BASEBALL

The first real baseball practice of the season was held Saturday afternoon, when the Peterborough Midland League team worked out at Riverside Park. There was a big squad out, and the prospects are bright for a first class team, there being abundance of players available and a lot of new material in sight. Among the new players out were Neale, Pethick, Murphy, and Rahmal, the first three infielders, and the latter a pitcher. All four of last year's City League teams were well represented. The team will start practicing at night in a short time, and should be in good shape for the opening on May 24th.

NOTICE

All parties owing the undersigned are requested to pay the amounts so owing by May 15th, 1911.

For the purpose of convenience, accounts may be paid to Miss M. Lent, at the office of Messrs. Van Eps & Van Alstine (successors to the undersigned) on John street, Port Hope, who is authorized to receive and give receipts for all money so owing.

MUST BE CURBED

That the bloodthirsty desire of our newly arrived citizens must be curbed by the stern hand of the law is made clear when one goes into the matter of statistics in regard to assassinations in such countries as Italy, where every man goes armed and where every man is a law unto himself. In Italy 81 people in every million are murdered yearly; in Austria 28; in Belgium 17; in France 15; in Germany 11; and in England 3. The trial of the Cammoras in Italy at the present moment shows to what length assassination will go when allowed to proceed unchecked. Italian statesmen are now awakening to conditions and are making every effort to purge out the stain.

It is far better, however, that we start right in the first place. Our foreign population is but beginning to arrive. In five years time we will have a hundred, perhaps five hundred Italians, where we now have one. When railways and other big undertakings are under way there must be navvies and where navvies are required, there the Italians congregate, for after all is said and done, they are, for certain classes of toil, best in the world, with the possible exception of the Chinese. These men should be taught that if they fight they are to use their fists in good old Anglo-Saxon style; that under no circumstances are they to carry deadly weapons, and finally that we live here in this land in Peace and comfort, mostly depending upon our police for what protection we require.—Toronto Saturday Night.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the close of the evening service in the Methodist church on Sunday, May 7th. All Christian people are heartily invited.

WILL BE SENTENCED MONDAY.—William Neil, who pleaded guilty last Monday to stealing a horse from Melville Bowne's, of Pontypool, will come up for sentence on Monday.

WORTH SEEING.—Mr. V. J. Carruthers, of the Art Wall Paper Store, has just received and placed in stock 5,000 rolls of Wall Paper, imported from the leading New York manufacturers. The are certainly worth seeing. Inspection invited. 1W

We understand that Mr. R. S. Duncan has assumed the care of Township Councillor Jas. Stanley's orchard, and will demonstrate the way to properly care for the fruit trees. Spraying and other demonstrations will be given from time to time.—Bowmanville Review.

WOULD SHOVE HIM ASIDE.—The Windsor Record pleads that Col. Sam Hughes ought not to be encouraged to go to the Coronation as he "might feel the spirit move him to make a speech just at the time the archbishop is placing the diamond-studded crown on the King's head. The Record undertakes the Colonel's estimate of Mr. Hughes. The archbishop would be lucky if the member for the Haliburton did not shove him aside and do the job himself.—Toronto Star.

SEIZED SHIPMENT OF LIQUOR.—Last Friday Chief of Police Jarvis of Bowmanville made a seizure of a shipment of liquor addressed to a fictitious name. According to the chief there has been considerable traffic under like consideration and an effort is being made to stop it.

BASEBALL DANCE TO-NIGHT.—The big time tonight will be at the dance in the Town Hall under the auspices of the Baseball Club. All arrangements have been made and a most enjoyable time is expected. Fralicks orchestra, a harp and violin, will provide the music. The grand march will start at 8.30. Don't miss this treat.

ARE MAKING GOOD PROGRESS.—The steel gang on the new C. P. R. line are making good progress, and now have the rails laid to Silver Creek, leaving five mile more to complete the line from Coldwater to Orillia. It is expected that the track will be in Orillia by Monday or Tuesday. The line is being graded as the track is laid.—Orillia News-Letter.

