POLICE COURT

The Docket Was Large—McGarrey Sent To Central Prison For Six Months—Freeman Sent Down For Sixty Days.

Escaped Convict From Central Taken Back.

The Police Court docket was larger than usual this morning, and Magistrate White was kept busy for an hour and a half.

James McGarrey was the first on the list, and he was charged with stealing a pair of boots valued at $4.00, the property of Mr. J. B. Gould.

Mr. Gould told of McGarrey taking the boots from the stand in front of his store yesterday morning. He followed the prisoner out the Midland track and located him near Rosevear's coal office. He handed the boots over and asked not to have any trouble about it.

McGarrey told the court that he had been drinking, and could not remember anything about it. He pleaded hard for another chance and promised to do better.

The Chief had been busy yesterday looking up McGarrey's record, and learned that he was released from the Whitty jail only on Monday last. McGarrey very reluctantly admitted that this was true, and that he was arrested on that occasion for stealing.

His Honor remarked men of McGarrey's type were a danger to the community, and he intended to put a stop to this work. The prisoner was sent to the Central for six months at hard labor.

James McDonald who was with McGarrey when the Chief found him and a similar charge of theft was laid against him. He pleaded not guilty and stated that he was not with McGarrey when the boots were stolen and, in fact, knew nothing about the theft. He was allowed to go but advised to keep better company.

A wheelbarrow is quite a common article and there is not a great deal of difference in the styles. It was in May, 1910 that Mr. J. H. Magill lost his wheelbarrow and he then reported the matter to Chief Bond. The Chief, however, was unable to locate it, but on Thursday he had occasion to visit Robert Freeman's residence on Cavan street.

In the woodshed he spied a wheelbarrow and the thought at once struck him that it was Mr. Magill's. He took Mr. Magill to the place and he recognized the barrow as his own. As a consequence Freeman had to answer to a charge of theft this morning and, as usual, entered a plea of "not guilty. It was only yesterday that Freeman was in court for stealing coal from Guest Bros. His story then was that he found the coal on the Midland track and although His Honor did not believe the story he dealt leniently with the prisoner and allowed him to go on suspended sentence.

Freeman came back strong again this morning with the story that he found the barrow on the track. The Court, however did not take it in and Freeman will spend the next sixty days in the Counties jail at Cobourg.

Robert Ball, the convict, who escaped from Central Prison was taken back this afternoon by Mr. Clancey, one of the prison officials. Ball was serving time for theft and begged to be allowed to go to the farm. He was taken there on Monday and remained there only one day when he escaped.

See Gould's west window display of suits. These prices should appeal to you.

CORRESPONDENCE.

We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by our correspondents.

To the Editor of THE GUIDE:

DEAR SIR,—In your report of the Council proceedings this week I noticed the proposal to increase both Chief Bond's and Mr. Tozer's salaries, but was surprised that Mr. Chesher's name was omitted. Was this an oversight or was Mr. Chesher too modest to ask for an increase?

If he has discharged his duties as Tax Collector, Market Clerk and Constable, satisfactorily during the year 1910. Why should he not be considered as well as the other officials? If it is true that he has saved the town by his faithfulness an amount as compared with his predecessor, equivalent to his entire salary, surely we should show our gratitude. According to the report for last year he discharged the difficult duties of Tax Collector with ability and marked success, and in every way has shown himself a capable officer.

He deserves credit for the manner in which he keeps the Town Hall and parks, and last but not least, his duties as constable should be remembered. He has rendered good services in this capacity. It was only yesterday that I had the opportunity of knowing what good work he was capable of doing. An escaped convict from the Central prison was thought to be in town. Mr. Chesher was detailed to look him up, which he did in a clever manner and landed him in the lock-up.

I feel sure that the ratepayers would desire our representatives to show their appreciation for work so well done.

Yours respectfully,

Port Hope, March 4th, '11.

SPORTING SKITS

HOCKEY.

In the first of home and home games for the Provincial championship, Galt defeated Port Hope at Galt last night by a score of 8 to 4. At the end of the second period the score was 4 to 4, but the better condition of the western team told in the last period and they scored four shutting the locals out. Added to this was some very bad decisions by Referee Clark. The teams were:

It will be a great match here on Tuesday night. Galt will be here with four goals to the good, but the locals feel confident of overcoming this. The battle will commence at 8.15 sharp. Secure your seat at once. Plan at the rink.

