DROWNING ACCIDENT

In the Ganeraska River Saturday Afternoon—Young Man Misjudged the Depth of Water.

A very sad drowning accident occurred on Saturday afternoon about four o'clock, when George Hornbey lost his life in the river near the G.T.R. bridge at the Nicholson File Works. Deceased had been engaged in the afternoon whitewashing at the File Factory, and about four o'clock went out for a bath. He remarked to a number of young lads who were bathing there that he could not swim and then jumped into the water at the southeast side of the railway bridge. Presently he came to the surface and covering his face with his hands sank again. The boys nearby thought that the young man was only making a little sport and made no effort to rescue him. Finally when he did not appear they gave the alarm and a number of employees from the File Factory were soon on the scene. The logs at the dam were immediately raised, but the body was not recovered for nearly twenty minutes and all signs of life were extinct.

Deceased was a Barnardo boy, eighteen years of age, and had been in this country for ten years. Before coming to Port Hope he was employed with Mr. Mitchell Zealand at Newtonville.

A number of deceased's friends came down from Newtonville last evening and they state that Hornbey was unable to swim, so it is supposed he misjudged the depth of the water in the river.

The remains were taken to Mr. A. W. George's undertaking parlors and the funeral took place this afternoon.

PORT HOPE RECTOR FOR GRACE CHURCH

Name of Rev. H. Montgomery is Associated With the Vacancy

The name now associated with the rectorship of Grace Church is that of Rev. H. Montgomery, rector of Port Hope. The refusal by Rev. Canon Starr, of Kingston, and Rev. C. A. Seager, Toronto, to accept the rectorship, leaves the congregation open to accept Rev. Mr. Montgomery.

A vestry meeting will be held tonight at the church, but it was said last night that the question of a rector may not be discussed. Matters connected with the removal of the church to College Heights are to come up for consideration.—Toronto Globe.

When interviewed by the GUIDE this morning the Rev. Montgomery stated that he had received no official information regarding the matter and until that time he would not discuss it.

No BLAME—Cobourg and Port Hope hotels have advanced their rates. As both are "wet" towns Local Option can't be blamed.—Orillia Packet.

A SUGGESTION.—An Ottawa Valley man recently lost the faculty of speech through a bolt of lightning. Lightning rods should at once be erected over the House of Commons chamber, lest some unusually well directed bolt might at one fell swoop incapacitate the entire Canadian machine of government.—Ottawa Free Press.

NOT THIS SUMMER—It is rumored that the C. P. R. will not get busy on construction work from Bathurst to Toronto through Cobourg, Port Hope and lake front towns this summer. Location work and right of way is to proceed right along, we understand. Meanwhile there will be considerable speculation all along the line as to whose property will be hurt, or required or benefitted by the C. P. R. new line.

ADVICE TO DELIVERY BOYS.—The Mitchell Advocate of recent date contains the following advice that does not seem out of place in Port Hope:—"Complaints are frequently heard that delivery rigs are driven on the boulevards in front of residences, and that delivery boys run across lawns instead of keeping to the walks. Probably in no place is greater pride taken than in our own town in keeping lawns and boulevards in good shape. Would it be well for those who employ delivery boys to instruct them to respect the town by-laws in regard to boulevards and lawns?"

REPORTER SLUGGED

Six Men Arrested for Terrorizing Chicago Building Trades.

Chicago, May 26.—Sudden police activity against alleged labor sluggers and "gunmen" who have been terrorizing Chicago building trades for several months, to-day resulted in the arrest of six men, none of whom, however, are charged with specific slugging. Four are held as the sluggers' associates, and two for beating a newspaper reporter.

The arrests follow the killing recently in a saloon of an acknowledged "gunman" and slugger, William Gentleman. The reporter was slugged while calling at the Gentleman home after Gentleman had been killed.

A TROUBLESOME MISGIVING

'I know nothing of the uneducated in towns,' she said, 'but the little I have seen of them in country places certainly supports your opinion. I could point to two or three families who have suffered distinct degradation owing to what most people call an improvement in their circumstances. Father often speaks of such instances, comparing the state of things now with what he can remember.'