A TROUBLESOME MISGIVING

But as her children grew up, Mrs. Warricombe's mind and temper were insensibly modified by influences which operated through her maternal affections, influences no doubt aided by the progressive spirit of the time. The three boys—Buckland, Maurice, and Louis—were distinctly of a new generation. It needed more ingenuity to discover their points of kindred with paternal and maternal grandparents; nor even with father and mother had they much in common which observation could readily detect. Sidwell, up to at least her fifteenth year, seemed to present far less change of type. In her Mrs. Warricombe recognized a daughter, and not without solace. But Fanny again was a problematical nature almost from the cradle. Latest born, she appeared to receive many characteristics of the youthful Buckland, so far as a girl could resemble her brother. It was a strange brood to cluster around Mrs. Warricombe. For many years the mother was kept in a tation between hopes and fears, pride and disapproval, the old hereditary habits of mind, and a new order of ideas which could only be admitted with the utmost slowness. Buckland's Radicalism deeply offended her; she marvelled how such depravity could display itself in a child of hers. Yet in the end her ancestral prejudices so far yielded as to allow of her smiling at sentiments which she once heard with horror. Maurice whom she loved more tenderly, all but taught her to see the cogency of a syllogism—amiably set forth. And Louis with his nature, laughed her into a

PERTH, N.B.

"I am writing this to let you and sufferers from Rheumatism know of the wonderful benefits I have derived from GIN PILLS. For two years, I was an invalid, incapable of work of any kind. For sixteen months, I was unable to move without the assistance of a crutch and cane. I was treated by our best doctors as well as taking treatment from a specialist in Chicago. I did not improve and had about given up hope of ever being well again when a friend advised me to try GIN PILLS. This I did, and with a two months treatment was a well man again. This was four years ago and I have had no return of my trouble since."

I still use a box or two of GIN PILLS a year, just as a preventative and am enabled to go fishing and shooting in the spring and fall, and lie out on the ground at night, without any inconvenience.

GIN PILLS are a wonderful medicine and I take great pleasure in recommending GIN PILLS to all sufferers from Rheumatism, for I have no doubt that if they will persist in the treatment, GIN PILLS will do for them what they have done for me."

tolerance of many things which had moved her indignation. But it was to Sidwell that in the end she owed most. Beneath the surface of ordinary and rather backward girlhood, which discouraged her father's hopes, Sidwell was quietly developing a personality distinguished by the refinement of its ethical motives. Her orthodoxy seemed as unimpeachable as Mrs. Warricombe could desire, yet as she grew into womanhood, a curiosity which in no way disturbed the tenor of her quietly contented life, led her to examine various forms of religion, ancient and modern, and even systems of philosophy which professed to establish a moral code, independent of supernatural faith. She was not of studious disposition that is to say, she had never cared as a schoolgirl to do more mental work than was required of her, and even now it was seldom that she read for more than an hour or two in the day. Her habit was to dip into books, and meditate long on the first points which arrested her thoughts. Of continuous application she seemed incapable. She could read French, but did not attempt to pursue other languages of which her teachers had given her a smattering. It pleased her best when she could learn from conversation. In this way she obtained some insight into her father's favourite sciences, occasionally making suggestions or inquiries which revealed a subtle if not an acute intelligence.

Little by little Mrs. Warricombe found herself changing places with the daughter whom she had regarded as wholly subject to her direction. Sidwell began to exercise an indeterminate control, the proofs of which were at length manifest in details of her mother's speech and demeanour. An exquisite social tact, an unfeigned sincerity of moral judgment, a gentle force which operated as insensibly as the qualities of pure air: these were the points of character to which Mrs. Warricombe owed [the humanisation] observable when one compared her in 1885 with what she was, say, in 1874, when the sight of Professor Walsh moved her to acrimony, and when she conceived a pique against Professor Gale because the letter P has alphabetical precedence of W.

