A DAY'S EXPERIENCE

Last week the editor of The Guide dashed his friends needless anxiety, this he is sorry for and for which he apologizes and promises to try and be good in future.

However, I wasn't at all anxious as I knew where I was all the time, I suppose I had better make a clean breast of it and tell you folks all about it.

Having business to attend to in the city of Peterboro, I started north, getting as far as Davison's corner's where I was stopped. I drove patient "Lizzie" to the side of the road and went forward on foot to see what was happening. I found a procession of big trucks loaded with gravel and bags of cement. As they arrived a gang of men removed the bags but left the cement in the gravel, water was turned on and the trucks backed up to the big mixer. There, by a simple contrivance the front end of the box raised and half the load slipped off into the hopper of the mixer. The half that had been left in the truck by a partition then followed by simply opening the partition, the gravel and cement having been loaded at the gravel pit in proper proportion, it was not necessary for any of it to be manipulated by hand. A big gang of husky fellows tried to keep up to the machine, spreading, smoothing and surfacing the plastic stuff as the mixer dropped it on the roadway. Eight hundred feet per day is considered a fair average progress.

Further advancement north by the highway being out of the question I turned west but didn't go as far as the sign post advised which would have taken me about four miles out of the way. I saw Mr. Moses Robinson busy with his haying and not having a reasonable excuse for calling—to ask for a drink of water would be too thin. Besides that I hate to stop a good man who is willing to work so left Moses in peace.

Turning north at his corner I went as far as the road leading to Noble Brown's, then turned east a short distance then north again to the next concession line, then east to Whitehead's corner, where I found the highway made last year with no one but myself using it, and not even a traffic officer to see me go to Kidd's Corners where I had to get out, open the gate closing the highway before I could get to Bewdley. From there on it was clear sailing to Peterboro.

Concluding the business and having saved some daylight, I cast about to consider what next.

Did you ever feel utterly alone in a great city? Well, that is the loneliest lonesome one can imagine. That was not exactly my position, for in Peterboro I have friends old and tried, but I also had friends in the country as well. Accordingly I soared away for Warsaw—(not Russia but Peterboro County).

Stopping at one of the stores I enquired "Is this the Choate store?" It was but isn't now and the Choates are all at the Lake.

At Warsaw, is one of the finest and most suitable war memorials to be found anywhere, a life size "common" soldier representing the real heroes of the war. The poise and naturalness of the figure is wonderful and well worth going to see.

The roads to Warsaw and Stoney Lake reminds one of Tennyson's "Brook."

"I clatter over stoney ways, In little sharps and trebbles.

With many a curve my banks I fret,

By many a field and fallow And many a fairy foreland set With willows, weed and mallow."

The road certainly winds in and out and it may be that it follows the trail made by an Indian with a canoe over his head, not able to see very well where he was going.

This is a county road and is not in bad condition, has plenty of crushed stone on part of it, but the County Commissioners after having done that much appear to have forgotten it. The road would be amazingly improved if only the grader or drag was thoroughly used on it, and the steam roller driven over it.

Some of the hills might well be eased down and especially that hill at McCracken's Landing. The top

TORRID WAVE VISITS TOWN

Temperature on Sunday Reached High Point of Ninety Degrees

Port Hope suffered from a heat wave which visited this district on Sunday as well as other parts of the country and today the mercury stands practically at the same level. Although a prevailing breeze accompanied the heat it seemed to do little but to intensify it.

Many local residents were driven to the East and West beaches to secure relief from the heat and the ice cream stands open for Sunday did a thriving business.

The temperature of the day started, ominously, standing at 74 at 8 o'clock. By two o'clock it had achieved its high point of 90, eleven degrees above the normal temperature for this time of year. Thereafter, it eased off until a comparatively evening's cool was reached of 79 degrees.

No casualties on account of the heat were reported in Port Hope, but prostrations occurred in many other centres.

