CHRISTMAS HYMN,

BY BEV. E. H. SEARS, OF WAYLAND.

The following hymn was referred to, by Dr. Oliver W. Holmes, in a lecture before the Lowell Institute, in Boston, on Religious Poetry; placing it by the side of Heber's "Palestine' and as equal in beauty to almost any religious poem ever written.

"And suddenly there was with the angels a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God. and saying. "Glory to God in the highest, and on Between Cobourg, Port Hope and Toronto. earth peace, good will toward men."-LUXE II.-LEAVING COBOURG Every Morning, (Sandays' excepted,) at 8 o'clock, and PORT HOPE at 9, and arriving at Terento 13c.-14v.

Caim on the listening ear of might Come heaven's melodious strains, Where wild Judea stretches far Her silver-mantled plains ; Celestial choirs from courts above Shed sacred glories there, And speaking with their spatkling lyres Make music on the air.

The answering hills of Palestine, Send back the glad reply, And greet from all their holy heights

The Day-spring from on high; O'er the blue depths of Galillee

These comes a holier calm, And Sharon waves, in soletin praise, Her silent groves of palm.

'Glory to God !' - The lotty strain The realms of einer fills ; How sweet the song of solemn yoy O'er Judah's szcred hills ! 'Glory to God !' The sounding skies Lood with their anthems mig ; "Peace to the earth, good will to men, From heaven's Eternal King !"

Light on thy hills. Jeru salem ! The Savjour now is born!

And bright on Bethlehem's joyous plains Breaks the first Christmas morn.

Morian lifts her radiant brow, And graise is vocal there ;

And sunny palm-leaved Olivet Sends up her morning prayer.

This day shall Christian tongues be mute ! And Christian hearts be cold ! Oh, catch the anthem, that from Heaven,

O'er Jodah's monthams rolled, When nightly bursts from seraph harrs, That high and glatious lay-ence, on the ground of neutrality, should nevertheless in open day supply our ene my with all the materials of war anwith money to buy them. But a cuases belli and a just grievance are two differ ent things. The former is a state of af fairs under which it becomes meanness not to declare war. We cannot say the position of Prussia imposes upon us th choice between war and dishonor; buy this we do say, that if we could afford to add Prassia to the side of the enemy. we should be quite justified in requiring Prussia to desist from helping that ene my, and, in, the event of her obstinacy. declaring war against her, and blockading her Baltic parts.

ast two weeks, that Port Hope was "sus- | him by his flassil' opponents. At the close ended by a thread between the position of a | of the Poll it stood : great city, and an inferior town." If we call rightly judge by the lengthened visares of our citizens for such length of time, we must believe that they were in deadly fear, lest the "brittle thread" which connected as with the future great commercial and manufacturing city; was in danger of being severed. To-day, each face, if not wreathed in smiles, is curtailed of the proportions it assumed a week ago, to the extent of at least an inch'in length of visage. Citizen greets citizen, without distinction of social rank, with a more than usual warmth. The merchant is indulging in pleasant day dreams of the foture. His retail business is closed up ;

and his thousand imaginary advertisements (for he will advertise more extensively then thian now) read, "John Doe, WHOLESALE Merchant, respectfully announces to western and northern merchants, that, &c., &c." Ah! yes, fellow citizens, we have all come forth from the vales of despicedency, and now each one mounted on his Pegasus is traversing airy realms .-Why has soch a "change come over the spirit of our dream ?" The Grand Trunk has concluded not to be so foolish as to pass us by on the other side, but to go through our beautifal town according to original intention ! The public installation of officers of No 37 Sons of Temperance, on Friday the 11th inst., was really a splendid affair. The Hall was densely crowded with the beauty, fashion and intelligence of our Town, to witness the somewhat imposing ceremonies. After the ceremony of installation was concluded, addresses were delivered by the Grand Worthy Patriarch of the Order in Canada, and other zealous advocates of the Temperance movement. Arcellent singing, accompanied by A Hollan V. Sanders, kindiv consented to a sist the members of the order in the musical exercises of the evening. A vote of thanks to them was moved by Mr. George Healy. The meeting was of the most respectable and satisfactory character, and cannot but add increased dignity or " tance to the great grant - us the day.

We have frequently been told during the | youth-which was an argument used against tion in the same street, the same head tos ing,"and the same flashing dress, lifted far, far above the same little feet, fluttering along the side-walk.