Her limitations were of course the same as ever, and from her sons she had only learned to be ashamed of announcing them too vehemently. Sidwell it was who had led her to that degree of genuine humility which is not satisfied with hiding a fault but strives to amend it.

Martin Warricombe himself was not unaffected by the growth about him of young men and maidens who looked upon the world with new eyes, whose world indeed was another than that in which he had spent the better part of his life. In his case contact with the young generation tended to unsettlement to a troublesome persistency of speculations which he would have preferred to dismiss altogether. At the time of his marriage, and for some years after, he was content to make a broad distinction between these intellectual pursuits which afforded him rather a liberal amusement than the pleasures of earnest study and the questions of metaphysical faith which concerned his heart and conscience. His native prejudices were almost as strong, as much the same as those of his wife; but with the vagueness of emotion natural to his constitution, he satisfied himself that, by conceding a few inessential points he left himself at liberty to follow the scientific movements of the day without damage to his religious convictions.

Infantile Paralysis.

The Secretary of the Iowa State Board of Health declares that infantile paralysis is a malady common among chickens and that through them it is often communicated to children.

Since the disease became prevalent in Iowa various animals have suffered with it, and investigation by experts has proved that the illness was contagious.

Irene Tackman, a little girl living at Garnaville, was recently attacked by the disease and an investigation showed that the chickens on her father's farm lost the use of one leg some time ago. The attending physicians declare that the fowls were afflicted with paralysis, and it is believed that the little Tackman girl contracted this malady from the chickens.

It is also thought that cats convey the germs and the State Board of Health is seriously considering the introduction of a way providing that all persons who keep cats for pets shall lock them up in the house.

CORONATION TOYS

Many Speculators Get Their Money Back with Good Interest

If anybody wants to make some money, now is his time. There are warehouses packed from cellar to roof with toys in readiness for the Coronation, nearly all of them, be it noted in passing, of home manufacture. At the last Coronation the Germans swamped the market with novelties, mementoes, toys, and so forth; but this time they have been forestalled. Now, if anybody can tell which of the toys is certain to "catch on" in June—well, need more be said?

Fortunes have been sunk in Coronation toys; but many speculators will get their money back with liberal interest. Of a certain very popular article of this kind more than two millions have been sold, and the inventor—a poor man—of another toy made $140,000 out of it.

Even "latest novelties"—the penny articles vended by butter-merchants—sometimes yield "big money." One of the most successful was invented by a manufacturer of such things. When he conceived the idea he was so sure it would "go" that he decided not to try it tentatively, but to turn out a large quantity before offering one for sale. So he kept making it till he had a stock of two millions!

He then engaged a few score aliens and had them taught parrot-fashion, several phrases of English. As soon as they were "letter-perfect" out they were sent with absolutely "the latest novelty," which proved, as the manufacturer had confidently anticipated, an enormous success. Incredible as it may seem, it is none the less a fact that in ten days considerably more than a million were sold.

KING GEORGE Signing the oath of office.

CORONATION CORNERS

Famines There Will Be At the Coming Crowning.

The bill for the Coronation robes of George IV. was $100,000. Of this $58,000 fell to the share of the furrier; and we are told that the feet of no fewer than 6,500 Astrachan lambs were required for the black spots on the inside of the robes.

No wonder that every Coronation has seen a famine in furs, for not only Astrachan lamb, but black fox, sable, and, above all, ermine, are required in immense quantities for the robes of those who are privileged to attend the Coronation service in Westminster Abbey.

For months past agents have been busy in Siberia and elsewhere buying up ermine, and the price is already double the ordinary. One hundred and twenty ermine skins are required by each peer for his Coronation cape and collar.

Judging by the Coronation of the late King Edward VII., no other coronation causes such a boom in trade, and lots of things besides furs are going to become scarce and expensive before June.

In 1802 seats were provided for 2,250 people in public stands, and the stands themselves cost $260,000. Every hotel in London will be full from basement to attic, and lodgings will be at a premium. Those who come late will be lucky if they pay less than $25 a night for a bed.

