POLICE COURT

An Englishman Charged With Stealing Coal—Coal Scattered from Shed to Prisoner's Residence. Allowed to Go on Suspended Sentence.

An Englishman residing on Cavan street was in the Police Court this morning, charged with stealing soft coal from Guest Bros' tannery on Cavan street, and pleaded not guilty. According to Mr. Guest's story, when he went to the tannery Thursday morning he found coal scattered about the road leading from his shed. There was also tracks of a hand sledge, and he followed these along and found that they led to the prisoner's house. He notified Chief Bond and he traced the tracks to the same house, and found about a hundred pounds of soft coal in the shed. The prisoner stated this morning that he gathered the coal from the Midland tracks between 10 and 11 o'clock on Wednesday night. Magistrate White told him that he did not believe his story, and was satisfied that he had stolen the coal from the tannery. He would allow him to go on suspended sentence, but if he ever appeared again he would be severely dealt with.

TWO ARRESTS

Man Stole Boots From Gould's And Was Arrested. The Other Was Thought To Be An Escaped Prisoner From Central. A young man is resting quietly in the Police cells and to-morrow morning he will have to answer a charge of stealing a pair of boots from Mr. J. B. Gould's. While passing Mr. Gould's store this morning, he grabbed up a pair of boots and placed them under his coat. The eagle eye of Mr. Earnest Rowson, who clerks in Gould's, caught the thief, and he and Mr. Gould gave chase locating their man near Rosevear's coal office. Chief Bond was called and he placed him under arrest. In addition to the boots, two tins of sardines and a razor were found on his person. He refuses to give his name. About an hour afterwards the chief arrested another man, who gave his name as Angus Smith. The chief is of the opinion that this man has escaped from Central Prison. According to his own story he has served several terms in the Central. He will come up for trial to-morrow morning. Late this afternoon the prisoner gave his name as Robert Ball, and stated that he had escaped from Central. A wire was sent to the officials of the prison, and an officer will be here to-morrow to take him back.

RICH MRS. BARNEY TO WED YOUNG MAN

Washington Playwright and Society Woman Writes of Engagement to Christian Hemmick

Washington, Feb. 26. — Letters received by some of her intimate friends from Mrs. Alice P. Barney, widow of Alfred Clifford Barney, announce her engagement to Christian Hemmick of Washington, son of Ronald Hemmick, former consul at Geneva. Mrs. Barney is spending the winter in Paris, but expects to return to the United States in the coming spring. Mr. Hemmick is 26 years old, about 35 years younger than Mrs. Barney. He is planning to sail next week for Paris and it is expected that the wedding will take place there within a few weeks. Both Mr. Hemmick and Mrs. Barney are well known in Washington society. Mr. Hemmick has been active in the younger set, and Mrs. Barney has been a leader in her own circle. She is an artist of considerable merit and her daughter, Laura, has also won no small reputation as a sculptor. The Barney studio home on Sheridan Circle is one of the famous Washington houses. When occupying it Mrs. Barney has entertained there freely. There is a roof garden, where she has given some special entertainments. Mrs. Barney has taken an active part in amateur theatricals for charitable purposes in Washington, and has directed the performance of three plays of which she herself was the author. They have all been produced at one of the leading Washington theatres. The last one, "The Man from the Moon," was presented comparatively recently, and Mr. Hemmick had one of the leading parts. It was then that the romance with Mrs. Barney began.

The mysterious appearance last October of a statue of an undraped woman on the front lawn of Mrs. Barney's residence brought Mrs. Barney and her two grown daughters, the Misses Laura and Natalie C. Barney, into international notoriety. The statue attracted the attention of every one who passed the Barney residence one morning, and as the news of it spread crowds collected.

Mrs. Barney was in Paris at the time with her daughters. Miss Laura Barney was known to be studying sculpture there. A rumor spread that she had taken her sister Miss Natalie, as a model. Positive denial of this, however, came a few days later from the Barneys in Paris, and from Mme. Ali Kuli Khan, wife of the Charge d'Affaires of the Persian Legation, who had just returned from Paris, and who asserted vigorously that Miss Barney was still at work on a bust of her sister, and that the statue was merely "some sort of antique."