'My own experience,' pursued Godwin, 'has been among the lower classes in London. I don't mean the very poorest, of whom one hears so much nowadays; I never went among them because I had no power of helping them, and the sight of their wretchedness would only have moved me to unjust hatred. But the people who earn enough for their needs, and whose spiritual guide is the Sunday newspaper—I know them, because for a long time I was obliged to lodge in their houses. Only a consuming fire could purify the places where they dwell. Don't misunderstand me; I am not charging them with what are commonly held vices and crimes, but with the consistent love of everything that is ignoble, with utter deadness to generous impulse, with the fatal habit of low mockery. And these are the people who really direct the democratic movement. They set the tone in politics; they are debasing art and literature; even the homes of wealthy people begin to show the effects of their influence. One hears men and women of gentle birth using phrases which originate with shop-boys; one sees them reading print which is addressed to the coarsest million. They crowd to entertainments which are deliberately adapted to the lowest order of mind. When commercial interest is supreme, how can the tastes of the majority fail to lead and control?'

Though he spoke from the depths of his conviction, and was so moved that his voice rose and fell in tones such as a drawing-room seldom hears, he yet kept anxious watch upon Sidwell's countenance. That hint afforded him by Fanny was invaluable; it had enabled him to appeal to Sidwell's nature by the ardent expression of what was sincerest in his own. She too, he at length understood, had the aristocratic temperament. This explained her to him, supplied the key of doubts and difficulties which had troubled him in her presence. It justified moreover, the feelings with which she had inspired him—feelings which this hour of intimate converse had exalted to passion. His heart thrilled with hope. Where sympathies so profound existed, what did it matter that there was variance on a few points between his intellect and hers? He felt the power to win her, and to defy every passing humiliation that lay in his course.

Sidwell raised her eyes with a look which signified that she was shaping a question diffidently. 'Have you always thought so hopelessly of our times?' 'Oh, I had my stage of optimism,' he answered, smiling. 'Though I never put faith in the masses, I once believed that the conversion of the educated to a purely human religion would set things moving in the right way. It was ignorance of the world.'

He paused a moment, then added:

'In youth one marvels that men remain at so low a stage of civilization. Later in life, one is astonished that they have advanced so far.'

Sidwell met his look with appreciative intelligence and murmured, 'In spite of myself, I believe that expresses a truth.'

Peak was about to reply, when Fanny and her friend reappeared. Bertha approached for the purpose of taking leave, and for a minute or two Sidwell talked with her. The young girls withdrew again together.

By the clock on the mantelpiece it was nearly six. Godwin did not resume his seat, though Sidwell had done so. He looked towards the window, and was all but lost in abstraction, when the soft voice again addressed him:

'But you have not chosen your life's work without some hope of doing good?'

'Do you think,' he asked gently, 'that I shall be out of place in the Christian Church?'

'No—no, I certainly don't think that. But will you tell me what you have set before yourself?'

He drew nearer and leaned upon the back of a chair.

DIAZ WAS ATTACKED

Ex-President's Train Is Waylaid by Insurrectos.

REBELS WERE BEATEN OFF

News Comes to Hand of the Attack of a Large Body of Revolutionaries on Special Train Carrying Deposed President to Vera Cruz—Diaz Got Out and Directed the Defence of the Train Himself.

Vera Cruz, May 29.—While escorting ex-President Diaz from the Mexican capital to Vera Cruz on Friday the federal troops engaged a large force of rebels.

The troops were successful in beating off the insurrectos, who retreated, leaving behind thirty dead. General Diaz left the train and gave orders to his soldiers during the battle.

General Diaz and his party, consisting of Madame Diaz, Col. Porfirio Diaz and the latter's family, left Mexico City on a special train, composed of three sections.

The first section carried the Eleventh Regiment of Infantry. The Presidential party was in the second section, which was followed closely by the third, also carrying troops.

When approaching Tepic they encountered a body of some 700 rebels. The leading section of the train pulled up and the federal troops dismounted. After a sharp engagement the federalists succeeded in defeating the insurgents, who retired, leaving on the field thirty dead, their standards and a box containing 1,000 pesos.

The federal troops, which were 300 strong, registered three men wounded, one probably fatally.

General Diaz and his son, Col. Porfirio Diaz, on arriving at the scene of the engagement, descended from their car and took part in the fray. The ex-President experienced some difficulty in preventing his troops from pursuing the revolutionists.

The general was received here with the greatest respect. He plans to leave Vera Cruz for Europe on May 31. No definite arrangements have been decided on as yet regarding his future course of action.

BRIEFS FROM THE WIRES.

Seventeen-year locusts of unusual size made their appearance in large quantity Saturday at Phillipsburg, near this city.

Prince John of Denmark, uncle of King Frederick of Denmark and of the Queen-Mother Alexandra of England, died Saturday evening from pneumonia.