BAND TO-NIGHT.—The band will be at the rink this evening. There is a fine sheet of ice and a large crowd is expected.

Deputy Reeve Patterson, and Councillor Russell, have returned from Toronto, where they have been attending the Good Roads Convention.

PASSED AWAY.—Mrs. S. Woods, Walton street, received word this morning of the death of her brother, Mr. Charles Byrd. Mr. and Mrs. Byrd left Montreal early in January for Nassau, Bahama Islands, hoping Mr. Byrd's health would improve, and only yesterday Mrs. Woods received a letter from him saying he felt better.

The Healthfulness of Tea

Physicians who often forbid the use of Coffee and Cocoa to the well, prescribe tea for the sick. Of the three, tea is the only beverage that can be drunk for a lifetime without injurious effects. It is a harmless tonic—a gentle stimulant without reaction.

As tea is the most desirable beverage, so "Salada" is tea in its most desirable form.

"Salada" Ceylon Tea comes from tea plant to tea pot untouched by human hands, from the time the leaves fall into the picker's baskets. Its delicate aroma and delicious flavor are perfectly preserved in sealed, air-tight packages.

Ask your grocer for "Salada" Tea or send for a free trial package which makes 25 cups of delicious tea. We will mail it to you without charge. Say whether you use Black, Mixed or Green Tea and the price you pay per pound.

A TROUBLESOME MISGIVING

When Godwin had taken a resolve, there was no domestic influence strong enough to prevent his acting upon it. Mrs. Peak's ignorance of the world, her mild passivity and the faith she had in her son's intellectual resources, made her useless as a counsellor, and from no one else—now that Mr. Gunney was dead—would the young man have dreamt of seeking guidance. Whatever Lady Whitelaw's reply, he had made up his mind to go to London. Should his subsidy be refused then he would live on what his mother could allow him until—probably with the aid of Christian Moxey—he might obtain a salaried position. The letter was despatched, and with feverish impatience he awaited a reply.

Nine days passed, and he heard nothing. Half that delayed sufficed to bring out all the self-tormenting capacities of a nature such as his. To his mother's conjectural explanations he could lend no ear. Doubtless Lady Whitelaw (against whom, for subtle reasons, he was already prejudiced) had taken offence; either she would not reply at all, or presently there would come a few lines of polite displeasure, intimating her disinclination to aid his project. He silently raged against the woman. Her neglect was insolence. Had she not delicacy enough to divine the anxiety natural to one in his dependent position? Did she take him for an every-day writer of mendicant appeals? His pride fed upon the outrage and became fierce.

Then arrived a small glossy envelope, containing a tiny sheet of very thick note-paper, whereon it was written that Lady Whitelaw regretted her tardiness in replying to him (caused by her absence from home), and hoped he would be able to call upon her, at ten o'clock next morning, at the house of her sisters the Misses Lumb, where she was stopping for a day—she remained his sincerely.

Having duly contorted this note into all manner of painful meanings Godwin occupied an hour in making himself presentable (scornful that he should deem such trouble necessary), and, with furiously beating heart set out to walk through Twybridge. Arrived at the house, he was led by a servant into the front room on the ground floor, where Lady Whitelaw, alone, sat reading a newspaper. Her features were of a very common order, and nothing distinguished her from middle-aged women of average refinement; she had chubby hands, rather broad shoulders, and no visible waist. The scrutiny she bestowed upon her visitor was close. To Godwin's feelings it too much resembled that with which she would have received an applicant for the post of footman.

Yet her smile was friendly enough and no lack of civility appeared in the repetition of her excuses for having replied so late.

"Let us talk about this," she began, when Godwin was uneasily seated. (She spoke with an excess of precision, as though it had at one time been needful for her to premeditate polished phrases.) "I am very sorry you should have to think of quitting the College; very sorry indeed. You are one of the students who do honour to the institution."

This was pleasant, and Godwin felt a regret of the constraint that was upon him. In his endeavour not to display a purring smile, he looked grim, as if the compliment were beneath his notice.