Today the mercury climbed to another high level and some residents declare that their ambitious mercuries favored with an exceptionally warm location hit the 100 mark. It was without a doubt the hottest day of the year.

The shady spots and water offered the only protection from the piercing rays of Old Sol. The burning highways drew their Sunday quota, traffic on all arteries being crowded throughout the day.

MINISTER WILL BE INDUCTED

Rev. J. G. Hornsby to Assume Pastorate of St. Paul's Church

Rev. J. Goforth Hornsby of Toronto, formerly of Wales, England, will be inducted into the pastorate of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church here on Tuesday evening, July 10th.

Rev. Victor Walker of Janetville, a former Port Hope boy, will address the minister, while Dr. Thompson of Hastings, Clerk of the Presbytery, will speak to the congregation. Rev. F. C. Harper of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Cobourg, will deliver the sermon.

The induction will be presided over by Rev. Allen of Peterboro, Moderator of the Presbytery of Peterboro.

of that should be blasted off and moved to the lake end. It is now so steep that some auto may run into the lake and some be killed or drowned.

However, it was from Warsaw that Uncle Thomas Choate started with a team of oxen drawing his tool chest for a stream in Victoria county, where he built the first mill on the site which is now Lindsay—there was only one log house then and that is not so very long ago for Uncle Thomas has not been gone so very many years. Peace to the ashes of one of the dearest, most kindly musical old souls that ever lived in this land.

Daunted but not disheartened I pointed Lizzie for the north and in due time reached McCracken's Landing.

The hearty welcome I received from Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Choate nearly took me off my feet. "You haven't had supper" and forth with Mrs. Choate got busy and a little later I did, too, and enjoyed my supper to the limit.

Mr. and Mrs. Choate still practice that almost forgotten privilege—hospitality and still observe the scriptural injunction "Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares." On this occasion however, it was not an angel, but it was one who thoroughly appreciated it.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Brownlee and Miss Netta and Mr. James Brownlee, motored to Toronto and visited Mr. and Mrs. Harry McAndrew.

Mrs. R. S. Rowland and daughter Betty, of Winnipeg, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Clark, King street.

ORANGE LODGE ATTENDS CHURCH

Rev. T. E. Meldrum Preached Appropriate Sermon Sunday Evening

L.O.L. Orange Lodge 309, Port Hope, together with the True Blues and a number of visiting brethren paraded to the Baptist church Sunday evening for divine service. A large number of brethren lined up for the parade and marched to and from the church on John Street headed by the Port Hope Citizens' Band.

An appropriate sermon was delivered by the pastor of the church, Rev. T. E. Meldrum. He took as his text "What Think Ye of Jesus" and gave a fine discourse on the subject.

On the return to the Lodge Rooms on Walton Street a number of speeches were made and included remarks by County Master Wm Gray of Garden Hill and others. A vote of thanks to Rev. Meldrum was moved by J. H. Wilson, seconded by J. D. McMillan.

Retired Physician Victim of Heart Ailment—Widow Suffers Stroke

Dr. Albert Sidney Tilley, retired physician, from Bowmanville, and brother of W. N. Tilley, K.C., died Saturday morning about two o'clock from heart failure at his residence, 119 Pringle Arthur avenue, Toronto. Overwrought by the death of her husband, Mrs. Amelia Caroline Tilley suffered a stroke and died about an hour later.

Dr. Tilley had been an invalid from heart disease for about six months and while his devoted wife was apparently in good health, she suffered considerably, nevertheless, from high blood pressure. Her maiden name was A. Carrie Philp, and she was the daughter of the late Richard Philp, of Toronto.

Mrs. Tilley was 67 years old and her husband 63. Their wedding had been a romance followed by a lifetime of mutual devotion. Dr. Tilley had retired from his practice in Bowmanville, where he had been located many years, and where he had been coroner, and went to Toronto to live about a year ago. One son is a medical student there. Two sons, E. P. Tilley and O. R. Tilley, survive.