The police became concerned about the crowds of sightseers at the Barney house and had the statue covered with a tarpaulin. Later it was carried from the lawn and placed in the hall of the Barney house.

Mrs. Barney, who was Miss Alice Pike, was born in Cincinnati. Her father was the proprietor of Pike's Theatre there and a whisky manufacturer. As a girl Miss Pike wrote several plays for charity, and then went abroad and studied art under

LOYALISTS SILENT

German Tells Tories He Favors Imperial Free Trade.

OPPOSED TO RECIPROCITY

Member For Welland Says He Cannot Keep With the Leaders of His Party in the Tariff Agreement, But the Erstwhile Flag-Wavers Are Put to Rout When He Mentions British Empire.

Ottawa, March 3.—Liberalism had an impressive innings in the House of Commons yesterday. It fell to the lot of Mr. W. M. German to turn the vaunted Imperialism of opponents to the proposed reciprocal trade agreement topsy-turvy. The member for Welland made his promised confession that he was unable to support the present proposals, and in lieu thereof urged the Government to devote its energies to the immediate accomplishment of unrestricted reciprocity with the Empire. In response to an inquiry by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, he declared emphatically for free trade within the Empire.

The scene was perhaps the most spectacular of a debate abounding in dramatic episodes. The Conservatives, who had greeted with noisy approval the declaration of the Welland Liberal that he would oppose the arrangement, suddenly stayed their merriment as the Prime Minister put his quiet question; the frenzy of enthusiasm which had followed the speaker's prediction that it spelled the defeat of the Administration was stifled and stilled; and the Opposition spokesmen, who for the past ten days have been vaunting their ultra-Imperialism, precipitately scurried for shelter.

WILLIAM M. GERMAN.

Mr. German prefaced his arguments against the tariff resolution with praise of the Liberals. They had made an "honest attempt to keep the reciprocity pledge of 1891," he said, and gave them credit for "an administration that had brought prosperity to Canada." He declared, however, that "there was a general feeling throughout the country against reciprocity with the United States," and that Sir Wilfrid Laurier's erstwhile awakening from that fiscal nightmare had made the "hearts of Liberals throb with pride." Mr. German endorsed the Conservative arguments against the trade pact, and thought Sir Wilfrid should have paid the United States back in its own coin. "Has he taught them the lesson which they taught us?" was his question.

Mr. German declared in favor of adequate protection, instancing the present tariff as his conception of the term.

The member for Welland could not understand why there should have been any great haste about the proposals. The people of the United States had decided only recently that there must be a reduction in the duties. Would it not have been better in view of the circumstances, to have waited for the new Congress to come in. This Congress would probably have given Canada as much for nothing in return and the Canadian tariff would not have been disturbed. Canada would cut a small figure if the agreement did not go through the extra session of Congress. Mr. German believed it would not go through.

Dealing briefly with the manner in which, in his opinion, the agreement would affect the business-interests of the country, Mr. German said that the business men had expressed their opinion emphatically. Fully nine out of every ten were opposed to the agreement.

F. B. Carvell (Carlton, N.B.), gave expression to the enthusiastic reception which the trade proposals had met with in the Maritime Provinces. He criticized the "leader of the eighteen" in Toronto, who condemned reciprocity, and yet financed the cotton crop with Canadian millions. He did not think Mr. Sifton spoke for the West.

A lot of nonsense had been talked about wheat. Our wheat would go through the United States in future, we were told. Yet last year, out of 26,000,000 bushels that went by the United States 19,000,000 passed through Fort William. It was simply one-half of the wheat being shipped from St. John was American wheat. He then reviewed the attempts of the railways to improve their through routes, and declared when these were all completed there would be no question as to the carrying of Canadian wheat by Canadian channels.

W. S. Middlebro (N. Grey) could not see any analogy between free trade in England and Canada. He thought the prices of natural products would be equalized and the farmers get no advantage.

A BRUTAL OUTRAGE

Two Men Chloroform Woman and Then Rob Her.