"Pray don't think," she pursued, "that I wish you to speak more fully about the private circumstances you refer to in your letter. But do let me ask you: Is your decision final? Are you sure that when the vacations are over you will see things just as you do now?"

"I am quite sure of it," he replied. The emphasis was merely natural to him. He could not so govern his voice as to convey the respectful regret which at this moment he felt. A younger lady, one who had heightened the charm of her compliment with subtle harmony of tones and strongly feminine gaze, would perhaps have elicited from him a free confession. Gratitude and admiration would have made him capable of such frankness. But in the face of this newspaper-reading woman (yes, he had unaccountably felt it jar upon him that a lady should be reading a newspaper), under her matronly smile, he could do no more than plump out his "quite sure."

To Lady Whitelaw it sounded altogether too curt; she was conscious of her position as patroness, and had in fact thought it likely that the young man would be supposed to gratify her curiosity in some measure.

"I can only say that I am sorry to hear it," fell from her tightened lips, after a moment's pause.

Instantly Godwin's pride expelled the softer emotion. He pressed hard with his feet upon the floor, every nerve in his body tense with that distressing passion peculiar to the shyly arrogant. Regard him, and you had imagined he was submitting to rebuke for an offence he could not deny.

Lady Whitelaw waited. A minute almost, and Peak gave no sign of opening his mouth.

"It is certainly much to be regretted," she said at length, coolly. "Of course, I don't know what prospects you may have in London, but, if you had remained at the College, something advantageous, would no doubt have offered before long"

AN ELECTRIC ROAD

The C. P. R. have performed their little trick of forsaking the old chartered route through Northumberland for a new line along the front, it will now be in order for the progressive men of Cobourg, Warkworth, Campbellford and other places, to build an electric road through these United Counties. Northumberland and Durham are two of the finest counties in Ontario and they possess every element to ensure the success of an electric railroad.

Contrary to what the C. P. R. engineers have said as to the grades between here and Cobourg, there are engineers who say that a fine route may be established over the old Cobourg and Northumberland survey, comparatively free from grades, for electrically propelled cars. Some sort of a plea had to be advanced in order to abandon the old charter, so the C. P. R. engineers saddled it upon what they call grades.

Electric roads are paying handsomely in Western Ontario, where there are grades as well as here, and they are branching out in every direction. Is it not then to be wondered at that eastern Ontario is so slow to follow in similar enterprises? It is hoped the public-spirited and progressive men of these Counties will rise up and secure a charter for an electric road, and in a few years liberate themselves from every oppression of the roads now in existence.—Campbellford Herald.

THE LIQUOR LICENSE ACT

Tax on All Receipts of Bar in Excess of $40.00 Per Day.

Two of the most important bills in connection with the liquor situation in the Province of Ontario which have been introduced in the Legislature for many years, were given their first readings the other day, after an explanation by the Hon. W. J. Hanna, Provincial Secretary. The first bill is one to amend the Liquor License Act, and the second to regulate the sale of liquor by chemists.

The principal proposal in the former bill is a stipulation that every bar in the Province must pay to the Provincial Secretary's Department five per cent of all bar receipts over and above $40 per day.

The second Act, with respect to chemists, provides that when a chemist is convicted of keeping liquor on his premises for sale, and charged with a second offence, he shall be handed over to the Ontario College of Pharmacy, which shall cancel his license to practice as a chemist.

CAN'T DISMISS MEN

G.N.W. Must Await Award of Conciliation Board.

TO MAINTAIN STATU QUO

Telegraphers Are Preparing Their Case to Put Before the Arbitrators When They Meet and Until a Decision Is Reached the Summary Dismissals Must Be Discontinued, Says President.

Toronto, March 4.—International President S. J. Konenkamp of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union left last night for Chicago, where he was hurriedly called to confer with federated labor leaders in the matter of the telephone operators of that city, who are seeking affiliation with the telegraphers' union.

As announced yesterday, the committee representing the majority of the Great North-western Co.'s telegraphers, applied for a board of conciliation under the Lemieux Act. This course was made necessary owing to the company's failure to meet the operators' representatives to discuss their grievances.