Mrs. Tilley has three sisters living in Toronto, Mrs. J. M. Wilkinson, Mrs. C. R. Cuthbertson and Mrs. O. J. Eckardt.

Dr. Tilley leaves a sister, Mrs. A. N. Mitchell, his mother, Mrs. W. E. Tilley, of Bowmanville and brother, W. N. Tilley, K.C.

Wreck Followed By Fire Demolishes Bus on Highway

New $17,000 Del Ray Coach Totally Destroyed Following Collision With Car on Highway West of Pickering.

A $17,000 bus recently added to the Del Ray Coach Line and an automobile owned by a New York tourist were totally destroyed by fire following an accident which took place on the Kingston Road, about two miles west of Pickering village late Saturday afternoon. Both the passengers in the coach and in the automobile escaped serious injury in the crash, although Mrs. George Drury of Stirling, Ont., riding in the latter vehicle, suffered head and shoulder injuries and cuts.

Sam Farnham of 25 Sibley ave., East York, the driver of the bus, will be charged with reckless driving, it is stated by the police. According to the police, the bus was following an automobile owned and driven by W. F. Fick of New York and in an attempt to pass forced the automobile into the ditch on the north side of the roadway and crushed it against the bank. Both vehicles were travelling toward Whitby. The bus did not leave its wheels, although the car was badly wrecked. None of the passengers were injured.

Shortly after the passengers of both vehicles had become clear of the wreck, it is reported that a bystander dropped a match where some gasoline had been spilled as the result of the crash. A small explosion followed, and in a few minutes both vehicles were in flames. The Whitby Fire Department hurried to the scene of the fire, but were unable to save the vehicles.

Chief Herbert Gunson of Whitby and Highway Traffic Officer S. A. Hilliard made an investigation of the accident.

"We have no statement to make," Robert Bromley, manager and owner of the bus line which operates between Toronto and Oshawa to St. Sunday night.

The left hand turn at King and Simcoe streets, Oshawa, now permitted to motorists will be abolished and signs to that effect will be posted at the corner, the most important one in the city, was the Police Commission dictum at a meeting recently. A near fatality occurred at Bowmanville Beach when one of the construction workers on the paving gang, whose name was not revealed, was pushed off the pier into the lake. He and several others working on the same job were scuffling on the pier on the east beach. One of them, not realising his proximity to the edge, pushed too hard, with the result that the worker went into the water. Unable to swim he floundered a moment while his companions started in after him. Ernest Brown, Ontario Street, diver of the Bowmanville Beach, dived in after him and with great difficulty pulled him ashore. He then went back and pulled one of the bunch who had tried to save his comrade and who was nearly exhausted by the weight of his clothing. None are suffering seriously from the effects of the ducking.

A BRAVE ATTACK AND A BRAVE DEFENCE

Upper.—The Chateau Frontenac, famous Quebec hostelry, on whose wall a tablet in memory of the soldiers of the Royal Fusiliers has been erected. Lower.—A panorama of the ancient city of Quebec, showing the Chateau Frontenac and the ramparts, taken at the time of the visit of H.M.S. Hood to Canada. The attack against Pres-de-Ville was made along the shore behind the ramparts. Inset—A mortar and cannon used in Quebec at the time of the siege by American troops in the War of Independence in 1775-76.

A memorial to an event of outstanding importance in both Canadian and American history, has been erected on the wall of the Chateau Frontenac in Quebec.

