Taking a Chance.

Bill Smith has got the measles
An' he dassent go out of doors;
He dassent go to school at all,
He dassent do no chores!
He's grinnin' in the window
When there's wood and stuff to bring—

Bill Smith has got the measles
An' I ain't got a thing.

George Pierce has got the brown-keetus,
An' he stays at home all day
Au' looks at funny papers
To pass the time away;

An' you should see the playthings
His pa and sisters bring
To him. He's got brownkeetus
An' I ain't got a thing.

Dick Ramsey's face is swole up,
For he has got the mumps;
His face ain't like a face much,
It's just a pair of bumps,
He's playin' in their dooryard
An' got a top an' string,
He's had the mumps a week now,
An' I ain't got a thing.

Fred Jones has got his arm broke
From fallin' down the stair;
I don't git no diseases
Nor git hurt anywhere;
I don't have luck at nothin',
An' I ain't never sick—
By jing! I'm gonna sneak off
An' go and play with Dick.

THAT DYNAMITE OUTRAGE

Dynamiters a Menace to Society Declares Chicago Paper.

Lewis F. Post, of the Chicago Public, is a friend of organized labor, but he takes a very sensible view of the recent arrest of the dynamiters when he says:—

"Arrests of union labor men for blowing up the building of a Los Angeles newspaper with dynamite and killing many persons, are reported this week quite sensationally. If these men are guilty no considerations of mercy not applicable to every criminal can be invoked in their behalf.

"Such crimes are diabolical under all circumstances in which they are committed with deliberation. They are a menace to society, they endanger the non-combatant, they put labor organization at a disadvantage which the legitimacy of its purpose can ill afford to bear in its already unequal contest with monopoly, and they make the way in-

River of Beer in Local Option Town

Acton, May 7.—Almost the whole town of Acton turned out yesterday to witness the unusual sight of a river of beer floating down a street of a "dry" town.

For some time the Dominion Hotel has been under the suspicion, and Provincial License Inspector Avearst has had men watching the premises. A week ago yesterday three officers, headed by the Inspector, raided the hotel and seized twenty cases of lager, one of which was on tap in the bar.

The cases were heard in the Town Hall yesterday, the presiding justices being Mr. H. P. Moore, of Acton and Mr. H. W. Kennedy, of Georgetown. The defendants were represented by Mr. J. Haverson, K. C., and the prosecution by Mr. T. L. Monahan. Six charges were preferred against William Lawson, the lessee of the bar, five for selling and one for keeping intoxicants. Convictions were registered in each case and the fines totalled $520. Lawson, however, was not present.

It is reported that he left Acton on the midnight train on Friday en route for Cheyenne, Wyoming. The proprietor of the hotel, Albert J. Lehnan, was fined $400 on two counts for selling, the fine in each case being $200. His son Norman, was also fined $100 for selling and a similar charge was laid against another son, Austin, also fined $100. The fines all told amounted to $1,120.

After the convictions had been registered the confiscated liquor was rolled out before the Town Hall, the officers knocked the head from the casks, and beer flowed freely thro' the streets. Quite a number of people were present with cameras.

THE MAN WHO PAYS.

The man who pays $10 or $15 a month rent for a house pays taxes to the city just as much as if he owned that property, coming down to the fine point. Why, then, should he not have a vote on money by-laws, instead of only the freeholders—the men who actually own the property and lease it to others at a price that pays taxes and other expenses and interest on the money invested.

It is part of the money that a man pays in renting a house that enters the city coffers each year. The man who pays rent is therefore just as much interested in the money by-laws, or should be, as he who is directly liable to the city, and gets the tax bills each month.

It is safe to say that if the rent-payers had been qualified to vote Tuesday, the Independent Tire Company by-laws would have carried easily. The ultimate consumer always pays, and the revenues raised by the municipality comes out of all citizens, in proportion to their station in life, the outward term what it may. The government's revenue comes out of the people, in accordance with the degree of comfort or luxury in which they live, the duties on the necessities for the masses being made as light as possible.

CAPT. DONALD MANSON DEAD

Veteran Lake Mariner Passes Away at Brantford.

Brantford, May 10.—Capt. Donald Manson, who came out from Scotland when 20 years, and sailed the lakes for forty years, died suddenly at his home here last night. He was 87 years old and came here 12 years ago from Port Hope, where for years he had been a prominent figure in Marine circles.

