tion to the loss of all his barns and stables to horses, 17 pigs, 6 cattle, a new waggon, all his hay and feed were burned. The breeze had carried the burning shingles over to the house which is about 12 rods distance and, one of the window sills was scorched but the family slept and knew nothing of the terrible danger so close to them. Apparently the horses had broken loose and were all huddled near the stable door. Mr. Burk's loss is likely to be considerable although there is some insurance. Greatest sympathy is expressed with Mr. Burk in his great loss.—Bowmanville News.

SPORTING SKITS

BASEBALL.

Port Hope played two games in Bowmanville yesterday, an exhibition one in the morning and a league match in the afternoon. They lost in the morning 7 to 5 and in the afternoon by a score of 23 to 11.

Peterboro defeated Cobourg by a score of 24 to 7. More like cricket than baseball in the Midland League yesterday.

BOWLING

Three rinks of local bowlers went to Peterboro yesterday and had a very enjoyable time, having games morning and afternoon. The locals were without any practice and considering this fact they made a very good showing. Skip Rosevear was 5 up in the morning, Skip Snider up 7 and Skip Ball down 15. In the afternoon Skip Snider with one point down on the last end, made a garrison finish, making a possible of 8 and winning his game by a margin of 7. Skip Rosevear was down 4 and Skip Ball down 5. Peterboro winning the round by 5 points.

DIVORCED AND WEDS AGAIN.

Arthur S. Chapin, of Toronto, and Carrie Webb of Reno, Nevada, were married by Justice of the Peace, William J. Burke, in the City Hall, Jersey City N. J. on Tuesday last.

The bride was a native of Brighton and belonged to one of the best known families in the County of Northumberland. She was first married in Toronto in 1898 to Dr. Albert Warner of Napanee, and was divorced from him on St. Patrick's day, 1911.

Arthur S. Chapin is a well known apple exporter, and has done an extensive trade and for many years has done more or less business with local people.

LIVELY RUNAWAY.—Thursday afternoon while Mr. Edgerton Hancock, Providence, was returning home from town his horse became frightened while passing an automobile, the harness broke and the horse ran away smashing the three large plate glass windows in Messrs. Morris & Son's furniture store. The horse was finally stopped on Mr. R. Treleven's lawn. It received a number of scratches and cuts but was not seriously injured and the buggy was almost as good as ever.—Bowmanville Statesman

AUCTION SALE OF REAL ESTATE, FURNITURE, ETC.—The undersigned has been favored with instructions to sell by auction on Wednesday, May 31st, 1911, at one o'clock sharp, the house and grounds on Dorset street, Port Hope, belonging to the estate of the late Mrs. Warrington; also the household furniture. For particulars see posters later. JAS. KERR, AUCT.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE.—The town was very quiet on the holiday there being no program of sports provided, and the majority of our townspeople sought it elsewhere. In the evening there was an abundant display of fireworks on the main street but in many cases it was carried too far. Some young men perched themselves on the top of a building and dropped fire crackers near every lady as she happened to pass on the street. In two instances parasols carried by young ladies were badly burned. This is indeed a dangerous practice and chief Bond should see that it is not repeated.

GOMING ATTRACTION

Bert La Mont's funmakers in Mat Ott's Merry Musical Comedies, "The College Girl" and "A Prince for a Day" will appear at the Grand Opera House on Friday, May 26th and 27th. The theatre-going people are in general a bit skeptical about theatrical companies and in a good many cases they have reasons to be, but not so with The College Girl company, as this Company has been playing return engagements wherever it has appeared. This company is comprised of actors and actresses that have been previously connected with high class attractions. Geo. Peters, the famous Broadway Dutch comedian, formerly with Ward & Vokes, Geo. M. Cohan, Henry W. Savage and others; Bert La Mont, World's highest tenor, who easily reaches high C, last season's sensation in vaudeville, also with Vogel's Minstrels, etc., and who accompanied Wm. Jennings Bryan in his last campaign; Miss Olive Kirshman, the well known contralto singer, having been in Boston for several years; Alice Barton, Belle Mallette, soprano singers, also with Boston's comic operas, and others; Sydney Craven, Ed. Williams, Geo. F. Allen, with Bert La Mont, forms the original Cowboy Quartette, which is considered one of the best on the American stage to-day, and a stirring chorus of English beauties. This company will present on Friday evening "The College Girl," Saturday matinee "The College Girl," and on Saturday night "A Prince for a Day." This is a guaranteed attraction. Prices for Port Hope only 35, 50, 75c. Gallery 25c.