As provided for in the Lemieux Act, after application has been made to the Government for a board, a condition of statu quo will prevail between the contending parties, until a decision has been reached by the conciliators. This means, the men say, that the G.N.W. will be compelled to stop the summary measures they have been using in dismissing the men, at least for the time being.

T. W. Carroll, a high official of the Western Union, who was here last week, is credited with saying that while he did not like the idea of unions dictating their wage scales, that it was the policy of the Western Union to pay as good, if not better, wages than the opposition company. The G.N.W. bears the same relation to the Western Union as the C.P.R. does to the Postal or Mackay Company in the United States.

The local C.P.R. telegraphers are receiving from 15 to 20 per cent. higher wages than the G.N.W. men.

President Konenkamp will be back on Monday to complete the gathering of data which will be necessary when the board of conciliation meet.

Struck by Auto.

Toronto, March 4.—As a result of being knocked from his bicycle by a speeding automobile on Bloor street near Clinton, at 10.30 last night, Edward Jacobs of 399 Clinton street is lying in Grace Hospital seriously injured, while the two men whose recklessness caused the accident are badly wanted by the police.

The automobile was exceeding the speed limit, and smashed into him, throwing him to the ground and pinning him in the mechanism of the machine.

Bystanders saw the men, who appeared to be under the influence of liquor, jump to the ground, and by main force wrench the unconscious man from beneath the car.

No time was lost in informing the police, and Dr. E. B. Hardy, at the corner of Bloor street and Euclid avenue. He administered first aid and telephoned for the ambulance.

At an early hour this morning the hospital physician said that the man was out of danger, though recovery from his many injuries would be very slow.

Elevated Railroad For Montreal.

Montreal, March 4.—That an effort is being made to obtain a charter to build an elevated railroad along Craig street, from one end of the city to the other, is confirmed by W. R. Powell, general manager of the Montreal & Southern Counties Railway, but Mr. Powell says that it is not the Montreal & Southern Counties which is looking for the charter.

"The name of the thing," said Mr. Powell, "is to be, I believe, The Elevated Rapid Transit Co." There is some Montreal bond broker interested, but I understand that he is merely

CLEAR-CUT AND CONVINCING SPEECH

Deficit of $553,363.25—Vigorous Colonization Policy for Northern Ontario Advocated—Industrial Education—Scarcity of Teachers—Reforestation—Reciprocity and Other Subjects Eloquently Dealt With.

Education.

Just a word or two on education: This House was not divided on the debate on the address; but I then dealt fully with the question of education, and I therefore at present do not purpose to deal at length with this question, but for the purposes of my amendment to the present motion to go into supply the two debates might very well be considered as conjoined, thus to avoid the necessity of repetition. That educational affairs, particularly so far as the rural schools are concerned, have been badly muddled is not even seriously denied by Conservative members. As to the scarcity of teachers honorable gentlemen opposite express different views; one member expressed the hope that in two years matters would properly adjust themselves, while the honorable member for East Peterborough says, that in five years time there will be a sufficient supply of teachers. This, Sir, is decidedly encouraging, yes, even refreshing! We pleaded with the Government for several successive sessions, when they had determined against our protest, to abolish the model schools, that they should not wipe them out at one stroke. We pleaded for at least a survival of the fittest in order that there might be a sufficient number left to supply qualified teachers for all our schools. Both our advice and our pleadings fell upon reluctant and unappreciative ears. The result is that about twenty or twenty-five per cent of the rural schools in the Province of Ontario to-day are in the hands of unqualified teachers. That, Sir, is the result of the Government's sinning against advice and against oft-repeated warnings. We pointed out over and over again that a large percentage of our normal trained teachers go west to teach in the western provinces, and taking that fact with the fact of the wiping out of the model schools there was bound to be a dearth of teachers. The education report for 1909 shows that 600 teachers left the Province of Ontario for the west. The honorable member for East Peterborough, as I have already stated, expressed the opinion that in five years there will be a sufficient number of teachers. I beg, Sir, to introduce the honorable member to his own riding, that of East Peterborough.

East Peterborough.

