Conference Favors Church Union

BY LARGE MAJORITY

Interesting Address from the President of the Layman's Association

FRIDAY MORNING.

Conference opened at 10 a. m., Rev. W. G. Clarke, B. A., in the chair. The morning session was largely devoted to the hearing and discussion of the reports of committees. The most interesting and in many respects the most important was the report on the state of the work. The report showed a very large increase in missionary givings, a total increase of $4092. All the other connexional funds indicated a decided increase except one, viz: the moral and temperance reform, which decrease was accounted for very largely by the many services held in the Conference by the Provincial Alliance.

The Sunday Schools and Epworth League also showed large increases $718 in the former and $599 in the latter. Also an increase of $3903 towards ministerial support.

As to the membership in the Conference a decrease of 19 is reported. These facts ought to be noted, that during the year 2391 had been received on probation and 1261 by letter. However 1975 had removed by letter, and 960 had ceased to be members.

Strong recommendations were made in reference to the missionary work, the holding of banquets, etc. Also holding of Decision days in all our S. S.

Rev. Mr. Farrell, B. A., the associate sec'y of the missionary appeared before the Conference and received a very hearty reception. The afternoon and evening sessions will be devoted to the discussion of the question of Church Union.

Mr. O'Flynn submitted a proposition to endow a chair of mathematics to be called the "Dr. Albert Carman Chair" for Albert College, which was now facing a critical period by reason of the new Government regulations for approved schools. The college will have to engage teachers of Government standard, and higher salaries will have to be paid. The school had now 300 students. It is also proposed to endow several other chairs. The proposition will be dealt with later.

The request that Mr. J. B. Snider be ordained for special service raised a protest against the practice from Dr. G. J. Bishop. Rev. Robert Burns consulted with Dr. Carman, who was of the opinion that marriages performed by men so ordained were illegal. "Why should we cheapen our ministry by ordaining young men who have not been proved?" asked Dr. Bishop. It was declared that marriages were performed by certain men specially ordained and these were not legal. A committee will make inquiry into the matter.

The President of the Laymen's Association presented the following interesting address.

DEAR BRETHREN,—How truly we may say:—

"Seasons, and months, and weeks, and days,
Demand successive songs of praise;
Still be the cheerful homage paid
With opening light and evening shade."

We have through the goodness and mercy of an all-wise Providence once more been permitted to again assemble here in Conference and to take up the work of the church as it devolves upon us.

Another year of service has passed into history, and our duty as laymen is to look out upon the future and endeavor to plan with careful forethought wisely and well for the welfare of the church.

A number of important questions will come before you, chief of which will be the question of Church Union. This will demand our most careful judgment and ripest thought to arrive at a proper solution of the question as to acceptance of the basis proposed. To my mind at no period in history has a matter of so great magnitude been presented to the churches concerned. It is the burning question for the consideration of our present Confederal gathering and it will be for us, in conjunction with the clergy, to decide if it will be in the best interests of the Church to take an advanced step in regard to the proposals already formulated.

During the past year the Parliament of the Church (our General Conference) was held in the City of Victoria, B. C., the entertainment being with true Western hospitality.

Some changes were made in disciplinary measures and modes of procedure, but the disposition evidently was to avoid change for change sake. Doubtless the new appointments for Quarterly Boards will vindicate the judgement of the Conference.

Our Bay of Quinte Conference was ably represented by the admirable delegation elected at the last annual Conference gathering under the leadership of our esteemed and honored President, Rev. W. H. Emsley.

Another matter of importance to which I would call your attention is our duty to our ministers as regards their financial support; this matter was most ably presented by the ex-president of this Association last year in his admirable address and has since been crystallized into General Conference (see Journal of General Conference, Salaries Report, page 404) and Discipline, par. 254; so that this laymen's meeting must realize that the time has come when this matter is no longer optional or a mere matter of grace but the church as a whole must take a broader and more liberal view along these lines and the statement must cease that whilst a number of our charges are paying liberal salaries, the records go to show that the greater number are still not measuring up to their ability to meet their proper and just obligation.

And here I would beg to call the attention of all Official Members of the Church to the importance of attending all Board and other financial meetings, as by this means a better knowledge of the different organizations of the church and their financial standing will be assured and a more healthy interest will be manifested in the broad schemes and purposes of the church as a whole.