(Deceased was well known in Port Hope, having for years resided at the head of Dorset street and his many friends will be sorry to hear of his death.)

Final Warning.

"All automobiles and motorcycles, and any other power-driven vehicle, must carry lights at night." That is the law and those who violate it will be severely dealt with by the police authorities. The violation of not carrying lights will be considered as serious as speeding, and will be dealt with accordingly. For the last few weeks, since the motor season came in, several autos go around without lights and this is a final warning.

Big Sales at Horse Show

Two big sales were reported at the Ottawa horse show, the exhibition of ponies bringing forth purchasers, many of whom are residents of other cities. Mr. Charles Wilmut, of Belleville, disposed of his crack jumper, Bathgate, which has record of 6 feet 4 in., to a Nork York fancier, while Senator Beith sold his prize-winning pair of ponies to a Toronto advertising firm for $900. Several other important transactions are reported.

ALL QUIET—Everything was quiet in the Police Court circles today.

Mr. J. A. Culverwell, of Port Hope, the "Electric Power King" has been made a life member of the Engineers' Club of Toronto, the leading engineering society of the Province of Ontario. The Guide congratulates Mr. Culverwell on this new honor. Mr. Culverwell has made a complete engineering and financial success of his power companies in Central Ontario, both on the Trent and Otonabee Rivers, and in which although not now actively engaged, he has still a very large financial interest in the Electric merger. Mr. Culverwell is also an associate member of The American Institute of Electrical Engineers of New York, and recently was made a member of the Atlantic Deeper Waterways Association of Philadelphia, having delivered an address at Atlantic City on "The Trent Canal and the benefits of water transportation" while there taking a holiday. A prominent legislator has stated that Mr. Culverwell has secured stronger municipal official endorsement for his undertakings than any man in the history of Canada.

They Know They Are Beaten

Windsor, Ont., Record: Sir Frederick Borden, Minister of Militia, made the statement in Montreal that it would not be long before there was a general election and that it would be fought out on the question of reciprocity pact. What alarms the Conservatives is that reciprocity may come into force in time to give the people an opportunity to see its advantages.

ANOTHER AUCTION SALE.—Mr. Fred Dickinson is leaving town and will sell by auction all his choice furniture, &c., without reserve, at his place, east of the Henning terrace, Dorset street, on Wednesday next, May 17, at 1 o'clock. Jas. Kerr, Auct.

WHO WILL WIN—If Mr. J. H. Devitt, M. P. P., desires to retain those three honorary letters after his name he had better get busy with the Ontario Government to secure for Bowmanville and West Durham the location in his constituency of the new County Model School. Port Hope want it and Mr. J. J. Preston M. P. P., is trying to get it located in that town. Bowmanville has abundance of room in the High School Assembly Room, which would make a capital place for a Model School. There are two splendid class rooms in the Central School and one amply large in the South Ward School. We want the Model School and can offer better accommodation than any other town in the county. Isn't it about time, anyway, for Mr. Devitt to do something for his constituency? We venture the opinion that not one person in ten in Bowmanville, Darlington, Clarke and Newcastle could give the name of the Provincial member for West Durham, if asked. Get busy, Mr. Devitt.—Bowmanville Statesman.

HOUSE TO ADJOURN

Sir Wilfrid Makes Announcement in the Commons.

FROM MAY 23 TO JULY 18

The Premier Says He Is Unwilling to Leave the Heavy Burden of Work on the Shoulders of His Colleagues While He Is at Imperial Conference—Mr. Paterson's Civil Service Proposals Discussed.

Ottawa, May 11.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier announced in the Commons yesterday that Parliament would adjourn from May 23 to July 18. The fact that he had decided upon these dates after consultation with the leader of the Opposition was stated last week.

The Premier said that ten days ago the leader of the Opposition had drawn the attention of the House to the approaching Imperial Conference and the coronation of the King, and had alluded to certain rumors that he (the Premier) might not go to England for these events. Accordingly Mr. Borden had made three suggestions regarding the course which might be pursued in order to make possible the attendance of the Premier. The first of these was that the House should continue sitting, second, that Parliament should prorogue after completing its business, and third, that there should be an adjournment, the House previously voting sufficient supply to carry over the period of adjournment.