Toronto, March 3.—Carl Epstein and Charles Sadler, both about 33 years of age and hailing from Montreal, are in the jail while the police are investigating their records. Mrs. Lena Miller, 19 years, is in a serious condition at her home at 1 Plymouth avenue as the result of a brutal assault committed upon her by the two men here early yesterday morning. The men have admitted their guilt and made a confession. The crime was discovered when the woman rushed into the street about two o'clock in the morning screaming. She told neighbors who were awakened that two men, one of whom had been staying at her home, had set upon her and reduced her to unconsciousness by the use of chloroform.

An alarm was sent to the Court street station and to the St. Andrew's market station and Detectives Cronin and Mitchell set out to locate the perpetrators. Both were arrested and arraigned in the Police Court.

Epstein pleaded guilty to administering chloroform with intent to commit an indictable offence to which Sadler pleaded not guilty. Both pleaded guilty to robbery with violence.

In his confession, Epstein declared that he had been taken to the house by the husband who is now in Syracuse, N.Y. He had stayed there and became very friendly with Mrs. Miller. He told her that he had a friend a commercial traveler, who sold silk skirts and from whom she could get skirts at her own price and that he would bring the man up.

He arranged with Sadler to bring along a skirt which Sadler stole from a house where he had been rooming at 12 Parliament street. At 10:30 Wednesday night Sadler went into the King Edward drug store and bought an ounce of chloroform, saying it was to kill a dog. Epstein waited outside. They then went to the Miller house and the woman answered the door. Epstein said he had brought his friend with the skirt and asked her to try it on. This was after one o'clock. She did, and when she came out Epstein grasped her by the throat and pressed a handkerchief saturated with the chloroform over her mouth and nose. He says that Sadler took the $51 from her stocking and that they then took also her person lamb coat and a revolver.

Sadler kept the coat and revolver and $5, while Epstein took $46. Sadler's story agrees with this save that he denies taking the money. Epstein was arrested in the west end and Sadler was got on his way to the Parliament street house. Both had their share of the spoils upon them when taken.

The penalties for both offences with which they are charged are life imprisonment and whipping. Magistrate Denison is not sure that he has power to try the case and the men may have to be sent on to a higher court.

Dastardly Outrage

Bowmanville, March 3.—Four men went to Thomas Bradley's house in the Township of Clarke on Sunday night last about nine o'clock, called Bradley out and said they were lost and wanted feed for two horses. Bradley had to go about forty yards to get hay for them, two men went with him and two remained in the barn. When he reached the other barn, he heard his wife screaming loudly. He ran back, accompanied by the two men who went with him, but when he reached the house, the other two men had disappeared. They had made improper advances to his wife, but she managed to get away from them, and they took flight on hearing Bradley returning. The two who had accompanied him took their departure too, but about 11 o'clock two of them returned, gained admission to Bradley's house, knocked him down, and one man held him while the other assaulted his wife. Then the other man held Bradley first, assaulted his wife. Bradley came to town on Tuesday and reported the circumstances. Chief Jarvis went down and from the description given, arrested two men, named McManus, about 27 years of age, and Luther Brown, about 30. He brought them to Bowmanville jail, where they are now confined. They will appear before Magistrate Horsey.

Federal Union Movement

Toronto, March 3.—That the movement aiming at federal rather than organic union of the churches is one to be seriously reckoned with, was made clear by the character of the meeting held in the Church House of New St. Andrew's, King street, yesterday afternoon, when a permanent organization, to be known as the Presbyterian Association for the Federal Union of the Churches, was formed. The attendance was larger and representative, including many elders, not only of Toronto, but outside districts. Dr. McLeod of Barrie again presided, and Rev. A. H. McGillivray acted as secretary.

Big Hotel Scheme

Montreal, March 3.—E. H. Ford, Canadian manager of the Ford Iron Co., and representing an English syndicate, announced yesterday that they will spend $1,250,000 in building summer hotels outside the prominent cities of the Dominion. They have a property at Sennerville, near Montreal, and opposite Sir Edward Colston's property, and the hotel will be ready for occupation this summer.

Toronto, Winnipeg, Ottawa and Vancouver are included in the list of cities in which agents are now looking for a site.