Although many thousands of American tourists regularly invade the ancient city and throng the corridors of the great hostelry, it is not often realized that their ancestors once attempted to gain admittance to the city with less success. Early in the War of Independence two forces of American soldiers were despatched against Canada, one under General Richard Montgomery up the Richelieu against Montreal, and the other under Colonel Benedict Arnold through the wilds of Maine against Quebec. The two armies united their resources before the city of Quebec in mid-December, 1775, and commenced a siege that lasted for 154 days throughout the ensuing winter. Montgomery had carried all before him and captured the forts of St. Johns and Chambly, and occupied Montreal and Three Rivers, so Quebec remained the last stronghold of importance held by the British. Arnold had encountered great difficulty in his march, and his expedition was depleted by about a third of its members.
The defense of Quebec was under General Sir Guy

Carleton who had a garrison of about 1,500, about equal to the strength of the attackers, composed of a few regulars, including the Seventh Royal Fusiliers, the Royal Emigrants, a Corps of Seamen, and British and French-Canadian Militia.

Early in the morning of December 31, 1775, the chief assault was delivered by the American troops, bravely led by the commanders in person, Montgomery being killed at Pres-de-Ville, and Arnold wounded at Sault-au-Matelot at the other side of the town. The attack was unsuccessful, many prisoners were captured by the defenders, and the siege thereafter became little more than a blockade until relief arrived from Great Britain in May, 1776.

The tablet in commemoration of the part taken by the Royal Fusiliers in the defence of the town "throughout the rigors of a Canadian winter, against an active and enterprising enemy" was unveiled in Quebec on Dominion Day, July 1, in the presence of the Governor-General. A detachment of the Canadian Fusiliers of London, Ontario, with two officers from the parent unit in England, represented the Second Royal Fusiliers. The arrangements were made by General Charles F. Winter, secretary of the Dominion of Canada Rifle Association, and formerly a member of the Royal Fusiliers.

THE FAMOUS TOUR OF CON-TRASTS "ACROSS CANADA AND BACK"

A striking feature of this year's "Across Canada and Back Tour," which leaves North Toronto station at 1 p.m., on July 23rd under the auspices of Dean Laird, is the fact that many tourists are coming over from Great Britain to take part in the journey. The special all steel million dollar train which will carry the party across the Dominion is the equal in all respects to the famous "Trans-Canada Limited". There are no difficulties to confront the traveller, as Sinclair Laird, the director, who has already piloted seven similar trips, has made the way smooth beforehand. Bookings for the tour are already exceptionally heavy and all previous records are expected to go by the board. The itinerary includes stops at all the important cities and towns en route and the beauty spots in the Rocky Mountains, Banff and Lake Louise, bungalow camps and industrial centres. A rail across Kootenay Lake, a steamship trip from Vancouver to Victoria and return, and another cruise down the Great Lakes add variety to a holiday both delightful and educational. There is not a moment in the twenty one days wasted and everywhere throughout the western lines a most hearty welcome awaits the visitors. Everything is included from Toronto and return in the sum of $330.00.

STUDENTS NOT ALWAYS BAD

Students Are Not Always Quarrelsome Rapins—Defends Student Body When Haled For Misconduct

Students will be students. Those of Harvard some years ago painted the statue of the founder with splashes of red. That was wrong, a desecration and a sacrifice. Those of the ancient University of Aix en Provence recently planted sort of quick growing grass seed in the some crown of the Good King Rene, and the second morning after the statue began to grow a shock of green hair. That was not a particularly dastardly thing to have done. The students of the Ecole des Beaux Arts at Paris, in one of their nightly raids, lifted a street sign and a row of balcony flower pots from a neighboring rooming house and when the proprietor protested mauled him rather inconsiderably. A mere escapade of youth which the judge of the local court the next morning put a price on and which was paid forthwith. The responsibilities were those of the students, of course, but it was not a very serious bagarre, and a lesson was had which was needed. The defence of the student body has been taken up by those interested in this wise: "Students are not always quarrelsome rapins; they have as much respect for the rights of others as most people, and if they do slop over once in a while should be excused if they make honorable amends." They objected to being painted as irreverent by the front page reporters of the press as the little ladies of the theatre object to be classed as creatures of easy virtue, and the workman from the gas works objects to being limited as typical of the clients of Zola's "Assommoir."