With regard to the second suggestion the Premier said it would be convenient to have the House prorogue with no part of the work undone; however, there still remained work to do. As to the first suggestion there were two or three precedents. In 1894 Sir John Thompson, while Premier, went to Paris to take part in the negotiations regarding pleague sealing; in 1897 Sir Wilfrid Laurier himself had gone to England to attend the celebration of the jubilee of Queen Victoria; and again in 1907 he had left the House in session to attend the Imperial Conference.

In each of these cases, said Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the business of the House was practically at an end. This year he had felt somewhat uneasy to leave such a heavy burden on his colleagues; however they had undertaken to take care of the work, and he had, therefore, consented to absent himself, leaving the work to be done in their hands.

With regard to Mr. Borden's third suggestion he agreed that there should be an adjournment in order to allow members to attend the coronation.

The question then arose at what time the House might adjourn. He had thought it might sit until the end of May, but it had been represented to him that there were two holidays during the last week of May, Victoria Day and Ascension Day, so on the whole he considered that it would be well to adjourn on May 23, and meet again on July 18. Meanwhile the House would go on with the session, and try to advance legislation as far as possible until May 23.

There remained the question of supply, said the Premier. After consultation with members on the other side of the House, it had been agreed that money should be voted to carry on until Sept. 1. Some supplies would have to be voted entire, such as the expenses of the coronation contingent, the festival of the Empire, and the annuities to Indians, which are under treaty obligation.

There was an animated discussion over Mr. Paterson's bill providing that clerks three years in the outside customs service could be transferred to the inside service. The Opposition thought that this provision would discriminate against men long in the service, especially if their politics did not suit the Government. There was also a discussion of the salaries of collectors of customs in large cities. Mr. Paterson said the Montreal collectors got $4,500 a year, and that Toronto would soon be advanced to that figure.

Mr. Crosby complained that the Halifax collector got but $1,500 a year, the same figure that was paid at Confederation.

The steamship subsidies were also discussed. The Opposition criticized the vote for the Australian and New Zealand subsidy, on the ground that there was more business from those points to Canada than from Canada there. Sir Wilfrid said he defended the subsidy on patriotic and imperial grounds.

Mr. Lewis introduced a bill to amend the criminal code by the insertion of various provisions designed to impose various penalties for certain offences, which, in the opinion of the member, ought to be brought within the scope of the criminal laws of the Dominion.

They were: That a bank director is guilty of an offence, who makes a false statement as to a bank's affairs, whether he knows it to be false or not; that a bank official is guilty of an offence who accepts a loan from a bank or a bank director; that a director of a bank or other corporation is guilty of an offence if he assists in what is commonly described as a stock-watering question; that a director who makes a loan on the stock of a mining company not listed is guilty of an offence, punishable by imprisonment for a period not exceeding five years; that in future it will be an offence against the laws for banks to compel clerks to work more than eight hours a day with one hour for luncheon, except in the case of tellers, on the day when the monthly returns are made up.

In commenting on his last proposal Mr. Lewis said that as the banks grew more prosperous they became more miserly, and that there were hundreds of young men being worked to death through the Dominion, for salaries ranging from $390 to $400 per annum.

LEVEE STICKS.

Chairman of Toronto Board of Education Will Not Resign.

Toronto, May 11.—Although sharply criticized in Judge Winchester's report, Chairman Levee of the Board of Education refuses to resign. The report, which was read at a special meeting yesterday, was couched in direct language. It stated that in the opinion of his honor, the charges made by Saturday Night had been sustained by the evidence, and, moreover, that promises made by Mr. Levee as to generous melon-cutting operations for the benefit of fortunate holders of Slocum shares were, to say the least, rather more optimistic than past earning records justified. The merits of the medicine itself were not entered into.

After hearing Secretary W. C. Wilkinson read the voluminous report, Trustee Fairbairn was seized with a bright idea. Mr. Levee should resign—very simple solution. Trustee Dr. Noble thought so too, and seconded the motion, which went so far as to propose the instant appointment of a successor. It looked like a landslide for a minute, but the chairman resolutely declined to offer himself for the obsequies. Could he be forced to do so? Nobody knew, save Mr. Levee himself, and he was quite positive that he could not be.

An opinion from the board's solicitor will be asked.

EGYPT NEEDS RULER.

Constitutional Government a Failure, Says Gorst.

