MINISTERIAL CHANGES IN BAY OF QUINTE

Revised Report of Stationing Committee—Ne Temere Decree Condemned.

The pronouncement of the special committee of the General Conference on the "ne temere" decree was endorsed by the Bay of Quinte Methodist Conference yesterday.

The Temperance and Moral Reform Committee commended the excellent work on the circuits in pledging the boys to abstain from intoxicants, cigars, cigarettes and tobacco, and from indulging in profane language. The gifts of the people to the temperance cause were never so large as in the past year.

Mrs. Thornley of London, was praised for her campaign against immorality in the schools. Mr. J. H. Arnup, Toronto, spoke in the interests of the Laymen's Missionary movement.

Mrs. A. G. Vermilyea, Belleville, of the Women's Missionary Society, said that the receipts and the membership were much increased in the past year.

A memorial service was held for the following clergymen deceased in the past year: B. M. Pope, S. Lader and G. Dunkley.

Rev. W. B. Tucker was appointed to the reserve list of the delegation to the General Conference.

POLICE COURT

Defendant in the Case of Tree Stealing Allowed to Go.

The case of the young man from the Township of Hope charged with stealing a tree the property of James Lang, which was adjourned from last week, came up this morning.

The defendant was a tenant of Mr. Lang, and he admitted to the chief that he had taken the tree. Mr. Chisholm, the defendant's solicitor, produced an agreement which was in the possession of Mr. Lang, showing that defendant had agreed to pay $10 for all the damages done to the farm. This agreement was dated March 31st.

His Worship remarked that it was a very close call for the defendant, but in view of the evidence he would dismiss the case.

THE OLD ARGYLE AGAIN IN SERVICE.

Venerable Steamer is Being Fitted Up for North Shore Route.

Mail and Empire

The old steamer Argyle, now the most ancient of all the fleet plying out of Toronto, which has lain in the Scott Street Slip since the opening of navigation, a pathetic sight, fireless, dingy and deserted, has awakened into marvelous life and activity during the past week. Painters, swarming over the decks and around the sides, have scraped the mast and revarnished it into dazzling brilliancy, the funnel shines with glossy black and red, the hull is now resplendent with a thick application of slate-blue pigments, and work has begun on the rejuvenation of the upper works. In a shed nearby, several hundred chairs are being made fresh with scarlet paint.

Inside the boat a staff of mechanics have separated the engines and other machinery into their component parts, which are spread everywhere on the deck, and a mechanical expert, who has charge of their repairs, spends his days in the midst of the confusion. He shakes his head pessimistically as each new evidence of the ravages of 40 odd years comes to light, but he is confident that in the end he will be able to get things into shape for more season, anyway.

The Argyle had a long and stormy history, but her accidents, though frequent, have never been serious, and her wooden hull is still thought to be quite seaworthy enough for Summer weather on Lake Ontario. Her golden days were some 25 years ago, when she was regarded as the "greyhound" of the lake, and ran between Toronto and Port Dalhousie, under the name of the Empress of India. She possessed a monopoly of this route for a long time, but was finally driven out of business by keen competition on the part of the Lakeside, which has just been retired from the service. The Argyle then fell into Bay of Quinte hands, and ran for a year or two between the cities on the eastern shores of the lake, where she received her present title. After that she was sold back into the Toronto trade, and for the last eight or ten years has been occupied variously, running to many ports and changing hands several times. A Mr. Hutchison is now her chief owner.

Will Search Passengers.

Brookville, June 5.—The extensive smuggling operations carried on by Brookville ladies visiting Morristown and Ogdensburg, N.Y., on the daily outings of steamers to these points, has led the customs department, at the request of Brookville merchants, to place a female officer at the landing dock. She entered upon her duties yesterday. All parcels will be carefully scrutinized, and, if suspicious warrants it, the fair sex will be religiously searched.

no avowed confidence, but each knew the other's secret; their mutual affection never spoke itself in words, yet none the less it was indispensable to their lives. Deprived of his sister's company, Christian must have yielded to the vice which had already too strong a hold upon him, and have become a maudlin drunkard. Left to herself she had a slender support against a grim temptation already beckoning her in nights of sleeplessness. Of the two, her nature was the more tragic. Circumstances aiding, Christian might still forget his melancholy, abandon the whisky bottle, and pass a life time of amiable uxoriousness, varied with scientific enthusiasm. But for Marcella, frustrated in the desire with which every impulse of her being had identified itself, what future could be imagined?