May I venture to commend these few suggestions to your serious consideration and in closing refer with great gratification to the advances made in Missionary extension and givings. During the past two years an increase of over $61,000 for 1909-10, is owing largely to the earnest co-operation and effort on the part of the laymen who have actively associated themselves with this mighty movement.

In conclusion, brethren, I thank you for the honor you have done me, and through me, the Western Church in Napanee, from whence you have been pleased this year to elect both President of Conference and President of Lay Association, by appointing me to the office which I now lay down. May I say that it has been a special pleasure to be thus associated with you and in retiring I feel confident that the same wise counsels which have prevailed in the past will continue to do so along broader and still more energetic lines to the rebuilding of the church, and we may truly adopt the inspired language of the great Methodist hymn writer—

"Make haste O man to do
Whatever must be done,
Thou hast no time to lose in sloth
Thy day will soon be gone.

Up then with speed and work
Fling ease and sell away;
This is no time for thee to sloop
Up, watch, and work and pray."

J. L. MADILL, President.

FRIDAY EVENING.

After a debate of about three hours and a half the Bay of Quinte Methodist Conference last night endorsed Church union by a vote of 167 to 15.

"I simply say that Church union is a mighty subject, requiring our deepest intelligence, our purest conscience, our most ardent prayer, our mightiest faith," said Rev. Dr. Albert Carman, General Superintendent. It may bring disarrangement and calamity. I am not without anxiety. Every vote given must be of the electricity of the eternal, because we shall have here a great issue for Canada, for

USE GAS WHEN PULLING OUT TEETH
 Dentists Advised Never to Shock Patients.

Laughing gas is the least dangerous of the minor anesthetics, according to Dr. Edgar Paul, Toronto, who addressed the Ontario Dental Association recently. Ether, though more dangerous, is not by any means deadly, only one patient in 16,000 dying from its effects. Dr. Paul stated that dentists should never extract teeth without first administering an anæsthetic, as the shock is often disastrous to conscious patients. He ridiculed the idea that doctors should administer anesthetics for dentists, claiming that they had been discovered and first administered by dentists. It was decided to erect a memorial to the late Dr. W. Brodie, formerly Provincial entomologist.

CHORUS GIRL UNDER AGE
 Miss Marion Randall, of Lamont's Musical Show, May Have to Return to Her Mother.

Miss Marion Randall, of Lamont's Musical Comedy Show, which gave two performances here last week, is in trouble in Lindsay, because Chief Shortt received a letter from Marion's mother, who resides in New York, stating that her daughter was under age, and that she did not wish her to be on the stage.

But Miss Marion, it appears, objects to being put on the juvenile list, and wants to remain in the chorus. She claims to be of age. Miss Randall is still with the company.

BADLY BEATEN.

By His Employer—Young Barnardo Boy Strapped until He Was Black And Blue.

Lindsay Warder.
 Some time ago a farmer by the name of Jones, who lives near the village of Omeme, wanted help and communicated with the Barnardo Home authorities, who placed under his care a young home boy. The young lad was a novice as far as farm work was concerned and no doubt found the work to be irksome as well as arduous. He claims that he could not do all that his employer wished him to do and that because he could not was beaten with a long leather strap until he was black and blue, and not being able to stand the abuse any longer he ran away.

The young lad, according to his own story ran away last night, and on Tuesday he wandered into Lindsay. Here he was taken care of by the Children's Aid Society, and to them he told a very pitiful story. He was also examined by a local physician who found that the lad's back was badly bruised and in spots was black and blue, apparently being caused as the boy stated, by being thrashed with a heavy piece of strap. On the back of the boy's neck was also noticed a nasty bruise, which the lad stated was caused by the farmer grabbing him with his hand. The bruise had the impression of being caused by the man's thumb.

MUSIC AT GEORGE ST. CHURCH PETERBORO

Peterboro Examiner.
 The splendid quality of the music at the services at George street Methodist church yesterday was the cause of many complimentary remarks among the congregation and reflects great credit upon the new organist and Choir Leader, Mr. J. H. Renwick, who in the short time he has had charge of the choir, has accomplished a great deal. The morning anthem "I Will Feed My Flock," by Caleb Simper, was splendidly sung, while the solo by Mrs. Renwick, who has a rich, pure and magnificently trained soprano voice was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Renwick is a decided acquisition to the choir. A new feature in the evening was the singing of the anthem "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," unaccompanied, the effect being wholly pleasing. Mr. George Deakin's splendid tenor was well displayed in the solo "The Light Divine" by Theo Bonnheur.