Want to Stay in Canada.

Kingston, March 3.—United States Consul Johnston has been taking evidence of captains and engineers who claim American citizenship, but reside in Canada. Some of them are trying to get the United States Government to re-issue licenses to them, allowing to continue their residence here. It is scarcely likely the request will be granted. Some of the captains made an appeal to Hon. Mr. Harty to take up the matter with the Dominion authorities.

WILL ASK FOR LOAN

Ontario Government Wants Five and a Half Millions.

STUDHOLME ON THE CARPET

T. T. Smellie Is After Labor Man For Calling Legislators "Loafers"—J. C. Elliott's Bill to Make Motorists Prove Negligence Is Defeated—Hon. Mr. MacKay Criticizes the Taxation of Railways.

Toronto, March 3.—Five and a half million dollars will be the amount of the new provincial loan. Hon. Col. Matheson, Provincial Treasurer, made the public announcement at the opening of the Ontario Legislature yesterday afternoon.

Two million dollars will be for the contemplated extension of the Hydro-Electric power transmission line to Windsor and to other points outside of the original circuit proposed.

Two million is to cover the extension of the T. & N. O. Railway to Porcupine, and for the extension to Callander to connect with the Grand Trunk Pacific main line.

One million and a half dollars is required to be kept available for heavy payments on capital account, which mature during the early part of the year, while the heavy receipts are received towards the close of the year.

T. T. Smellie, Fort William (Con.), raised a question of privilege. According to a newspaper report the honorable member for East Hamilton, speaking at the Labor Temple on the previous night, had referred to the members of the House as "a lot of loafers."

The facts were, said Mr. Smellie, that the members of the House had sat for hours listening to Mr. Studholme when he was "talking twaddle."

Sir James Whitney interrupted Mr. Smellie, pointing out that comment or debate was out of order. The procedure was for the attention of the House to be called to the matter without debate, and for it to be taken up on the following day.

Mr. Studholme: I am very glad the matter has been brought up.

Sir James Whitney: "So am I."

C. N. Anderson, South Essex, withdrew his bill to amend the Game and Fisheries Act, to shorten the season for duck shooting in Essex and Kent Counties.

Sir James Whitney requested him to do so, because if it were necessary to make special provision in one instance it should be done with regard to every country in the province.

Mr. Anderson also withdrew his bill to increase the jurisdiction of division court judges, upon the request of Hon. J. J. Foy.

J. C. Elliott's (West Middlesex) bill to amend the Voters' List Act, giving the Court of Revision power to strike from the voters' list the names of persons who have lost their qualifications, was given a second reading; but his bill to make drivers of motor vehicles liable for accidents occasioned to other persons or property on country highways, unless the motor owner could prove that it was due to the injured person's negligence, was lost on division.

Hon. W. J. Hanna at first advised Mr. Elliott to withdraw it, saying that it placed the motor owner under a tremendous liability and made it absolutely necessary for him to prove negligence on the other person's part or he be assessed for damages.

Hon. A. G. MacKay said that the supplementary revenue act, the third reading of which was moved by Hon. Col. Matheson, did not go far enough in raising the taxation on railways. It only began to nibble at them.

The railways, the Provincial Treasurer pointed out, had also to pay municipal taxes. The clause as proposed was carried.

A number of members on both sides of the House put in a plea against all trotting horse meetings being taxed, and the clause was allowed to stand for further consideration.

Mr. Gamby secured delay with respect to the taxation of stock transfers. The member for Manitoulin said there are lots of stocks that are selling at a few cents which are just as good value at the price as C.P.R. stock or any bank stock, and much better than the Farmers' Bank stock.

A Doctors' Trust.

Chicago, March 3.—In an address before the American Medical Association yesterday Prof. Charles R. Henderson of the University of Chicago advocated the formation of a "doctors' trust." He said that through such an agency "the public would be freed from quacks and charlatans."

"Free competition in each calling has limits of usefulness," said Prof. Henderson. "A doctors' trust is desirable on certain conditions: It must admit all who are competent; it must use fair tests to exclude all others and its charges must not be prohibitive to the poor."