London, May 11.—Sir Eldon Gorst, the British agent and consul-general in Egypt, in his report on Egyptian affairs, which has been issued as a Parliamentary paper, frankly acknowledges that the efforts made to develop self-government have been disappointing. The legislative council and the general assembly, he says, have become mere instruments of Nationalist agitation against the occupation. They seek to render the business of the Government impossible.

"The conclusion to be drawn," says Sir Eldon, "is that the policy of ruling this country in co-operation with native Ministers at the present time is incompatible with that of encouraging so-called representative institutions." The British agent adds: "We have to make the Egyptians understand that the Governments do not intend to allow themselves to be hustled into going further or faster in the direction of self-government than they consider to be in the interests of the Egyptian people as a whole. Until this elementary lesson has been thoroughly learned, no proposals looking to the further development of the legislative council can be usefully entertained."

W.F.M.S. In Session.

Chatham, May 11.—The ladies of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of Western Canada for the Presbyterian Church in conference here, have decided to reject the basis of union proposed by the foreign missionary committee of the church for the home and foreign missionary societies. Objection is made to the union on three points, first, in reference to the proposed new name for the amalgamated society, second, the manner in which the estimates are proposed to be made for the different branches of missionary work, and third, the proposed manner in which the field will be covered by the united association.

The ladies of the foreign society prefer their estimates shall be made up by the missionaries and officers of their society in the mission field, instead of by the church at home, and they also think that the work among the heathen of foreign lands should be kept entirely separate from the schemes of the church, just as it is at present.

Bell Co. Must Connect.

Toronto, May 11.—After an almost interminable discussion between the independent municipal and Bell Telephone companies over the question of long distance connections, and many hearings before the Board of Railway Commissioners, Chairman Mabee put the matter in a nutshell yesterday afternoon.

In delivering judgment he said that the connections should be made with the independent and Bell switchboards, that a terminal or additional charge of 15 cents be made for each outgoing call from business originating on an independent line, that a record be kept of all such business and a monthly return be made to the board, and at the end of a year the board will determine whether the granting of such facilities at competing points is detrimental to the Bell Co.'s business, and if any compensating charges should be levied.

Branch Mills In Berlin.

Berlin, Ont., May 11.—A representative of a large Cincinnati lumber firm is negotiating with Berlin for establishing branch mills and lumber yards here. The firm handles southern hardwoods very extensively, and this being a furniture manufacturing centre makes it a favorable location for their Canadian business.

The Daughters of the Empire, the Canadian Club and Women's Canadian Club will act jointly in arranging the program for the unveiling of the statue of Queen Victoria here on May 29 by Earl Grey.

Officials of the people's railway stated yesterday that negotiations were going forward for the sale of the company's bonds upon the completion of which construction work would immediately be resumed.

Postal Rate Reduced.

Ottawa, May 11.—Notice has been received by the Postoffice Department of the reduction in the rate of postage on letters posted in Southern Rhodesia and in the Commonwealth of Australia, addressed to Canada, from two pence per half ounce, to one penny per half ounce. In the case of Southern Rhodesia the reduced rate took effect on the 1st April, 1911, and in the case of Australia it will take effect on the first of May, 1911.

NEARLY 65 KILLED

Insurrectos Win Juarez After a Bloody Battle.

MADERO IS MAGNANIMOUS

Revolutionary Leader on Night of a Victory Says He Will Make Peace if He Is Guaranteed Fair Treatment by Diaz—Gen. Navarro and His Remaining Soldiers Are Prisoners in Their Barracks.

Ciudad Juarez, Mexico, May 11.—This little bullet-riddled city to-day is the provisional capital of Mexico, and Francisco I. Madero, jr., provisional president, and his staff have taken possession after winning the bloodiest battle of the Mexican revolution.

In a corner room of the barracks in which for two days he held out against the fire of the rebels, Gen. Juan Navarro, the federal commander, is a captive, having surrendered yesterday with almost his entire garrison of several hundred men. His face is sunken, his head is bowed, and he does not talk for the bitter sting of defeat has disheartened him.

In contrast, in another part of the town, is Francisco I. Madero, jr., the conqueror, surrounded by members of his family and his staff, joyous, exultant and flushed with victory; yet ready, he says, to make peace with the Mexican Government if it is disposed to deal frankly and sincerely with the revolutionists, and without such vague promises as "President Diaz's manifesto contains."