When a day or two of sunlight (the rays through a semi-opaque atmosphere which London has to accept with gratitude) had announced that the seven-months winter was overcome, and when the newspapers began to speak, after their fashion, of pictures awaiting scrutiny, Christian exerted himself to rouse his sister from her growing indolence. He succeeded in taking her to the Academy. Among the works of sculpture set apart for the indifference of the public was a female head, catalogued as 'A Nihilist'—in itself interesting and specially so to Marcella, because it was executed by an artist whose name she recognized as that of a schoolmate, Agatha Walworth. She spoke of the circumstance to Christian and added:

'I should like to have that. Let us go and see the piece.'

The work was already sold. Christian, happy that his sister could be aroused to this interest, suggested that a cast might be obtainable.

'Write to Miss Walworth,' he urged. 'Bring yourself to her recollection.—I should think she must be the right kind of woman.'

Though at the time she shook her head, Marcella was presently tempted to address a letter to the artist, who responded with friendly invitation. In this way a new house was opened to her; but, simultaneously, one more illusion was destroyed. Knowing little of life, and much of literature, she pictured Miss Walworth as inhabiting a delightful Bohemian world, where the rules of conventionalism had no existence, and everything was judged by the brain-standard. Modern French biographies supplied all her ideas of studio society. She prepared herself for the first visit with a joyous tremor, wondering whether she would be deemed worthy to associate with the men and women who lived for art. The reality was a shock. In a large house at Chiswick she found a gathering of most respectable English people, chatting over the regulation tea-cup; not one of them inclined to disregard the dictates of Mrs. Grundy in dress demeanour, or dialogue.

CENSUS TAKING

Will Take Three Years to Complete.

Ottawa, June 2.—Canada's decennial census, the taking of which began to-day, will take practically three years to complete. The tabulating and analysis of the population figures and the digesting and publishing of the exhaustive information asked for in regard to trade, industry, etc., will keep the census bureau busy in that length of time.

The total population will not be definitely known until October, though an approximate figure may be given out a month or so earlier. Returns will begin to come in from cities in about a fortnight's time, but the enumerators have three weeks' time allowed to complete their work, and the commissioners are allowed another month in which to forward returns to Ottawa.

The work of tabulating and compilation will be done at the census bureau here, by a special staff of 160 clerks, working with specially devised tabulating and compiling machines similar to those used at Washington for the census of last year.

Charles W. Spicer, an official of the American census bureau, who has been temporarily borrowed by the Canadian bureau, is now in Toronto superintending the manufacture of a number of ingenious machines to be used in tabulating the various schedules turned in by the enumerators.

Reports from census bureau officials who have been receiving reports as to the prospective amount of work required of the commissioners in the various parts of the Dominion indicate that the growth of population in many districts has been considerably larger than was estimated.

The final figures will probably show a population increase of about fifty per cent during the decade. West of the Great Lakes it is estimated there are now about a million and a half more people than there were in 1901. Eastern Canada should show an increase of a little over a million and a quarter.

TRAMPS ARE NUMEROUS

Now Proposed to Establish a Tramp Colony.

It is stated there are 500,000 tramps roaming through Canada and the United States, says the Belleville Ontario. Out of this number about 50,000 make their headquarters in New York city and the adjoining territory.

It costs $2,000,000 a year to provide for them in jails and work-houses, while the incidental expenses, such as the damage to property and the general contributions made by private charity bring the total up to $10,000,000.

It is now proposed to establish somewhere in the New York State a tramp colony to which vagrants can be sent and where the product of their labor will be used towards their maintenance. This sort of material when used in cultivation of vegetables like onions and beets, can be made more than self-supporting. The sugar beet business in Ontario failed because the farmers would not apply themselves to the laborious task of weeding the beets. Even in Colorado this work has to be done by imported labor, and even then the families from Southern Russia work in the beet fields no longer than they can secure sufficient capital to enter upon land of their own. It may be, therefore, that the tramp problem may be solved in the same way. At all events it is worth trying.

How To Live

So live that when thy summons comes to join
The innumerable caravan which moves
To that mysterious realm where each shall take
His chamber in the silent halls of death
Thou go not like the quarry slave at night
Scourged to his dungeon, but, sustained and soothed
By an unfaltering trust, approach thy grave
Like one that wraps the drapery of his couch
About him and lies down to pleasant dreams.