- "O wad some power the gulie gie us
- To see oursels as others see us ! It wad trae monie a blunder free us

And forfish notion : What airs in dress an' gait wad lea'e us !'

Well we venture to say that all the young ladies of Port Hope have seen or heard of Miss --'s new bonnet ; that the envy of half of them has been excited : and that a few at least, are miserable on account of it. For not in Babylon the Less only, is there a Mrs. Capt Bowline, with her Cashmere' her inferior China silk dress ; these characters are denizens of every city and village in Christendom. But what an exhibition of show a new bonnet or a new dress ! Nor is i ner. it any the less foolish to allow one's envy to be raised when witnessing such folly. Worth lies not in the garments or in any octward display : wisdom may be clad in rags, as addle-brained people are in silks .-Hone-t tidiness is much more beautiful than vice and pride in gaudy attire.

"What though on hamely fare we dine, Wear hoddin' grey, and a' that ;

Gire tools their silks, and knaves their wine, A man's a man for a' that-For a' that and a' that

Their finsel show and a' that ;

The honest man, though e'er so poor. Is king o' men for a' that"

Port Hope, with its city-like air, and its many charming suburban cottages and inviting -ises, is a tempting place for business men and the lovers of the umbrageous and sequestered walk. Hence we are not surprised at its rapid growth, and the increase of its charms. Nature has done a great deal tary and naval manufactories work incessantfor the place; art has only to try her skill. and Port Hope will rival any city on the northern shore of Lake Ontario.

Public Meeting in HaldImand

In compliance with the requisition of a number of the inhabitants of Haldimand. John Wilson, Esq., Reeve, called a public meeting of the electors of that Township in Grafton on Saturday 29th ult., for the purpose of farther considering the object of the Counties Council in loaning the Clergy Reserves fund to the towns of Cobourg and Port Hope" The proceedings of the meeting have been sent to us for publication, and will be found below.

The Reeve having called the meeting to order, read the requisition, and briefly stated the object of the meeting.

John, R. Clark, Esq., was called to the chair.

A resolution (which was surreptitiously removed from the Chairman's desk) was moved by J. M. Campbell, and seconded by C. H. Vernon, having for its object the approval of the caurse taken by the Counties Council at its last sitting, in reference to the disposal of the Ciergy Beserves Fand, beionging to hese Counties .- Lost;

It was then moved in amen iment by John Fisher, and seconded by William Taylor :

That the thanks of this meeting be given to John Wilson, Esq., Reeve af this Township and this meeting considers that, under the circumstances, he voted for the best resolved of this Township. Appress its disapproval that this Philis motion to loan the anticipated Clergy Reserve Fund was introduced into the Counties Council, being, in their opinion; uniss, and made for the purpose of advancing

Gen. Gortschakoff, it is said, will be replaced in the Crimea by General Ostensacken.

The allied gun-boats which remained at Kinburn had been frozen in, and all efforts to release them have hitherto been fruitless. It is rumored, but not confirmed, that Pelissier is appointed the commander of the allied army, and Admral Lyon of the Allied fleets of the East.

Soires at their Engine House on Walton St., The members of this efficient company rendered themselves more popular than ever, with our citizeus, by the courteous and handsome manner in which they, received and treated their goests. Several rows of tables running the entire length of the Engine

House were bountifully covered with creature comforts tempting enough to make an anchorite forget his vow. The upper story was fitted up for a dancing hall. The room presented a gay and animated scene about 9 o'clock. Firemen, in their blue and red uniforms, and ladies in colors varied as the hues of the rainbow glided hither and thither in the mazes of the dance. All seemed to enjoy themselves, and to have adopted as their motto

"On with the dance I let joy be unconfined; No sleep till more, when Youth and Pleasure To chase the glowing hours with flying feet."

DEATH OF THE POET ROGERS .- The London correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser, under date Dec. 18, writes as follows :

The death has been announced this morning of the poet Rogers. He was in the 93d year of his age, and had passed a life of more than ordinary smoothness and prosperiiv. His fame was established in early youth by his Pleasures of memory, while his position as head of the banking firm of Rogers, Toogood & Co.; gave him all the means for the quiet exercise of his refined tastes.

Within the last ten years, two circumstan- ijoin the Alliance. Sweden has. res threatened him with pain and disaster, [but he escaped them both.