GONE TO CORDOVA.

Mr. Philip Martin, who has been with the Deloro Mining and Reduction Company, Ltd., for some years, went to Cordova this week, where he will act as manager of the Belmont Gold Mine, which was recently purchased by Messrs. Kirkegaard, Mackenzie and Hughes. Steps will immediately be taken to operate the mine and the prospects are that Cordova will again be the busy place it was a few years ago, before long. Mr. Martin is a practical miner and hustler and should make good in his new position.

With Cordova and Blairton both being operated this part of Hastings should have an area of prosperity never before equalled, and a lot of credit is due the men who by their energy and aggressiveness are bringing this about.

STRUCK A COW.—When motoring through the village shortly after one o'clock on the afternoon of Victoria Day, Blake Crawford came upon a trio of bovines at the narrow place in the road over the western ravine and one of them, belonging to Mrs. William Cowan, and with sufficient Jersey blood in her veins to give her a very nervous temperament, sprang in front of the machine, which struck her on one hind leg and completely shattered the bone beyond all hope of restoration, and consequently, to put the dumb brute out of her misery one of the Hennings Bros. was called in a few hours later to despatch her, to the regret of every witness, but to none more so than Mr. Crawford, as she was one of the sleekest and prettiest little things in the milking line in town. Mr. Crawford was moving slowly at the time and at once stopped, and upon learning the extent of the injury despatched a messenger to assure the owner he would call and see her, which he did the following day, and is reported to have recompensed her for the loss to the extent of $25.—Newcastle Independent.

REPAINTING COSTS LESS MONEY THAN REPAIRING

How are you looking after your investment—your home? It is either increasing in value or depreciating—which? Judicious painting protects the exposed wood surfaces—keeps the value of your residence up to par or increases its value. Poorly painted wood surfaces soon deteriorate in value—the building soon needs repairing, and repairs cost much more than repainting. Good paint is real protection against weather—an insurance against decay.

A TROUBLESOME MISGIVING

 The listener was moved. He raised his wine-glass to conceal the smile which might have been misunderstood. In his heart he felt more admiration than had yet mingled with his liking for this strange fellow. "And Mrs. Jacox herself," pursued Malkin; "she has her weaknesses, as we all have. I don't think her a very strong-minded woman, to tell the truth. But there's a great deal of goodness in her. If there's one thing I desire in people it is the virtue of gratitude, and Mrs. Jacox is grateful almost to excess for the paltry exertions I have made on her behalf. You know that kind of thing costs me nothing; you know I like running about and getting things done. But the poor woman imagines that I have laid her under an eternal obligation. Of course I shall show her in time that it was nothing at all; that she might have done just as much for herself if she had known how to go about it." Earwaker was musing, a wrinkle of uneasiness at the corner of his eye. "She isn't the kind of woman, you know, one can regard as a mother. But we are the best possible friends. She may, perhaps, think of me as a possible son-in-law. Poor thing; I hope she does. Perhaps it will help to put her mind at rest about the girls." "Then shall you often be down at Wrotham?" inquired the journalist abstractedly. "On, not often—that is to say, only once a month or so, just to look in. I wanted to ask you: do think I might venture to begin a correspondence with Bella?" "M—m—m! I can't say." It would be so valuable, you know I could suggest books for her reading; I could help her in her study of politics, and so on. "Well, think about it. But be cautious, I beg of you. Now I must be off. Only just time enough to get my traps to the station." "I'll come with you. Gare du Nord? Oh, plenty of time, plenty of time! Nothing so abominable as waiting for trains. I make a point of never getting to the station more than three minutes before time. Astonishing what one can do in three minutes! I want to tell you about an adventure I had in Boston. Met a fellow so devilish like Peak that I couldn't believe it wasn't he himself. I spoke to him, but he swore that he knew not the man. Never saw such a likeness!" "Curious. It may have been Peak." "By all that's suspicious, I can't help thinking the same! He had an English accent, too." "Queer business, this of Peak's. I hope I may live to hear the end of the story." They left the restaurant, and in a few hours Earwaker was again on English soil. At Staple Inn a pile of letters awaited him, among them a note from Christian Moxey, asking for an appointment as soon as possible after the journalist's return. Earwaker at once sent an invitation, and on the next evening Moxey came. An intimacy had grown up between the two, since the mysterious retreat of their common friend. Christian was at first lost without the companionship of Godwin Peak he forsook his studies, and fell into a state of complete idleness which naturally fostered his tendency to find solace in the decanter. With Earwaker he could not talk as unreservedly as with Peak, but on the other hand there was a tonic influence in the journalist's personality which he recognized as beneficial. Earwaker was steadily making his way in the world, lived a life of dignified independence. What was the secret of these strong, calm natures? Might it not be learnt by studious inspection? Born in exile—Galley 75. "How well you look!" Christian exclaimed, on entering. "We enjoyed your Provencal letter enormously. That's a ramble I have always meant to do. Next year perhaps." "Why not this? Haven't you got into a dangerous habit of postponement?" "Yes, I'm afraid I have. But, by-the-by, no news of Peak, I suppose?" Earwaker related the story he had heard from Malkin adding: "You must remember that they met only once in London; Malkin might very well mistake another man for Peak."