A TROUBLESOME MISGIVING

Most people who are capable of independent thought rapidly outgrow the stage when compromise is abhorred; they accept at first reluctantly, but ere long with satisfaction, that code of polite intercourse which, as Steele says, is 'an expedient to make fools and wise men equal.' It was Marcella's ill-fate that she could neither learn tolerance nor persuade herself to affect it. The emancipated woman has fewer opportunities of relieving her mind than a man in corresponding position; if her temper be aggressive she must renounce general society, and, if not content to live alone, ally herself with some group of declared militants. By correspondence, or otherwise, Marcella might have brought herself into connection with women of a sympathetic type, but this effort she had never made. And chiefly because of her acquaintance with Godwin Peak. In him she concentrated her interests; he was the man to whom her heart went forth with every kind of fervour. So long as there remained a hope of moving him to reciprocal feeling she did not care to go in search of female companions. Year after year she sustained herself in solitude by this faint hope. She had lost sight of the two or three school-fellows who, though not so zealous as herself, would have welcomed her as an interesting acquaintance; and the only woman who assiduously sought her was Mrs. Morton, the wife of one of Christian's friends, a good-natured but silly person bent on making known that she followed the higher law.

Godwin's disappearance sank her in profound melancholy. Through the black weeks of January and February she scarcely left the house and on the plea of illness refused to see anyone but her brother. Between Christian and her there was

CONDEMNED DECREE

London Conference Passes a Strong Resolution.

SANG "GOD SAVE THE KING"

No Discussion Occurs But as Soon as Unanimous Vote is Taken, Members of Conference Rise and Sing—"No Temere" Fiat Interferes With the Rights of Free Persons, Says the Resolution.

Stratford, June 6.—The London Conference rose to a man yesterday afternoon when a resolution, moved by Rev. Dr. Whiting of London and Mr. Ezra Hunt, condemning the ne temere decree, was put. Then the big gathering broke into "God Save the King" and applauded tumultuously.

The resolution was as follows:—"The ne temere decree of the Church of Rome is a matter of vital interest to the inhabitants of this Dominion. We accept the right of any Church to make what ecclesiastical laws it deems prudent for the members of its own communion. We affirm our belief in the sacredness of marriage and abhor the numerous pretexts for its dissolution. We agree that mixed marriages between Roman Catholics and Protestants are to be discouraged, as producing neglect of individual and family religion, but for this Dominion or any province of this Dominion to confirm by Parliamentary statute the ecclesiastical enactment of the ne temere decree is a yoke as impossible to be borne by the citizens of this Dominion as any yoke from which liberty has obtained freedom in the course of human progress. We declare that the alleged right of the Roman Catholic Church above any other Church to determine who shall legally perform the right of marriage for any person has our utmost resistance, and that we will resist it with unalterable determination until one equal law for all prevails throughout this country. We would further add that the custom of Canada in appointing minister of the Gospel to perform the marriage rite is altogether to be commended. This custom gives a religious sanction to marriage and has a wholesome moral effect upon the nation, and we express our grave apprehension that the result of the ne temere decree will be to make marriage a purely civil contract, a result Roman Catholic and Protestants alike would deplore."

It Cost Money Last Time.

Montreal, June 6.—That the Automobile Club would not undertake to finance another aviation meet was the statement made yesterday morning by A. George McNamee, secretary of the club.

The Automobile Club has received a communication from the Curtis Aeroplane Co. of New York, "which contemplates the extension of their aeroplane sales business, as well as exhibition rights, to this country."

Mr. McNamee went on to explain that the losses came through the big fees paid to the aviators. "They were worth it," he said, "and I do not mean that we were not perfectly satisfied, but $12,000 to one man, $10,000 to another, and $4,000, $5,000, etc. to others, represented a lot of money."

Bible Agent Arrested.

Ottawa, June 6.—Mayor Fontaine of Hull explains the arrest of Henry Lantini of the Grand Ligne French Baptist Mission, stating that it was necessary that he should have a pedler's licence to legally sell Bibles from house to house, and that he carried a circular offering $500 to any one who could prove that the Virgin Mary was immaculate or that the Pope was never married.

The incident is creating a great deal of religious feeling in Hull.

