECEPTION PLANNED.

Montreal Will Give Prime Minister a Big Ovation.

Montreal, July 5.—The reception to be given to Sir Wilfrid Laurier on his return to Canada next Monday will eclipse any demonstration ever before tendered to a Canadian Prime Minister on his return to the country over the destinies of which he rules.

Already plans have been made for the illumination of the river, of St. Helen's Island, of the port, Jacques Cartier square, the Champ de Mars, and the principal streets of the city through which the Premier, accompanied by Hon. L. P. Brodeur and possibly Sir Frederick Borden, will drive to the station.

Leaving the Empress of Britain at Quebec on Saturday or Sunday evening, Sir Wilfrid will come up the river in a private yacht, arriving here about 7 o'clock Monday evening.

Deputations from the Reform, Lemieux, Bickerdike, Westmont Liberal, St. Lawrence Liberal, Chénier, Préfontaine and Laurier political clubs, will meet the party at Victoria Pier, which will be tastefully decorated and illuminated for the occasion by the harbor commission.

Wouldn't Hear Local Man.

Melville, Sask., July 5.—An unusual turn was given to the meeting at Melville yesterday afternoon. Mr. Borden was given an enthusiastic personal reception and his arguments were accorded attentive hearing. His policy of western issues elected frequent cheers, his utterances on reciprocity were heard in quietness, though they were not often applauded, but when a western Conservative Harvey Hearn of Wadena, Sask., and formerly of Nova Scotia, began to argue the same issues it speedily brought down a storm of interruptions, antagonistic and favorable, and the chairman was compelled to ask for order.

The western people gave their visitors a polite and attentive hearing, but they felt Mr. Hearn, who is to be a Conservative candidate of Humboldt at the next election, was one of themselves, and they treated him accordingly.

Congregation In Difficulties.

Kingston, July 5.—Mr. Sager, recently appointed to the Methodist charge at Portsmouth, has resigned and left for Peterboro. The congregation is endeavoring to have union with the Presbyterians, as it is difficult to keep up expenses as the congregation is so small, but the matter has been shelved for three months and the charge will be filled by local preachers.

Cooler Weather Promised For End of the Week.

HOT WAVE PASING OVER

Canadian Points Show Lower Temperatures and Prostrations Are Fewer—Two Deaths Occur In Toronto and Two In Hamilton—London Reaches the Highest Mark Registering 101 Degrees.

Toronto, July 5.—The climax has been reached. That is the best piece of encouragement to be had out of the heat wave story yesterday. But that does not mean either that the mercury is down far enough or that it will go down appreciably for some days. The latest reports from the Meteorological Office indicate that the long-suffering people of this province must put up with close attentions from the sun until the end of the week.

The highest point registered by official thermometers in Toronto yesterday was 97, between noon and one o'clock.

London, Ont., was highest in Ontario with 101. Montreal showed 94, Quebec 88, and Ottawa 86.

The weather man is inclined to be pessimistic, and he will not commit himself to promise any material change for several days. The intelligence that the hot blast is passing over the border is some consolation, anyway for Canadians, along with the fact that the wind—or what was said to be the wind—shifted from southwest to east, bringing a promise of thunderstorms for to-day. These, however, may not reach Toronto until to-morrow. Storms were general in Quebec and the eastern provinces.

Two more deaths have occurred in Toronto from the heat and many prostrations.

Two Deaths In Hamilton. Hamilton, July 5.—J. F. Hogan, 28 years old, the second victim of the present hot weather, died at the city hospital at 5:30 yesterday afternoon. He was overcome early yesterday forenoon at the C.P.R. construction camp west of the high level bridge, where he was employe as craneman on the steam shovel.

Napanee Woman Dead. Kingston, July 5.—It was very warm yesterday, but it was not as bad as on Monday. At 8 a.m. the thermometer was 71 in the shade. It is claimed Kingston is the coolest place in the province during the summer. At 3 p.m. the highest point recorded was 82.6. At Napanee Mrs. John Williams dropped dead from the effects of the heat. It was one hundred degrees there Monday.

Heat Was Fatal. Windsor, July 5.—Thomas Kenny, foreman for the S. W. & A. Street Railway, died early yesterday morning from a paralytic stroke brought on by heat. He worked as usual Monday, but became prostrated late on Monday night.

Refused to Return Money. St. Catharines, July 5.—Kirkar Vartaram and Abel Kharyjann were arrested Monday night, charged with fraudulently omitting to pay certain money entrusted to them as officers of the Arceek Educational Society. The men, who were employed at the McKinnoo Dash Works, had been president and secretary respectively of the society. Saturday, new officers were elected and the old ones refused to hand over the funds. The amount involved was between $1,600 and $1,700. Yesterday in the Police Court $1,525 was produced by the defeated officers. A member of the society was sent to recover the amount of the balance, and the case was remanded a week. Magistrate Campbell meanwhile keeping the money as a trustee.

A Border Outrage. St. Catharines, July 5.—Miss A. D. Parry, one of the best-known residents of Dunnville, Haldimand County, was on her way to Buffalo to see her cousin, of whose serious and possibly fatal illness she had been apprised.