"Yes," replied the other musingly. "Yet it isn't impossible that Peak has gone over there. If so what on earth can he be up to? Why should he hide from his friends?" "Cherchez la femme," said the journalist, with a smile. "I can devise no other explanation." (TO BE CONTINUED.)

TREATY APPROVED

Declaration of London Com- mended by Premiers.

WILL CONSULT COLONIES

After This the Home Government Will Submit to the Outlying Dominions the Draft of Instructions to Envoys Who Are About to Negotiate an Agreement in Which the Colonies Are Interested.

London, June 3.—At the Imperial Conference the discussion on the declaration of London was resumed. General Botha said he felt quite satisfied with the reasons given by Sir Edward Grey why the dominions had not been consulted at an earlier stage.

Premier Morris said: "Sir Edward Grey's explanation why the dominions were not consulted is fair and reasonable. On general principles the dominions should be consulted. Such a determination would be one of the most important results of the conference. On nearly every point of the declaration, particularly in relation to an international prize court, we have gained considerable.

Premier Fisher asked leave to substitute for the original motion, one to the effect that they shall be afforded the opportunity for consultation when the framing instructions given to the British delegates at future meetings of The Hague conventions, affecting the dominions are provisionally assented to, these to be circulated among the dominion Governments, that similar procedure where there is time or opportunity and the subject permit, be used when preparing instructions for the negotiation of other international agreements affecting the dominions.

The resolution was unanimously agreed to. Premier Ward moved that the conference approve with gratification the declaration.

Premier Fisher said that the resolution would place Australians in some difficulty. The declaration was such a great step in advance, that it would be wrong to abandon it, but that was quite different from definitely saying that they approved of the whole declaration.

Premier Asquith pointed out that the proposal simply meant conference approving the ratification at this stage.

Premier Fisher remarked that Sir Edward Grey said the declaration was settled and final.

Asquith replied that it was not final in the sense that no further progress could hereafter be made.

Fisher said that they would go so far as not to oppose the resolution.

The resolution passed, Australia abstaining from voting.

Times Scents Danger.

London, June 3.—(C.A.P. Cable.)—The Times says: "The argument of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, developed in his declaration speech, if carried to its logical conclusion, would involve a complete rupture of the connection of Canada with the Empire. So long as Canada flies the British flag it will be regarded by foreign powers as part of the Empire. No resolutions can affect this obligation, short of a vote by the Canadian Parliament declaring Canada an independent state, which Laurier would himself be the first to resist."

Red Lopez Shot.

Cananea, Sonora, Mexico, June 3.—"Red" Lopez, ordered imprisoned by Francisco I. Madero, jr., on the charge that he had sold out to American interests while in command of a section of the insurrecto garrison at Augua Prieta, has been put to death. Lopez was being conveyed here to serve an eight-year sentence imposed by a court-martial.