All the dead are being buried to-day. A conservative estimate of physicians as well as of insurrecto leaders who surveyed the fighting puts the federal dead at nearly fifty and the rebel loss at about fifteen, with a total of nearly 250 wounded on both sides.

Gen. Madero, who arrived yesterday afternoon at the corral where the Federal prisoners are quartered, made an address full of sympathy and encouragement.

"You fought for Gen. Diaz," he said in the conclusion of his speech, "because you had to, because you were a part of that system which we are trying to dissolve. In a few days perhaps peace will be restored. You soon will be free. If the war is to be continued you can have your choice of being paroled or joining the army of liberation. In the meantime we shall treat you as brothers, not as foes."

Orders were being issued by Gen. Pasqual Orizco all afternoon to guard streets and houses to prevent looting. Gen. Orizco is said to have shot two men he caught trying to steal.

Gen. Navarro tried about noon yesterday to arrange an armistice, but the rebels would accept nothing except immediate surrender.

The grey-haired general stood in the doorway of the barracks and received Col. Garibaldi, Madero's brother, the rebel leader, dashed forward with his gun pointed at Navarro ready to shoot if Garibaldi was hit. Federals and insurrectos alike, however, withheld their fire while the surrender was being arranged.

The federals in their humiliation tore off their visor caps and uniforms and under guard of the rebels walked dejectedly in their underclothing down the street to the corral. They numbered about five hundred. Last night it was reported that 150 of them had taken the oath of allegiance to Gen. Madero and will join his forces.

The amount of ammunition in Juarez is beyond the expectations of Madero. While he still wants peace, the condition will have to be broader, as he will now be in a position to recruit thousands.

The insurrectos now have two mortars, three machine guns and two field pieces.

Ex-Stormont's Gift.

Cornwall, May 11.—L. A. Ault of the Ault-Wiborg Co. of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Toronto, and president of the park commissioners of Cincinnati, has presented that city with 124 acres of land, valued at $80,000, to be used for park purposes. The property is located near the Linwood water tower, overlooking the Little Miami River, and affords an unobstructed view of the Ohio River and Ohio Valley. The only condition attached to the gift was that the city improve Principio street, as an approach to the park, which has been named the Ault Park. Mr. Ault has notified Park Expert Kesler to let him know of other properties adapted for park purposes, as he plans to give these to the city.

Old Bridge Works Burned.

Peterboro, May 11.—As the result of a fire breaking out in the old bridge works here early yesterday morning, $30,000 damage was done. Part of the building was operated by Messrs. Houdery & Sons as a pea mill, and another part as a roller mill. Twenty-five boathouses, situated along the river, close to the bridge works, were destroyed, with a considerable part of their contents. Two freight cars, one full of canoes, ready to be shipped by the Canadian Canoe Co., were consumed by the flames, and three motor cars in a nearby repair shop were burned.

The bridge works were totally destroyed.

Montreal Merchant Dead.

Montreal, May 11.—Jos. G. Meagher, president of the firm of Meagher Bros. & Co., Ltd., wholesale wine merchants, Des Brosses street, died yesterday. The late Mr. Meagher was born sixty-one years ago in Kingston, Ont., coming to Montreal some thirty years ago.

One Cut Off, One Restored.

Kingston, May 11.—The board of license commissioners have cut off one tavern license, that of Copper Lenoix of the Jubilee Hotel, and a license was granted to James Norris of the Ottawa Hotel. This license was cut off by the board a year ago.

ASKED HIS OPINIONS.

Prof. Workman Compelled to State Religious Beliefs.

Montreal, May 11.—Yesterday afternoon's session in the case of libel brought by Prof. Workman against the Wesleyan Theological College was converted into a series of disquisitions on the Methodist belief. Dr. Workman was at first reluctant to state his views, but on Mr. Justice Weir pointing out that it was essential that he should declare himself on the allegations brought against him, he consented to reply to the questioning. No admission, however, could be secured from him that the views were at variance with the standards of Methodism.

Cross-questioned as to his creed, he maintained that the virgin birth was not a cardinal doctrine of Methodism and that he could not express an opinion on the matter. It is a question yet to be settled, he said.

He said on the doctrine of the atonement that the sacrifice of Calvary was not a propitiation or expiatory act.

He also said that he was not inclined to regard the portion of Scripture telling of Christ partaking of bread and fish after the resurrection as an allegory.