Richard Lees, the Public School Inspector for East Peterborough, under date of January 24th, 1911, submitted a report to the County Council, in which he says that last year out of the total rural schools of that riding, numbering 77, there were 27 teachers holding second-class certificates, fifteen holding third-class certificates, six holding district certificates, and not less than thirty-one who were not regularly qualified; but who merely had permits and such other like temporary certificates. In other words, during the year 1910 forty-two per cent of the rural schools in the old riding of East Peterborough were in the hands of unqualified teachers. This is the direct result of the Premier's boast, that he had turned the educational system upside down. It is indeed, Sir, entirely too representing big interests who are behind the thing."

The general sentiment among the aldermen who were at the City Hall yesterday morning appeared to be opposed to the granting of the right to any company to build an elevated railway system through the city streets.

Honors For Peary.

Washington, March 4.—The plans of the friends of Capt. R. E. Peary to secure Congressional recognition of his polar achievements progressed rapidly yesterday when the House by a vote of 154 to 134 passed an amended Senate bill according him honors. The President is authorized to place him on the retired list of the corps of the civil engineers with the rank of rear-admiral, to date from April 6, 1909, and so as to tender the thanks of Congress for "his Arctic explorations resulting in reaching the North Pole."

The Czar's Good Intentions.

St. Petersburg, March 4.—In an imperial rescript published yesterday Emperor Nicholas announces his intention to complete his grandfather's work for the emancipation of the serfs by transforming the peasants into not merely free, but economically strong landowners. This may be achieved, the emperor says, by affording the peasants facilities to leave their communes and by improvement in agricultural science.

POWERS ARE FULL

Hydro-Electric Commission Will Control Wiring.

STUDHOLME IS EXONERATED

He Did Not Call Local Members "Loafers" But Was Simply Telling a Story—Commission to Be Given Full Charge of Poles, Conduits and Wires in Towns in Which Hydro Power is Used.

Toronto, March 4.—Sir James Whitney made an instructive statement with respect to the privileges of members at the sitting of the Ontario Legislative yesterday afternoon.

Mr. McNaught moved the first reading of a bill to amend the Hydro-Electric Power Commission Act.

It states that in all cases where, in the opinion of the commission, it is desirable that conduits should be laid or maintained or lines of poles erected upon any street on which other conduits or poles have previously been placed, the commission may order that, notwithstanding any law to the contrary, the poles, conduits or wires of any municipal corporation using the commission's power may be placed at such positions as the commission may order, notwithstanding the proximity of existing conduits or poles.

The commission is also given power to order that the wires of municipal companies may be attached to any existing poles where such poles are capable of carrying the additions, without injury to the property of existing companies.

Allan Studholme was exonerated by the Government regarding the complaint of one of the members that the member from East Hamilton had been quoted in the newspapers as having disrespectfully spoken of the members of the Legislature.

Mr. Studholme thanked the Premier for taking the common-sense view of the matter. He didn't say it and could bring 1,000 persons to swear that it was untrue.

Strike in Big Hotel. Toronto, March 4.—One of the largest hotel strikes in recent years in Toronto started yesterday, when over fifty waiters of the King Edward Hotel walked out without giving any notice.

Naughty Town. Montreal, March 4.—The crowded condition of the Montreal jail has made it necessary to transfer a number of the prisoners to Quebec.

His Thumb Cut Off. Cayuga, March 4.—Yesterday morning William Sadler, who was employed in A. Lymburner's saw mill, had his thumb completely taken off by a circular saw.

Some Going, This. Laredo, Texas, March 4.—A world's aviation record was broken between this city and Eagle Pass yesterday when Lieut. Bond D. Foulis, U.S.A., and Aviator Philip C. Paulmaie, drove an army aeroplane 106 miles in two hours and 7 minutes.

PAL GAVE HIM AWAY

And John Fisk Is Convicted of Murder at Calgary.

Calgary, Alta., March 4.—John Fisk was yesterday found guilty of murder for having assisted in the murder of an aged rancher, Tucker Peach, near here.

Fisk owes his predicament to another man implicated, John Mitchell Robertson. He will be tried later.

Last June a headless body was found fastened to a tree root in Bow River, thirty miles southeast of Calgary. There was no evidence of wounds except a little puncture in the body.