TOM LONGBOAT IS FINED $10

Pleads Guilty to Charge Under Highway Act—Mystery Solved

Tom Longboat, 8 Asquith avenue, Toronto, the famous Indian runner, pleaded guilty to a charge of permitting his car to be driven in a reckless manner and was fined $10 and costs and his license was suspended for two weeks. The case came before Magistrate Ward in Bowmanville police court. It arose from an accident over a week ago, when the Longboat car crashed into the fence east of the overhead bridge on the highway just west of Bowmanville. Longboat's car, a large touring, failed to make the turn, and in the crash one of the occupants, a Mr. Ryan of Toronto, who is alleged to have been driving the car, was hurt.

FRENCH TRADE DEVELOPING

Wine and Brandy Help to Make Record—Big Drop in Exports

Trade between France and Canada is developing, but with much more coming in than going out. In the last fiscal year the Bureau of Statistics figures show Canadian exports to France were $9,946,145, compared with $15,220,232 the year before. Imports from France aggregated $26,473,723, which establishes a record.

Figures show a large increase in importations of wine and brandy, consequent upon the development of wet areas in Canada, and also of feminine finery, which French rehabilitation after the war evidently enables them to get along with less of what formerly was purchased here in large quantities. The principal Canadian exports in 1928 to France were: Wheat, $3,271,220, only about half of the year before; canned salmon, $1,176,037, a slight increase; furs, $303,022, an increase of $117,000; wood pulp, $1,442,000, practically the same figure as 1927; harvesters and binders, $623,364, a decrease of about half a million; mowing machines, $504,731.

a decrease of $437,000; and asbestos, $479,131, an increase of $45,000. There was no export of sugar in 1928, as against $4,156,915 in 1927, while the figure of $1,442,000 for the year before, wood pulp was $20,000 more than Canada bought from France in the year $2,084,482 worth of wines and $2,120,599 worth of brandy. The other larger items were: Manufactured furs, $1,024,196; gloves, $483,985; cotton fabrics, $335,820; laces, $229,629; velvets, $550,731; coatings $1,745,964; perfumery, $388,882 and pipes and cigarette holders, $322,356.

J. S. Earle, Picton, has an old coin dated 1688. On the one side is the picture of King Charles II. and the words "God Preserve Our Gracious King." On the other side are the words, "Richard Ballard of Monmouth, His Half Penny for Necessary Chaing." The coin is badly worn, but the inscription is clearly legible.

Many do not yet realize this!

"My bill for that call was 60 cents", said Mrs. King.

"I can't understand that!" said Mrs. Jones, "it cost me 75 cents when I telephoned".

Of course the explanation is that the first party had said to the operator when placing her long distance call "I will speak to anyone there".

That made it a Station-to-Station call, which is about 20 per cent cheaper than a person-to-person message.

Station-to-Station calls, besides being cheaper, are nearly always quicker than person-to-person (where we must locate a particular individual). Moreover, low evening rates (after 8.30 p.m.) and still lower night rates (after midnight) apply on station-to-station calls, and in most cases connection is established while you remain at the telephone.

Remember please — station-to-station calls are quicker and cheaper.

THE GUIDE STORY

"Don't take absurd notions into your head, Bob. It is the most beautiful smile I ever saw. Think what a sensation she would cause in London."
"I don't care about sensations of that kind," said Robert.
"Since she has no ancestry," said the countess, "she is, I believe, anxious to ally herself with an old English title; and her uncle, who is her guardian, would make out a deed of gift of a million in favor of an English nobleman, if she married one."