Fire Saturday afternoon destroyed the eastern lumber yards of A. Weston & Co. on the River road near North Tonawanda, N. Y. Loss $125,000; covered by insurance.

The British aviator, Smith, flying in a Sommer machine, during an aeroplane competition at St. Petersburg, Saturday, fell from a height of 125 feet and was killed.

The Red Star Kroonland sailed from Antwerp Saturday with a substitute crew. The old crew refused to sign, on the ground that the general seamen's strike may be declared before the return of the steamer.

A rumor that the Miraflores Dam, Panama, has broken away, precipitating thousands of cubic yards of mud and silt into the lock, is officially denied. There was a small break, the damage amounting to about $25,000.

Telegraphic advices received report 400 passengers and crew of the steamer Taboga have been saved. The Taboga struck a rock off Punta Mala on Tuesday and sank a short time after. Twenty persons are not accounted for.

Charged With Murder.

Charlottetown, P.E.I., May 29.—William Molyneux, Milltown Crossing, was arrested Saturday by Officer McCarron, charged with the murder of his wife, Mrs. Ada Jenkins, formerly of Charlottetown. Since the inquest the coroner had the eight-year-old son of the deceased examined, and it is understood that the boy gave very important evidence regarding sounds he heard the time his father came out of the pantry and left the house, and other statements which at this stage cannot be made public. The lad was excited at first, but eventually calmed down and told his story. The prisoner was put in jail at Georgetown to await trial.

It will be remembered that Mrs. Molyneux was found hanging to the pantry door with evidence of suicide, but detectives afterwards discovered marks on her neck which led to an investigation and to the arrest of the husband.

Fisher at Farnham.

Farnham, Que., May 29.—The first of the Liberal rallies to be held in this province during the recess of Parliament took place here yesterday. A large audience heard speeches delivered by Hon. Sydney Fisher, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux and Messrs. Demers, Meigs and Allen, M.P.'s. The audience was more interested than enthusiastic, but Mr. Fisher gradually woke it up in a forceful presentation of the reciprocity issue. Mr. Fisher prefaced his remarks by referring to the talk of a general election in the near future, and explained that it lay in the power of the Opposition to prevent a vote being taken on the reciprocity question, as the Government required money to carry on the business of the country, and by useless debate the Opposition could prevent it being granted.

Thrown Into Carriage Gear.

Woodstock, May 29.—Robert Danby of Muir received painful injuries while driving in the city yesterday morning. The king bolt of his buggy broke and he was thrown into the carriage gear, and when the horse took fright and ran away, he was dragged a considerable distance. A badly broken shoulder and many bruises resulted.

BLAZE IN QUEBEC

City Has Narrow Escape From Partial Destruction.

DAMAGE IS ABOUT $250,000

Flames Break Out on Saturday Afternoon in a Roller Skating Rink and Are Not Finally Extinguished Until Late Sunday Morning—Several Factories Are Burned—Eight Families Homeless.

Quebec, May 29.—It was nine o'clock Sunday morning when the "All out" was sounded for a fire which broke out in St. Roch shortly after noon Saturday, and which for a time threatened a large section of that portion of the city and looked possible to develop into a general conflagration. About a quarter of a million of damage was wrought by the fire, among the buildings destroyed being a couple of large and a number of smaller factories.

The fire was one of the fiercest which the local fire-fighters have been called upon to face for a long time, breaking out in a roller rink on Notre Dame des Agnes street, the blaze worked itself into the Caribbe carriage factory on Dorchester street, just around the corner. Here the full force of the fire raged, the flames being fierce and the whole building speedily becoming a mass of flame.

The firemen of No. 3 and 5 stations almost opposite the roller rink, had just returned from a run to a chimney fire in their section, and were cleaning up their wagons, when the new fire was discovered. Captain Louis Talbot at once sounded a double alarm and the firemen were quickly on the spot. There was, however, some trouble with the water pressure, and for a time the firemen could not get sufficient force to cope with the flames.

A general alarm was then sent in and the whole brigade assembled. The proposition which confronted them was a serious one. The fire had gained such headway and was raging so fiercely that it looked as if another disastrous conflagration was in sight. The firemen did everything possible to confine the flames to the building in which the blaze had declared itself, but this was impossible, and the fire leaped across the street and caught the Dominion Corset Co., through which the fire swept with a force that could not be stopped.