Conflicting stories are told by the guard which was accompanying Lopez. One is that the former insurrecto leader had been shot while attempting to escape; another that he pleaded to be executed rather than be taken to prison.

It is alleged also that Lopez had confessed to having received $4,000 for the surrender of Augua Prieta to the federals.

Buried With Military Honors.

Kingston, June 3.—Late Gunner Emile Lamoureux of the Royal Canadian Horse Artillery was buried with full military honors yesterday. The body was conveyed from the station hospital on a gun-carriage, escorted by men from both batteries in command of Maj. J. S. N. Leslie.

The 14th Regiment, P.W.O.R., may spend Dominion Day at Niagara Falls, Ont.

Stabbing Affray Among Pollocks.

Ottawa, June 3.—A stabbing affray occurred among the local Pollocks last evening. A number of men started a quarrel in a hotel, and concluded it outside in a free-for-all. An unknown foreigner was seriously stabbed in the throat and John Kurylak is under arrest for the deed, though it is doubtful if the police have the right man.

Will Lecture In Boston.

Boston, June 3.—M. Alphonse des Jardins of Lewis, Que., founder of the People's Bank system of Canada, and director general of L'Action Populaire Economique, arrived in Boston yesterday for a stay of six weeks, by invitation of the commonwealth, and the approval of the governor, to lecture on and establish credit unions.

May Sue City.

Brantford, June 3.—Brantford may be asked to defend an action for damages, as a result yesterday of the death of Aexenty Nitsook, a Russian, 23 years old, who died from injuries about the legs, caused by the collapse of a trench in a sewer he was working on. Negligence is alleged.

WAS TELLING LIES.

Montreal Girl Admits Falsely Accusing Her Father.

Montreal, June 3.—In the Court of King's Bench yesterday, the case of Dominico Depace, accused of a crime against morals, took a decidedly unexpected turn. The daughter of the accused, who had sworn the charge against her father, and who, at the preliminary enquete had given testimony severely incriminating the prisoner, made an absolute " volte-face," and stated that what she had sworn at the enquete was false from beginning to end.

As soon as she stepped away from the witness stand, Crown Prosecutor Walsh asked the court that she be placed under arrest for perjury.

High Constable Bissonnette took the girl in charge and had her placed in the cells, where a few weeks past she had been instrumental in sending her father.

Detective Lajoie was called, but his testimony was not allowed on the ground that in order to prove a confession, it is necessary to prove that crime has been committed.

Mr. D. Macavoy, on behalf of the accused, made a strong objection to the manner in which the confession had been obtained, and Mr. Justice Archambault agreed with him, saying: "There is an abuse far too common in our country. When a man is in the habit of asking questions, any confession obtained in reply to such questions, whether the prisoner has been warned or not, is illegal and I will not allow it to be given as testimony."

Crown Prosecutor Walsh then announced that he was unable to continue the case and the prisoner was discharged.

Depace, however, will have to stand trial again on a charge of a similar nature on June 8.

Wanted to Die

Barrie, June 3.—At 6.15 last evening a well-dressed man about 35 years of age, going by the name of Andrew Hay, and giving as his last residence Collingwood, attempted suicide by jumping from the dock in front of the Allandale Station. Fortunately Arthur Stone, agent for the Canada Express Co., who was passing in the vicinity of the dock, heard him shout, "I'm going to jump in" and heard the splash. Running to the spot he saw Hay going under for the second time, and lowering himself from the dock by his left hand seized the drowning man with his right hand as he came to the surface for the last time. Roy Stone, a brother of the express agent, quickly came to his assistance, and together they pulled the man on to the dock and after rolling him for some time brought him to his senses. The police were then summoned and Hay was placed in the county jail to await an investigation of his case. Despondency is supposed to be the cause of the attempt on his life. After being rescued he pleaded to be allowed to go back into the water.

Deliberately Shot at Greeks.

Woburn, Mass., June 3.—Deliberately firing at three Greek brothers, Louis Vincenzo, an Italian, shot and killed Thomas Caliazas, probably fatally wounded John Caliazas and wounded slightly Charles Caliazas on the farm of Ellis H. Marshall here yesterday. Vincenzo ran into the nearby woods before the astonished laborers who had witnessed the tragedy, realized what had taken place. The police officials, however, were notified within a short time and last night the woods of Woburn, Winchester and Arlington were scoured by a posse.