another who is pleasanter in something else than the last one. I can't get up an enthusiasm about a girl, somehow. I like them all."
The countess laughed.
"Elizabeth Katalinka is quite, quite out of the common—a woman that some men rave about."
"Yes, I know they do. A million of money! What pranks I would play with it, by George!"
"Ah! but—"

guise, and do all sorts of things. I think this world a great sham, you know."
"Such as it is, we must make the best of it," said the platitude-loving countess. "And tonight this ball will be delightful."
"I wonder if mademoiselle looks on me as a simpleton?"
"What on earth should put such an idea into your head, Bob?"
"Well, I am modest, you see. I am not quite clear whether she would be right or wrong if she came to that conclusion."

a five o'clock tea, in the English style, at the sumptuous hotel of an English lady of fortune, the widow of a French colonel of hussars, whom she had married for love.
Madame St. Cecile was a capricious dame of forty-five, more French than the veriest Parisienne. She delighted in marvels, gossip, and everything that was speculative and out of the common. She was childless, and perhaps, therefore, lacking serious interest in life. She gave herself up to fads, fancies, frivolities," so said her enemies.

Two on Sunday

Don Hankins and Clarence Fisher occupied the spotlight at Newark on Sunday as the league leading Toronto Leafs continued their mad dash for pennant laurels with a double victory over the Bears by scores of 4 to 1 and 5 to 2.

tered hits and if he had cared to exert himself in the ninth inning he could have had a shut out. It was too hot to pitch one's head off so Hankins just loafed through the ninth and the Brains put over their lone tally.
Belleville's Nine Wins from Kingston 5-3
"Vinny" Utronki, Belleville hurler receiver brilliant support from his teammates and Belleville won a well played game from Kingston, 5 to 3. This win kept Belleville in the running with Oshawa who defeated the Petes in the Liflock City.

Oshawa Defeats Peterboro Team by 10 to 6
Oshawa baseball team invaded Peterboro Saturday and beat the Petes 10 to 6 in a Central Ontario League game. Hitting in the pinches won for the visitors. "Duke" Dainty, the Oshawa veteran pitcher, started but was knocked out of the box in the fourth, after the Petes had collected ten hits for five runs. Morrison relieved Dainty.

SOFTBALL League Standing

Postponed Game

On Friday, July 13th, the Mathews and C.N.R. will play off the postponed game of June 25th which was called owing to rain.

Ganeraskas Lose Again

The Ganeraskas went further down into the cellar of the local league when the C.N.R. handed them a 14 to 9 defeat at Viaduct Park Friday night in a scheduled softball fixture.

This Week's Games

On Monday night the Bankers will be at home to Frank Bird's C.N.R. team and a good battle will result, while on Tuesday the crummy Mathews Conveyor team will clash with the File. The softball schedule is over half completed and the result of this week's games will have considerable effect on the standing.

SOCIAL CENTRE IN NORTHERN WOODS

Deep in the heart of the rugged North Country, hidden by pine topped hills and thick virgin forests, lies a chain of sparkling blue lakes known as the Lake of Bays. Almost unknown to the outside world until a few years ago, these lakes have become the summer playground of vacationists and tourists.

Rhythm And Grace Are Expressed In This Smart Dance Frock

THE men who thought themselves so fortunate as to get their names on Virginia's dance program now find that they fare no better than the eager stag line. No one gets further than a dozen steps before he is tagged. Sparkling and vivacious and with the full realization that she is a success, Virginia never tires or falters. Slim with a certain willowy grace, she can be easily spotted among the hundreds of dancers by her green chiffon frock with its unusual bounce attached to the skirt in a U outline that dips almost to the floor in the back. The deep U décolletage, too seems created especially for her pretty back and shoulders. And the cross-hatched giraffe that ties at the front—lets the hips saunter and makes for a slim silhouette. So becoming is this frock in fact that Virginia has used the same design with round neck and long sleeves finished with a ruffle for afternoon wear. Georgette, chiffon, crepe, Roma or fine all-over lace are flowing, supple materials that suit such a lovely costume. (Copyright, 1928, by Baltimore)

BE KIND TO OLD AGE

Be ever kind to those who bend, Beneath the weight of time; For they were once, like thee, my friend, In blooming manhood's prime, But bitter cares, and weary years, Have borne their joys away; Till naught remains but age and tears And wasting, dim decay. Life's sweetest hours have hastened past. Its bloom has faded now; And dusky twilight deepens fast Along the furrowed brow. And soon the shattered remnants all A narrow house receive; For, one by one they silent fall; Like withered Autumn leaves. Oh, then, be kind, where'er thou art Nor deem such action vain; Kind words can make the aged heart Seem almost young again.