Cornwall Fire Brigade Resigns.

Cornwall, March 3.—Cornwall's volunteer fire brigade resigned Wednesday. For some time past, several years in fact, there has been friction between the brigade and the Town Council over the question of remuneration, and last year the brigade sent in a statement of what they required, a grant of $700 to the brigade, $800 to the chief, new uniforms for the brigade of twenty men and suitable sleeping quarters at the firehall.

A month or so ago they gave notice that unless some agreement was reached by March 1 the brigade would resign, and they have carried out their threat.

Gets Forty More.

Kansas City, Mo., March 3.—Andy Spaulding, known in police circles as a "daylight robber," yesterday was sentenced to forty years in prison for robbing a house of jewels valued at $110. Spaulding is 45 years old. He has spent 25 years in prison.

BRIEFS FROM THE WIRES

Seamen threaten a strike at time of coronation. Plague and famine are said to have caused 30,000 deaths in China. Alfred Freed was fined $160 at Cobalt for having eight beaver pelts in his possession. The veto bill passed the second reading in the British Commons by a majority of 125.

Charles Touxer of Wellington swallowed wood alcohol in mistake for medicine and died from it. The late Sir William Butler in his autobiography accuses the British of causing the South African war.

A. H. Shaw, Minnedosa, was elected grand master, and E. D. Ewart, Stockton, deputy grand master of the Manitoba L.O.O.F. yesterday.

An Ottawa citizen complains that he was put out of the House of Commons gallery for applauding when Hon. Clifford Sifton arose to speak.

Miss Ethel Coleman, playing with a "Ben Hur" company, was asphyxiated at Joplin, Mo. Her remains were buried at Belleville, where she lived.

The death yesterday of Harry Murby, well known as a commission dealer in live stock at the Toronto western cattle market, removed a popular business man. His end was unexpected.

One of the oldest Ontario pioneers passed away in Toronto on Tuesday, in the person of Horace Secord, a nephew of Laura Secord, the heroine of 1812. The late Mr. Secord was in his 87th year.

One man was slightly injured by jumping from a first storey window and $5,370 damage was done by a fire which started on the stairway of 33 West Hurontario street, Toronto, yesterday afternoon.

Joe O'Rourke of Jeffrey street, Chatham, awoke at an early hour yesterday morning to find the bed in which he was sleeping a mass of flames and his body burned and blistered from his waist to his head.

Agents have been going through Adams, Lobo and Williams Townships of Middlesex County, endeavoring to lease the apple orchards. They have met with good success on a basis of $30 an acre per year.

The troops stationed at Springhill, N.S., on account of the strike by coal miners, were called out yesterday to suppress a fierce riot arising out of the staving of the houses of strikers who have returned to work.

A search yesterday resulted in the seizure of a number of bottles filled with draught gin, and also of counterfeit seals and a quantity of sealing wax at the grocery store of J. A. C. Marnier, 16 Roy street east, Montreal.

At yesterday's meeting of the Montreal Chambre de Commerce a resolution was unanimously adopted setting forth the attitude of the chamber as absolutely opposed to the putting into effect of the Long Sault dam project.

Princess Di Tigena, a lady-in-waiting to Queen Helena, niece of Marquis Di San Giuliano, the Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, was murdered yesterday in a small hotel in Rome by Lieut. Baron Paterno, a cavalry officer, who then shot himself.

A Sherlock Holmes.

Kingston, March 3.—Two months ago John Pidgeon had his skull stolen from the boat house. He worked on the case quietly himself, located the gang who had taken the boat and ordered them to leave it in a certain yard on Wednesday night so that he could get it. They did so, and now Pidgeon is being congratulated on his work as a Sherlock Holmes. He has handed the case over to the police.

INFORMATION by TELEPHONE

PEOPLE are not leaving so much P to chance in these days of universal telephone service. Instead of risking disappointment they telephone and get the facts.

Will school be held on a stormy morning, will your friend be in if you call, what does the weather man predict and when does the train leave—are samples of myriads of questions constantly passing over the wire, and being answered by the proper authorities.