At this juncture, it looked as if the whole section of the city was fated to burn. A desperate attempt was made to save the great corset and box factory of the Dominion Company, but it was too late and the flames swept through the upper storeys and wrecked the whole interior of the building.

The firemen, however, managed to check the fire here and prevented the flames from spreading further.

Eight families were burned out, in addition to the two factories and the roller rink.

Among the houses burned was one occupied by the chief of the fire brigade, Fitzback, who is now seriously ill, and whose house was totally destroyed. He had to be carried out of his house on a stretcher.

There were many exciting scenes during the progress of the fire, there being a hurried shift among the residents in the immediate vicinity, and whose houses seemed at one time doomed to destruction.

The firemen, however, managed to check the fire here and prevented the flames from spreading further.

FIRE AT CONEY ISLAND.

New York Summer Resort Visited by a Conflagration.

New York, May 29.—Coney Island, the playground of New York, suffered the worst fire disaster of its history early yesterday. Dreamland, the largest of the amusement parks, was wiped out, and four blocks adjoining, covered with booths, restaurants, hotels, moving picture theatres and resorts of various types, were destroyed.

The fire broke out at 2 o'clock in the morning and was not under control until three hours and a half later. The loss will amount to between $2,000,000 and $3,000,000.

In all about two hundred buildings were burned down and perhaps two thousand persons—concessionists and employes—were turned into the streets homeless and penniless. No lives were lost.

FIRST PART DONE.

France Reaches Fez in Work of Opening Trade Route.

Paris, May 29.—(N. Y. Tribune Cable.)—The first and easiest portion of the French task in Morocco is accomplished by the arrival at Fez of Gen. Moinier. The Government is fully alive to the absolute necessity of completing in a thorough and permanent manner the triple work of establishing in Morocco the military supremacy of the Sultan, the integrity of his territory and the open door for the commerce of all nations.

The measures decided on to accomplish these three results are to give carte blanche to Col. Mangin, the French instructor of the Sultan's army with the aid of a corps of French officers and to maintain in security two military and trade routes of communication with Fez, one between Fez and the Atlantic and the other between Fez and Algeria, via Taza.

Three efficient Moroccan armies, under French officer instructors, are to be centered at Fez, at Taza and at Meknes for the first time in history to really govern his country and keep it in order.

The French Government is determined not to withdraw its present armies of occupation until this is accomplished.

Springhill Strike Ends.

Halifax, May 29.—The long and bitterly fought strike at the Springhill coal mines was ended Saturday afternoon when the men adopted the report of the system committee. The points of the agreement under which the strike is brought to an end, as adopted at the meeting of the miners in Springhill Saturday, are as follows:

- The men to be taken back as soon as places can be found for them, the company saying it hopes to find employment in 45 days for a majority of the men.
- The schedule for mechanics is to remain with no reductions of the rates before the strike.
- The Longley Board's fine, that is the docking system, is to govern.
- Coal cutters are to get ten per cent. less than the rate paid before the strike, fair consideration to be allowed to enable a man to earn an average wage where changing conditions in coal make that necessary.

Snow in Month of May.

Winnipeg, May 29.—There was a heavy fall of wet snow all over the Regina district Saturday morning; six inches fell in many places.

GARROS IS LEADING.

He is First Thus Far in Paris-Turin Aeroplane Race.

Paris, May 29.—Profiting by the lessons of last week's catastrophe, when, at the start of the Paris to Madrid race, M. Berteaux, the Minister of War, was killed and Premier Monis badly wounded, the organizers of the second great air contest, from Paris to Turin, sent the competitors away with record speed and precision yesterday.

Not the slightest mishap marred the occasion. The new Minister of War, Gen. Coirion, Antoni Monis, son of the Premier, who was slightly injured in the accident of a week ago; the Italian ambassador, Signor Tittoni, and several high officials, were allowed on the field, but were kept well behind the starting line. A large assemblage of people were kept out of the danger zone by imposing lines of troops.

The weather was perfect. Twelve out of 21 competitors were on the start when the signal bomb was fired at six o'clock in the morning. The machines were sent off in rapid succession, ten leaving within a few minutes, and the entire number being away by seven o'clock. The remaining nine entrants, including Pierre Vedrine, the Frenchman who won the Paris to Madrid race, will start to-day or to-morrow. Vedrine is now on his way back to Paris, leaving Madrid for this city last night.