Montreal Drunks Thrive on Early Closing Law.

Montreal, June 6.—There was a very noticeable increase in the number of drunks brought before Recorder Weir yesterday. Out of a list of 84 names, sixty-one were for drunkenness.

Chief Campeau stated that since the early closing law had gone into effect, there had been a large number of "blind pigs" opened in the congested district of the city, and boarding-houses were finding it profitable to lay in a good supply of liquor for consumption at greatly increased rates after the saloons had been closed for the night.

Saturday night there was much liquor sold on the streets and in the various dens of the city. The constables charged with seeing that the closing law is enforced, find it almost impossible to catch the illegal sellers. When the liquor is stored in houses, the owner declares it was stored there merely for his own use and he has to be set at liberty.

Constables declare that drunkenness has greatly increased in all parts of the city. One constable said: "We cannot catch the offenders in the act of selling liquor, but it is very easy for us to see by the number of persons who are found drunk that they are at work." The police claim also that many dens in the city where liquor is sold, are now more frequented than ever.

BRIEFS FROM THE WIRES.

The militia camp at Niagara opened with heavy rain.

St. Catharines ladies are working to erect a home for working girls.

Plans are under way for the placing of between 4,000 and 5,000 Armenians on land in British Columbia.

Ald. Tetreau of Montreal yesterday criticized the company for not posting information in French at the Bonaventure station, stating that there were notices in Italian, German, English, Hebrew and Chinese on the walls, but that no French was to be seen except the lettering on the garbage barrels.

Principal Peterson of McGill announced yesterday that Lord Strathcona has donated another $100,000 for the completion of equipment in the new million dollar medical building, the erection of which his earlier munificent gifts had made possible. It was also announced that Dr. James Douglas had donated $25,000 for the co-ordination of research work in the pathological laboratories.

Rocked the Boat.

Brockville, June 6.—The old story of rocking the boat almost resulted in a double drowning opposite here.

Three young men named Haley, McMahon and Burns, under the influence of liquor, capsize by the reckless act of the last mentioned. Haley immediately struck out for shore, one hundred yards distant, and being an excellent swimmer, had no difficulty in reaching it. His companions were too intoxicated to aid themselves further than to cling to the craft. Wm. Foster put out in a skiff to their aid. Burns, managed to crawl into it at the risk of making a second upset. McMahon was well nigh exhausted, but Foster managed to hold his head above water until Customs Officer Burns, in another boat, appeared on the scene, and between them McMahon's rescue was effected by Foster holding him up by the wrists and Burns towing them ashore.

Vancouver's Big Strike.

Vancouver, B.C., June 6.—Four thousand men, representing all the building trades, quit work yesterday morning, but the city is not tied up as the street railway men refused to join the strike.

However, matters are made serious by all the linemen of the telephone and telegraph companies going out.

The teamsters are still working and will not strike.

There were no demonstration and no complaints at police headquarters.

The wires of the street railway company were cut in the suburbs at 3 o'clock but were repaired by 8.30.

The situation is serious, but not as bad as anticipated.

Dr. McKay as Moderator?

Ottawa, June 6.—The Journal yesterday says it is rumored that the Presbyterian General Assembly, which opens Wednesday, instead of choosing a local man as moderator, will give the honor to Rev. Dr. P. McKay, secretary of the Foreign Mission Board of the Presbyterian Church of Canada. It is stated that Dr. McKay is one of the oldest and most prominent in the assembly.

Moulders' Strike at London.

London, June 6.—With the exception of the moulders at the Vulcan foundry and at the McClary stove works, all London moulders, were on strike yesterday morning. The Vulcan granted a nine-hour day, while the McClary Company is now working piece work.

UNIFORM SHIPPING

Premier Fisher Wants Imperial Navigation Laws.

AUTONOMY IN TREATIES

Sir Wilfrid Moves For the Opening of Negotiations to Let the Colonies Withdraw From Imperial Treaties Now in Force If They Desire to Do So—British Ships Should Receive Fair Play.

London, June 6.—According to the delayed report of the conclusion of Friday's proceedings at the Imperial Conference Premier Fisher moved that it was advisable in the interest of the United Kingdom and the dominions that efforts in favor of British manufacturers' goods and shipping be supported as far as practicable. He pointed out that other countries assisted their shipping in its competition with other shipping, both by subventions and contributions from the national exchequer.