Houses, too, will be scarce. In the year of the Coronation Lord Tweedmouth received $20,000 rent for Brook House just for the season; the Misses Keyser refused $25,000 for their house in Grosvenor Crescent, and a house in Chesham Place brought $75,000 for four months!

To-day motors have largely superseded the horse and carriage, but one almost shudders to think what one will have to pay for a car during Coronation week. Certainly nothing will be procurable under $50 a day, and the prices may run far beyond this.

Ten years ago there was an absolute corner in hands. Certain interested parties retained all the good bands, and people who wanted music had to pay a pretty price.

So, too, with fireworks. The demand for Coronation rockets was simply enormous. All the larger towns spent on an average $4,000 apiece on fireworks, and the private demand was very large. It will be remembered that there were hundreds of Coronation bonfires, and at each fifty rockets were sent up.

The bonfires recall the fact that tar-barrels were not to be had for love or money for some days before the last Coronation. They were all absorbed by early buyers.

Blaley Team at Coronation. The Canadian Blaley team will arrive in England in time for the Coronation. Arrangements at the meeting of the D. R. A. Council will be made to give the riflemen a chance to see this great ceremony. Since this takes place on June 22nd, the team will sail about the 10th of that month from Montreal. The Blaley matches start early in July.

New York Banker Proposes Check to Hostile Nations.

A "FINANCIAL NEUTRALITY"

James Speyer of the Great International Banking House Says Powers Should Prevent Their Financiers From Lending Money to Combatant Countries and Force Them to Keep the Peace.

Baltimore, May 5.—"Financial neutrality" as a preventive of war between nations was the interesting suggestion offered at the third national peace congress here yesterday, by Jas. Speyer, of the New York and European banking house of Speyer & Co. Mr. Speyer spoke as a delegate from the Chamber of Commerce of the State of New York. He followed Assistant Secretary of State Huntington Wilson, presiding officer of the forenoon session, who gave his interpretation of what has been called "dollar diplomacy," the newly coined phrase applied to the expansion of business interest. This term, according to Mr. Wilson, means the substitution of dollars for bullets; the creation of a prosperity which will be preferred to predatory strife, and "a practical mode of pursuing the ideal of world peace."

Mr. Speyer, who spoke on "International Finance as a Power for Peace," dealt first with the influence of international investments in times of peace. Taking up the question of what should and could be done in time of war by first-class powers, he said we find to day in Europe that in times of peace certain Governments will not allow their bankers to take and place foreign loans in the home market, unless the purposes for which the loan is to be used are known and approved, and at least part of the proceeds are used by the borrowing nation for expenditures in such home markets for the benefit of the loaning nation.

"Now," said Mr. Speyer, "if such supervision and control of the bankers already exists in time of peace, it does not seem a wide flight of imagination to suggest that the great powers might agree to exercise such control in times of war between third parties, and to maintain, in future, what for want of a better term, might be called 'financial neutrality.'" In case two nations went to war without first submitting their grievances and differences to arbitration or judicial settlement at The Hague, why should the other neutral powers not bind themselves not to assist either of the belligerents financially, but to see to it that real neutrality was observed by their banks and bankers. There is little doubt that this could be done. If no financial assistance could be obtained from the outside, few nations would, in the face of this most effective neutrality of the other powers, incur the peril of bankruptcy. Some would, certainly last a much shorter time."

Attack Free List.

Washington, May 5.—Not since the Republican guns were unlimbered against the Democrat free list bill by Minority Leader Mann, over a week ago, has the debate in the House developed such an attack on the measure as was made yesterday by Representative Hill of Connecticut, a Republican member of the ways and means committee, one of the leading Republican advocates of the Canadian reciprocity bill. He declared that instead of $10,000,000 reduction in revenue, as the Democrats expected, the "farmers' free list" might make a reduction of $50,000,000, and that its effect upon business would be to transfer many flourishing industries to Europe.