The first to cross the line yesterday was Roland Garros, who, after making many plucky efforts to finish in the Paris to Madrid flight, was forced by a series of mishaps to abandon the race. Garros drove a monoplane. He was followed by Andre Beaumont, who rapidly overtook Garros and arrived first at Dijon, the initial recording station of the long journey.

The two next followed in the same order, reporting at Lyons and finally landing at Avignon. They covered the 401 miles from the aerodrome at Buc, a short distance outside the French capital, to Avignon in 12 hours and 45 minutes, and 15 hours and 35 minutes respectively, and decided to spend the night there. They will finish the remaining 220 kilometres of the first stage of the flight to Nice this morning, a total distance of 865 kilometres, or 538 miles.

The other competitors early in the journey were the victims of mishaps, but nothing more serious than "the breaking of wood," and only two of them, Henri Molla, representing France, and the German aviator Frey, had got as far as Dijon up to seven o'clock in the evening.

The race was organized by the Paris Petit Parisien, and the prizes aggregate more than $100,000. The second stage of the journey is from Nice to Rome, the recording stations being Genoa and Pisa, and the third stage is from Rome to Turin, the official stopping places being Florence and Bologna. The total distance is a little more than 1,200 miles, and the competitors have until June 15 to accomplish the distance.

USING THE DEMOCRATS.

Foes of Reciprocity Take Another Step In Fight.

Washington, May 29.—The plot to defeat reciprocity developed another phase Saturday. The Democrats are to be used to encompass the downfall of the bill.

A plan is being framed by the opponents of the measure to co-operate with those Democrats who are insisting upon the farmer's free list being attached to reciprocity as a rider.

There is a group of Democrats who believe that they will get into trouble with their constituents if they vote against the farmer's free list when it is offered as an amendment to the reciprocity agreement. These votes are needed to insure the success of the pact.

On the other hand, there is a group of Republicans who will not vote for reciprocity if the farmer's free list is attached to it. These votes also are needed to insure the success of the bill.

The plan of the opposition is to co-operate with the Democrats in having the free list made a part of reciprocity and then leave it to the protectionist Republicans to defeat the bill on the final passage.

The only way out is for the Democrats, who want to attack the free list, to realize that reciprocity can be passed with a measure of tariff reform, if they will consent to consider it apart from the farmer's list; whereas, both reciprocity and the free list will be defeated at this session if they fail in the plot that is being arranged by the enemies of the pact. It is the choice that is offered of half a loaf or no bread at all.

In the meantime, the Root amendment, which will enable the paper trust to keep up the price of paper, a direct tax upon everyone who reads newspapers, magazines, book or hand-bill, is making progress.

War Clouds in East.

Cettinje, Montenegro, May 29.—It is reported that Turkey has made an unsatisfactory reply to the Russian note warning Turkey that the concentration of Turkish troops along the Montenegrin frontier, since the Albanian outbreak, constitutes a serious menace to peace.

This reply is said to be in effect that there is no intention on the part of Turkey to attack Montenegro, provided that country abstains from assisting the Albanian insurgents, closes her frontiers to refugees and removes the refugees who already have crossed the frontiers to the interior of Montenegro.

Trial in September.

Los Angeles, May 29.—Motion of attorneys for J. J. McNamara and his brother, J. B. McNamara, charged with murder by the use of dynamite for a continuance of the time to enter pleas to the charges from June 1 to July 5, was granted Saturday.

The defence declared there was no possibility of a trial before September.

A DOUBLE CURE FOR DOUBLE TROUBLE

Father Morrissey's No. 26 Cures Cataract by a Combined Treatment.

The sudden weather variations in our climate result in a great many cases of cataract—a troublesome disease usually considered hard to cure, and one which often leads to serious pulmonary and intestinal troubles.

A neglected cold in the head weakens the nasal membranes, so that at every future exposure the trouble returns. At length these conditions are fastened onto the system, and the sufferer undergoes the annoyance and danger of chronic cataract.

Some doctors confine themselves to prescribing external applications, and thus do not reach the seat of the trouble. Others give internal treatment exclusively, and thus do not promptly relieve the affected parts.

Father Morrissey, the skilled priest-physician, rightly regarded cataract as a double trouble, consisting of unpleasant local effects and their fundamental causes, the latter having to do with impaired general vitality.

His famous remedy, No. 26, is a combined cure for cataract. It consists of tablets to be taken three times a day, and an especially compounded salve.

The salve is antiseptic, and quickly heals the inflamed membranes of the nasal passages. The tablets go to the seat of the trouble and restore the system to its usual tone. Together, they cure.