The next step in the tragic drama followed a report from Macleod that a man, while intoxicated, had told a girl that he knew about a murder near Calgary.

He said that on the morning of May 19 he and Fisk went to Peach's ranch, that Fisk drew a revolver and shot Peach as the latter was sitting in bed, and that Fisk then handed the weapon to him, Robertson, and told him to shoot also.

Fisk's defence was a general denial.

Farmers' Bank Case.

Toronto, March 4.—The charge of accepting Farmers' Bank notes as a pledge contrary to the provisions of the Bank Act will be heard in the Police Court March 7. This date was set yesterday morning when Hon. J. R. Stratton, J. J. Warren and W. S. Morden were called to answer the charge.

Upon the charge of conspiracy to secure an improper precedence over other creditors of the bank for the Trust & Guarantee Co., Matthew Wilson, K.C., and W. S. Morden was also laid over till that date.

The statement made yesterday that the conspiracy case already sent for trial will be heard in the May Assizes instead of in the sessions was yesterday confirmed. It is now doubtful if it will be possible to hold Travers here until that time. He is still held by Judge Winchester's order in the Munro case, but this will be disposed of before the Assizes sit, and it is now a question whether Travers will be sent back to Kingston in the interval.

For Woman's Suffrage.

Toronto, March 4.—Sir James Whitney and colleagues of the Ontario Government will receive a deputation at the Parliament Buildings to-day in support of the Studholme-Proudfoot Suffrage Bill.

C. Ward, president W.C.T.U.

Home Rule Bill. London, March 4.—Augustine Birrell, Chief Secretary for Ireland, speaking at Oxford last night, indicated that the Government's home rule for Ireland bill will be on the lines of Gladstone's second home rule measure, subject to modifications that time has shown will be wise and rational.

He said that the Government is now engaged in an enquiry into the financial position of Ireland, preparatory to granting home rule.

Couldn't Stand the Cost. New York, March 4.—The New Theatre, founded by wealthy New Yorkers for the artistic production of the best drama, is to be partially abandoned. The net losses during its two seasons have totaled more than $20,000.

FUNDY WAS OMITTED

U. S. Refused to Arbitrate It at The Hague.

SURPLUS WILL BE RECORD

Mr. Fielding Will Show a Balance to the Good of Thirty Million Dollars When He Makes His Budget Speech Next Month—Nova Scotia Brings Up the Fisheries' Award For Discussion.

Ottawa, March 4.—C. Jamieson (Digby) introduced a discussion in the Commons yesterday on the failure of The Hague tribunal's decision to apply to the Bay of Fundy, and asked by whose advice this important body of water had been omitted from the award.

Sir Alan Aylesworth said that the matter was closed when Lord Aberdeen in 1845 addressed a letter to the American ambassador at the Court of St. James, which, while maintaining the legal right of Great Britain to exclude foreign fishermen, agreed to relax these rights in so far as the fishermen of the United States are concerned.

Mr. Jamieson quoted from the correspondence referred to by Sir Alan, to prove that such was not its meaning. He said the fishermen of the bay were anxious to know what their rights are. If the bay was British territorial waters, Canada has the right to control the fisheries from shore to shore.

Sir Alan Aylesworth said that the burden of Mr. Jamieson's complaint was that something had been given away in regard to Canada's rights in the Bay of Fundy.

When Hon. Mr. Fielding makes his budget speech next month, according to present indications, the surplus of revenue over all expenditure on consolidated fund account should be in the neighborhood of thirty millions, or ten millions ahead of last year.

For the eleven months of the fiscal year the revenue has totalled $104,327,765, which is an increase of $14,618,245 over the corresponding eleven months of 1909-10, and nearly three millions more than for the whole of the preceding fiscal year.

For the whole of the present year it is estimated that the total revenue will run close to $117,000,000. Expenditure will probably be about $85,000,000.

Hotelmen to Raise Rates.

Toronto, March 4.—"The Government is simply declaring itself in as a partner in the profits of business. It takes a share of the profits, but assumes no responsibility for the losses," was the way one boniface expressed himself at a meeting of the Toronto Hotelkeepers' Association held yesterday afternoon at the King Edward Hotel, with President Wm. Macdonald in the chair.