In spite of the fact that she had a return ticket, she was taken off the train at Black Rock, put through a severe cross-examination, and although vouched for by M. L. Parry, J. W. Gray, former G.T.R. agent here, and others, was sent back to this side.

The outrage is all the more surprising from the fact that Miss Parry is, and has been for twenty years or more, owner of property in Buffalo.

Villagers Refuse Vaccination. Montreal, July 5.—Three new cases of smallpox were reported at the Provincial Board of Health yesterday. They are in Jacques Cartier, Wright and Quebec Counties.

It was announced yesterday that the quarantine had been taken off Lac Aux Saumons, Rimouski County. The board had cut off the Intercolonial train service because the villagers refused to submit to vaccination, although two cases of smallpox had appeared in a large factory employing several hundred men. The inhabitants have now submitted to vaccination. Dr. Boaudry went down to Lac Aux Saumons Monday, and after an inspection, pronounced conditions not alarming.

Spent Bullet Near Taft. Indianapolis, Ind., July 5.—Before President Taft took his seat in the reviewing stand in front of the Soldiers' Monument here yesterday, what is believed by the police to be a spent bullet struck Mrs. Harry W. Tutewiler, who was sitting near the President's box. The bullet came from a .38-calibre revolver. Mrs. Tutewiler was not seriously injured.

SEMI-ANNUAL COLLECTION.—New York City is to have a semi-annual collection of taxes. Heretofore, taxes have been collected annually and the city has paid about $2,000,000 a year interest on temporary loans made in their anticipation. A new law recently passed makes half the taxes on real estate fall due on May 1st with June 1st as a penalty date and the other half fall due on November 1st with December 1st as a penalty. A premium is allowed to encourage the paying up of all the realty taxes at the first date. In this way they hope to simplify the matter make it easier for the public and save interest.

A BOY THE REIGNING HERO.—“The tourist into the Southern States, if he possesses an inquiring mind and mingles with his brethren will discover that a fifteen-year-old boy is the reigning hero of the period,” writes Stanley Johnson in the American Magazine for June. In part he says: “Jerry Moore, of Winona, South Carolina, in the autumn of 1910, won the title of ‘Champion Corn Grower of the World.’ His achievement has made him a tremendous asset to his state. He produced on one acre of land 228 bushels and three pecks of corn. He has become the carnate symbol of a great future for the South in agriculture—the youthful Messiah of the soil. A few years ago the average yield of corn to the acre in South Carolina was a fraction over 8 bushels; last year the crop had grown to an average of eighteen and a fraction bushels. This shows growth in intelligence of culture as well as in quantity. The cause of the increase has been the boys of South Carolina—and, in fact, of the whole south. Jerry Moore is the champion of an army of over five thousand boys in South Carolina—and, in fact, of the whole South. Jerry Moore is the champion of an army of over five thousand boys in South Carolina alone, enrolled in Boys' Corn Clubs of the South. They have not only been learning what can be done on the farms with a scientific application of fertilizers and a deeper furrowing of the plow, but they have taught their elders.”—Belleville Ontario.

NO MORE PRETENDERS.

One of the most pleasing features of the recent coronation is that King George represents in his own person every line of British royalty. The houses of Hanover, Stuart, Tudor, Lancaster, York, Norman and earlier English Kings—every root of British sovereignty for the past 1400 years, contributes to the sturdy full-grown trunk of the reigning house.

It was as far back as 319 when Cedric became overlord of Wessex that the first beginnings of the illustrious lines of British rulers were made. King George can trace his family tree with well-authenticated proofs back to those early Saxon days.

Fulfilling, then, in himself, every possible claim to the throne, both by the manifold ties of descent and by the free-election of Parliament, it follows that no rival to the crown could conceivably present a claim worth considering in comparison with his own. The days of pretenders are gone. With every royal line converging in the present house, no Perkin Warbeck could muster a baker's dozen of followers, let alone raise the head of serious rebellion.

A few extreme Jacobites are said to regard an obscure Bavarian princess as having more right to their devotion than the Hanoverian monarch, but the feeble attachment to this European nonentity is hardly worth a newspaper paragraph. From a nation and empire never so united as to-day goes up the hearty petition, “God save the King.”

ELMVIEW W. I.—The next meeting of the Women's Institute will be held at the home of Mrs. Wm. Raby, sr., on Thursday, July 13th, at 2.30 p.m. All ladies cordially invited. The Secretary would ask that all fees not yet paid be handed to her on that date if convenient. The June meeting, held at the home of Mrs. H. Rosevear, was largely attended and in many ways was considered one of the best meetings the branch has ever held.

DON'T FORGET YOUR UMBRELLA.—The Saturday Evening Post tells a good story which Rev Ulysses G. B. Pierce, chaplain of the United States Senate and President Taft's pastor at a Washington Unitarian church, told a group of senators a few days ago of a letter he had received the previous morning from a strong Methodist friend of his. The letter read: “Dear Doctor: Yesterday morning while on the way to services in my own church I was over taken by the heavy rain we had. As I did not have an umbrella with me, and was near your church, I went in, and for the first time listened to one of your sermons on the tenets of the Unitarian faith. Next Sunday I am going to carry an umbrella.”