Instead of neglecting a disease that is unpleasant to yourself and to others, and one which often leads to pneumonia and consumption, it is surely the part of wisdom to take timely steps to do away with the effects and at the same time remove the cause. No. 26 does just that.

50c. for the combined treatment. At your druggist's, or from Father Morrissey Medicine Co., Ltd., Montreal, Que.

PEOPLE'S PULPIT.

Sermon by CHARLES T. RUSSELL Pastor Brooklyn Tabernacle.

Preparing a Place For His Betrothed

Long Engagement About to Be Consummated.

Boston, May 28.—Pastor Russell preached twice here to-day. He had large and intellectual audiences as usual. We report one of his discourses from the text, "I go to prepare a place for you; and I will come again and receive you unto myself, that where I am there ye may be also" (John xiv, 2, 3). The speaker said:

Doubtless we have all in mind the fact that we have just passed the anniversary of our Redeemer's ascension to the right hand of the Father—to the highest place in all the Universe, next to the Almighty Father. He ascended where He was before—to the spirit plane of being, with added excellence of glory and honor, the reward of His faithfulness and obedience to the Father's will, even to the sacrificing of His life at Calvary. He ascended, the Scriptures declare, from the more humble condition of human nature, a little lower than the angels, to the exalted condition of the divine nature—far above angels, principalities and powers and every name that is named.

The work for which the Lord left the heavenly glory has not yet been accomplished. He has suffered, the Just for the unjust, giving His life a ransom-price for all; but this was merely a means toward an end, and that end has not yet been accomplished—the blessing of Adam and his fallen race. Thank God, however, that the great, broad foundation has been laid. Thanks be to God also that a great preliminary work has been in progress during more than eighteen centuries since His ascension. That preliminary work is the preparation of the Church of Christ to follow Him in faithful and self-sacrificing to exaltation with Him to the divine nature, glory, honor and immortality, which was His reward (II. Peter i, 4).

If, in times past, we have too carelessly studied our Bibles and confused God's special blessing for the Church, as the Bride of Christ, with His subsequent blessing for the world through Messiah and His Bride, let us do so no longer. Let us note that as the Divine Plan for the salvation of the world could not begin before the coming of Jesus, except in a typical sense, neither can it begin to operate until the complete selection of the Church—until her perfecting as the "Bride, the Lamb's Wife," in the First or Chief Resurrection.

The antitypical sacrifices which Jesus began still continue to be offered by Him. Those desirous of becoming His Bride and joint-heirs with Him in His Kingdom are now qualifying for that exaltation. The invitation to them is that, renouncing sin and accepting the Saviour, they shall "present their bodies living sacrifices, holy and acceptable to God"—following in the footsteps of their Redeemer.

In a certain sense this presentation of the entire Church took place, representatively, in the Apostles and others of the five hundred brethren who believed at the first. They were representatives of the entire Church, and the acceptance of their sacrifice and their begetting of the Holy Spirit, their espousal at Pentecost, representing the acceptance, the begetting and espousal of the entire Church from then until now. We are merely following in their steps; we are merely undermembers in the same Body—"The Church of the first-born, whose names are written in heaven" (Hebrews xii, 23).

St. Paul distinctly points out that the Church is not yet the Bride of Christ, but merely espoused. He writes, "I have espoused you as a chaste virgin unto one Husband, who is Christ." The period of espousal will not be complete until the close of this Age, when the "last member of the Body shall have been accepted, and when the First or Chief Resurrection (to the spirit plane) shall have been accomplished—the marriage or complete union between Christ and His Bride in the heavenly glory.

As the Redeemer was the first to ascend to the glorious station of the divine nature, far above angels, principalities and powers, and as the Church is to be His associate in that glory, it was necessary that He should precede her to prepare the way. Our Lord's own worthiness of exaltation to the divine nature was witnessed by the Father in that He raised Him from the dead a quickening Spirit, to glory, honor and immortality.

But before the Church could, in any sense of the word, be made acceptable in the heavenly courts, it was necessary that the Redeemer should "appear in the presence of God for us" (Hebrews ix, 24). It was necessary that He make application or imputation of the merit of His sacrifice on behalf of the Church before their sacrifices could be "holy and acceptable unto God"; and only by their sacrifices and the Divine acceptance of them could they be begotten of the Holy Spirit to the new nature, the divine nature, which they will fully receive, if faithful, in the chief resurrection.