After a full discussion, resolution of protest against the Government's proposals was passed without a dissenting voice. Steps will be taken to get the views of the hotelmen before the Government. Should these fail to receive consideration, a general increase in hotel rates will probably follow, as a committee was appointed at yesterday's meeting to draft a new schedule of hotel rates which would make up the losses imposed upon the trade by the five per cent. tax on war receipts, should the measure pass the Legislature.

Face Torn In Two.

Thornhill, March 4.—With his face split from the forehead to the lower jaw as the result of the bursting of a circular saw, Warren Page, the eldest son of Lewis Page, of the second concession of Vaughan Township is lying between life and death with physicians in attendance holding out no hope of recovery.

A remarkable feature of the injury is that the gash goes the full length of his face, and yet both of his eyes escaped injury.

Sees a New Moon.

Washington, March 4.—Having abandoned hope of seeing reciprocity passed by the present Congress, President Taft late yesterday, after returning from his usual afternoon walk, declared that he had noticed the setting sun, but that he also had seen a new moon in the heavens. The President has not decided when he will issue his proclamation calling the new Congress, nor has the date been fixed.

Coronation Party.

Ottawa, March 4.—The Canadian Parliamentary party which will go to the coronation will probably consist of thirteen members of the Commons and five Senators. Of the thirteen members of the Commons, eight will be Liberals and five Conservatives. The invitation from the British Government asked that eighteen members of Parliament be sent.

TO OPEN GREAT LAKES.

Taft Plans an International Deep Waterway.

Washington, March 4.—The Taft administration sprang a large surprise yesterday in connection with Canadian relations by proposing co-operation with Canada for the construction of a deep waterway from the great lakes to the Atlantic Ocean via the St. Lawrence, thus making ocean ports of lake cities in both countries, and reducing freight rates to the great advantage of the people of the interior.

The resolution for the first time makes public that it is the desire of the administration to open the great lakes to ships of the largest size. It is drawn in such terms, apparently, as to seek to enlist the support of Congress before this important step is negotiated by the executive end of the Government.

"This will be one of the great achievements of our time," said Mr. Townsend, in an interview, "and it will involve benefits to all the people of the great lake country, to Dakota and Montana, and in fact to all the prairie states, as well as to the great provinces of Canada, that will make the tariff features of the reciprocity agreement a mere minor incident. All of us have been startled when we first learned that it is cheaper for the wool-raiser of Utah to first ship his product across the mountains to Los Angeles and then back through Utah to Boston than to ship it direct from Utah to Boston. What makes this low rate between Los Angeles and Boston? Why the competition of ocean transportation. What, then, must be the benefit to the people of the interior of both Canada and this country if we can bring ocean competition into the heart of the American continent? The possibilities simply are enormous.

Terrific Explosion at Falls.

Niagara Falls, Ont., March 4.—Three men were killed and seven injured in an explosion at the generating station of the Ontario Power Co. below the dam, immediately at the base of the horseshoe falls yesterday morning.

The dead are: David Hendershot, Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Arthur Orchard, Niagara Falls, N.Y.; Chas. McGonigle, North Tonawanda.

The injured: Geo. Rowe, Chippewa, internal injuries; John Otto Carpenter, cut about body and face; Geo. Garvey, cut about face; James Nelson, cuts on head, body, hands; Henry Byron, scalp wounds; Robt. Moran, bruised about legs, scalp wounds; D. McKinnon, bruised about head and face.

The exact nature of the explosion has not been determined, but the idea of the majority of the officials of the power company, who have looked over the scene, is that it was caused by drillers opening a pocket of gas in the wheelpit under machines Nos. 8 and 9. The force of the explosion was terrific, tearing timbers and twisting steel supports. Hendershot, Orchard and McGonigle were working over the bulkhead in the valve chamber. They were frightfully mangled, death being instantaneous.

Hendershot was buried under a pile of debris and shattered timbers. His head was crushed in at the back and both legs and feet were shattered. Coroner Keilam will hold an inquest early next week.

Want More Troops.