Fifteen farm hands were resting in one of the farm buildings during the noon hour. Thomas Caliazas was taking a nap when, without warning, Vincenzo is said to have drawn a revolver and started firing. Anger because the Greeks were employed instead of Italians is given as the cause of Vincenzo's attack.

Dog Ran Amok.

New York, June 3.—A handsome Great Dane suddenly turned into a wild beast on the streets of the upper east side in the heat yesterday afternoon, and severely bit a girl and seven horses. The huge animal buried its teeth in five-year-old Josephine Bondy's side, leaped to a horse's back and bit a gash in the animal's flesh, attacked another horse in the face and five others in the legs, while policemen pursued him and finally got him within safe range of their revolvers. Shopkeepers joined the police in the hunt and shot the infuriated dog a dozen times before he finally dropped. The bitten girl was taken to the Pasteur Institute.

Will Dredge Morrisburg Canal.

Cornwall, June 3.—Fallon Bros. of Cornwall have been awarded the contract of dredging the Morrisburg Canal near lock 3. The material dredged from the bottom will be towed to the south bank, outside of which it will be deposited by a traveling derrick, making a plateau, 1,200 feet long. The job is quite a big one, and will keep the dredge busy all summer. The other dredge is working in the Cornwall Canal.

Will Celebrate Twelfth at Newington.

Cornwall, June 3.—The semi-annual meeting of the Stormont County Orange Lodge will be held at Newington, to-day, when arrangements will be completed for the celebration of the 12th of July at Newington, which will be participated in by the lodges of the order in the county, who will be joined by the lodges of the Ottawa district.

Won't Raid Another Ball.

Montreal, June 3.—Henry Turgeon, Emile Martin, Albert Doumouchel and Ferdinand Michaud, the four men accused of assaulting J. H. Roberts, secretary of the Dominion Alliance, when he raided the "Merry Widow" ball on April 11, were freed of that charge by the grand jury, who found no blame against them.

Accepted Call to Elora.

Elora, June 3.—Rev. W. McDougall Hall of Ottawa has accepted a call to the Elora Presbyterian Church, and a meeting of the Guelph Presbytery has been called for next Thursday to induct him into his new charge.

MUNRO NOT GUILTY

Judge Winchester Acquits Farmers' Bank President.

RELIED ON HIS OFFICIALS

In Delivering Decision the Trial Judge Quotes on Old Scotch Judgment & Show That Col. Munro Was the Victim of a Deception—Severely Scores Accountant Fitzgibbon and Manager Travers.

Toronto, June 3.—Col. James Munro, at one time member of Parliament, former president of the Farmers' Bank of Canada, charged with wilfully making false returns to the Finance Department at Ottawa in respect of such bank, has been adjudged not guilty by his honor Judge Winchester.

It was known that Judge Winchester had made up his mind several days ago, but as no announcement was forthcoming, there was tension and anxiety in many quarters. His honor says that "James Munro was deceived by both Travers and Fitzgibbon and intentionally so; that he placed the fullest confidence in their trustworthiness and relied implicitly on their statements as being honest and true."

In support of his opinion on this point, Judge Winchester quotes an old judgment of the year 1833, in which a country gentleman, not skilled in accounts, was involved. "These rogues in short," recites the excerpt, "—for rogery it was—put before him so much that he came away with as little information as he possessed when he went." Continuing, he says, "while Mr. Travers was on the witness stand, said that he could have given Mr. Munro in a short space of time the particulars of all these accounts, as set forth in the monthly statement and show him in what respect they were false, yet I am firmly convinced that even had Mr. Munro requested such a statement from Mr. Travers or Mr. Fitzgibbon at that time, he would not have received them."

In summing up his observations, Judge Winchester put the substance of finding in the following paragraph: "In this present case, as already set forth, I find from the evidence that Mr. Munro placed every confidence in the ability, qualifications and trustworthiness of the chief accountant and of the general manager of the bank; that he was entirely innocent of any knowledge of wrong-doing; that he was not a party to the making up of any statements which were false or deceptive. On the other hand, I find that the general manager wilfully falsified the statements and deceived the president and directors of the bank from month to month, and that he was assisted in so doing by Fitzgibbon, and while the general manager has been prosecuted for making such false statements and having admitted his guilt, received his sentence, his assistant in preparing and making up these false statements has so far escaped prosecution while Munro, who had no personal knowledge of the facts, has been prosecuted for wrong-doing."