What force we thus see is attached to the Master's words, "I go to prepare a place for you!" Unless He had thus prepared the way, unless He had become our Surety, we could never have become acceptable in the Father's sight, and the Redeemer's associates on the spirit plane. But there is still another sense in which the Redeemer is preparing for His Church, His followers. He has, as their great High Priest, not only opened up the way to God, but He continues to be their Intercessor and to appropriate to them of His merit to cover their continual trespasses and short-comings, which are the result, not of wilfulness, but of weakness and heredity—short-comings against which they strive, but by which at times they are overtaken—sins of omission if not of commission.

How precious to every child of God are the words of the Apostle, "If we sin we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous!" Let us, therefore, come with courage to the Throne of heavenly grace that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in every time of need, for we have an High Priest who can be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, having been tempted in all points like as we of the new creation are tempted (I. John ii, 1, 2; Hebrews iv, 15, 16).

There appears to be a disposition on the part of many to deny that there will be a second advent of the Redeemer. They reason that what has not occurred in more than eighteen centuries should cease to be expected. They endeavor to find the fulfillment, the promised second coming of the Saviour, in the Pentecostal blessing. But this cannot satisfy those who have implicit trust in the Lord, and who believe that the Apostles were His specially appointed mouthpieces, for did not the Apostles, long after Pentecost, tell of the second coming of the Lord, and did not Jesus Himself in the last book of the Bible declare His coming and His marriage to the Church, His acceptance of her and the giving to her a share in His glory?

The erroneous thought that Jesus is still a man and that His second coming will be as a man in glory and power, has done much injury to the Church. It has turned the attention of some to looking for and expecting Messiah's Empire to be purely an earthly one. It has led others to deny the second coming and the Kingdom entirely. The proper view of our Lord's ascension to the glory of the divine nature and honor next to the Father, never more to return to earthly conditions, lifts us above the difficulties mentioned.

We now see that the One who will come in power and great glory will be a Spirit Being wholly invisible to mankind, but nevertheless the very same Ego, who was once amongst men; the same Ego or personality who previously was with the Father on the spirit plane, and who humbled Himself to man's estate in order that He might accomplish a work of redemption for Adam and his race. The Redeemer says of Himself, "I am He who was dead, and behold I am alive forevermore." And He who was dead, was He not the same One who previously was rich and for our sakes became poor? Can we not, therefore, hold clearly to the distinctions of nature, and yet see through the two changes the maintenance of the original personality?

The angels who appeared to the Apostles when the Master vanished from their sight declared that He would come in like manner as He went away. Did He go in a blaze of glory witnessed by the whole world of mankind? No! Neither will He so come. Did He go amidst great convulsions and the blast of trumpets? No! Neither will He so come. Was His departure seen and known throughout the world? No! Neither will His arrival be seen and known; as He declared, He will come as a thief in the night and will be present, unknown to the world. Only a few knew of His departure and could tell it to others. In like manner a second coming will be known only to the few, who will declare it to such as have the hearing ear.

Concerning this secret arrival of the Lord, "as a thief in the night," the Apostle declares, "Ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief" (I. Thessalonians v, 4).

The day of revelation will come, but it will be after the Bride class, the elect Church, is with the Bridegroom, a sharer of His glory, honor and immortality. "When He shall appear, ye also shall appear with Him in glory" (I. John iii, 2). The revelation will be in Haming nra—a manifestation of righteousness, opposition to all things sinful and approval of all things in harmony with the Golden Rule. This will mean at the first a great time of trouble, an overturning and transformation in the world's affairs. As the Prophet declares, "The rich men shall weep bitterly." Many poor ones doubtless will also weep, for unrighteousness is not confined to race or class. All evildoers will suffer, all well-doers will be blessed.

As soon as this new ruling of Messiah's Kingdom shall come to be thoroughly recognized and appreciated, "the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness" (Isaiah xxvi, 9). Then the great blessing of Emmanuel's Government will kiss away the world's sorrow and tears and death, as a great Sun of Righteousness arising. Messiah's Kingdom will flood the earth with the light of the knowledge of the goodness of God and with His blessing, "which maketh rich and addeth no sorrow therewith." Ignorance, superstition, sin and death will flee away before the light of that New Dispensation, and only those who resist it willfully will be smitten with the Second Death.

The great heavenly King and His Bride will rule man's affairs with a rod of iron, which will break in pieces and destroy institutions contrary to the Golden Rule. This power over the nations belongs to the Redeemer and will be shared, as promised, with His Church. But first, before that manifestation of the Kingdom in power and glory and with flaming fire, will come the Master's parousia, or secret presence, unknown to the world—known only to the "watchers"—to the saints, through their understanding of the Divine prophecies, to which their eyes of understanding will be opened.