"You intend to hit the trusts," said Mr. Hill to the Democrats; "you will wake up to find that you have in fact helped the trusts."

Want Farmers to Protest.

Concord, N.H., May 5.—Farmers throughout the country are urged to send representatives to Washington to attend the hearings before the Senate committee on finance on the Canadian reciprocity, beginning week of May 8. Mr. Bachelier's communication says: "The farmers are practically unanimous in opposing what they consider a most unfair discrimination against their interests and if they make their wishes known to their Senators, the reciprocity bill cannot become a law. Delegations of farmers from at least fifteen states granges will attend the hearings to present the views of their members on this important question."

Struck by a Train.

Hamilton, May 5.—Mrs. Nichols, 29 Summit street, was perhaps fatally injured about nine o'clock yesterday morning by being struck by a G.T.R. passenger train at the Wentworth street level crossing. It is supposed that Mrs. Nichol, who is an elderly woman, failed to hear the train as it approached the crossing. The unfortunate woman had both legs broken and two ribs fractured, besides sustaining numerous cuts and bruises. Her recovery is doubtful.

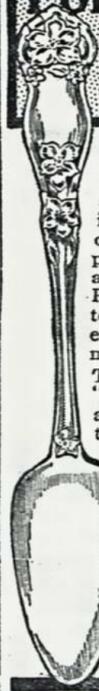

Sold Whisky in Hay Loft.

Galt, May 5.—George Grey, a porter in a local hotel, was fined $100 yesterday for selling liquor in a local option district. He bought supplies in Preston and hid them in a hay-loft. He sold only to farmers and outsiders and was doing a good business. Chief Gorman found about one and a half gallons of Scotch whisky in the hayloft.

Strike in Kingston.

Kingston, May 5.—The strike of the mason helpers is not yet settled. Seventy-five men are out. The bosses declare they will not pay the increase. The masons and stonecutters have been unable to settle their trouble over who shall cut corners and work is being delayed.

Atherly License Is Cut Off.

Hon. J. Hanna, under the amendment to the License Act, made at last session of the Legislature, giving the power to veto licenses anywhere in the Province, has vetoed the license of the hotel of Charles Healy at Atherly.

The License Commissioners of North Ontario voted that the hotel again receive a license, in spite of the strong opposition against it.

Orillia has long objected to this license, which is just across the narrows of Lake Couchiching and on the borders of the town. Its presence there practically makes local option a dead letter in Orillia.

Despite the strong opposition that has been continually manifested and despite the fact that the license was suspended last year for a time by the Courts as a result of selling to an already intoxicated person, and who was found dead, the license was renewed by the Commissioners last week. But the Provincial Secretary promptly used the blue pencil.

Friends of the licenseholder were in Orillia the other day seeking relief from the Minister's curt action, but as there is no appeal from it they will likely get little help.

RECESS IS LIKELY

Liberal Caucus To-day Will Discuss Adjournment.

THE RAILWAY SUBSIDY BILL

Hon. Mr. Graham Introduces Important Amendments to the Railway Act by Which Money Advanced to a Road In Time of Distress Will Become a Lien on Property—Also Several New Clauses.

Ottawa, May 5.—The Liberals will meet in caucus to-day to consider the question of a short adjournment of Parliament at the end of the month, until the Premier's return in July from the Imperial Conference and the coronation. Although a considerable number of the party are in favor of continuing the session without any recess until all the business before Parliament is concluded, it is probable that the decision will be in favor of an adjournment during June and part of July, especially in view of the fact that this will allow the Parliamentary delegation of eighteen, who have been officially invited to attend the coronation ceremonies, to get away. Moreover, according to advices received here, it is regarded as improbable that the American Senate will finally ratify the agreement before July, and the adjournment therefore, under the circumstances, would probably not make any very material difference.

At 10.30 last night Sir Wilfrid Laurier visited R. L. Borden in his office in the Parliament Buildings.

He remained with the Opposition leader for about twenty minutes, and informed him that he had definitely accepted this one of the suggestions which Mr. Borden made in the House last week.