"Applying the law as laid down in the above decisions to the facts of this case, I find Munro not guilty of the charges laid against him."

Office Check Book Used.

Vancouver, June 3.—Alleged forged checks for an aggregate of $1,100 have been floated in Vancouver during the past week. It is stated that forty worthless checks, each for the sum of $27.50, have been cashed, principally by hotelkeepers of the city. The checks purported to have been issued by the Ritchie Contracting & Supply Co. and were made payable to either "Fred Woods" or George Stewart, two supposedly fictitious never-actors. The checks were drawn on the Traders' Bank and bore the Ritchie Co. stamp and signatures, which purported to be those of P. E. Ritchie, president, and A. Morrison, secretary of the company. Ritchie yesterday declared all the checks were forgeries.

It was stated by Mr. Ritchie yesterday "morning that the forgers must have broken into the company's offices and secured the checks, as those used were taken out of the office check book and were numbered successively from the last genuine checks which had been issued by the company."

Liner Went Aground.

Quebec, June 3.—The Manchester Spinner of the Merchant Line, arrived in Quebec yesterday evening, after having the experience of going aground for two hours on her way up White Island. The ship, however, was gotten off when the tide rose, and she reached Quebec and was placed in the Louise Basin. The vessel is now anchored in the Louise Basin, where the tanks of the vessel have been found to be leaking badly.

Sick of the Job.

Ottawa, June 3.—Already one census commissioner has got sick of his job and given it up. He is W. P. Purney of Queen's County, N.S. Fred Freeman replaces him.

The civil service commission is calling for applications for the office of Dominion agriculturist, to draw an initial salary of $2,100. The office of assistant live stock commissioner is also looking for an occupant.

Seized Two Miles of Nets.

Brockville, June 3.—Fish and Game Overseer George Toner has shipped to the sectional headquarters in Belleville 29 sets of 20-rod gill nets and one set of hop nets, the fruit of the seizures from illegal fishermen on the St. Lawrence for the month of May. These would aggregate in length almost two miles.

Delegate to Stockholm.

Listowel, June 3.—Dr. Pearl Sproull, a young lady from this town, who went to London, England, to take a special course, has been named as a delegate of the Women's Societies to the International Congress of Women, which meets at Stockholm, Sweden, on June 16.

BRIEFS FROM THE WIRES.

A terrific thunderstorm which broke out in Paris last night, did considerable damage here and in the provinces.

Governor Diego Redo of the State of Sinaloa was assassinated on May 31, according to advices received here yesterday.

Agnes Kincaid, aged two, a daughter of E. Kincaid, Kingston, was killed by a horse yesterday and suffered a terrible gash in his head.

William Kelly, while digging a grave at the C.P.R. Pit, Winnipeg, took sick and died while being conveyed home. Heart failure is supposed to be the cause of death.

George Bell, chief of the local police, was fatally shot by a masked highwayman on Thursday night, when he interrupted the robber in the act of holding up two men at Red Deer, Alta.

Tag day in Winnipeg in aid of the Ninette Sanatorium on Thursday netted $14,790. Nearly a thousand dollars of this was contributed by a departmental store, which turned in 5 per cent. of its cash receipts.

M. Morin, the French aviator, yesterday flew from Avignon to Mailane, taking with him a poem and bouquet for Frederic Mistral, the aged poet. M. Mistral was greatly touched by the novel honor paid him.

The Canadian Gazette to-day contains the royal proclamation fixing Thursday, June 22, as a public holiday, to be observed as a general day of thanksgiving and rejoicing by all persons throughout our Dominion of Canada.

Castro Reported to Have Sailed.

Havana, June 3.—The Cuban Government is in receipt of what is believed to be authoritative information from Spain that Cipriano Castro, the exiled former President of Venezuela sailed recently from Madrid on board the steamer Legasi, which is due here today on route for Central and South America.

Castro is traveling incognito. It is also believed he is carefully disguised, but is improbable that he will be able to escape the scrutiny of the Cuban officials, who will board the Legasi here.