Springhill, N.S., March 4.—Following the riot of Thursday quietness prevails at the mines. Men are standing around in groups discussing the situation, but no disturbance took place yesterday. Of twelve strikers who returned to work at the first of the week, five stayed at home, three of them because they would not face the hostile demonstration to which they were subjected Thursday, and two because of injuries sustained at the hands of the crowd. The two were Stephen Kenney, whose back was hurt by a stone, and Howan Koon, struck by a piece of ice in the back of the head.

The charge against Manager Sharpe, who was arrested by the town police, was "inciting to riot."

There will be a requisition for further troops to be sent to Springhill. The force now on the scene numbers 35 men. The strike has now continued for eighteen months.

Mass Meeting at Brockville.

Brockville, March 4.—Be it resolved that in the opinion of this meeting, the proposed reciprocity agreement will be a serious menace to the best interests of Canada and the British Empire, and should be opposed by all true Canadians of party allegiance.

The foregoing was the substance of a resolution adopted amid enthusiasm at a mass meeting of the citizens of Brockville and surrounding districts, held last night at the Victoria Hall, and presided over by H. A. Stewart, K.C. It was introduced at the close of stirring addresses by C. S. Goodwin, M.P., Richard Blain, M.P., Dr. Reid, M.P.P., P. A. Donovan, M.P.P., and John Webster.

Graft in Chicago Suburbs.

Chicago, March 4.—After investigating charges of graft and corruption at East Chicago and Indiana Harbor, Ind., suburbs, a grand jury returned thirty indictments yesterday and adjourned.

Among those named are Mayor A. G. Schlieker, Chief of Police Albert Lewis and City Clerk Walter Spencer of East Chicago, and Julius Friedman, alleged head of a conspiracy to collect tribute for the protection of vice.

The objection taken is that Teasdale has been placed at hard labor, though that was not mentioned in the adjudication, and that eight days were allowed to elapse between the adjudication and the sentencing.

Two canoes, one belonging to Mr. Curtis of the C. N. R., and the other to Mr. Samuel Gilchrist, and a skiff owned by Capt. Evans, were destroyed. A skiff of Mr. J. C. Clark's was saved from any damage.

ONE MONTH IN GAOL.—George Kemp was before the Police Magistrate on Monday, charged with the theft of a fur coat, the property of Albert Doidge of Plainville, from the Commercial hotel on Saturday afternoon. He was remanded until Wednesday. On Wednesday he came up again, and Mr. Doidge swore that he had hung up his fur coat at the Commercial Hotel while he took dinner. When ready to go home he went to get his coat. He saw the prisoner take down the coat and place it in a locker in the office of the hotel. He informed Chief Ruse and went with him to identify the man. Chief Ruse testified to arresting the prisoner. W. F. Kerr, County Crown Attorney, prosecuted. Magistrate Boggs sentenced the prisoner to one month in gaol.—Cobourg Star.

OBJECTED TO THE SUBWAY.—The Dominion Board of Railway Commissioners commenced its Toronto sittings in the General Sessions court room in Toronto on Saturday last (Feb. 25.) Judge Mabee, chairman of the Board, presided, and the other Commissioners present were Dr. Mills and Mr. D'Arcy Scott. A dozen farmers from concessions A and B of Northumberland County were present to protest against a granting of the application of the C.N.O. Railway to divert the Kingston road and side road near Cobourg, and construct an altered undercrossing under the tracks. The discussion of this clause consumed three-quarters of an hour, the farmers insisting that the proposed scheme means a "mantrap" at the crossing. Mr. Phippen represented the railway company. It was decided to settle the case in Cobourg on Friday, March 24th.

APPENDICITIS.—It is a curious fact appendicitis is almost epidemic in certain villages east and adjacent to Windsor, and much of the work of the city's surgeons consists in removing the member, which it is claimed has been placed in the human anatomy in order to provide a job for the surgeon. The prevalence of this disease and its cause would make a very interesting subject of inquiry for the pathologist. The straying of seeds or other foreign bodies into the appendix, has been given the cause, but the finding of any solid matter in the diseased sick is rare, if ever. What are the conditions in Belle River and Tecumseh, for example, that render the appendixes of their inhabitants liable to attack? Dr. Samson, if the Record remembers rightly, some years ago advanced the theory that appendicitis was due to a germ and infectious.—Windsor Record.