TWELVE SUMMER SAFETY RULES

What To Do And What Not To Do, As Suggested by the Ontario Safety League

Twelve suggestions to swimmers, bathers and canoeists as issued by the Ontario Safety League, are:

Learn the prone pressure method of resuscitation.

Bathe in protected areas only.

If you have heart trouble do not go in swimming.

Wait two hours after eating before going into the water.

When diving be sure the water is deep enough to ensure safety.

Do not swim or bathe alone. It is safest to have companions with you in case of accident.

Unless you can swim, unless you can keep a cool head, stay out of a canoe.

After starting do not change seats and do not stand up in either canoe or row boat.

If you have a passenger who wants to "rock the boat" put him ashore.

You take a "fool's chance" if you ride the waves of a steam boat. The chance taker is the accident maker.

If upset, lay your hands on the canoe or a paddle, either will keep you afloat until help arrives.

Do not attempt to use a canoe or row boat in rough water.

SHOCK OF COLD WATER IS FATAL

Port Perry Girl Perishes at Sturgeon Lake on Saturday

Saturday afternoon ten miles west of Lindsay at Thurstonia on Sturgeon Lake, Mary, daughter of Wm. H. Harris, Sr., Port Perry, died while bathing from heart failure.

Miss Harris and her friends had just come to the lake shore for a holiday. She was in delicate health and before entering the water had several fainting spells. When she expired in the water friends and others thought she had drowned and tried to revive her by artificial respiration. Dr. Spier later said that death was not caused by drowning, as no water was taken into the lungs. The coolness of the water after the heat of the day proved more than her heart could stand.

GOODYEAR PICNIC TO ROCHESTER

Special Train Passed Through Port Hope at Eight O'clock Saturday A.M.

One of the most popular events of the year was held Saturday when the Bowmanville plant of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., held their annual picnic and trip to Rochester, N.Y. As last year the special train left the C.N.R. Goodyear siding at seven o'clock with over five hundred families entrained. The special stopped at Newcastle and Port Hope, and a specially chartered boat, the "Ontario" of the Cobourg-Rochester Steamship Line, took the frolicmakers across the lake. A large program of sports had been prepared and many novelty stunts were scheduled for the boat trip as well as several mystery numbers. A few clowns also were on the boat.

On arrival at the docks, the party was taken to Ontario Beach Park by chartered buses. Several ball games were on the program for the park, as well as foot races and other forms of recreation. For the dancing on the boat, a special orchestra was secured. The party left at seven o'clock in the evening for home.

After last year, the trip needs no introduction. Arrangements were made to better last year's trip in all ways and the various committees reported that all plans laid are much more smooth than those of last year. Mr. Harry Nanson was chairman of the general committee, and members of the committees for finance, transportation and advertising and entertainment and sports were carefully chosen. Special arrangements were made so that the night men could get away for Saturday's trip.

HIGH-SPIRITED NAG

Pickering—News loves anything in the nature of sport:—

One day last week while Mr. Wm. Gormley was busy scuffling in the garden, members of the Pickering fire company were busily engaged in testing a new force pump on their fire engine. The unusual noise frightened the horse, which is considerably over 23 years of age and caused it to run away with the scuffer coming along in second place. The horse had no difficulty in clearing a wire fence, and was brought to a standstill after going about half a mile, with very little damage to horse or outfit. Mr. Gormley is thinking of training the animal for the next King's Plate.