While it is true that there is great diversity of opinion as to the course which he should pursue, it is also certain that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has made up his mind definitely on the subject.

There are several details to be arranged, such as the passing of supply sufficient to carry on the work of the Government during the period of adjournment, but this will be done later.

Hon. Mr. Graham, Minister of Railways, explained to the Commons yesterday the provisions of his bill to amend the Railway Act.

The most important and radical change contemplated is one which provides that when a railway becomes dilapidated and unsafe for traffic, the Government subsidy given that railway can be regarded as a lien on the road, coming in even before a first mortgage, and the Government can sell out the company under this provision and put the road in safe condition. Mr. Graham explained that this provision might seldom, if ever, be exercised, but it was well to have some provision whereby the Government could compel an unsafe road to put its right of way and rolling stock in proper condition. To Mr. Northrup, Mr. Graham explained that this provision would be retroactive and include all roads which had received Government subsidies in the past, as well as all still to receive subsidies.

Among the other clauses were those providing that telephone, telegraph and express companies should report annually to the Government, just as railways do; providing for the appointment of forest fire patrols and apparatus preventing railways setting forests on fire; providing that railway lands not used for actual railway purposes may be expropriated the same as any other lands, providing that railways under construction must be fenced unless excused by the Railway Commission; the present law being that the railways need not fence unless the commission so orders; providing damages to owners of land by a highway down which a railway is allowed to run; providing for annual reports of accidents, as well as reports at any other time the Minister may request.

The bill also contains a provision abolishing the law that cattle must not be allowed to run in unfenced land within a half mile of railway; this was for the benefit of stock-raisers in the west where there are great stretches of unfenced lands. Mr. Graham explained, but he looked to local and provincial regulations to protect the farmers of that province.

Two Drowned. Halifax, May 5.—Two brothers, Jos. and Bernard Duggan, aged 35 and 17, of Upper Prospect, lost their lives off Prospect Wednesday. They left their home in an auxiliary boat to attend to their trawls. The men did not return and a small steamer which arrived at Prospect at evening reported having seen an upturned boat and a man's cap floating on the surface of the water in the vicinity of the place where the Duggan brothers were last seen before a heavy squall came on.

His Skull Fractured. Cobourg, May 5.—A sad fatality occurred in Hamilton Township late yesterday afternoon, when a young man named Roland Lonsberry undertook to go down a hill, having completed his work in the field, with a team of horses hitched to a field roller. The horses became unmanageable and he was thrown off, fracturing his skull and dying almost instantly. The young man's father resides at Warsaw.

Hurt In Runaway. Woodstock, May 5.—William Smith, county road superintendent and well-known in municipal circles in Ontario, was seriously hurt yesterday afternoon in a runaway accident. He was thrown out of the rig and sustained numerous bruises on the head and arms.

Found Dead. Ingersoll, May 5.—Mrs. James Levens was found dead on the floor of her home at six o'clock last evening by her husband on his return from work. Heart failure was the cause.

KILLS CRAZY ITALIAN. Westerner Shoots Down a Demented Foreigner.

Nanton, Alta., May 5.—Wednesday afternoon a demented Italian was shot and instantly killed about sixteen miles east of Nanton by William Carrigan, a settler in that district. Carrigan has given himself up. According to witnesses, the tragedy was the result of an accident. The Italian, whose name is at present unknown, and who body lay all night and part of yesterday on the prairie, where he was shot, became violently deranged and attempted to attack some women living near. He armed himself with a razor, and endeavored to pull three women from a passing rig, his evident intention being to cut their throats, for he tried to reach them with the weapon. The women gave the alarm, and a half dozen men went in pursuit of the crazy foreigner, three on horseback and three in a buggy. Their intention was to catch and bind him. When they came in sight of the Italian he was chasing Mrs. Colerick, wife of a settler. Mrs. Colerick's husband is working in Calgary at present and she was alone.