Hon. G. F. Pearce, Australian Minister of Defence, said that the principal difficulty was in regard to certain treaties which were in the main with small countries. If the dominions by legislation desired to assist British shipping in the only way open to them, the United Kingdom might very well consider the advisability of denouncing the provisions which stood in the way of such action.

Rt. Hon. Sidney Buxton, President of the Board of Trade, said that the matter had been considered and the conclusion came to was that in the interest of British shipping, all the world over the renunciation of parts of certain treaties might be undertaken if the end justified the means. It was not merely a question of denouncing treaties of trade elsewhere, which might be seriously adversely affected.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said treaties had to deal with were more those in existence long before the dominions had reached their present position, and were negotiated from the viewpoint of Great Britain alone. In recent years the Home Government had adopted the principle of not including the self-governing dominions in commercial treaties without first obtaining their consent. With a view to the matter being considered he would at a subsequent meeting move that the Home Government be requested to open negotiations with several foreign Governments having treaties which apply to the dominions with a view to securing liberty for the dominions which may desire to withdraw from such treaties without impairing them in respect to the rest of the Empire. Further consideration of the resolution was postponed until the sixteenth instant.

Premier Fisher moved that it was desirable that the attention of the Governments of the colonies be called to the state of navigation laws in the Empire and other countries, with a view to securing uniformity of treatment for British shipping and prevent unfair competition by foreign subsidized ships, to secure for British ships equal trading advantages with foreign ships to promote the employment of British seamen on British ships, raised their status and improve their conditions.

Rt. Hon. Sidney Buxton said that the Government would accept the resolution provided it read: "That it is desirable that the attention of the Governments of the United Kingdom and the dominions should be called to the desirability of taking effectual steps to secure, etc." As amended the resolution was unanimously carried.

A Magnificent Monument.

Rome, June 6.—Nearly one million people witnessed the dedication on Sunday of a magnificent monument to King Victor Emmanuel II., grandfather of the present King. Interest was added to the occasion by combining therewith a celebration of the granting of the constitution by King Charles Albert in 1848, the same constitution which still rules United Italy.

The monument is composed of a great portion in white marble, with sixteen immense columns surmounted by a frieze, and at the ends quadrigae in bronze. In front of the colonnade stands the gigantic equestrian statue of the father of the country on a richly decorated pedestal, leading to which are grand staircases decorated with fountains, statues, groups and antennae with gilded figures. The entire length of the monument is 500 feet, depth 450 feet, and its height 250 feet.

Labor Protests.

Montreal, June 6.—"This campaign of lying and vituperation organized in a certain section of the press of this continent by the hirings of capital against J. J. McNamara is not going to be allowed without a strong protest by the labor union men," said Mr. Lynch yesterday.

"On June 18 the Building Trades Council will hold a big meeting in the City of Montreal, with a view to exposing the disgraceful methods employed in the arrest of J. J. McNamara."

"The whole subject will be taken up by prominent speakers, who will show an almost unique occurrence in civilized countries, that of a citizen of a supposedly free country, arrested and kidnapped and carried from one state to another like a traveling bag."

Autos in Manitoba.

Winnipeg, June 6.—Registrations of automobiles in Manitoba so far this year number 2,155, of which 1,091 are in Winnipeg. Several others have not yet registered. It is estimated that investments in automobiles in the province amount to about five million dollars.

Prisoner Jumped From Train.

Brockville, June 6.—Robert Dowell of Metcalfe, in charge of a man named William Blanchard, who he was deporting, reports to the police that his charge escaped from his custody near Brockville yesterday, by jumping from a train.

CRUISER GOES ASHORE.

French Warship Sticks on Island In Halifax Harbor.

Halifax, June 6.—In thick weather at 6.30 o'clock yesterday morning, the French warship D'Estre, commanded by Capt. Prouhet, struck on George's Island, one of the forts in Halifax harbor. Six hours later she floated off without assistance, and having sustained no damage whatever, even her paint apparently not having been scraped. Offers were made of help from towing steamers and the Dominion Government's Marine Department, but these were declined with thanks.

Capt. Prouhet of the D'Estre ordered the forward water ballast to be pumped out and the ammunition moved.

The warship struck three hours before high water and she floated three hours after high tide, the water being at the same height when she slipped off as when she touched. Pilot John Hayes was aboard, having been taken on outside the harbor.