It is not known whether Castro desires to land in Havana, or whether the Government would try to prevent him. Secretary of State Sagull said yesterday that the Cuban Government had not been informed officially of the coming of Castro, and was not absolutely sure he was on board the boat. Therefore, the Government would not decide its course of action until it was finally determined he is on board the steamer.

The conjecture here is that Castro does not desire to land at Havana, and that he will endeavor to conceal his identity here, and proceed on board the Legasi and land at some port adjacent to Venezuelan territory, probably at Sanalia, Colombia.

Perley Gives $50,000.

Ottawa, June 3.—George H. Perley, M.P. for Argenteuil, has offered to contribute $50,000 for a new tuberculosis hospital for Ottawa.

The suggestion of the donor is understood to be that $30,000 of his subscription should be used for a hospital building in the city, and $20,000 for a farm a short distance out where the patients may work and obtain the outdoor exercise so necessary for a cure.

The hospital is to be in memory of the late Mrs. Perley, the donor's wife, who, it will be remembered, died suddenly while in England last year. Mrs. Perley was greatly interested in the Lady Grey Hospital.

In Gay Paree.

Paris, June 3.—"The Magic City," a vast American amusement park on the lines of the recently destroyed "Dreamland" at Coney Island, was thrown open to the public last night. It is situated on the left bank of the Seine, near Point Alma.

Despite the fact that a lightning storm fused the wires and partially cut off the electric lights, the thousands of Parisians who were present at the inauguration of the park pronounced it a most artistic open air entertainment.

COUNTIES' COUNCIL.—The Counties' Council will assemble for the June session on Monday, June 5th. On Thursday afternoon, the Warden's excursion to Rochester will take place.

WHISKEY FAMINE.—Some of the Barrie people are predicting a whiskey famine during the coming Cornation festivities in the County town, owing to the influx of visitors from the surrounding 'dry sections' of country. The Advance, however, takes a more hopeful view of the situation, and, speaking of the adjacent "parched territory," it describes Barrie as an "oasis in the desert."

THE PRIZE PUGILIST.—It is reported that Jack Johnson, the colored heavyweight champion, went westward through the village Saturday afternoon and while here he expressed himself as being so dry that very probably he would have to lie over at Bowmanville, even if he got nothing of a stronger color than dandelion beer, which, by the way, is said to be fast becoming a favorite beverage in that town owing to the prolonged drought.—Newcastle Independent.

DAMAGE BY LIGHTNING.—Lightning a week ago Monday night, struck the chimney on Mr. Thos. Paterson's residence, north-west of Kendal, run down into the house passing through a number of rooms peeling the paper and plaster of the walls in its course, then back again to the roof following the eavetrough to the other side of the house where it again found an entrance. It then ran along the cistern pipe tearing a hole through the floor. The family were up sitting about the kitchen at the time. The noise was something terrific. It seems almost miraculous that all escaped uninjured.

His special work appears to be along Evangelistic lines.

BANKS TO CLOSE.—The banks have decided to close their offices every Wednesday afternoon during June, July and August. They will however remain open every Saturday afternoon until four o'clock which is a great convenience to the business men and the public in general.

FINE MUSIC.—The musical part of the Conference services in the Methodist church tomorrow will be of an unusual bright nature. The newly appointed organist, Professor Phelps, will preside at the organ, and the choir will be assisted by Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. Van Alstine, in solos, duets and quartets.

NEEDED STRENGTHENING.—"This is the first time you have been to a prayer meeting in a long time," said the pastor of a colored congregation. "I had to come, I had to come," replied Mr. Errstus Pinkley. "I needs strength'nin'; I'se got a job whitewashin' a chicken coop an' buildin' a fence around a watermelon patch."

HAD NO WARRANT.—At Toronto on the motion of Mr. J. B. Mackenzie, the Master-in-Chambers Saturday granted a writ of habeas corpus for James H. Mitchell, of Campbellford, who is at present in the Counties goal on account of his failure to pay a two hundred dollar fine for a breach of the Liquor License Act. Because he did not want to travel in the train with a constable, Mitchell left Campbellford secretly and went to Cobourg alone and handed himself over to the police. Now he claims that the police at Cobourg had no warrant for his arrest for twenty-four hours after he gave himself up. Irregularity at the trial is also alleged.