When the Italian saw the pursuing men he turned to meet them. They stopped their horses when they came up to him, and he reached for the head of the horse that was drawing the rig. He was waving a razor, and in the bright sunlight it flashed like a revolver. The men in the rig thought it was a revolver, and Carrigan was evidently nervous, for the gun exploded; but the Italian was not hit.

Carrigan lowered his rifle and it went off again. Carrigan thought he had hit one of his friends, but when he looked the Italian was down, shot through the mouth. Death was instantaneous.

Mob Threw Coal Overboard. Seattle, Wn., May 5.—Private cable advices received last night from Cordova, Alaska, report a mob boarded an Alaska Steamship Co.'s vessel when it arrived with a cargo of Canadian coal and began dumping the coal overboard.

The action of the mob is said to be the result of agitation against the importation of foreign fuel. It is asserted that the steamship company has appealed to President Taft to send troops to suppress rioting.

Several days ago agitators began urging the formation of a mob to emulate the "Boston Tea Party" of colonial days.

The trouble started as soon as it was announced that the Supreme Court would not take up until October the judgment quashing the suits against the English coal syndicate.

STATE INSURANCE

Lloyd-George Introduces Long Promised Measure.

FIGHT TUBERCULOSIS, TOO

Government Pays Four Cents and Employer Eight Cents a Week For Each Man to Assure Him Five Shillings a Week During Incapacity—Unionists Want to Co-operate In the Proposed Legislation.

London, May 5.—David Lloyd-George, in the House of Commons yesterday, introduced the long-promised plan of state insurance against unemployment, sickness and invalidity.

Every worker whose annual earnings fall below the income tax level of £100 (approximately $500) will be compulsorily insured against illness, so as to assure him the receipt of five shillings per week during his incapacity. Toward this the worker would contribute about one-half, the same being deducted from his wages, while the balance would be paid jointly by his employers and the state.

The weekly assessment against the insured would be eight cents in the case of a man and six cents for a woman.

Every one in the class mentioned between the ages of 16 and 65 is included in the plan. The employers would pay six cents weekly for every employe and the Government contributes four cents for each of the insured.

Lloyd-George estimated that his plan would affect 14,700,000 men and women. Provision is made whereby women will receive 30 shillings in maternity cases on condition that they do not work for a month following child-birth, and for free medical attendance for every contributor.

The state would also help in the crusade against consumption providing $7,500,000 to aid local authorities in building sanitariums and $5,000,000 towards their maintenance.

Although in cases of permanent disability the sick allowance would be five shillings weekly, ten shillings would be allowed for the first three months in the case of men and seven shillings and sixpence in the case of women.

Those who can be shown to have incurred incapacity would receive no insurance, though any necessary medical treatment would be provided.

Lloyd-George estimated that the expenditure incurred would be $35,000,000 in 1912-13, rising to $100,000,000 in 1915-16.

Dealing with the unemployed insurance, the Chancellor said that it would at first apply only to the engineering, shipbuilding and house-building trades, involving 2,500,000 workers. Both the workers and the employers would pay five cents weekly each, the state contributing $3,750,000 a year, or about one-fourth of the total cost. The contributors, when unemployed, would receive a maximum of 15 shillings and a minimum of seven shillings weekly. No payments would be made in the case of strikes or lockouts.

J. Austen Chamberlain supported the bill, saying that the Opposition desired to co-operate in the legislation.

CARLING IS ILL.

Sir John Is Not Expected to Live Many Days.

London, May 5.—Sir John Carling, Minister of Agriculture in Sir John Macdonald's Government, and head of the big brewing firm of this city, was overcome by a sinking spell yesterday morning and is not expected to recover. The family have been summoned to the bedside. Sir John had been around as usual until a few days ago.

Last night Dr. Eccles, who has worked with the patient all day, announced that he is stronger. Yet neither the physician nor the members of the family are sanguine. "Sir John is over 83 years old, you know," said the doctor. "He is living on borrowed time. We hope he will rally, but we cannot feel any degree of certainty."