On the subject of original sin witness declared that children were born in innocence. Asked whether the standards of Methodism permitted one to doubt whether Christ was God or not, Dr. Workman gave an affirmative answer.

CAUGHT AT THE EDGE.

Woman Saved From Plunging Over Niagara Falls.

Niagara Falls, N.Y., May 11.—Mrs. Elizabeth Hartley, an inmate of the Buffalo State Hospital for Insane, is dying at the Memorial Hospital from shock as the result of being rescued from death over the falls late yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. Hartley, who was not considered a dangerous patient at the Buffalo Asylum and was allowed entire freedom, came to this city to seek employment. She wandered through the reservation viewing the falls. After thinking the matter over she thought it would be "nice to die in that beautiful water," she said, and waded into the rapids a short distance above the cataract.

Park Policeman Harrington was nearby when the woman entered the water, rushed to the river bank, where pike poles are always in readiness for just such emergencies. Out into the rapids the woman waded until she lost her footing. Then she was swept down stream. She was within fifteen feet of the cataract when Harrington fastened the pike pole into her clothing and hauled her ashore. The woman was then in a semi-conscious condition, and she was rushed to the hospital.

This is only the second time in the history of the falls that a brink rescue has been recorded. The former one was the rescue of Amos Schweitzer of Toronto, who was saved after nearly an hour's fighting.

BRIEFS FROM THE WIRES.

The Canadian Northern Railway has purchased the Jesuit College property on Bleury street, Montreal, for a terminal.

Mr. J. J. Warren was acquitted by Judge Denton of a charge arising out of the suspension of the Farmers' Bank of Canada.

Mr. Leslie McMann, a leading Conservative of Thorold, who is a strong supporter of reciprocity, offers to run against Mr. W. M. German in Welland on that issue.

The late R. Vashon Rodgers of Kingston made provisions in his will that his handsome residence on Barrie street should be given to Queen's University as a home for professors.

Eight bodies have been recovered from the ruins of the Empire Music Hall, Edinburgh, which was burned Tuesday night. Among the bodies is that of "Lafayette the Great," the famous illusionist.

Alonso Payer of Mount Bridges, an employe of the C.P.R., was struck by a freight train while walking along the tracks in London yesterday. His skull was fractured and he died of his injuries two hours later.

During the debate on steamship subsidies in the Commons Sir Wilfrid Laurier made the interesting statement that he hoped soon to have the Atlantic fast steamship service from 18-12 knots an hour to 21 knots.

The season of heat prostration began in New York yesterday when Jerry Watzell, a tinsmith, was overcome while at work on a steamship and was removed to a hospital. The temperature at 3 p.m. was 83 degrees.

His Eminence Cardinal Gibbons celebrated his ordination to the priesthood and the silver jubilee of his elevation to the cardinalate at Baltimore yesterday. A coat of arms carved in basswood, and set in gold frame, was presented to the cardinal.

Suddenly drawing a revolver and firing, first at Magistrate Shppard and then at Chief of Police Fisk, a prisoner named Wybrow made a dash for liberty from the Police Court at High River, Alta., yesterday. The shots were ineffective and Wybrow was caught.

Body to Lie In State.

Toronto, May 11.—Rev. Father Kidd, administrator of the archdiocese of Toronto and secretary to the late archbishop, announced last night the preliminary arrangements for the funeral of the deceased prelate. The body will be removed from the palace on Sherbourne street to St. Michael's Cathedral, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, where it will lie in state until late in the evening, guarded by a detachment from the Knights of St. John. Immediately after being placed in position the cathedral will be opened to the public.

At 10 o'clock to-morrow morning Pontifical High Mass will be celebrated by Monsignor Stagni, Papal Alegate, who will come from Ottawa, especially for the service and the funeral will follow to Mount Hope Cemetery.

AT THE GRAND.—Quite a large audience greeted "The Private Secretary" at the Grand last evening, and they enjoyed it thoroughly. C. James Bancroft played the role of Rev. Robert Spaulding, a parson of set ways and exclusive manners. From the beginning of the play to the end it was in a state of bewilderment, and as an unsuspecting clergyman who was at all times embarrassed, he kept his audience wondering what he would do next. Alexander Frank and Ernest Cassard as a rich old uncle and an ambitious tailor, formed, along with the innocent parson, a most interesting trio. The other members of the company all performed their parts with credit. To-night Marks Bros. open for a three night's engagement.