There are also questions to be asked about the telephone service, how somebody can be reached over the Bell Long Distance Telephone and what it will cost, and similar questions, which are being answered by the information operators.

SURPRISE PARTY.—A very pleasant surprise party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wicklin Haskill, Bramley street, last evening. Euchre and other games were enjoyed, while a merry little dance added to the pleasure.

SCRIBNER FOR MARCH.—An actual worker on the line of the Grand Trunk Pacific, which is reaching out across the continent, will describe in the March Scribner the stirring life of "The Makers of the Grade." The article was written at a desolate station far north of Lake Nipigon.

TRUSTS IN GERMANY.—How trusts are fostered by the German government in order to advance to commercial supremacy of that country, will be explained in the March Scribner by Elmer Roberts. The whole question is solved from a point of view opposed to the one now prevailing in America.

BIG TASK.—If Col. Sam Hughes keeps on he will earn the designation of the modern Dillard, the hero of the Long Sault. He and Dr. Reid together have set themselves to save the St. Lawrence from "dam" nation.—Ottawa Free Press.

OBITUARY.—Mr. Wm. Campbell, of Balfour, passed away Thursday of last week at the age of 61 years. For some years he had been completely deaf. Mr. J. C. Campbell, the auctioneer, and another son besides the widow are left to mourn his death. Mr. Alex. Campbell, reeve of Hamilton, is a brother. The interment took place at Harwood on Saturday.

WILL ENTERTAIN.—The Brotherhood of St. Paul's Presbyterian Church will hold a concert on Monday evening, March 13, 1911, in the S. S. Hall. A splendid program consisting of solos, duets, recitations, quartettes, dialogues and musical numbers has been prepared. Admission 15 cents. td

HARD TO PLEASE.—We have been knocking around the world trying to get markets for our products, and have treaties with Germany, France and other nations. Now, when there is opened to us the greatest market in the world, the United States, with 100,000,000 of people, some are kicking. It is hard to please everyone.—Kingston Standard.

BALMORAL HOTEL SOLD.—The Balmoral Hotel was bought this week by Mr. D. A. Moon, manager of the Hotel Bowman, from Mr. R. T. Blatchford, Toronto, who bought it at the auction sale some weeks ago. Recently the board of directors of Hotel Bowman bought the Balmoral from Mr. Moon and had Messrs. F. H. Mason and F. F. Morris taking an inventory of the furniture and other contents. It is expected to change hands at once.—Bowmanville News.

BOOKS A GOOD INVESTMENT.—Judge Jacob Klein of St. Louis collected during his life time about 4,000 volumes. His library represented the work of fifty years' careful discrimination. It abounded in rare first editions and manuscripts. In his will he suggested that the library be sold at auction; that it might enrich other collectors and in years to come be the benefit and pleasure of other readers and collectors. At the first sale, a first edition of Byron sold for $425. The manuscript of Bret Harte, "A ward of the golden," sold for $750. A letter of Nathaniel Hawthorne to his sister brought $90. The whole collection will bring at least $15,000 for the family, showing that investment in books is not a bad way to store up money.

JUDGE THRASHED PRISONER.—A prisoner was brought up before Police Judge Menefee of Stanford, in Kentucky, charged with intoxication. When the judge imposed a fine which was to be worked out on the road, the prisoner protested. He said, "Judge, I got enough lickings when I was a kid and I liked them so well that I would rather take an old-fashioned thrashing right now than to work out my fine." Judge Menefee is good-natured and philosophic, so he adjourned court to the public square where he tied the prisoner to an oak tree and thrashed him with a horsewhip until he was tired. The prisoner roared for mercy, while a big crowd gathered and cheered the judge in his new position of lord high executioner. Why isn't this a good way to settle a much-needed point of law. There is many a tramp to whom imprisonment is only a recreation, but he can be reached with a gad.

CANCER OF THE LEG.—James Gibson, son of Mr. Robt. Gibson, Carmel, was taken to Peterboro Hospital on Monday for an operation on his leg which was thought to be tubercular. It was found in cutting into it that it was cancer, and very little hope is held out of recovery. What makes it particularly sad is that his sister, Mrs. Fred Challice was buried only a few days ago.