McLetchie Goes to Ireland. Toronto, May 5.—When Herbert McLetchie was arraigned in the assizes yesterday, the jury having disagreed as to his guilt of the killing of Edward Jacobs, by running him down on Bloor street, with his employer's automobile, he was remanded to jail. He will be admitted to bail in his own surety of $1,000, when the crown is assured that he is about to go back to his home in Ireland. There are still charges of wounding and furious driving standing against him in the Police Court.

Crossing Protection. Newcastle, May 5.—The clerk of Hope Township has received word from the Board of Railway Commissioners that they have instructed the G.T.R. to install an electric bell on the gravel road crossing between Garden Hill and Millbrook. The Government is to pay 20 per cent. of the cost of installation, and the railway got down to fasten the hearse door, the horses started before he could regain his seat and ran all the way to town, about two miles. The hearse was badly damaged.

Restored Higher Rates. Duluth, Minn., May 5.—Passenger fares generally in Minnesota will be three cents a mile on and after July 1, this year, according to information obtained yesterday. On that date also, class freight rates will be restored to the basis existing before the order of the railroad and warehouse commission on Sept. 6, 1906, reduced them 20 to 25 per cent.

M.P.'s In Hospital. Ottawa, May 5.—A. C. Boyce, Conservative member for West Algoma, and Dr. Cash, Liberal member for Mackenzie, are both confined to the hospital. Mr. Boyce has bronchitis, while Dr. Cash is also suffering from an illness brought on by a cold.

AIRSHIP WRECKED. British Army Dirigible Is Ruined at Barrow.

London, May 5.—The Government has had the worst of luck with its dirigible airships. The Lebaudy dirigible, which was damaged while being put into its shed at Aldershot after a successful flight from Paris last summer, was totally wrecked at Farnborough on its first trial trip yesterday. A great naval airship, the construction of which has been surrounded by secrecy, and which was planned to take a spectacular part in the coronation naval review, was so badly damaged at Barrow Wednesday, that it cannot be taken out for months. The Lebaudy met disaster against a clump of trees and is a mass of ruins. Major Sir A. Bannerman, commander of the air battalion at South Farnborough, and head of the Government's aeronauts, took the airship out of her shed last evening with a crew of seven. The Lebaudy ascended gracefully and traveled smoothly for some time. Finally the airship began to descend, and drifting almost helplessly, struck the trees. There was a great cracking and rending, and the bag exploded with a loud report. One of the crew was badly injured.

The Lebaudy was 337 feet long, and the naval airship 510 feet. The Clement-Bayard, 300 feet, which also sailed to England from France, is the only dirigible belonging to the Government which remains intact. This craft has not been tried since her arrival last fall.

Panic-Stricken at Small Fire.

New York, May 5.—Six hundred and fifty girls, employed in two shirt waist factories at 543 Broadway, in the downtown district, rushed screaming for the stairs from the third and fourth floor, late yesterday afternoon at sight of a trifling awning fire below them. The congestion between floors became terrific, and a hand rail snapped, and thirty or more girls fell in a shrieking heap in a hallway below. Fourteen of them were injured, but none fatally, and only three were taken to hospitals.

Sandbagged and Robbed.

Montreal, May 5.—G. E. Smart, accountant in the offices of the harbor commissioners' office, was found dragged and stunned in the hall of the building yesterday morning. Thugs sandbagged and robbed him on the harbor front on his way home from work Wednesday evening and got away with a fine gold watch and some $30 in bills. Mr. Smart came to in a lane near the commissioners' office early yesterday morning and was just able to struggle to the offices, where he collapsed again.

Tuberculosis In Montreal.

Montreal, May 5.—The alarming spread of tuberculosis in Montreal was made the subject of a report to the Board of Control yesterday by Dr. J. E. Labarge. The doctor states that 64 per cent. of the deaths registered are from tuberculosis in the city at present.

Steamer and Schooner In Collision.