George's Island is in the centre of the harbor. The only explanation for the accident is that the pall of fog and smoke hung so thickly over the harbor that it was impossible to see ahead and the pilot misjudged his position. He thought he was west of the island, whereas he was south, and in feeling his way up, going very slowly, he struck. A fog bell is on George's Island and it had been heard earlier in the morning, but the warship was carried to the westward, and in that position the sound was carried past and became undistinguishable on board. There will be an investigation.

Design Australia's Capital.

Ottawa, June 6.—Australia's new capital may be designed by a Canadian. A model of the site selected by the Commonwealth Government in New South Wales is on the way here and will be on view early this month at the Department of Public Works, together with all details necessary for the preparation of competitive designs.

A report received by the Department of Trade and Commerce from D. H. Ross, Canadian trade commissioner at Melbourne, states that Canadians will be eligible to compete for the prizes offered by the Australian Government. These designs must show a capital city complete, including Parliament buildings, a residence for the governor, a central railway station, a national theatre, stadium, parks, gardens and military barracks. The prizes are: First, $8,750; second, $3,750; and third, $2,500.

The designs go to the Australian Department of Home Affairs at Melbourne.

Blac' Maria Bumped by Car.

Montreal, June 6.—That a big load of prisoners who were on their way to the court house from the penitentiary were joggled and bumped, and otherwise inconvenienced by a car striking the Black Maria, is one of the claims made by the Attorney-General of Quebec in an action against the Montreal Street Railway.

The amount of damage asked for in the suit is $2,077.45. This is principally for damage to the Black Maria, but a certain portion of the amount is for inconvenience to the prisoners.

Despite the fact that the Government had a wagonload of people at the time, none of them were called as witnesses. Some of them have served their time and disappeared a long time ago.

The collision took place March 2, 1906. The company pleaded that the accident arose from circumstances which they could not control, slippery rails, which would not hold. Mr. Justice Lafontaine took the case en debite.

Suit For $2,200,000.

Edmonton, Alta., June 6.—Claims for damages aggregating $2,200,000 are being prepared to be filed against the Province of Alberta in connection with the Alberta and Great Waterways case. The whole matter gets more and more complicated. At present the province is suing the Royal Bank of Canada for the $6,000,000 of Alberta and Great Waterways money deposited with it. It has also taken action to get possession of the remaining $1,400,000 deposited with other banks. So far as can be seen at present the struggle will be a long one, especially with the added complications.

The assertion is very confidently being made that Premier Sifton has anxiously desired to meet J. Pierpont Morgan in London. Mr. Morgan is well-known to have lent countenance to the Alberta and Great Waterways project.

Along Imperial Lines.

Montreal, June 6.—Dr. R. D. Roberts, secretary of the Congress of Universities of the Empire, to be held in London, who arrived on the Megantic to attend the preliminary congress of Canadian universities, convened by Dr. Falconer (Toronto) and Dr. Peterson (McGill), stated yesterday morning that the main idea of the London conference was a sort of a unification, on Imperial lines, of all the universities of the Empire with the intention of formulating some universal educational training scheme than that at present exists.

Fifty-one universities, he said, would be represented at the London congress. Canada heads the list with nineteen institutions, while the British Isles follow with eighteen.

Death of Old Resident.

Hesper, June 6.—An old and highly respected citizen, in the person of John Warren, died yesterday in his 80th year. Warren was born in Bramshott, Hampshire, Eng., Jan. 24, 1832. He came to Canada with his parents in the fall of 1852, and settled in Georgetown, where he followed the trade of paper making. He married in 1857, Rachel Unsworth, who, with ten children and thirty grandchildren, survive him. Mr. Warren has lived retired in Hesper since 1887.

Columbus, O., June 6.—A member of the Legislature, Owen J. Evans, confessed in open court yesterday that he had accepted a bribe, and declared his willingness to go before the grand jury and make a clean breast of all his knowledge concerning alleged legislative corruption.

GOOD ADVICE.—A level headed exchange says:—Learn this one thing, learn it early in life and learn it well that the man who does not believe as you do is not always a fool. The fact you hold views not in accord with your neighbor is not proof positive that you are right and he is wrong, nor is it any evidence that your neighbor is insincere. If this were not true then all smart men would belong to one party and all good men to one church. And if all belonged to one party and one church they would break up both party and church.