In the harvest time He will be present to gather the wheat into His garner, through the change of the Chief Resurrection, which will take place in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, because "flesh and blood cannot inherit the Kingdom of God." During this period of parousia, preceding the outward manifestation to the world, the Heavenly Lord, invisible to men, will judge amongst those who have professed to be His servants—determining which may enter into the Kingdom glory, because they have failed to share with Him in the sacrifice and ignominy of the present time.

This judging of the Church is particularly indicated in two of our Lord's parables relating to the pounds and the talents given to His servants when He took His departure. In His parousia He will reckon with His servants, rewarding the faithful with a share with Him in His Kingdom, saying, "Well done, good and faithful servant, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joys of thy Lord—have thou dominion over two cities, over five cities, etc. (Matthew xxv, 21; Luke xix, 15-18). The garnering of the wheat, the change of the saints, will be the marriage or union with their glorious Head and Bridegroom. Meantime, those purposing to be of the Bride will make themselves ready and assist each other in preparation for the glorious consummation of their most wonderful hopes.

The Master said, "My word shall judge you in the last day." Happy has it been for the few who have heard the Master's Word in this present life, and have judged themselves thereby, and submitted themselves to His righteous precepts! These blessed ones will share with Messiah the glories of His Spiritual Empire, invisible to men. But during the Thousand-Year-Judgment Day of the world (II. Peter iii, 7, 8) the same words—"the wonderful words of life" to those who will obey and words of death to those who will refuse obedience—will be the standards of justice for all mankind.

This judgment of the world will not be merely of those living at the time of the establishment of the Kingdom, but will include all that are in their graves (John v, 28). As all are condemned through one man's disobedience, so the redemption for all will be accomplished through the obedience of One, which will secure to each and all an opportunity for eternal life, either on the spirit plane, during the Gospel Age, or on the earthly plane, Paradise restored, during Messiah's reign.

The judgment of the Church is not according to works, the perfection of which, under prevailing conditions, would be impossible, hence, the Church's judgment is according to faith and the obedience of faith possible. But the world's judgment will be according to works, for the knowledge then will be so great that faith will no longer be at a premium. The great Mediator will accept of imperfect works according to the ability of the people; but, as they rise out of degradation, more and more will be required of them, until in the end they will be perfected and absolute-perfection of works will be required.

Then death and the grave will be swallowed up in the antitypical gehenna of annihilation—"the Second Death"—and all not worthy of record in the Book of Life will be destroyed from amongst the people (Revelation xx, 12-15; Acts iii, 22).

But, thank God, this irremediable destruction of the Second Death does come only upon wilful evildoers of the class mentioned in this text—often reprobated and yet stiff-necked. Some of the Church might be classed in this category because of previous enlightenment, etc., enjoyed, but surely the world in general has not had such reproofs and such an intelligent understanding of the Lord as would make them properly amenable to the Second Death. And God purposes that every member of Adam's race must have this one full, complete privilege and opportunity for eternal life before he can be sentenced to the Second Death.

The Gentle Bruin.

It is the prophecy of the lion lying down with the lamb has not yet been fulfilled, a bear that lay down with sheep has just won fame for itself in a similar way. The two-year-old regimental pet bear of the King's Royal Rifles at Shorncliffe Camp, England, is confined in a big box in the drill hall of the camp as a punishment for its 20 hours escape from captivity. Escaping from its cage, the bear had a day of wonderful adventures. First, it scampered across the grass towards Cheriton. Then, frightened perhaps by the number of people, it tore into some woods and climbed a few trees. Meanwhile, practically all the King's Royal Rifles, noticing its escape, were out looking for their mascot. Officers had motor-cars, and some of the men had guns. For miles around they they searched, but could not find the bear, which could probably see them through the bushes. Watching its chance, it ran out at length until it came to Fern Farm, where close by some sheep were grazing. At the approach of a dog the sheep would have run away, but, strangely enough, they were not frightened when the bear came ambling up, possibly mistaking it for a kind of big black ram. They calmly went on feeding. This farm is barely half a mile from the camp, but it was not until late in the evening that the bear was discovered. It was found sleeping under a cart and two sheep were sleeping close beside it. When it saw its captors with a box it meekly got in it and was carried back to camp.
